KEY STORYLINES

LAST TIME OUT

- AT FAU: The Lady Vols closed out their non-conference schedule with a 2-0 win at Florida Atlantic on Sunday.
- HOW IT HAPPENED: First-half goals by juniors Nolyn Bartholomew and Jordan Fusco fueled the Tennessee (5-1-1) victory. Sophomores Ally Brown and Kameron Simmonds earned assists on the day. The UT defense was stout, holding FAU (3-3-2) without a shot until the 75th minute. The game went into a weather delay in the 76th minute that extended beyond the time limit for resuming play, so the 2-0 score stood as final.

OFFENSIVELY SPEAKING

- TRACKING THOMAS: Scoring her first goal of the season against the Hoosiers, Thomas moved her career goals scored to 39, pulling within four of tying Kylee Rossi at No. 1 in program history.
- SIMMONDS BY THE NUMBERS: Sophomore Kameron Simmonds, who leads the team in goals with six on the season, has tallied assists in the last two contests. With 14 points on this year, she leads the SEC in points per game (2.00), and her six goals ties for first in the conference with Jordyn Rhodes of Kentucky and Catherine Barry of South Carolina. Nationally, she ties for 19th in points per game and ranks 24th in goals per game.
- IF THE SEASON ENDED TODAY: Simmonds would rank second in single-season program records for goals per game (.86) and third in points per game (2.00).

TENNESSEE TRENDS

- CREATING CHANCES: The Lady Vols outshot the Owls 12-1 and took seven corners to their one. Through the last five contests, UT has out-shot opponents 107-24 and taken 45 corner kicks while limiting the opposition to just seven.
- EVERYONE IS DANGEROUS: UT's 18 goals thus far have been scored by nine different players. Freshmen Sarah Greiner, Kate Runyon and Keaton Mitchell, sophomore Kameron Simmonds (6), juniors Jordan Fusco (2) and Nolyn Bartholomew, redshirt-seniors Maria Nelson (2) and Jaida Thomas, and graduate Sizzy Lawton (2) have all found the back of the net for the Big Orange. An own goal by ETSU rounds out the total.

ON THE WORLD STAGE

- Tennessee was well-represented at the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup with four current or former players active on rosters.
- Sophomore Kameron Simmonds made her World Cup debut as a forward for Jamaica alongside Bunny Shaw, while Hannah Wilkinson played for host-country New Zealand, and Michelle Alozie represented Nigeria.
- Both Jamaica and Nigeria advanced to the Round of 16. It was historic for Jamaica, marking the first time the Reggae Girlz - or any Caribbean nation - had advanced to the knockout stage.
- With four current or former players rostered for the World Cup, Tennessee ranked second in the SEC and tied for eighth among NCAA programs.
- UT has had a player active in every Women's World Cup dating back to 1999.
- The Lady Vols had three players on rosters in both the 2011 and 2015 World Cups, but the four in 2023 marks a program best.
- This year's foursome brought the number of VFLs appearing in a World Cup to seven, joining Kendyl Michner (Mexico), Rhian Wilkinson (Canada), and Marie-Eve Nault (Canada).

NEW FACES ON ROCKY TOP

- UT welcomed the 10 players in the program's 2023 signing class
- All 10 are versatile field players with six enrolling as freshmen and four arriving as transfers with multiple years of collegiate experience.
- Kayla Barr, Emma Duval, Sarah Greiner, Linette Hofmann, Keaton Mitchell and Kate Runyon all come to Knoxville as freshmen. Barr competed for the Big Orange during the spring season, having enrolled in January.
- Sizzy Lawton, Nayeli Diaz and Samantha Agresti all arrive on Rocky Top as graduate transfers, while Sheridan Michel just completed her sophomore season at Oklahoma.

PLAYERS TO WATCH

- Redshirt senior Jaida Thomas, senior Lawson Renie, juniors Sheridan Michel and Jordan Fusco, and sophomore Kameron Simmonds were all named to the SEC Preseason Watch List.
- Thomas, a three-time All-SEC player and 2021 All-American, enters her fourth season on Rocky Top with 38 career goals, eyeing a program record as she closes in on Kylee Rossi's program-best 43. She finished the 2022 season with 13 goals and had the best goals-per-game average in the SEC at .68.

- Renie has led the team in minutes played for the last two seasons, anchoring a back line that posted 23 shutouts during that span, including program records of 13 shutouts and a shutout streak of 633:53 in 2021. She also got involved in the offense last season, scoring three goals, two of which were gamewinners.
- A transfer from Oklahoma, Michel appeared in 20 games and made 19 starts for the Sooners last year, earning All-Big 12 Second Team honors. She scored three goals on just seven shots to record the best shot percentage on the team at .429.
- A two-year starter for the Lady Vols, Fusco enters her junior campaign poised to be an offensive threat in the midfield. The 2021 All-SEC Freshman Team nominee has scored four goals in each of her two seasons on Rocky Top and has amassed a total of 22 career points.
- Following a successful freshman season in which she carded four goals, Simmonds made her debut for the Jamaican Women's National team, scoring her first goal for the senior squad against the Czech Republic at the 2023 Cup of Nations and making the roster for the 2023 FIFA Women's World Cup where she was part of the Reggae Girlz historic run as Jamaica became the first Caribbean nation to advance to the Round of 16.

