Razorback Field

The University of Arkansas has always been proactive when it comes to women's intercollegiate athletics, and the lifespan of Razorback Field is a tribute to that stance. When it was constructed in 1992, the then-LadyBack Field was the first collegiate soccer field in the country dedicated solely for the use of a women's team. To this day, it remains one of a handful of such fields. With improvements planned following its construction, a field house was built to house locker rooms for both participating teams, and lights were erected to allow the Razorbacks to practice and play at any time.

The facility evolved and was improved with an expansion and renovation prior to the 2011 season. The expansion added more than 3,900 square feet to the existing 3,100-square foot structure. Additions include an expanded and re-modeled training room with a rehab area, a new locker room for the Razorbacks, a team lounge connected to a team meeting area, two private meeting rooms and a storage area. The existing building included home and visiting locker rooms, a training room, a coaches' office, showers, a concession stand and public restrooms. The visiting locker room, concession stand and public restrooms remain.

The architecture design was a joint project between Arkansas' Facilities Management Department and Polk, Stanley, Wilcox of Little Rock. The general contractor for the project was Milestone Construction Company of Springdale. Arguably the best pitch in the Southeastern Conference, for facilities and playing surface, the field was the host of the 1994 SEC Tournament and the site of the first event televised by the SEC Network.

Completed for the 1999 season were several improvements, including wrought-iron fencing around the field, a ticket booth and permanent professional-style players' benches. Following the 1999 soccer campaign, construction of a new stadium to accommodate the growing fan base at Razorback Field began. The spring of 2001 saw the stadium expand to a 1,500-seat capacity, including chair-back seating for season-ticket holders as well as fully functional press facilities, television and radio booths, and a VIP hospitality area. In 2022, the grandstand bleachers were removed to allow for the installation of 1,200 chairbacks.

New Grass

In the summer of 2023, the field was raised three feet and resodded with Tahoma 31 Bermudagrass, grown at Winstead Farms in Arlington, Tennessee, the same farm that grew the field inside Donald W. Reynolds Razorback Stadium.

The project featured 86,500 square feet of Matrix Tahoma 31, 4,000 tons of sand, 2,000 tons of drainage stone and 5,600 feet of drainage pipe.

Arkansas practiced on the new grass for the first time on August 1st, 2023.

PERSONAL

Born:..... Aug. 8, 1976
 Alma Mater:..... Oral Roberts (1997)
 Wife: Brittany
 Children:..... Callen, Charlee, Samantha
 Named Head Coach at Arkansas:.....Dec. 21, 2011

Colby Hale begins his 12th season as head soccer coach at the University of Arkansas after being named to the position on Dec. 21, 2011. Hale has compiled a record of 143-73-24 with the Razorbacks. He has led the Razorbacks to three SEC Championships (2019, 2020, 2021) and has been named SEC Coach of the Year twice (2019, 2020). Arkansas has reached the SEC Tournament final in six-consecutive seasons (2016-21).

Since taking over the program, Hale and the Razorbacks have reached the NCAA Tournament nine times, the only times the program has ever reached the postseason. He's also overseen 20 all-region players, 32 all-conference selections, six All-Americans, two Academic All-Americans, one scholar All-American, and 153 Fall SEC Academic Honor Roll selections.

The 2022 season was one for the record books as Arkansas reached the Elite Eight again. The squad finished the year ranked inside the top-12 for the fourth straight year (No. 8), one of only three teams to do so. Forward Anna Podojil became the program's all-time goals and points scorer and collected her third United Soccer Coaches All-American honor. The Razorbacks also notched five All-SEC selections. After dropping the opening match to Saint Louis, the Razorbacks rattled off a six-match unbeaten streak before the start of SEC play. In October, then No. 7 Arkansas and No. 2 Alabama played the SEC's first top-10 matchup since 2015, and the Hogs' earned their first top-10 road win in the Hale era at No. 9 South Carolina. November saw Razorback Field host the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament for the second time in its history. Hale and the Hogs ended the season at 1-seed Florida State in the Elite Eight and finished ranked No. 8 in the final United Soccer Coaches poll.

The Razorbacks repeated in 2021 to win their third-straight SEC regular-season title. Arkansas won a program record 19 matches and earned a two-seed in the NCAA Tournament where Hale led the Razorbacks to their first Elite Eight appearance, finishing as No. 7 in the final rankings. The squad led the SEC in goals, goals per game, points, assists, assists per game, and shots. Bryana Hunter was named the program's 13th SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year, she also garnered Academic All-American honors. Parker Goins was awarded the program's first SEC Midfielder of the Year, along with a First Team All-American selection. The record-setting team saw six Hogs earn All-SEC honors, and they advanced to their sixth-straight SEC Tournament championship game. For the first time, Razorback Field hosted the first three rounds of the NCAA Tournament and finished No. 5 in the country in attendance.

