HISTORICAL RECORDS DIRECTLY EFFECTED BY SHORTENED 2020 SEASON DUE TO CONCERNS SURROUNDING COVID19
One of the newer additions to Arkansas’ athletic facilities was completed with the dedication of the George M. Billingsley Tennis Center on April 15, 2008.

The $2.8 million expansion and renovation gives the Razorback men’s and women’s tennis teams a complete facility combining the outdoor courts of the Billingsley Center with the indoor courts of the Dills Indoor Stadium.

The outdoor facility includes bleacher seating between the two sets of five courts. Fans can sit in the bleachers and watch matches on either side, or stand on top and view matches on both sides.

The renovation includes locker rooms, offices and an indoor club area attached to the Dills Indoor Stadium and connecting the indoor facility with the outdoor facility. The club area includes chair back seats on one side overlooking the Dills Indoor courts and chair back seats on the other overlooking the Billingsley Center outdoor courts.

Other additions include scoreboards for the individual courts and a larger scoreboard on the west end of the north set of outdoor courts which will display the scores from outdoor courts one through six.

Unlike many other programs across the country, Arkansas’ tennis teams take advantage of facilities which give the Razorbacks an opportunity to play and practice 365 days a year, regardless of the weather.

Billingsley Tennis Center has been home to top collegiate tennis tournaments including the ITA Central Regional Championships and the SEC Tennis Tournament.
Tucker Clary was named as the head women’s tennis coach at the University of Arkansas on April 28, 2023 after previously serving as the Razorback women’s tennis assistant coach since December 2021.

Clary most recently served as the acting head coach of the Razorback women’s tennis program following the departure of head coach Cristina Sanchez-Quintanar, who resigned last month for personal reasons. In his tenure as acting head coach, Arkansas posted a 6-4 record in the Southeastern Conference, including ranked wins over No. 12 Auburn, No. 28 Vanderbilt, No. 50 Alabama and No. 60 Ole Miss. The Hogs were 5-1 at home in their final six regular season matches. Arkansas has two nationally-ranked singles players (No. 41 Carolina Gomez and No. 79 Kelly Keller) and two nationally ranked doubles pairs this season. Earlier this week, Gomez was also named the SEC Freshman of the Year.

In his two seasons as an assistant coach, Clary helped lead the Razorbacks to a fifth-place SEC finish in 2022, the best conference finish by the Hogs since 2009. Arkansas also earned the most conference wins (9) and ranked wins (9) since 2009. The Hogs earned an NCAA Tournament selection and finished the year ranked No. 30. Clary also coached Tatum Rice, who earned first-team All-SEC honors, SEC Player of the Week honors and qualified for the NCAA Tournament Individual draw. Clary coached five ITA nationally ranked players as an assistant coach. In addition, Clary helped land a recruiting class that featured two former top 100 junior ITF players, an 11 UTR and top 850 WTA ranked players.

Clary came to Fayetteville having spent a year with the women’s tennis program at Texas Tech as a volunteer assistant coach, helping lead the Red Raiders to the second round of the NCAA Tournament and their first win in the tournament since 2018. The Red Raiders ended their season with a 16-9 record and a third-place finish in the Big 12.

Clary has made previous stops at the University of Saint Katherine as an assistant coach with the men’s and women’s tennis programs. The women’s tennis program became the first program at USK to win a Conference Championship in the NAIA era in only their third season.

During his four-year career as a player at Bethany College, Clary was a four-time Fall Conference Individual Champion. In 2014, Clary was a KCAC Conference Champion, a quarterfinalist in the NAIA National Championship and a three-time NAIA National Tournament qualifier.

Clary and his wife Jyll have one son, Haydn.
