KEY STORYLINES

Oregon begins a four-match road trip Thursday at No. 10 Arkansas (SEC+) and Sunday at Missouri State (ESPN+).

• The Ducks will face the preseason favorites of the SEC (Arkansas) and the Big Sky (Northern Arizona) during the nonconference schedule as well as defending Missouri Valley Conference champion Missouri State. In conference action, Oregon will play five straight matches against teams that advanced to the 2023 NCAA Tournament: USC (Oct. 5), defending NCAA champion UCLA (Oct. 8), Arizona State (Oct. 13), Stanford (Oct. 19) and California (Oct. 22). The Ducks played the 11th-toughest schedule in the nation in 2022 according to the final NCAA RPI report.

• Oregon returns Pac-12 all-freshman forward Ajanae Respass, who led the team with 4 goals and 10 points last season.

• The Ducks also return starters Anna Phillips and Anna Emperador on defense and Alice Barbieri and Trinity Morales in the midfield. Phillips has started 38 of 39 games the last three seasons. Barbieri also has 38 career caps. Morales had 6 points as a freshman (2G, 2A), while Emperador was one of two freshmen to play in all 19 matches in 2022.

• The Ducks are one of the youngest teams in the nation. Oregon's 29-player roster features 15 freshmen (10 true freshman, 5 RS-freshmen), 9 sophomores, 4 juniors, no seniors and 1 fifth-year player.

• Oregon will be looking to replace its all-time leader in assists (19), games played (92) and games started (90) in midfielder Zoe Hasenauer as well as its career leader in shutouts (18) and goals against average (1.05) in Leah Freeman.

NOTES

FIRST TIME FOES

This week will mark the Ducks' first meeting with both Arkansas and Missouri State. Oregon is 3-4 all-time against current members of the SEC. UO's last meeting with an SEC school came in 2015, a 2-1 loss at LSU. The Ducks are 1-0 all-time versus the Missouri Valley Conference, having defeated Illinois State 5-1 in 2007.

GOLDBERG, FRESHMEN CLASS SET PACE VS. BAYLOR

Oregon got a strong performance in goal and the program's talented freshman class got its first taste of collegiate action, but ultimately the Ducks dropped their 2023 season opener at Papé Field to Baylor, 2-0, on Aug. 18. Making her first appearance since 2021, Maddy Goldberg had a career-high seven saves. She helped keep the game scoreless into the second half, until the Bears broke through with goals in the 66th and 74th minutes. Goldberg made her first start since Sept. 3, 2021, having redshirted the 2022 season behind Pac-12 Goalkeeper of the Year Leah Freeman. More than half of Oregon's 15-player freshman class played against Baylor, including four starters, and the class provided all five of the Ducks' shots in the match. The eight freshmen who made their Oregon debuts Thursday night were starters Mia McSweeney, Cameron Bourne, Myra Schneider and Kristen Conti, and reserves Grace Mensah, Ryann Reynolds, Lauren Kenny and Ella Osmussen. Additionally, both Callan Harrington and Livvy Moore returned to the field for the first time since being injured early last season.

RECENT SUCCESS UNDER ABEL

In 2020 and 2021 under coach Graeme Abel, Oregon posted consecutive winning seasons for the first time in 40 years; 1980 (13-1-3) and 1981 (13-2-3). The Ducks' 9-4-6 2021 record was their best since 2006 (12-6-2). It was the fourth-best mark in program history (.632).

ABEL A TWO-TIME WORLD CUP CHAMPION

Graeme Abel, the Ducks' fourth head coach in the modern era (1996-present), has a pair of World Cup championships to his credit after serving as an assistant coach for the U.S. National Women's Soccer team (2015, 2019).

