QUICK KICKS

Dogs vs. Hogs

Two of the SEC's top squads face off as Georgia travels to take on No. 6 Arkansas in Fayetteville Thursday. Both teams lead their respective SEC divisions and rank in the top 14 of the current NCAA RPI rankings. This is the first meeting between the programs since Arkansas defeated Georgia, 4-1, on Oct. 3, 2021 in Athens. In that match, the Razorbacks scored three times in the first eight minutes of play en route to a blow-out victory. The Bulldogs tied the Razorbacks, 1-1, in their last meeting in Fayetteville in 2019. In its last outing, Arkansas bested Missouri, 1-0, last Thursday in Columbia.

Top 10 Opportunity

Thursday's match marks Georgia's fourth matchup this season against a top-10 opponent, following previous contests against No. 1 UCLA, No. 9 Clemson, and No. 7 Alabama (0-1-2 record in matches). The ties against Clemson and Alabama marked the first time in program history Georgia earned a result in consecutive top-10 meetings. The four top-10 opponents ties the same number as last season - the program record for most in a season is five (2008). In program history, the Bulldogs are 8-54-4 against top-10 teams, with the most recent win coming in a 2-1 overtime victory over No. 5 LSU in 2021.

Shutting the Dore

Georgia won its second-consecutive match with a 2-1 result against Vanderbilt last Friday at Turner, the first win over the Commodores since 2015. In the 19th minute, redshirt senior Nicole Vernis used a deflected shot to score from 16 yards out. For Vernis, it was her fifth-consecutive match with a point, becoming only the eighth player in program history to reach the feat; Vernis has tallied a point in seven of the last eight outings. Later, graduate Croix Bethune found redshirt freshman Summer Denigan for the second goal of the night. While Vandy scored a late goal, the Bulldogs' defense held firm to secure the win despite facing a season-high 15 shots.

Dawg Bites

- Georgia remained unranked in this week's United Soccer Coaches and Top Drawer Soccer polls. In the NCAA RPI rankings, Georgia held at No. 14 and ranks fourth among SEC schools. Eight past and future 2023 opponents currently rank in the top 40.
- The tandem of Nicole Vernis and Summer Denigan has scored in two straight matches, the first Georgia duo to perform the feat since Mollie Belisle and Dani Murguia scored against Mississippi State and LSU in September 2021.
- Junior defender Jessie Dunn remains the iron woman among Georgia field players, tallying 90 minutes in nine matches this season. Dunn has played a full 90 in 17 of her last 20 matches.
- Through 11 matches, 11 different Bulldogs have scored a goal. Last year, the team tied a program record with 16 different scorers.
- Goalkeeper Jordan Brown has now entered the program's top 10 in saves, shutouts, starts, and minutes, while currently holding the lowest goals against average in program history (0.82).
- The Bulldogs have made great use of its talented freshman class with first-year players combining for 23 starts through the first 10 matches, on pace to top the 33 started by freshmen in 2022. With forward Jocelyn Chineza making her debut against Missouri, nine of the eleven freshmen have seen the field this season.
- Graduate midfielder Mallie McKenzie is now ranked fifth in program history with 20 assists. She also ranks seventh all-time in appearances with 86 matches, putting her on pace to break Abby Boyan's program record of 93.

Keidane McAlpine (kuh-DAWN-ee mik-AL-pine), who has led his teams to 11 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, including a national championship for USC in 2016, became the sixth head coach of the Georgia soccer program in December 2021.

The Huntsville, Alabama native immediately changed the Bulldogs' fortunes, leading the team to a 13-6-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Second Round. Under McAlpine's leadership, Georgia received its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2014 and hosted a home postseason match for the first time since 2007. The Bulldogs also upset Tennessee in the SEC Tournament, reaching the semifinals for the first time since 2010 before falling in penalties to eventual champion South Carolina.

During the season, Georgia went unbeaten on the road in conference play and finished the regular season with six straight results against league opponents, including the first three-game SEC shutout streak since 2010. The Bulldogs tied two program records with 16 different goal scorers and 12 shutouts during the year, all while tallying the second-lowest goals against average rate in program history. Graduate Abby Boyan became the program's fourth All-American, with Madison Haugen, Dani Murguia, and Cecily Stoute joining her on the United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team.

Prior to arriving in Athens, McAlpine guided USC to unprecedented success for eight seasons from 2014-21. His 2016 squad finished with a 19-4-2 record on its way to the program's second national championship, shutting out four consecutive tournament opponents before a 3-1 victory over West Virginia in the College Cup Final. His final 2021 team boasted a 14-3-3 record and finished second in the Pac-12 standings, earning him USC's first Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors since 1998.

Under his guidance, USC never missed the postseason, won at least one NCAA tournament match in six of the last seven years and never finished worse than fourth in the Pac-12. The Trojans averaged nearly 16 wins a season during his tenure and owned a 13-2-7 postseason record under his watch.

McAlpine's teams have produced 12 All-Americans, over 40 All-Conference selections, three Pac-12 Forwards of the Year, one Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, one Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year, one Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and two Pac-12 Goalkeepers of the Year. McAlpine and his staff also picked up United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year honors in 2018 and 2021.