Hale's teams have shown a postseason prowess as the Razorbacks have been a force in November, especially over the last six seasons. Including reaching the SEC Tournament in nine of the last 10 seasons, Arkansas has reached the SEC Tournament final the last six seasons under Hale in 2016, 2017, 2018, 2019, 2020, and 2021.

During a challenging season that was split between Fall 2020 and Spring 2021, Hale and the Razorbacks repeated as SEC regular season champions, going 7-1 against conference opponents in the fall. Arkansas was ranked at an all-time high of No. 3 in back-to-back weeks (Oct. 6 -13) and reached its fifth-straight SEC Tournament title game. In the spring, the Razorbacks advanced to just the second Sweet 16 appearance in school history at the NCAA Tournament. Hale also repeated as SEC Coach of the Year while Anna Podojil was named SEC Forward of the Year.

During the 2019 season Hale led the Razorbacks to the program's first conference title, tying a program record with eight SEC wins. Arkansas reached as high as No. 6 in the USC poll, ultimately securing a top-10 finish at the end of the season. In a campaign that saw the Razorbacks knock off top-ranked North Carolina, Hale became the first Arkansas coach to be named SEC Coach of the Year.

In 2018 the Razorbacks recorded their third-straight 10+ win season, going undefeated at Razorback Field with wins over No. 2 Texas A&M and No. 21 Auburn.

The 2017 tournament run might have been the most improbable as the Razorbacks entered the conference tournament as the eight seed, but rolled off wins over nineseed Ole Miss (1-0), one-seed South Carolina (1-0), and fourseed Vanderbilt (1-1, 4-2 on PK's) before bowing out against two-seed Texas A&M (2-1).

Attendance at Razorback Field has also seen an uptick since Hale's arrival in Fayetteville. During the 2017 season, Arkansas finished 10th in the nation in total attendance (13,538), fourth-best in the SEC and 10th in average attendance (1,354).

After a historic 18-5-1 season marked by several program milestones, Hale and Razorback Soccer concluded its 2016 season ranked No. 19 on the National Soccer Coaches Association of America (NSCAA) top 25 poll after peaking at No. 11 following a school-record eight-straight wins from Sept. 9, 2016 to Oct. 9, 2016.

Hale guided the team to their first win against a top-10 opponent against then-No.2-ranked Duke on Aug. 26 in front of a record-breaking crowd at Razorback Field. Arkansas would also upset then-No. 4-ranked Florida 2-1 on Sept. 16 at home for the program's first victory against the Gators.

These two wins against top-five programs and other quality opponents would catapult Arkansas to its highest NCAA RPI ranking in school history, topping out at No. 9 on Sept. 28. Hale would also gain the unique honor of being Arkansas' winningest soccer coach after earning his 46th career win as a Razorback following a 1-0 victory over North Texas on Sept. 11.

The Razorbacks were 4-14-0 and 2-9-0 in the Southeastern Conference the year before Hale arrived on campus (2011). In 2012, with a senior class of just two - Andrea Carlson and Allie Chandler - Hale led the Razorbacks to a 9-10-1 overall record and 6-6-1 finish in the SEC.

Hale became just the third of eight Arkansas soccer head

Prior to landing the top spot at Arkansas, Hale helped guide multiple programs to success on the field and in the classroom. He moved to Arkansas after nine seasons at the University of Central Florida (UCF), helping the Knights to 130 wins (130-50-22) with six conference championships, seven NCAA Tournament bids and eight wins in the postseason. In seven years at Conference USA, UCF was 5611-9 with four league titles.

SAMMY SCOFIELD ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

A former four-year standout center back for Notre Dame, Sammy Scofield was named assistant coach for the Razorback soccer team on April 20, 2018 by head coach Colby Hale.

Scofield was a four-year monogram winner for the Irish during her playing career from 2011-14 and was a cornerstone for Notre Dame's defense at center back as she didn't miss a match in her first three seasons. Scofield started in 79 of her 88 total matches and was named the team's Most Valuable Freshman in 2011 as well as team captain as a senior in 2014.

