INSIDE THE MATCHUP

- SEC FOR THE ONLY TIME: Troy's meeting with Arkansas to open the month of December will mark the only time in the regular season that the Trojans will face a team from the Southeastern Conference. The Trojans had planned on facing only one SEC foe last season and defeated Mississippi State in Starkville. However, Troy would fall to Alabama in the first round of the WNIT at the end of the season.
- RECORD AGAINST THE SOUTH The Trojans have a program record of 3-49 against opponents from the SEC. The contest at Bud Walton Arena will be the first time that the two women's basketball programs from Troy and Arkansas will meet.
- CHELSEA DUNGEE RETURNS: A hometown legend will return to northwest Arkansas on Thursday as Chelsea Dungee will make her way back to Bud Walton Arena. During her career at Arkansas, she cemented herself as the program's leading scorer.

FAST BREAK POINTS

- UNCOMMON ENEMY: The Trojans are used to facing a team for the first time ever. This season, Troy has played four teams for the first time in program history. UCLA, San Francisco, BYU, and Washington State were all firsts for Troy, while Arkansas will mark the fifth time.
- ALMOST HOME: In their longest season-opening road trip since the 1982 season, the Trojans will wrap up their seven-game road swing on Thursday against Arkansas. The trip saw Troy play in Alabama, Tennessee, California, Hawaii, and Arkansas before returning home to Trojan Arena on December 7 against Tulane.
- TWO PLAYERS GARNER PRESEASON SBC HONORS: The Trojans were well-represented in the preseason release for the Sun Belt Conference. In addition to being picked first by the coaches in the poll, senior forward Felmas Koranga and newcomer Jashanti Simmons earned first and third team honors respectively. Koranga also captured preseason Sun Belt Conference Player of The Year recognition and was picked by ESPN to win the SBC Player of The Year crown.
- AFRICAN CONNECTION: The duo of Felmas Koranga and Jamila Nansikombi-Gunter is scheduled to make its debut on Thursday in Fayetteville. Koranga made history as the first female-born basketball from Kenya player to play NCAA DI when she made he Troy debut two years ago. Nansikombi-Gunter's homeland, Uganda, shares a border with Kenya.

HOLLINGS HAS CAREER GAME

One of the few returners on the 2022-23 roster, Ja'Mia Hollings broke out in her last game against Washington State to wrap up the North Shore Showcase. The junior forward netted a career-high 27 points against the Cougars. Hollings was also able to grab seven rebounds against the PAC 12 Conference opponent.

HALLMON BECOMES TEAM POINTS LEADER

The title of leading scorer for the Trojans has been shared predominantly by Tai'Sheka Porchia and Makayia Hallmon. In her last contest against Washington State, Hallmon was able to take the advantage over her fellow newcomer. The Louisiana transfer exploded for 22 points in the effort against Washington State and is now averaging 11.3 points per game.

DUNGEE RETURNS

New assistant coach Chelsea Dungee returns to Arkansas for the first time since becoming the Razorback's all-time leading scorer. In addition to earning AP Third Team All-American honors her senior season, Dungee was also dubbed a WBCA All-American, USBWA Third Team All-American and an All-SEC First Team selection.

A TOUGH ROAD TEST

The Trojans will have their hands full in their next contest against Arkansas. One of the nation's lone undefeated teams, the Razorbacks have won their first eight games. Arkansas recently swept the Paradise Jam, defeating Northern Arizona 82-73, Clemson 76-62, and #25 Kansas State 69-53. At Bud Walton Arena this season, Arkansas has defeated Central Arkansas, Tulsa, and Kent State.

THE END IS IN SIGHT

Troy will finally wrap up its long road trip. The seven-game road leg began on opening night at Samford in Birmingham, Alabama on November 7. With trips through almost every time zone in America, the Trojans will conclude road play for the time being on Thursday against Arkansas before returning to the friendly confines of Trojan Arena on December 7.

TROJANS GAME NOTES

HEAD COACH CHANDA RIGBY

Troy & NCAA Record: 195-121 (11th Season)

Entering her 11th season at Troy in 2022-23, Chanda Rigby has built the Trojans into the premier program in the Sun Belt Conference, winning FIVE championships in seven years.

Since taking over the program in 2012, Rigby has made Troy a perennial championship, and NCAA Tournament, contender.

Rigby's impressive resume includes seven 20+ win seasons, three Sun Belt Tournament Championships, two Sun Belt Regular Season Title, three trips to the NCAA Tournament, six postseason appearances, 20 all-conference selections, five Sun Belt Post Season Award winners, a Sun Belt Player of the Year honoree and a Sun Belt Coach of the Year honor.

Over the last three seasons, the Troy Women's Basketball team has tallied the most wins of any Sun Belt men's or women's basketball team. Over the last three seasons, the Troy Women's Basketball team has tallied the most wins of any Sun Belt men's or women's basketball team.

Rigby and the Trojans returned from the heartbreaking loss at Texas A&M in the 2021 NCAA Tournament looking for vengeance. Troy capped off non conference action by sweeping the Mississippi State MTE. The Trojans downed host Mississippi State, the eventual SWAC champions Jackson State and South Carolina State to start off conference play with momentum.