POSTSEASON HONORS

Ajanae Respass was selected for the 2022 Pac-12 all-freshman team. Respass led Oregon with four goals and 10 points. She scored twice at Gonzaga and had the game-winner against No. 15 Washington. She also scored against New Mexico State. Her 19 shots was second on the team and she also had two assists. The Highlands Ranch, Colo., native is the first Duck forward to make the all-freshman squad since 2022 NWSL champion Marissa Everett in 2015.

SNYDER SHINES

Senior Jordan Snyder broke through in a big way in week three of 2022, scoring the first two goals of her career. She netted the game-tying goal in the 78th minute versus Texas (Sept. 1) and added another Sept. 4 against Boise State. Prior to those two games, Snyder had played in 15 career games and had attempted two shots in her four seasons in Eugene.

HARRINGTON SCORES IN DEBUT

Callan Harrington made her long-awaited Oregon debut Aug. 18, 2022, against New Mexico State and scored on her very first shot attempt. Harrington holds the state of Oregon high school record for career goals with 133, one more than soccer Hall of Famer and U.S. national team star Tiffeny Milbrett. Due to the Covid-19 Pandemic and untimely injuries, it had been nearly three years since Harrington last took the field in 2019 in the Oregon 6A state championship match. She also scored Aug. 21 against San Francisco, but was injured during that match and was sidelined for the rest of the season.

#PRODUCKS

Three Ducks are rostered in the National Women's Soccer League (NWSL) for the 2023 season. Chardonnay Curran has played in nine games with three starts in her second season with the Kansas City Current. Croix Soto has started eight times in 12 appearances in her rookie season with the Current. Another rookie, Chai Cortez, has played in two matches for San Diego. Marissa Everett finished her fourth and final NWSL season with the Portland Thorns in 2022 and had one goal in 10 matches (four starts). Everett became the first Duck to win a NWSL championship when the Thorns defeated Kansas City, 2-0, in the 2022 championship match.

CURRAN DRAFTED 17TH OVERALL BY KANSAS CITY

Chardonnay Curran, the player who appeared in the most games in UO history (92), added another program milestone when she became the highest-ever draft pick for the Ducks. Curran was selected with the 17th overall pick by the Kansas City Current in the second round of the 2022 National Women's Soccer League Draft. She is the first player in program history to be drafted in the first two rounds of the NWSL Draft.

NOW THAT'S RECYCLING

Oregon is known for being a green campus, but this takes repurposing to another level. In 2019, the athletic department doubled the candle wattage of the stadium lights at Pape' Field with the addition of four new light towers that used to stand at historic Hayward Field. With Hayward Field undergoing a total reconstruction in advance of hosting the IAAF World Track & Field Championships in 2022, the athletic department was able to repurpose four of the light towers, which make night games at Pape' Field brighter both in person and for those watching on television or online.

PAC-12 PRESEASON POLL

Oregon was picked 11th in the 2023 Pac-12 preseason coaches poll.

WHAT THEY'RE SAYING ABOUT GRAEME ABEL

"Graeme was an integral part of our two World Championships and it was a privilege to work alongside him. He is a world class coach and an outstanding person, we wish him the very best in his new endeavor at the University of Oregon."

- Jill Ellis, U.S. Women's National Team head coach and 2019 FIFA Women's Coach of the Year

Graeme Abel was named the fourth women's soccer head coach of the modern era on Dec. 30, 2019, and has made an immediate impact on the program.

Now in his fourth season at the helm, he is 19-18-18 and coached the Ducks to consecutive winning seasons (2020-21) for the first time in 40 years.

The 2022 season saw Leah Freeman become the first player in program history to win Pac-12 goalkeeper of the year, as she set Oregon's career records for shutouts (18) and goals against average (1.05). Abel also oversaw Zoe Hasenauer setting the career mark for assists (19) in 2022. Freeman was named to the all-Pac-12 first team, while Ajanae Respass became the first Duck forward named to the Pac-12's all-freshman team since 2015.

