RAZORBACK NOTABLES

Need to Know

- Head coach Courtney Deifel is just TWO wins away from becoming the program's all-time wins leader. Deifel, who currently has 243 wins at Arkansas, needs one win to match former head coach Carrie Dever-Boaz's (1997-2004) program-record 244 victories. Deifel needs two wins (245) to become the program's all-time wins leader.
- Arkansas will make its first appearance in the TaxAct Clearwater Invitational this weekend.
- The Razorbacks are familiar with playing in Florida. Last season, the Hogs went a perfect 6-0 in the Sunshine State, sweeping Florida for the first time in Gainesville (April 22-24) and going 3-0 in the SEC Tournament hosted by Florida for the program's first SEC tournament crown.
- Three Hogs are natives to the Clearwater area: fifth-year Kristina Foreman (Tampa), freshman Robyn Herron (Tampa) and junior Callie Turner (Land O'Lakes). Former Hog and 2021 SEC Pitcher of the Year Mary Haff (Winter Haven) is also from the area.
- Arkansas will face ranked competition for the first time this season as they battle three ranked teams in Clearwater: No. 7 Florida State, No. 19 Duke and No. 22 Louisiana. The Razorbacks were 12-5 against ranked competition during the regular season last year (ESPN.com/USA Softball Top 25).
- The Razorbacks are coming off a 5-0 opening weekend at the Rebel Kickoff in Las Vegas where they out-scored competition 51-9 and recorded three shutouts. Arkansas' 51 runs are the most opening weekend runs produced in program history.
- For the first time in program history, the Razorbacks shut out three straight opponents to start the season.
- The Hogs checked in at No. 4 in several polls this week, which matches the program's best in-season ranking.
- Rookie shortstop Aталyя Rijo earned SEC Freshman of the Week after slashing .636/1.000/.733 with a team-best seven hits along with six runs scored, five RBIs, one home run and a double. Rijo and Hannah Camenzind are the first Arkansas freshmen to homer opening weekend since current Hog Hannah Gammill did in 2021.
- Arkansas, who won the 2022 SEC Regular Season and Tournament titles, will take on the 2022 ACC Tournament Champions Florida State, the 2022 Sun Belt Regular Season and Tournament Champions Louisiana and the 2022 Big Ten Tournament Champions Nebraska.
- Deifel's best start to a season at Arkansas was in 2018, when her squad culminated a 9-0 mark before falling in their 10th game of the season to McNeese.
- The Hogs will compete against Duke and Indiana for the first time in history.

Razor-Back-to-Back

- Winning the SEC regular season crown in 2021 and 2022, Arkansas added the program's first tournament title in 2022 after downing the Missouri Tigers, 4-0, in Gainesville, Fla. The Razorbacks were the only power five program last season to win their conference's regular season and tournament championships.
- Arkansas is one of four SEC program's to win back-to-back regular season crowns, joining Alabama, Florida and LSU. After winning the league's regular season in 2021, Arkansas became the first team not named Florida or Alabama to win the conference's regular season title since Tennessee did in 2007.
- The Hogs posted a 2022 48-11 overall record, recording the most single-season wins in program history.
- In the 2022 NCAA Tournament, Arkansas achieved the program's highest overall seed (No. 4) and swept the Fayetteville Regional before hosting the program's second consecutive Super Regional and garnering the program's first victory in Super Regionals while taking down the Texas Longhorns, 7-1, in game one of the Fayetteville Super Regional.

