BULLDOG BITES

BOOST FROM BATTLE

Jamon Battle has provided a boost for the Bulldogs recently. Battle, who has scored in double figures in five straight games, set a new career-high on Saturday by scoring 21 points in Saturday's victory at ETSU. Currently, Battle ranks third on the Bulldogs in scoring averaging 10.8 points and is second in rebounding averaging 5.1 rebounds per contest.

ABOUT ARKANSAS

The tenth-ranked Razorbacks enter Wednesday's game sporting a 10-1 record on the season. Arkansas, whose only loss of the season came in late November vs. Creighton, has been led this season by Ricky Council IV. Council is averaging a team-high 18.9 points per game, which ranks second in the SEC.

RARE ROAD STRETCH

Wednesday's game at Arkansas will close out a rare road stretch for the Bulldogs. Asheville closed out its non-conference schedule with four straight road games in four different states. Asheville has played in Ohio (Dayton), South Carolina (South Carolina State), Tennessee (ETSU), and Wednesday's game will be in Arkansas.

POURING IN THE POINTS

Asheville's 122-point effort in the win over Warren Wilson earlier this month marked its most points in game in over a decade. The last time the Bulldogs scored more was in a 2011 game vs. Mars Hill when they netted 126 points. Furthermore, Wednesday's point total was the most points scored by a Big South team since Winthrop scored 127 points in a game vs. Pfeiffer in 2019.

PROTECT THE LEAD

A key statistic recently for Asheville is what the score was at the half. When the Bulldogs led after 20 minutes over the last two seasons, they have been an impressive 24-4. On the flip side, when it trailed or were tied at the break Asheville is 1-15.

TERRIFIC TANDEM

Pember & Jones lead the way for Asheville. Both players rank among the top 20 players nationally in multiple statistical categories. Pember is among the nation's top 20 in free throws made (1st - 79) and attempted (3rd - 94), blocks (5th - 35), blocks per game (7th - 2.92), defensive rebounds per game (10th - 7.75) and total rebounds (19th - 114). Jones, meanwhile is among the top 20 players in Division I in 3-pointers made (11th), percentage (16th) and 3-pointers per game (19th).

MORE BULLDOG BITES

STAFF CONSISTENCY

For the second time in Head Coach Mike Morrell's tenure at UNC Asheville, he returns his entire coaching staff from the previous campaign. Assistant Coaches Neil Dixon, Woody Taylor, and Justin Levine are all back to help coach Asheville.

HEY I KNOW YOU...

The Bulldogs have two pairs of former high school teammates on their roster. First, Trent Stephney and Drew Pember both starred and helped Bearden High School win a State Championship, while Silas Mason and newcomer Nick McMullen both attended Ben L. Smith High School in Greensboro, N.C.

VS. RANKED OPPONENTS

Asheville has never defeated a team ranked nationally. The Bulldogs last faced off against a ranked opponent in 2016 when it fell on the road at Kansas by a score of 95-57.

NON-CONFERENCE SUCCESS

Asheville has fared well in non-conference play in each of the last two seasons. The Bulldogs went 8-5 a season ago and they have logged a record of 8-4 so far in 2022-23.

PRESEASON PREDICTIONS

UNC Asheville was predicted to finish third in the annual Big South Preseason Poll late last month. The Bulldogs have been picked to finish the conference's top three teams for three straight seasons.

PRESEASON PLAYER OF THE YEAR

Senior Drew Pember became the first Bulldog since 2011-12 (Matt Dickey) to be named the Preseason Big South Player of the Year. Pember joins Dickey, Andre Smith (2002-03), Kevin Martin (1998-99), and Josh Pittman (1997-98) as Bulldogs that have been named the League's Preseason Player of the Year.

POSTSEASON WIN

Asheville is coming off a season where it notched a postseason win, its first since 2011-12. The Bulldogs competed in the College Basketball Invitational in Daytona Beach, Florida and knocked off Stephen F. Austin in the first round, 80-68, before falling to Northern Colorado, 87-84.

MIKE MORRELL HEAD COACH, FIFTH SEASON Milligan, 2005

Mike Morrell enters his fifth season at the helm of the UNC Asheville men's basketball program in 2022-23.