Oregon's 2021 team posted the program's best record (9-4-6) since 2006 and its tie for fifth in the Pacific-12 Conference was the Ducks' best finish in 15 years. Oregon held No. 3 UCLA scoreless on its home field for the first time in three years. The Ducks' 0.97 goals against average was the fourth-best in program history. On the offensive side of the field, the Ducks' 86 points (29 goals, 28 assists) were the second-most in program history.

The Ducks set program records for the most all-Pac-12 picks (four) and United Soccer Coaches all-Pacific Region selections (four). Freeman became the first Duck goalkeeper named to the first team for both the Pac-12 and the Pacific Region. Ally Cook was a second team all-region pick and a third-team member for the Pac-12, while Croix Soto was a second team selection for the Pac-12 and a third-team regional honoree by the coaches. Hasenauer was a second-team all-region pick and Chai Cortez was named to the all-Pac-12 third team.

Abel's first squad in 2020 (played in the spring of 2021) broke through with Oregon's first winning record (6-5-5) since 2006. During that season, the Ducks defeated Stanford, the defending NCAA champions, for the first time in program history and also won at California, another UO first.

His team broke a 40 year-old record for goals against average, as the Ducks allowed just 0.69 goals per game. Three players made the all-Pac-12 third team, Hasenauer, Soto and Freeman. Freeman was also named to the Pac-12 all-freshman team.

Abel came to Oregon after serving as an assistant coach for the 2015 and 2019 FIFA World Cup champion U.S. Women's National Team.

Abel joined the staff of U.S. head coach Jill Ellis as an assistant coach in February of 2015 and helped Team USA navigate through seven World Cup matches, eventually setting numerous records in defeating Japan, 5-2, in the championship match to win the United States' first World Cup title in 16 years.

The team went 6-0-1 during the course of the tournament, which was played on artificial turf in Canada, and allowed opponents just three goals.

The 2019 World Cup in France marked one of the most dominant performances by any nation. Team USA went undefeated, 7-0, and outscored the opposition 26-3. The Americans defeated the Netherlands 2-0 in the championship match to claim back-to-back World Cup titles.

Abel was also on the staff of the U.S. Women's National Teams that won the 2016 and 2018 CONCACAF titles and was part of the 2016 Olympic Games in Rio de Janeiro.

Abel worked extensively with numerous women's national youth programs during his time with Team USA. He was an assistant for the U-20 U.S. Women's National Team at the 2016 FIFA U-20 Women's World Cup in Papua New Guinea and also served as an assistant for the U-17 U.S. Women's National Team from 2012 to 2015.

Prior to joining U.S. Soccer, Abel spent eight seasons coaching collegiately. He was an associate head coach for Oklahoma's 2014 NCAA Tournament team, part of his two stints with the Sooners from 2008 to 2010 and 2012 to 2015. He helped lead Washington State to the 2011 NCAA Tournament during his tenure as an assistant coach from 2010 to 2012. Before Oklahoma and Washington State, Abel worked three years as an assistant for Nevada from 2005 to 2007.

Abel began his coaching career as a graduate assistant in 2004 at his alma mater, Brescia University in Owensboro, Ky.

During his youth soccer years in England, Abel was on the books at Everton FC from 1994 to 1997. He also played with Stockport County FC from 1997 to 1999 before coming to the United States to attend college at Lindsey Wilson College in Columbia, Ky. He was an NAIA All-American as a freshman at Lindsey Wilson and named the 1999 NAIA National Tournament MVP after leading the Blue Raiders to the national championship.

In 2001, he went back to England to play for Chester City FC, but then returned to college, this time at Brescia where he was once again an NAIA All-American and a two-time Kentucky Intercollegiate Athletic Association Player of the Year.

Abel has a USSF "B" Coaching License and an NSCAA Advanced National Diploma.

Abel and his wife, the former Katie Schoene, who played collegiately under Tara Erickson at Portland State and was a volunteer assistant coach under Erickson at Oregon in 2007, have three children - son, Kian and daughters Lila and Ava.
