NOTES & NUMBERS

Hannah Hogue Show

- After being named SEC Setter of the Week five times and Player of the Week once, Hannah Hogue received All-SEC honors on Nov. 26, the first of her career
- In her first season as primary setter, Hogue has shined and is currently sixth in the country in assists/set with 11.18
- After eclipsing 1,000 career assists in September, Hogue also joined the program career top 10 in assists in October and has 2,009 so far
- The Fort Smith native and second-generation Razorback (dad, Gary, played baseball at Arkansas and mom, Cissie, was a cheerleader) has also has great success at the service line with 0.41 aces per set, good for second in the SEC

Rewriting History

- The sum has also been greater than the parts for the Hogs this fall as the team achieved its best 20-match start to a season in program history at 18-2, recorded its third consecutive 20-win season, and has its most wins since 1999 with 28, also the most in one season in Jason Watson's tenure at Arkansas
- The Razorbacks have also seen unprecedented fan support in Fayetteville this season, with a new single match attendance record against No. 1 Wisconsin on Aug. 30 with 4,299 fans, seven of the 10 highest-attended matches in program history, season tickets up by 59 percent, and a new single season home attendance record of 32,694 (25th nationally)
- 7,404 fans showed up to Barnhill for Arkansas' first and second round NCAA matches, the highest-attended weekend in Fayetteville ever and the highest-attended first and second rounds of any SEC team that hosted

Razorbacks on the Rise

- Arkansas spent every week of the regular season in the top 25, the first time that has happened for the program since 1999
- Prior to 2023, Arkansas' highest rank as a program was No. 13. The Hogs spent seven weeks higher than that and entered the top eight on Oct. 30
- From the preseason poll to Oct. 30, the Razorbacks rose a total of 17 spots from No. 25 to their highest rank, No. 8. That ties Washington State for the most spots risen on the season, as the Cougars jumped from No. 21 to No. 4

Ace Queens

- The Razorbacks are serving at an elite level and are currently first among SEC teams with 1.86 aces per set
- Graduate outside hitter Jill Gillen took over as the program all-time ace leader on Oct. 4 and currently has 52 on the season, a new single season career high
- Arkansas also checks in at eighth nationally in total aces with 229

The 7-10 Special

- Arkansas' hitting duo of Jill Gillen and Taylor Head continue to blaze their way through the Razorback record book and garner national attention this year
- Both were named All-SEC on Nov. 26, Gillen for the fifth time and Head the third time
- Gillen moved her way into No. 2 on the Arkansas all-time career kills list on Oct. 8 and got her 2,000th career kill in the regular season finale, one of just two Razorbacks to ever record 2,000
- Head also set a milestone in the last match of the regular season as she officially entered the program top five in kills, and has 1,527 currently
- The pair also both entered the program career top 10 in digs this season and are in fifth (Head, 1,254) and sixth (Gillen, 1,252) place

Jason Watson was named the third head coach of the University of Arkansas volleyball team on January 7, 2016, and has taken the program to historic heights ever since. He enters his eighth season with a 304–244 (.522) career record, 105–96 at Arkansas, and had led his teams to eight NCAA Tournament selections, the most recent in 2022.

Watson is coming off his best season yet at Arkansas in 2022. The Hogs began the year on a great note as they defeated the No. 8 Washington Huskies 3–1 at Barnhill Arena on Aug. 25. Arkansas won six of its next seven after that and re-entered the AVCA Coaches Poll for the first time in seven years on Sept. 13. The Razorbacks hosted No. 7 Georgia Tech later that week and took down the Yellow Jackets 3–1 for their highest ranked win since 2007. It marked the first time ever that Arkansas had two top 10 wins in a season, and surged the Hogs to No. 20 in the coaches poll, their highest ranking since 1999.

Arkansas continued to roll and finished the regular season 20–8, the team's second consecutive 20-win season. Their hard work paid off as the Razorbacks were selected for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2013, and the first time in Watson's tenure at Arkansas. The Hogs took down Utah State 3–0 in round one, their first NCAA win since 2005. They were defeated by the Oregon Ducks in round two, bringing the season record to 21–9.

The Razorbacks had two All-SEC selections in Jill Gillen and Taylor Head, and the pair was also named AVCA All-South Region. Head garnered AVCA All-America Honorable Mention status to round out postseason accolades. Both Gillen and Head had tremendous seasons for the Hogs. Gillen entered the top five in program career kills and currently sits in fourth with 1,548, while Head became the 18th member of the Arkansas 1,000-kill club on Nov. 25, 2022.