That momentum carried Rigby's Trojans to three short-handed wins to open conference play. Due to COVID-19 protocols, Troy had to battle through three games with as few as eight players to start conference play a perfect 3-0.

The Troy Women's Basketball squad took claim to the Sun Belt Regular Season Championship after downing Appalachian State in convincing fashion, 89-56, in the final weekend of the regular season.

Felmas Koranga and Amber Leggett both earned All-Sun Belt honors after Koranga was selected to the first team and Leggett to the third team. The Nakuru, Kenya native picked up her second straight First Team All-Sun Belt honor after leading the league in rebounding. The junior also ranked 10th nationally with 354 boards on the season. Leggett earned her first nod from the Sun Belt Conference, being tabbed a Third Team All-Sun Belt selection in her first season with the Trojans. The Navarre, Fla., native ranked second on the team and 15th in the league, averaging 11.8 points per game. Leggett also backed up Koranga on the glass, ranking second on the team and 10th in the league with 7.1 boards per game.

The Trojans punched their second straight trip to the Sun Belt

Tournament Championship. Despite the loss to UT Arlington, Troy earned an automatic bid to the WNIT, where the Trojans played host to Alabama.

The squad finished the season ranked first nationally in defensive rebounds, free throws made, offensive rebounds and rebounds per game. The team also ranked second in rebounds and sixth in scoring.

The 2020-21 season was another one for the record books for Rigby. She led her program to its third NCAA Tournament appearance, the program's third Sun Belt Tournament Championship and sixth 20+ win season. She was honored by the League's head coaches and media members for the first time as she was named the Sun Belt Conference Coach of the Year.

The individual awards didn't stop with Rigby though. She guided Alexis Dye to the Sun Belt Player of the Year award, the first player of the year honoree in program history, and Felmas Koranga to Newcomer of the Year honors. Under the leadership of Rigby, Dye was named a First Team All-Sun Belt performer, Koranga and Jasmine Robinson were second team honorees and Tiyah Johnson was a third team member. Troy's four All-Sun Belt performers were the most in a single season in program history and the most in the Sun Belt since 1998.

Statistically, the 2020-21 season was one of the best in Rigby's career. Troy ranked third in the NCAA in scoring offense at 86.0 ppg (the highest total of her career), first in rebounds (52.1) and defensive rebounds per game (32.8), first in both free throws made (477) and attempted (653), second in total rebounds (1,458) and offensive rebounds per game (19.3), fifth in total steals (291) and 12th in total assists (471). Troy made national headlines in the NCAA Tournament against No. 2 seed Texas A&M when the Trojans almost earned the first win for a 15 seed in NCAA Tournament history, erasing a 16-point deficit to lead the Aggies late in the fourth quarter before narrowly falling by just four points. Troy's 80-points scored was the third-most points scored by a 15 seed in tournament history.

Troy put together its most successful season in program history during the 2019-20 campaign. Rigby led Troy to a program-record 25 victories and the program's first-ever Sun Belt Regular Season Championship after posting a 16-2 conference record. Although the season was cut short due to COVID-19, the Trojans earned the No. 1 seed in the SBC Tournament. Rigby guided three players to all-conference honors, the most honorees in a single season in program history. In December Troy earned its highest RPI rating in program history (36) before ending the season with an RPI of 44, the highest in the SBC. Under Rigby's leadership, the Trojans led the NCAA in total rebounds (1,595), rebounding margin (+15.4), rebounds per game (55.0), offensive rebounds per game (22.2) and defensive boards per game (32.8).

In 2018-19, the Trojans earned their first-ever invitation to the WNIT. Rigby guided Sky'Lynn Holmes to the SBC Defensive Player of the Year, the first such award as SBC members. Holmes was also named to the All-Sun Belt Second Team. Once again, Rigby's squad was one of the best offensive teams in the country, averaging 82.3 points per game average and a +10.3 rebound margin, finishing fifth-best in the NCAA in both stats. The Trojans finished first nationally in offensive rebounds and first in the country in rebounds per game at 50.48.

In 2017-18 Rigby's Trojans finished 18-13 overall after the departure of seven seniors from the previous season. The Trojans led the Sun Belt in scoring (81.9) and the NCAA in rebounding (49.5) joining Baylor as the only schools in the nation to lead its conference in both categories in each of the last six seasons. Sophomores Amber Rivers and Kayla Robinson earned Second Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors while junior Sky'Lynn Holmes was named Sun Belt Newcomer of the Year.

Troy won its second consecutive Sun Belt Conference Tournament championship in 2016-17 earning a second straight bid to the NCAA Tournament. Forward Caitlyn Ramirez was named first team All-Sun Belt Conference and SBC Tournament MVP. For the fifth straight season, the Trojans led the league in scoring and finished top 10 in the nation with 82.5 points per game. Troy was second in the NCAA with 50.15 rebounds per game including an 86-rebound performance against Arkansas State in the Sun Belt Conference Tournament quarterfinals, the second-most in NCAA history.

