TUSCALOOSA, Ala. – The No. 7/7 Alabama men's basketball team limited No. 26/25 Kentucky to its lowest point total of the season in a dominant 78-52 victory in front of a sold-out crowd in Coleman Coliseum Saturday afternoon. The Crimson Tide limited the Wildcats to a season-low point total and under 30 percent shooting in route to UA's largest win in the modern era and the second-biggest road loss under UK head coach John Calipari

Alabama improved to 13-2 overall and 3-0 in Southeastern Conference play, marking its best start in 21 years, dating back to the 2001-02 campaign.

The Crimson Tide's defense was relentless throughout the contest which helped limit the reigning consensus National Player of the Year Oscar Tshiebwe scoreless until midway through the second half. Tshiebwe would finish with four points, six rebounds and four turnovers as UA held the Wildcats to just 28.8 percent (21-of-73) from the floor and 35.0 percent (5-of-20) from beyond the arc.

Alabama had three players in double figures, led by Brandon Miller with 19 points. Mark Sears added 16 points and Jahvon Quinerly scored 12 points to lead the offensive effort. Miller pulled down a team-leading seven boards while Sears collected a team-leading four assists in the win.

GAME STATS
• Alabama led the contest wire-to-wire, including its largest lead of 31 points (72-41) late in the game
• Brandon Miller topped the Tide on offense with a game-leading 17 points, along with contributing five rebounds and two assists in the effort

COACH OATS POSTGAME COMMENTS

"I can't say enough about our guys and how hard they played on defense and how locked in to the scouting report they were. I thought (Mark) Sears was unbelievable. He got in there and made a bunch of tough plays and rebounds. I thought Charles (Bediako) was great on (Oscar) Tshiebwe. Kentucky's going to be alright. They had a bad shooting night, and our guys did a great job defensively on him. It was good. I thought we showed growth. We were up 27 against Ole Miss and let them cut it to 15. I think it was the under-eight media timeout and we were up 27 again, ironic how it worked out that way. I sat in the huddle and asked, 'What are we going to do from here?', and we pushed the lead to 31 instead of letting them back in it. We're learning, and we're trying to get a little bit better every game. The crowd was unbelievable. Students aren't in school until Wednesday, the first day of class, so for them to show up and support us like they did was great. We're trying to put a program and product out there that everyone is proud to support, and they definitely supported us tonight, so I just want to thank everybody for that."

ABOUT ALABAMA BASKETBALL

- Alabama is in its 110th season of basketball in 2022-23. The Tide's first season of hoops came in 1912-13. There was no season in 1943-44 due to World War II.
- After having the No. 1 strength of schedule in the nation a year ago, Alabama's non-conference slate will be stacked once again as it features nine teams (out of 13 games) that played in last year's NCAA Tournament. In all, the Tide will face 10 teams that are either ranked or receiving votes in the preseason top-25 poll.
- Alabama welcomes the highest ranked recruiting class in program history, including McDonald's High School All-Americans Jaden Bradley and Brandon Miller, along with four-start prospects Noah Clowney and Rylan Griffen.
- In addition to the four freshmen, Alabama also added transfers Mark Sears from Ohio, Dom Welch from St. Bonaventure and Nick Pringle from Dodge City CC, who was rated as the No. 1 JUCO power forward prospect in the country.
- The 2022-23 Crimson Tide roster features four McDonald's All-Americans. In addition to Bradley (2022) and Miller (2022), Nimari Burnett (2020) and Quinerly (2019) also earned the national honor. It is the most McDonald's All-Americans on the same roster in program history.
- During the non-conference slate Alabama will play four teams that are predicted to finish first in its conference.

ALABAMA'S DUO EARN PRESEASON ALL-CONFERENCE

- The Southeastern Conference announced the league's 2023 men's basketball preseason honors, as Jahvon Quinerly led the way being named First Team All-SEC by the coaches.
- Quinerly is coming off ACL injury sustained in the NCAA Tournament against Notre Dame.
- In addition to being named First Team All-SEC by the coaches, Quinerly was also named Second Team All-SEC in the preseason media poll. Joining Quinerly on the Second Team All-SEC is freshman Brandon Miller.

NATE OATS
Head Coach
MARANTHA BAPTIST, 1998
4th Season at UA
8th Season Overall

• When Nate Oats was formally introduced as head men's basketball coach at The University of Alabama on March 28, 2019, he promised fans would see an entertaining, up-tempo and fast-paced style of play. And that's exactly what he has delivered during his time in Tuscaloosa.