Back-to-Back Coach of the Year

Back-to-back SEC Coach of the Year Courtney Deifel returns for her eighth season at the helm. In seven seasons in Fayetteville, Deifel has orchestrated the Razorbacks' return to postseason play and guided the program to two SEC regular season championships, one SEC Tournament crown and five NCAA Tournament appearances, which includes five consecutive berths from 2017-22. The Hogs have qualified for the national tournament every year it has been held since 2017. Deifel led the program to its first NCAA Tournament Super Regional appearances in 2018, 2021 and 2022. Since her first season in 2016, the Razorbacks have been ranked 70 times in the NFCA Coaches' Poll after being previously ranked only once in program history. Nine of the program's 10 NFCA All-American nods and 78 Easton/NFCA All-America Scholar-Athlete awards have been accumulated under Deifel. Sitting at 243 career wins at Arkansas, Deifel is just TWO wins away from becoming the program's winningest head coach. Additionally, Coach Deifel's 2022 staff was named NFCA South Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Getting Prigge With It

Sophomore third baseman Spencer Prigge was hotter at the plate than Las Vegas' summer temperatures at the Rebel Kickoff last weekend. The Phoenix native started 21 games at shortstop as a true freshman in 2022 but was severely limited due to an ongoing back issue that lasted throughout the season. Feeling better and back at the position she played growing up, Prigge is coming off a weekend where she hit .500 with six hits, three home runs, 12 RBIs, nine runs scored, five walks, one double and one stolen base. Prigge tied her career high in RBIs (3) three times over the weekend while pacing Arkansas in RBIs, home runs, runs scored, total bases (16) and slugging percentage (1.333). The slugger recorded at least one hit, one RBI and one run scored in all five games played. Prigge finished the weekend homering in back-to-back games, including a critical two-run homer against Baylor (Feb. 12) in the top of the seventh to extend Arkansas' lead to 10-7. Prigge enters Clearwater with a five-game hit, RBI and run scored streak.

Homecoming Hogs

Three Hogs are natives to the Clearwater area: fifth-year Kristina Foreman (Tampa), freshman Robyn Herron (Tampa) and junior Callie Turner (Land O'Lakes). Former Hog and 2021 SEC Pitcher of the Year Mary Haff (Winter Haven) is also from the area. These Razorbacks are no stranger to the Eddie C. Moore Complex. Callie Turner's 10u softball team won a tournament at the complex. Foreman and her Berkeley Prep High School team played some games there, and she used to attend the tournament as a fan when she was in junior high and high school. Herron played in a lot of travel ball tournaments at the complex.

Top 10 Hogs

Leading up to the 2023 season, Arkansas found itself landing inside the Top 10 in several preseason polls. Arkansas' No. 6 preseason ranking in ESPN.com/USA Softball's Top 25 is the highest preseason ranking in program history. The Razorbacks also found themselves sitting at preseason No. 7 in the USA Today/NFCA Coaches and Softball America Top 25 polls. Arkansas checked in at No. 8 in D1Softball's Preseason Top 25 and No. 12 in Extra Inning Softball's Top 25.

Roses are Red, Violets are Blue, the Razorback Freshmen Made Their Debut

Several freshmen made their collegiate debuts this past weekend with center fielder Reagan Johnson and shortstop Atalyia Rijo cracking head coach Courtney Deifel's starting lineup in all five contests. Pitchers Hannah Camenzind, Robyn Herron and Nikki McGaffin also made their debuts in Las Vegas.

At the leadoff spot, Johnson slashed .294/.350/.353 with five hits, four runs scored, three RBIs, a double and a stolen bases. Johnson filed her first career multi-hit game after finishing with two against Baylor on Sunday. The Karnes City, Texas, product also tallied a perfect fielding percentage on 10 total chances.