In 2015-16, the Trojans finished 20-13, won the Sun Belt Conference Tournament and qualified for the NCAA Tournament for just the second time in program history. Ashley Beverly Kelley was named First Team All-Sun Belt Conference and SBC Tournament MVP.

Caitlyn Ramirez took home third team All-Sun Belt honors as well. Rigby's squad led the conference in scoring for the fourth consecutive season.

Troy's 2014-15 team won 20 games for just the fourth time in program history and made the second postseason appearance in program history and making a WBI Tournament appearance, their first postseason tournament since 1997. Ashley Beverly Kelley and Ronita Garrett were both named to the All-Sun Belt First Team, giving Troy two first team selections for the first time in over a decade.

In 2013-14, Rigby coached her first, First Team All-Sun Belt performer when Joanna Harden became the first All-Sun Belt First Team member under Rigby when she led the Sun Belt in scoring at 25.1 points per game. Harden finished seventh in the NCAA in scoring, was a finalist for the Nancy Lieberman Award given to the nation's top point guard. During the year Troy averaged 80.4 points per game and became just the second Sun Belt team since 2000 to average over 80.0 points per game.

In Rigby's first season at the helm in 2012-13, Troy won seven games, a five-win improvement from the year before and tying the total number of wins Troy won over the previous two seasons combined. It was also Troy's first season playing its home games in the newly constructed Trojan Arena.

Before taking over the Trojan program in 2012-13, Rigby spent 12 years at the junior college level. She spent seven seasons at Pensacola State where she coached three WBCA All-Americans as well as one McDonald's All-American and four NJCAA All-Americans. She guided the Pirates to a combined 64-6 record over the last two seasons with two trips to the National Junior College Athletic Association (NJCAA) Final Four and earned two third-place finishes. Before Pensacola State, Rigby led Holmes Community College to four straight winning seasons and spent one season at NAIA Tabor College where she transformed a last-place team into one of the top teams in the conference. Rigby began her head coaching career at Northwest Rankin High School in Mississippi in 1992 before returning to her home state of Louisiana to coach at Loranger High School from 1996-2000.

Rigby graduated from Southeastern Louisiana University with a bachelor's degree in English education in 1990 and a master's degree in secondary education in 1998. She earned her doctorate in higher education leadership from Nova Southeastern University in July of 2017.

She is married to Ed Rigby, a high school football head coach and Athletic Director. The couple has two sons, Ramsey and Brandon.

NEW COACH ON THE BLOCK

Head coach Chanda Rigby and the Troy Women's Basketball program announced the hiring of former Dallas Wings guard Chelsea Dungee to the squad's coaching staff.

"It's been almost eight years since I've had an opening on my staff to fill," Rigby said. "When this position came open, I knew I wanted to hire someone who would make a strong impact on current players and carry deep influence with recruits. Chelsea will be all of this and much more. She worked her way up into being a top scorer in NCAA and a high draft pick in the WNBA. The passion that she possesses, and her desire to be great, will be infectious. With her presence, Chelsea will help us continue to elevate the brand of Troy Women's Basketball in the recruiting world. Hiring Chelsea puts a big 'W' in our win column already!"

Dungee was drafted by the Dallas Wings with the fifth overall pick in the 2021 WNBA Draft. The 5'11" guard saw action in 14 games for the Wings during her rookie season.

Prior to being drafted by the Wings, Dungee was a four-year standout at Arkansas, where she was named an AP Third Team All-American her senior season.

"I am excited about the opportunity to pursue my lifelong goal of becoming a Division I women's basketball coach," Dungee said. "My collegiate and professional experiences have provided me with vast knowledge of the game and the ability to create and maintain healthy relationships through shared experiences. The feeling of giving back and contributing to the growth of young women is unmatched. I look forward to being a part of the Trojan Family!"

In addition to earning AP Third Team All-American honors her senior season, Dungee was also dubbed a WBCA All-American, USBWA Third Team All-American and an All-SEC First Team selection. She found her name listed on the Wooden Award Nation Ballot and was an Ann Meyers Drysdale Award Finalist.

The guard averaged 22.3 points, 3.9 rebounds, 1.5 assists, 1.5 steals, 32.3 minutes per game during her final season as a Razorback, and scored in double figures in all 27 games that season. The former professional player had 18 games with 20+ points and four games with 30+ points.

The senior poured in 27 in Arkansas' NCAA Tournament game against Wright State and tallied 37 points in a historic performance in Arkansas' win over UConn.

Dungee is the only player in SEC history to hit 17+ free throws more than once in a career.

The Sapulpa, Okla., native also holds the Razorbacks' single-season scoring record after tallying 759 points during the 2018-19 campaign. Her 22.3 points per game during the 2020-21 season ranks second in Razorback history.

During her four-year career, Dungee scored the most collegiate points of any Razorback Women's Basketball player ever (2,147), and she also holds the program record for most career free throws after making 552 of her attempts.

Prior to her collegiate playing days, Duggen led USA Basketball's U16 squad to a gold medal at the 2013 FIBA Americas Championships.