During the 2021-22 campaign, Morrell led the Bulldogs to their first postseason appearance in four seasons as they were invited to compete in the College Basketball Invitational. At the Invitational, the Bulldogs tallied their first postseason win at the event, toppling Stephen F. Austin, 80-68. Asheville also got out to a fast 10-5 start to the season, which was the program's best start since 2015-16. The Bulldogs also went 9-6 (.600 winning percentage) against non-Big South foes marking its best non-conference performance in terms of winning percentage since 2007-08.

Some individual standouts for Asheville in 2021-22 included Drew Pember being named the Big South's Defensive Player of the Year after ranking 10th in the country with 93 blocks. Pember's 93 blocks were the second-most ever by a Bulldog in a single season and helped him gain NABC All-District Second Team honors as well. LJ Thorpe earned All-Big South Honorable Mention honors for the third straight season, while Coty Jude garnered All-Academic team honors.

Morrell guided the Bulldogs to a strong 10-10, 9-5 Big South record in the unprecedented season that was 2020-21. Despite not being able to compete for 30 days down the stretch of the season due to COVID-19, Asheville's 9-5 mark in the Big South was its sixth-best win percentage (.643) in the last 15 seasons. The Bulldogs were able to earn a first-round bye in the 2021 Big South Tournament, hosting a quarterfinal matchup for the first time since 2018. Asheville's nine conference wins also made them one of just four schools within the Big South to post a combined winning record against conference foes over the course of the 2019-20 and 2020-21 seasons.

Morrell and the Bulldogs coached Tajion Jones (Second Team) and LJ Thorpe (Honorable Mention) to Big South honors, while Jones also garnered NABC All-District 3 Second Team recognition. Additionally, Coty Jude was named to the Big South All-Academic Team. While the condensed season had its share of memorable moments and wins, no victory shined brighter than the Bulldogs' 57-55 win at Winthrop on January 29, when Asheville knocked off the previously unbeaten Eagles and snapped the nation's longest win streak (21 games) in the process.

After a national search, UNC Asheville selected Mike Morrell to helm the UNC Asheville men's basketball program on Wednesday, April 11, 2018.

Morrell (pronunciation: more-ELL) is the seventh head coach in the history of UNC Asheville men's basketball. Considered one of the top assistants in all of college basketball, Morrell joined UNC Asheville from the University of Texas. He is a native of Elizabethton, Tenn.

Morrell oversaw one of the biggest turnarounds in Division I men's basketball during the 2019-20 season. The Bulldogs improved by 11 victories from his first season at the helm, tied for the third-largest improvement that season, and were one of just four teams in the nation to increase its win total by double digits.

The Bulldogs returned 83.6 percent of their minutes played from the season before, but still ranked inside the Top 15 all season among youngest teams according to Ken Pomeroy, as the starting lineup consisted of all sophomores. Asheville was one of just two teams in the country to use the same starting lineup the entire season, and all five starters averaged double-digits in scoring.

With consistency and experience, the Bulldogs improved their record from 4-27 to 15-16, including an 8-10 mark in Big South Conference play. The Bulldogs entered the season predicted to finish ninth in the league standings, but ended the year in a tie for fifth: the largest jump in predicted finish in the conference.

Morrell coached two All-Big South performers, as sophomore DeVon Baker was named to the second-team while redshirt sophomore LJ Thorpe earned honorable mention recognition. Redshirt junior Jax Levitch was named to the All-Academic Team.

After a first season with eight freshman learning the ropes of collegiate basketball, Morrell truly began to establish his desired style of play in Year Two. The Bulldogs played aggressive pressure defense, and led the Big South and ranked in the Top 25 nationally in turnover margin (plus-5.2), turnovers forced per game (16.9), total steals (250) and steals per game (8.3).

The Bulldogs finished fourth nationally in turnover margin, and led the nation in the statistic for a period during the season. Under Morrell's direction, redshirt sophomore Lavar Batts, Jr. led the Big South in steals, and three other players – Baker, Thorpe and Trent Stephney – all ranked inside the Top 15 in the conference in steals. No other team had more than two players in the Top 15.