In 2020-21, Scofield and the Razorbacks won their second-straight SEC regular season title and advanced to the Sweet 16 for the second time in school history. Two Razorbacks were named United Soccer Coaches All-Americans, while four were named to the All-Southeast Region teams.

In her second season at Arkansas, Scofield helped lead the Razorback defense to the lowest goals-against-average (0.47) in program history for a single season which ranked seventh nationally. The Arkansas defense set a school record for the fewest goals (3) allowed at Razorback Field and tied for a program-best seven shutouts in-a-row. Razorback defender Haley VanFossen became the first All-American and SEC Defender of the Year in school history, and was named to the All-SEC First Team, while Bryana Hunter earned Second Team All-SEC honors.

In 2018, her first with the Razorbacks, Scofield worked directly with the defense and helped guide the back line to eight shutouts, tying for the third most in a single season in school history. It was the third-straight year that Arkansas had totaled seven or more clean sheets in a single season and eighth most in the SEC.

Scofield was instrumental in mentoring Haley Van Fossen, who became the first Razorback to be named to the All-SEC First Team since 2016 and only the seventh Razorback to make the first team in school history. Van Fossen was also named to the United Soccer Coaches' All-Southeast Region First Team, her first of her career as she started 22 of Arkansas' 23 matches, logging 1,956 minutes, the second most on the team. The Broken Arrow, Oklahoma native contributed to all eight of Arkansas' shutouts and has been a part of 18 shutouts in her career. She also played 90 or more minutes 15 times and has already notched 45 starts in her career, including 19-straight dating back to Aug. 31 against Baylor.

Prior to joining Arkansas, Scofield helped guide Elon to match a program record with five players taking home conference postseason honors in 2017. Meredith Christopher was named the CAA Rookie of the Year last year, a program first, and became the program's first major award winner since Elon joined the CAA in 2014.

In 2016, Scofield was instrumental in helping Elon post three CAA shutouts, which ranked second in the league. In addition to strong play from the back line, goalkeeper Katelyn Fowler finished second in the CAA in goals against average (0.78) in five games played.

Before Elon, Scofield spent the 2015 season as volunteer assistant coach at Kentucky, one year after finishing her playing career at Notre Dame where she helped the Irish to four-consecutive NCAA Tournament appearances.

In 2012, Scofield earned an invitation to the United States' U-23 National Team camp in Sarasota, Florida. She was also part of the 2010 U-18 National Team player pool, participating in the U-18 camp in April 2010 at the Home Depot Center in Carson, California.

Along with her coaching experience at Kentucky, Scofield worked with Coerver Coaching of Illinois and Indiana, was the head coach of the Michiana Echo U-13 Girls in 2015, and a camp counselor for Notre Dame Women's Soccer Summer Camps and the NWSL's Chicago Red Stars

JON HARVEY

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Jon Harvey comes to Fayetteville after seven seasons at Washington State, helping lead the Cougars to a historic run to the College Cup in 2019 and second (2017) and third-round (2018) appearances.

In 2019, Harvey guided star keeper Ella Dederick to All-Pac-12 honors as she became the Cougars' all-time leader in wins and her 16 wins set a single-season school record for victories. During the 2017 season Washington State posted 11 shutouts which ranked as the second most for a single season in program history.

In 2015, Dederick and Harvey helped the Cougars sustain a 0.92 goals-against-average with Dederick being selected to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team and the NSCAA All-Pacific Region Third Team. During his initial season at Washington State, the Cougars set the third-best average in program history with a 0.74 goals-against-average.

While overseeing the academic success of the Washington State program the Cougars earned 35 Pac-12 All-Academic awards in four seasons, including three first team and two second-team honors.

Harvey served in the United States Navy from 2000-05. His decorated military career included tours in Al Anbar Province, Iraq in 2004 and 2005.

WASHINGTON STATE BIO

Jon Harvey joined the Washington State University soccer staff in February, 2014. He was named the team's Associate Head Coach in February of 2020.

Since joining the staff, Harvey has guided WSU goalkeepers and backline to success over six seasons that included a historic run to the College Cup in 2019 and the second (2017) and third-round (2018) appearances. After missing most of the 2018 season due to injury, star keeper Ella Dederick returned for the 2019 season, earned All-Pac-12 honors, and became the Cougars' all-time leader in wins earning her record victory in a 2-1 win over Oregon State, Sept. 28. Her 16 wins is a single-season record for victories by a keeper while producing nine shutouts. In the 2019 postseason, Dederick allowed 4 goals on 54 shots, playing 455:33 minutes while producing 18 saves. She was 4-1-0 with three shutouts.