COACHING NOTES

BIOGRAPHY

Joe Kirt, a mainstay on the Tennessee sideline since 2007, was named UT's soccer head coach by Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White on April 29, 2022.

During his 16 seasons on Rocky Top, Kirt has helped guide the Lady Vols to two SEC Tournament championships, three SEC Eastern Division championships and eight NCAA Tournament appearances. As an assistant at Tennessee, Kirt played vital roles in goalkeeper development, technical and functional development for field players as well as constructing and implementing the program's game model. Tennessee has produced 10 All-Americans and 36 All-SEC selections during his tenure on staff.

In his first year at the helm, Kirt led the Lady Vols to their third straight SEC East Division Championship, tying South Carolina for the title with 15 points in divisional play while finishing second overall in the league with 22 points. The 2022 squad posted 10 shutouts on the season, including a streak of five in a row during conference play that began with a 1-0 victory at #13 Ole Miss. For the first time in program history, Tennessee went undefeated on the road in SEC matches, giving up just two goals over five contests. Sitting at #24 in the RPI following the SEC Tournament, UT made its second straight and 14th overall NCAA Tournament appearance, entering as a No. 6 Seed.

Kirt was instrumental in helping guide UT to its second straight SEC Eastern Division championship in 2021. The Vols went on to defeat top-seeded Arkansas 3-0 in the final of the SEC Tournament, bringing the trophy home for the first time since 2008 before advancing in the NCAA Tournament to the Round of 16. With a record of 20-3-0, it was the winningest team in program history.

The 2021 squad was stout defensively, posting a program-best 13 shutouts and setting a new UT shutout streak record of 633:53. Following the season, Tennessee's coaching staff was named Southeast Region Staff of the Year by United Soccer Coaches.

In 2020, Kirt helped lead Tennessee to an SEC East title, going 4-1-1 in divisional play and 4-3-1 overall in conference play. In the spring, the Big Orange recorded four more wins, three of which were shutouts, to finish the season with an 8-6-1 record and the program's the sixth-straight winning season.

Kirt mentored then-freshman goalkeeper Lindsey Romig to a record-breaking rookie campaign in 2019, as the Midlothian, Virginia, native finished the season with a 0.58 goals-against average—lowering the all-time program record set by Shae Yanez the previous season. Tennessee posted its fifth-straight winning season with a 9-6-3 record overall, and the Vols went 8-2 at Regal Soccer Stadium with shutout wins over SEC East rivals Florida, Georgia and Kentucky.

Tennessee's defensive unit saw one of the program's most successful seasons in 2018, as the Vols made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA quarterfinals. UT limited opponents to a program-best 15 goals on the season, while the Vols' 12 shutouts tied a then-Tennessee-record set in 2003.

Kirt guided Yanez to one of the program's greatest goalkeeping campaigns from a statistical standpoint in 2018, setting program records for the lowest goals-against average (0.66), highest save percentage (.856) and highest win percentage (.795) in a single season. The Downingtown, Pennsylvania, native broke UT's career record for save percentage (.820) and finished third on UT's all-time list with 21 solo shutouts, including 10 in her final year on Rocky Top.

In 2017, the Lady Vols returned to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in five years behind a defense that recorded 10 shutouts. UT conceded less than 20 goals for the third consecutive season, logging a 0.88 goals-against average as a team, with 19 goals allowed.

Kirt helped lead Tennessee to its eighth-straight NCAA Tournament appearance and its fourth SEC Tournament title in 2008. The Big Orange posted six shutouts and recorded a 1.23 goals against average during Kirt's second year on staff.

The 2007 season saw Kirt coach Johnson and the UT defense to 11 shutouts, a 0.88 goals-against average and a new program-record 457-minute shutout streak. The Lady Vol defense became a nearly immovable force at home, giving up just three goals in nine matches and shutting out the final six opponents it faced at Regal Stadium in 2007, including two NCAA Tournament matches.

In his first year in Knoxville, Kirt helped steer the Lady Vols to their seventh consecutive NCAA Tournament and fifth NCAA Round of 16 appearance. Tennessee that Fall also reached its highest NSCAA ranking in program history (No. 6).

Kirt joined the Tennessee soccer staff in July 2007 after spending three years as the Director of Goalkeeping for the Texas Soccer Club's Challenge, a youth soccer organization comprised of 29 girls' soccer teams in Houston, Texas. During his tenure, the Challenge won a total of 14 state championships and earned a No. 14 national ranking from Soccer America magazine in 2005.

Prior to his time with the Challenge, Kirt was an assistant coach with the University of Houston from 2000-05.

Prior to joining the professional ranks, Kirt earned his degree in International Studies in 1998 from Wisconsin-Oshkosh, where he played both soccer and hockey. As a member of the Titans' soccer team, Kirt earned three varsity letters playing in goal. As a senior captain in 1997, he led the team to a 13-5-1 record, capping the season with a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Coaches Association first-team selection.

A native of Brookfield, Wisconsin, Kirt holds a National Soccer Coaches Association of America national goalkeeping diploma. Joe and his wife, Susan, an eighth-grade teacher, reside in Knoxville with their sons, Landon and Luke.