The Bulldogs also were much improved on the offensive end, as four players – Baker, Thorpe, Tajion Jones and Batts – all ranked inside the Top 16 in the Big South in scoring. No other team in the league had more than two in the Top 16.

In addition to those four, Coty Jude also averaged 10 points per game, and he moved into the Top 10 all-time at Asheville in career 3-pointers, as he is tied for ninth with 140.

Following the 2019-20 season, ESPN named Morrell as one of its Top 40 coaches under 40 years old, citing the Bulldogs' 11-game turnaround.

Morrell coached the youngest team in NCAA Division I in his first season in charge of the UNC Asheville men's basketball program. The Bulldogs finished the season with 76 percent of their minutes being played by freshmen. Over 90 percent of UNC Asheville's overall minutes on the year were played by underclassmen.

Despite their youth, Morrell's Bulldogs were able to sweep the season series from USC Upstate and Asheville was the only team in the country during the regular season to have four freshmen score 20 or more points in a single game.

UNC Asheville's DeVon Baker was chosen to the Big South All-Freshman Team, while lone senior Donovan Gilmore was tabbed to the All-Academic Team.

Named the top recruiter in the country under the age of 35 in 2015 by ESPN prior to his arrival at UNC Asheville, Morrell helped coach a team to the NCAA Tournament in nine of his 11 years at the NCAA Division I level as an assistant coach.

As the primary recruiting coordinator at Texas, Morrell helped sign two top-5 and one top-20 class.

Morrell spent most of his coaching career working with current Texas head coach Shaka Smart.

In addition to working with him at Texas from 2015-2018, Morrell spent 2011-2015 on Smart's staff at VCU.

During Morrell's four seasons at VCU (2011-15), the Rams posted an overall record of 108-35 (.755) and made four NCAA Tournament appearances. VCU was ranked in the final Associated Press poll in the 2012-13 (No. 25), 2013-14 (No. 24) and 2014-15 (No. 25) seasons.

At Texas, the Longhorns advanced to the NCAA Tournament in both the 2015-16 seasons and the 2017-18 seasons.

In its first full recruiting cycle in Austin, the Texas coaching staff that Morrell was on pulled in a four-man freshman group that ranked as the No. 5 recruiting class in the nation by Scout. All four freshman signees were ranked among the top-100 players nationally by Scout (Jarrett Allen, No. 15; James Banks, No. 49; Andrew Jones, No. 19; Jacob Young, No. 87).

The 2016-17 season at Texas for Morrell was highlighted by the development of freshman Jarrett Allen, who was selected as the No. 22 pick by the Brooklyn Nets in the 2017 NBA Draft. Allen earned All-Big 12 Conference third-team and Big 12 All-Newcomer Team accolades. He also claimed a spot on the 10-person USBWA All-District VII Team and the five-person NABC All-District 8 second-team.

During its second recruiting cycle, the Texas staff signed a five-man freshman class that ranked as the No. 5 recruiting class in the country by Rivals. All five freshmen signees were ranked among the top-80 players nationally by one of the three major recruiting services (Mohamed Bamba, No. 2 Rivals; Matt Coleman, No. 29 ESPN; Jase Febres, No. 47 Scout; Jericho Sims, No. 51 Scout; Royce Hamm Jr., No. 80 ESPN).

Morrell has extensive ties to the Carolinas.

In fact, before joining Smart's staff at VCU, he spent the 2010-11 season on Barclay Radebaugh's staff at Charleston Southern.

Prior to his time at Charleston Southern, Morrell was on staff at Clemson under head coach Oliver Purnell. He served as a graduate assistant in 2007-08 before moving into the Director of Basketball Operations position at Clemson in the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons. The Tigers advanced to the NCAA Tournament in all three of his seasons on staff.

Morrell began his coaching career on staff at King College in Bristol, Tenn. in 2005-06 and 2006-07. The Tornado won the 2007 Appalachian Athletic Conference Tournament and advanced to the NAIA National Tournament first round. They posted an overall record of 23-11. He also served as the head coach of the golf team at King.

Born Aug. 22, 1982, Morrell was a two-sport standout at Milligan College where he was an 1,000-point scorer for the men's basketball program.