The year prior, Harvey proved his mettle in 2018 as he helped guide his backup goalkeeper, Rachel Thompson to a pair of Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Week awards that included a 1-0 shutout of No. 8 UCLA on the road in her first Pac-12 start. With Thompson in goal, the Cougs won their first-round NCAA Tournament game before falling 1-0 on the road at No. 1 seed Georgetown.

In 2017, as a group, the Cougars' defense came up with 11 shutouts in 2017, a mark which ranked as the second-most in program history. Under his tutelage, goalkeeper Ella Dederick has become one of the top keepers in the country as she earned All-Pac-12 Third Team in 2017 while also earning a spot on the US WNT U-23 team.

During his second season in Pullman, Harvey assisted in WSU's fifth-consecutive postseason berth. Overseeing then first-year goalkeeper Ella Dederick, Harvey helped the Cougars maintain a 0.92 goals against average with four shutouts. Dederick recorded 99 saves in the season, the most by a WSU goalkeeper since 2008. Dederick was selected to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team and the NSCAA All-Pacific Region Third Team. She also earned Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Week honors, Oct. 13, for her shutout performances against Utah and Colorado.

In his first season with the Cougars, Harvey oversaw the success of goalkeeper Gurveen Clair. The 2014 Cougars' 0.74 goals against average tied for the third-best average in program history. Under the guidance of Harvey, Clair and WSU recorded nine shutouts, second in school history behind Clair's school-record 13 shutouts in 2013. Harvey led to Clair to 10 wins on the season, bringing her career total to 44 wins, the most by any goalkeeper in WSU history.

Off the field, Harvey oversees the academic success of the Cougar soccer program that has garnered 35 Pac-12 All-Academic awards in his four seasons including three first team awards and a pair of second-team honors.

Harvey came to Pullman from UNCG where he was an assistant for one season under former WSU Head Coach Steve Nugent. With the Spartans, Harvey was the goalkeeping coach & recruiting coordinator. Under his tutelage, UNCG lowered its goals against average from 1.02 to 0.75, good for 35th nationally. He coached Jamie Simmons, who recorded the 18th-best save percentage in the nation last season.

Prior to his stint at UNCG, Harvey was a volunteer coach at Georgia (2011-12) and worked primarily with goalkeepers. He helped All-SEC and all-region goalkeeper Ashley Baker etch her name in the Georgia record books in nearly every category. Baker signed a professional contract in England and earned a call up to the Senior National Team's camp following her career at Georgia. She was the 20th overall pick by Sky Blue FC in the 2013 National Women's Soccer League college draft.

From 2006-10, Harvey was an assistant coach at NCAA Division II North Georgia. The Saints won 58 percent of their matches during that span, earned their first NSCAA Top 25 ranking and reached the Peachbelt Conference Tournament championship match.

Harvey was instrumental in lowering North Georgia's goals against average from 1.79 in 2005 (the year prior to his arrival) to a program-best 1.03 in 2010 (his final season). He recruited and trained 13 All-Peachbelt Conference performers, five NSCAA All-South Region selections, and NSCAA All-American and a Peachbelt Conference Freshman of the Year. Harvey's responsibilities also included practice planning, fundraising, travel and recruiting.

Harvey is also on staff with the USSF as well as the Region III ODP goalkeeping. He has become a member of US Soccer National Training Centers in Atlanta and Jacksonville, Fla. He holds a USSF "B" License and NSCAA Levels I, II and III Goalkeeping Diplomas. Harvey is a graduate of North Georgia.

SANDY DAVISON

ASSISTANT COACH

Sandy Davison, the squad's volunteer assistant coach for the 2022 season, is no stranger to the college game and will make her eighth coaching stop at Arkansas. During her stay in Pullman, the Cougars advanced to three NCAA Tournaments, including advancing to the Sweet 16 in 2017. Two recent NWSL draftees - Morgan Weaver (Portland Thorns - 2019) and Makamae Gomera-Stevens (Houston Dash - 2021) - were recruited and coached by Davison in Pullman.

"Not only is Sandy one of the most recognized coaches in women's college soccer, she is the perfect fit for us," head coach Colby Hale said. "We couldn't be more excited to keep her in Fayetteville and I know she will make an immediate and lasting impact on our program."

Davison holds a United States Soccer Federation "A" Coaching License. She attended Sacramento State University from 1984-85 after spending two years at Pfeiffer College in Meisenheimer, N.C., where she played basketball and club soccer before injuries ended her competitive career.