McAlpine's 16-year head coaching career features stops at Birmingham-Southern, Washington State and USC, where he has compiled a 195-95-40 career record — a 65 percent winning percentage. His career began at his alma mater Birmingham-Southern in 2001 as he guided the program into Division I, eventually winning the Big South championship in 2004 and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. For his efforts, he was named that season's Big South Coach of the Year. Following his tenure at BSC, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn.

In addition to his success at USC, McAlpine was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year at Washington State. He led the Cougars to a program-record 14 wins and a school-best second-place finish in the conference standings. Washington State also made back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament during his tenure.

He has been active in Olympic Development Program for many years and holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. McAlpine was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer of 2004, he was selected as a staff coach for the USYSA Region III squad.

McAlpine was a four-year starter at Birmingham-Southern and was named team captain in 1996. During that season, the Panthers finished as runners-up in the NAIA Tournament after advancing to the semifinals the previous season. After graduation, McAlpine spent the 1999 season playing for the Tennessee Rhythm of the A League.

McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

Georgia returns home to face rival Florida on Sunday, Oct. 8 at 2 p.m. at Turner Soccer Complex. The annual Pink Out match will air live on ESPNU.

McAlpine's Milestone

Georgia head coach Keidane McAlpine reached a historic achievement on Sept. 25 with his 200th career win. McAlpine is the sixth coach in the SEC to enter the club, joining Auburn's Karen Hoppa, Kentucky's Troy Fabiano, South Carolina's Shelley Smith, Texas A&M's G Guerrieri, and Vanderbilt's Darren Ambrose. Additionally, the program is nearing a milestone 300th victory in program history, standing at 294 wins entering the Missouri matchup.

Bethune is Back

The most anticipated debut in Georgia soccer history finally occurred in the 35th minute of the LSU match as two-time First Team All-American Croix Bethune took the field for the Bulldogs. The Alpharetta native wasted little time making her mark, scoring off a Nicole Vernis assist in the closing moments of the first half, moving her to 80 points in her illustrious career. Bethune joined Georgia this offseason following four seasons at USC, where she was a 2021 MAC Hermann Trophy semifinalist and two-time Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year. Prior to the season, Bethune was named the No. 1 player in the country by Top Drawer Soccer.

A Stout Schedule

Georgia has faced one of the nation's toughest schedules in 2023, beginning with a road match against No. 1 UCLA, followed by contests with No. 22 UCF, No. 9 Clemson, No. 7 Alabama, and No. 6 Arkansas. Georgia is also the only Power 5 program in the country to face an opponent from each of the other four leagues. The schedule currently rates as the sixth-toughest in the nation.

Portal Pick-Ups

Croix Bethune was one of five transfers added to the roster by McAlpine. She was joined by USC teammate Hannah White, who scored five career goals for the Trojans and is the step-sister of Georgia senior forward Tori Penn. Midfielders Aly Akers (Notre Dame) and Summer Denigan (Florida State) add considerable depth to the position group, while fellow midfielder Nicole Vernis finally joins the lineup after sitting out last season following a transfer from Florida. The Bulldogs' transfer class was named third in the nation by the WoSo Independent.

Show Me a Rebound

Georgia bounced back from a tough loss to LSU with a 2-1 win on Sept. 25 at Missouri. In the eighth minute, redshirt senior Nicole Vernis converted her second penalty of the season to give Georgia the early lead. Vernis has now posted a point in each of the Bulldogs' last four outings and in six of the previous seven, giving her seven total in the past five matches. Ten minutes later, redshirt freshman Summer Denigan extended the lead as she put away a deflected shot for her second score of the season. In the second half, Missouri increased the pressure but sophomore goalkeeper Jordan Brown stood strong, matching her career high with six saves.

Tough One with Tigers

Georgia is looking to bounce back following a 3-2 loss to LSU Thursday evening in Athens. In the final minute of the first half, graduate transfer Croix Bethune scored off a Nicole Vernis assist, hitting the scoresheet only 10 minutes into her Georgia debut. Early in the second half, Madison Haugen scored for the second-straight match off a cross from Mallie McKenzie to give Georgia a 2-0 lead. However, the Tigers continued to press, cutting the deficit in half with a converted penalty in the 74th minute, followed by the equalizer just two minutes later. In the 84th, Sage Glover took advantage of a scrum in front of the net for the go-ahead goal. Thursday's loss was the first time Georgia fell after holding a second-half lead since a 2-1 loss to Vanderbilt on Oct. 28, 2021.

Senior Day Shutout

Georgia concluded its non-conference slate with a 5-0 Senior Day victory over San Francisco on Sept. 17. After USF battered Georgia with five shots in the first 10 minutes of play, the Bulldogs found the board with an Aly Akers goal in the 13th minute, followed by a moon shot from Ellie Gilbert in the 39th minute. In the second half, Madison Haugen converted a penalty kick with late goals coming later from Olivia Briede and Caroline Smith. The Bulldogs earned their fourth shutout of the season despite only leading 14-13 in shots and allowing a season-high six corner kicks.