Atalyia Rijo earned SEC Freshman of the Week Monday after also making an immediate impact in Arkansas' opening weekend. The Horseheads, N.Y., native cracked head coach Courtney Deifel's opening weekend lineup at shortstop. In five games, Rijo paced Arkansas in batting average (.636), hits (7) and on-base percentage (.733). Rijo went 7-for-11 at the plate while slugging her first career home run and double. The rookie also scored six runs and compiled 11 total bases, five RBIs, four walks and a 1.000 slugging percentage. Rijo had a career day in the Hogs' win against Baylor Sunday, leading Arkansas with three hits and three RBIs while towering her first career home run. The rookie put Arkansas on the board in the second inning with a two-out, RBI double to left for an early 1-0 lead. Up to bat again in the fourth, Rijo drove in her second run on a single to left center. Rijo finished her dominant performance with a solo home run in the top of the seventh to ensure an 11-7 victory. Showcasing her defensive prowess, Rijo held it down at short with a .938 fielding percentage on 16 total chances and turned Arkansas' first double play of the season. Current Razorbacks Kacie Hoffmann and Spencer Prigge received SEC Freshman of the Week honors last season.

LHP Robyn Herron made her debut opening day after combining with junior LHP Callie Turner for a two-hit shutout against Weber State last Friday. In the game's final inning, Herron pitched to a 1-2-3 frame forcing two ground outs and punching one striking out to seal the five-inning dub. Herron combined with fellow freshman Nikki McGaffin for one-hit shutout in the Saturday matinee against Weber St. in her first collegiate start and victory. In the 11-0 win, Herron gave up only one hit, punched out five Wildcats and did not allow a walk. Getting handed the keys in the fourth, McGaffin took care of business as she retired six of seven batters faced while striking out one and working around a walk.

All Eyes on the Razorbacks

It comes to no surprise that Bogle Park is regarded as one of the premier college softball stadiums and atmospheres in the nation as it hosted the highest attended Regional and Super Regional in the NCAA in 2022. Arkansas finished the 2022 season third in cumulative attendance (66,247) and fourth in average attendance (1,948) at home. Nine of the 10 highest attended games in Bogle Park history were played in 2022. Bogle Park also sold out nine times in 2022. The 2022 Fayetteville Super Regional matchup between Arkansas and Texas at Bogle Park was the most-viewed NCAA Regional or Super Regional on record across ESPN networks and averaged 1.02 million viewers and a 0.53 rating.

Field of the Year

Bogle Park, home of the Arkansas Razorback softball team, was recognized by the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) as the 2022 Netting Professionals/NFCA DI Field of the Year in October. The playing surface is tended by a crew led by Austin Freeman.

Bogle Bombers

Arkansas blasted a program-record 109 home runs in 2022. Arkansas' 109 homers also tie for the second-most by an SEC team in a single season while also being the most by a league team since 2011. 12 different Razorbacks homered, led by NFCA First Team All-Americans Linnie Malkin (22), Danielle Gibson (20) and Hannah Gammill (18).

Arkansas blasted 11 opening weekend homers to start the 2023 season. Six different Hogs homered in Las Vegas: Prigge (3), Foreman (3), Halvorson (2), Gammill (1), H. Camenzind (1) and Rijo (1).

Sooie Spinners

Arkansas' pitching staff had a stellar opening weekend in Las Vegas. For the first time in program history, Arkansas shut out its first three opponents faced to start a season. Callie Turner, Chenise Delce, Robyn Herron and Nikki McGaffin were all a part of this feat after shutting out Weber St. twice and UNLV to kick off the 2023 campaign. Through five games (approximately 29 innings), the Sooie spinners have limited opponents to a miniscule one earned run.

Delce Back for 2023

SEC Pitcher of the Year Chenise Delce is back for her final collegiate season, pitching to a 19-3 record with three saves and a team-best 2.12 ERA over 151.2 innings pitched. She struck out 188 hitters compared to just 35 walks issued. Putting together one of the most decorated seasons ever by a Razorback spinner and earning the program's second straight SEC Pitcher of the Year accolade, Delce collected an abundance of honors, including NFCA Second Team All-American, SEC Tournament MVP, All-SEC First Team, NFCA All-South Region First Team, Wilson/NFCA Pitcher of the Week and Softball America Third Team All-American. The righthander notched 11 wins and two saves against opponents ranked inside ESPN.com/USA Softball's Top 25. Her 8.70 strikeouts per 7.0/IP rank second in single-season program history.