• The immediate success became evident in his second year at the helm of the program as Oats guided the 2020-21 Crimson Tide to one of its best seasons in the program's illustrious history. Alabama finished the year with a 26-7 overall mark, won 16 conference games (16-2), captured both the SEC regular season and tournament championships, and ended the year ranked No. 5 in the Associated Press' final national rankings which matched the best end-of-season ranking in program history.

• As a result, Oats was rewarded midway through the 2020-21 season with a contract extension that is set to keep him in charge of the Crimson Tide basketball program through March 14, 2027.

• An indicator of Alabama's resurgence can be seen by looking at the last two NBA Drafts. Prior to his arrival, the Tide had just one men's basketball player selected among the top 15 picks from 1992-2019. As a coach who is known for developing talent, Oats has now had four Alabama players selected in the NBA Draft in the last three seasons. For the first time in program history, Alabama has had an NBA Draft Lottery (top-14 pick) in back-to-back years as the New Orleans Pelicans selected Kira Lewis Jr. No. 13 overall in the 2020 NBA Draft Lottery while Joshua Primo was taken by the San Antonio Spurs at No. 12, making UA one of three schools across the nation to have an NBA Lottery pick in each of the last two drafts during that span.

• Furthermore, Herbert Jones was taken by the Pelicans with the fifth pick in the second round (No. 35 overall) of the 2021 Draft which gave Alabama two players drafted in the same year for the 11th time in program history and the first since 1995. That Tide was also one of only 11 schools nationwide to have more than one player selected.

• Both Primo and Jones earned their way onto draft boards as a result of one of the best seasons in the 100-plus years of Alabama basketball. The 2020-21 Alabama squad claimed both the Southeastern Conference regular season and tournament championships – the only power five program to sweep both the regular season and tournament titles in 2021 – and reached the Sweet 16 for the first time since 2004.

• The season's success snapped some lengthy dry spells within the program as Oats guided Alabama to its first conference championship in 19 years (dating back to 2002), first tournament championship in 30 years (dating back to 1991) and first Sweet 16 showing in 17 years (dating back to 2004). As a result, Oats was named the 2021 SEC Coach of the Year, making him the fourth Alabama head coach to earn the recognition while he earned the accolade for the third time in his career (Mid-American Conference Coach of the Year in 2018 and 2019). Oats was also honored as the United States Basketball Writers Association (USBWA) and the National Association of Basketball Coaches (NABC) District Coach of the Year and was one of four finalists for the 2021 Naismith National Coach of the Year.

• Oats has boasted eight players who have earned SEC postseason honors, coached three NBA Draft picks, three SEC First Team honorees, the 2021 SEC Tournament MVP and the 2021 SEC Player and Defensive Player of the Year.

• Across his two years, the Tide has combined to lead the nation in three-pointers made per game (10.7), total three-point shots made (682) and total threes attempted (1,946) while averaging more than 80.5 points per game and breaking several school and conference records along the way. Additionally, UA has collected 35 games (out of the 64 he has coached) of scoring 80 or more points, including a school-record 19 such contests in 2020-21.

• Similar to his expectations on the court, Oats places a high emphasis off the court, particularly in the classroom and the community. Since take over the reigns in 2019, 20 men's basketball players have been named to either the SEC Academic Honor Roll or SEC First Year Honor Roll while earned have graduated and earned a diploma. Additionally, the team set a record for cumulative grade point average in 2020 while maintaining a team GPA over above 3.0 during his time at the helm.

• The program's success has also resulted positively on the recruiting trail as Oats and his staff have signed back-to-back top-10 recruiting classes in 2020 and 2021. Excluding graduate transfers and JUCO signees, of the eight signed players during Oats' two seasons at Alabama, four have been five-star prospects while the other four were all rated as four-star signees. Moreover, the 2020-21 team alone features three McDonald's All-Americans (Jahvon Quinerly, Nimari Burnett and JD Davison).

• Whether it's on the court, in the classroom or out recruiting future Crimson Tide stars, Oats' has returned a winning attitude around the Alabama program. Much of that he credits to instilling three core values that make up the pillars on which the team's culture is built – Max Effort, Continuous Growth and Selfless Love.