Just a Kid from Beebe

Hailing from Beebe, Ark., First Team All-American Hannah Gammill returns to Razorback lineup for her junior season in 2023. Gammill became the Young Hog in program history to garner NFCA First Team All-American honors after doing so in 2022. Gammill started all 59 games at third and slashed .374/.781/.513 with 18 homers, 58 hits, 51 RBIs and 50 runs, which also earned her spots on the All-SEC First Team and All-SEC Defensive Team. Gammill ranked seventh in the SEC and third on the team in home runs with 18, which ties for fourth-most in single-season program history. A rock at the hot corner, Gammill compiled a .964 fielding percentage on 140 total chances and committed just one error during SEC play. Gammill's .781 slugging percentage ranks fourth in Arkansas' single-season history while her .513 on-base percentage ranks fifth in single-season program history. Her 51 RBIs tied for sixth-most in single-season program history while her 121 total bases ranked seventh in single-season program history. The slugger posted 15 multi-hit games, including four games with three hits, and registered 16 games with multiple RBIs. In addition, Gammill was hit by pitches a program-record 20 times last season.

Delce, Gammill Named Preseason All-SEC

Redshirt senior Chenise Delce and junior Hannah Gammill have been named preseason All-SEC by the league's coaches. The duo has also been selected to preseason All-America teams by Softball America (Gammill - First Team, Delce - Second Team). Delce is coming off a stellar 2022 season earning SEC Pitcher of the Year along with NFCA Second Team All-America and All-SEC honors. She became the second consecutive Arkansas pitcher to capture SEC Pitcher of the Year status. She went 19-3 last season with three saves and a team-best 2.12 ERA, 188 strikeouts, 14 complete games and five shutouts. Gammill slugged her way through the 2022 season, slashing .374/.781/.513 with 18 home runs and 51 RBIs to pick up NFCA First Team All-America honors, becoming the youngest Razorback in program history to be named a First Team All-American. She also added All-SEC First Team and SEC All-Defensive Team accolades to her sophomore campaign that helped Arkansas to its second straight Southeastern Conference title in 2022.

Diamond Sports Run in the Rijo Family

Freshman shortstop Atalyia Rijo comes from a diamond sport family. Her mother Audrey played DI softball at the University of North Carolina-Wilmington and her dad Fernando pitched 11 seasons in the minor leagues for the Los Angeles Dodgers, Baltimore Orioles, Montreal Expos, Milwaukee Brewers and Houston Astros organizations. Her cousin Jose Rijo pitched 14 seasons in the MLB and won the 1990 World Series with the Cincinnati Reds and was named World Series MVP. Jose Rijo, who was inducted into the Cincinnati Reds Hall of Fame, was named to the All-Star game in 1994 and was the NL strikeout leader in 1993.

The Portal Delivers

Arkansas dipped into the transfer portal this offseason and came away with three athletes who are expected to contribute this season: Kristina Foreman, Cylie Halvorson and Tymber Riley.

- Graduate infielder Kristina Foreman joins the Razorbacks from Duke. Foreman was a staple in the Blue Devil's lineup over the last four years, starting 165 games in her career. An All-ACC selection in 2022, she started all 48 games she played in and hit .398 with 15 home runs and a Duke single-season program record 56 RBIs. The Tampa product had one of the best games of
- Junior infielder Cylie Halvorson joins the Hogs from South Dakota State where she was named Summit League Player of the Year in 2021 after averaging .352 at the plate and shattering the school's home run record with 19. In 2022, Halvorson started 54 games while hitting .311 with 19 home runs, 55 hits, 46 RBIs and 40 runs scored.
- Graduate utility Tymber Riley, an Arkansas native, joins the Razorbacks from DII Arkansas Tech where she was one of the best players in program history. Riley, who also participated in volleyball at Arkansas Tech, was named GAC Female Athlete of the Year and GAC Player of the Year in softball in 2022. Riley led the GAC conference in batting average (.432), on-base percentage (.529), slugging percentage (.840), home runs (15), hits (73), runs scored (58), doubles (22) and total bases (142).
- Coach Deifel has made splashes in the portal over recent years. Notable transfers Deifel has picked up include Chenise Delce, Callie Turner, Danielle Gibson, KB Sides, Taylor Ellsworth and Braxton Burnside.

Freshmen Razorbacks Named Nation's No. 1 Recruiting Class

Arkansas welcomes nine freshmen to the fold this season. After signing with the Hogs back in 2021, the class was tabbed as the No. 2 recruiting class in the nation by Extra Inning Softball. The decorated freshman class consists of Hannah Camenzind, Lauren Camenzind, Rylee Cloud, Kiki Estrada, Nyjah Fontenot, Robyn Herron, Reagan Johnson, Nikki McGaffin and Atalyia Rijo. Eight commits were nationally ranked inside the top 30 of Extra Inning Softball's Extra Elite 100. The class also hails from seven different states (California, Colorado, Florida, Louisiana, Nebraska, New York and Texas).

Deifel Era Continues

Following a pair of historic seasons, including back-to-back Southeastern Conference (SEC) regular season championships and a 2022 SEC Softball Tournament title, Coach Courtney Deifel signed a new employment agreement in August that could keep her in the third base coaching box at Bogle Park through 2030. The new five-year agreement runs from July 1, 2022 to June 30, 2027 and includes a series of scheduled salary increases and up to two one-year agreement extensions based on NCAA Tournament appearances. Additional incentive payments will be based on success in the SEC and the NCAA Tournament and graduation of softball student-athletes.

Playing the Nation's Best

Throughout the regular season, Arkansas will face 24 teams ranked inside ESPN/USA Softball's Top 25. Before SEC play begins, Arkansas will have tussled six ranked teams (Florida State, Duke, Louisiana and Arizona three times).

After battling five dominant teams in Clearwater, including three ranked inside the Top 25, Arkansas will return home to Bogle Park on Feb. 23 against No. 15 Arizona for a doubleheader. Arkansas tussles the Wildcats three times next weekend before hosting the Woo Pig Classic March 2-5 with North Texas, Iowa State and Texas A&M-CC coming to town.

It doesn't get any easier for the Hogs during SEC play. Arkansas will clash with Texas A&M (March 10-12), No. 12 Alabama (March 18-20), No. 3 Florida (March 24-26), Mississippi State (March 31-April 2), No. 10 Georgia (April 6-8), No. 16 Kentucky (April 21-23), No. 8 Tennessee (April 29-May 1) and No. 23 Missouri (May 5-7). Arkansas is also scheduled to play midweek contests against strong opponents including Wichita State, Central Arkansas and Western Kentucky while also hosting UAB during its league bye week.

Consensus No. 4

The Razorbacks Week 1 rankings during the 2023 season match the highest in-season rankings in program history. Arkansas is currently ranked No. 4 in ESPN.com/USA Softball, USA Today/NFCA, DII Softball.com and Softball America's Top 25. Last year, Arkansas captured the highest rankings in program history during Week 14 of the regular season as they were ranked consensus No. 4 in all four outlets' polls.

An All-American Duo

Arkansas is one of three DI softball programs to return multiple 2022 NFCA All-Americans. Hannah Gammill was named a NFCA First Team All-American and Chenise Delce was tabbed a Second Team All-American after sensational 2022 campaigns.

Homegrown Hogs

Arkansas' 2023 roster features seven Arkansans - the most of any state. Madi Conklin (Ft. Smith), Hannah Gammill (Beebe), Kaitlyn Howard (East End), Cally Kildow (Gravette), Chelsi Passage (Greenwood), Tymber Riley (Bentonville) and Ally Sockeye (Greenwood) all hail from the Natural State.