Setter Gracie Ryan concluded her Arkansas career in 2022 and finished with 3,470 assists, good for fourth in program history. She played 128 matches over her five seasons, the most of any player in the current scoring era, dating back to 2007.

Arkansas saw unprecedented fan support in 2022 as well with a new season ticket record, new total attendance record (19,607) and new average attendance record (1,225) over their 16 home matches at Barnhill Arena, statistics that both rank within the top 50 nationally.

The 2021 slate marked his first postseason appearance at Arkansas, as the team accepted a bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), in which the Hogs finished in the quarterfinals. The team posted a 20–11 overall record, its first 20-win season since 2012 and the most regular season wins since 2018. The Hogs led the SEC in service aces with 1.61 per set, and came within the top five in kills, assists, and digs.

Jillian Gillen and Courtney Jackson earned All-SEC and All-SEC Freshman Team honors and Gillen and Gracie Ryan landed on the AVCA All-South Region rosters, the second consecutive year in which Arkansas received spots on the lists. Gillen also received SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year designation for the second time.

In his fifth season as skipper in the 2020–21 split season, Watson led the Razorbacks to 14 conference wins, the most for Arkansas since 2003. He was honored with his first-ever SEC Coach of the Year award as Gillen was named SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and 2020 freshman Taylor Head was named SEC Freshman of the Year. Gillen and Head also earned a spot on the All-SEC team and All-SEC Freshman Team respectively and went on to earn AVCA All-South Region recognition as well.

In 2019, the Razorbacks were predicted to finish two spots higher in the SEC than where they finished in 2018 – one could contribute the improvement from the recognized incoming class that earned Highest Honorable Mention by PrepVolleyball.com. That freshman class went on to help Arkansas finish the 2019 season at 11–17, which included a three-match winning streak to close out the home slate, highlighted by five-set wins over Alabama and Ole Miss. Watson helped recruit and sign 2019 freshman Jillian Gillen, who led the league's freshmen in kills per set (3.74) and ranked seventh among all players. Gillen racked up multiple awards, including two SEC Freshman of the Week awards, SEC All-Freshman Team honors and a spot on the 2019 VolleyballMag.com All-Freshman Team.

In his second season, Watson oversaw a 10-win improvement from the previous year with the Razorbacks finishing the 2017 campaign with a 19–11 overall record and 9–9 mark in SEC play. Arkansas' 10 wins at Barnhill Arena marked the program's highest home-win total since 2012. Arkansas also finished the year at No. 47 in the final RPI rankings.

Individually, senior Pilar Victoria led the NCAA with 5.47 kills per set and 6.08 points per set in 2017 and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention and All-SEC honors. Additionally, she and setter Rachel Rippee collected AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention accolades. Away from the court, the Razorbacks combined to earn a second-consecutive AVCA Academic Team award.

The Razorbacks matched their SEC output from the previous season with a 7–11 mark in league play during Watson's first year including six wins in their last nine matches of the year. Individually, senior Danielle Harbin emerged to finish third in the SEC with 4.22 kills per set on her way to AVCA All-South Region honors.

In eight years in Tempe, Ariz., Watson transformed ASU Volleyball from a perennial sub-.500 program into a postseason regular. In his last four seasons, the Sun Devils averaged more than 19 wins per season with four-consecutive bids to the NCAA Tournament. Watson also coached a pair of All-America performers, one in each of the past two seasons, for ASU's first national honorees since 2000.

Arizona State began the 2015 campaign with a 15–0 record and reached as high as No. 5 in the AVCA Top 25 poll. The Sun Devils also opened conference play with their best start in the Pac-10/12 era with four wins including the program's first win over Stanford in 15 years.

In 2014, ASU opened the season with six straight wins on the way to a 20–14 record. The Sun Devils were ranked in each AVCA regular season poll. Making its third straight trip to the NCAA Tournament, ASU defeated Texas A&M 3–1 to advance to the second round of the Tournament for the first time since 2006.

Watson led ASU to a 19–13 overall record in 2013 including a 3–0 upset of then-NCAA defending champion Texas. The Sun Devils started the season without dropping a set in their first seven matches. Making its second consecutive NCAA Tournament appearance, ASU dropped a five-set match to BYU in the first round.

In 2012, the Sun Devil squad opened with an 11–2 record, the best start since 1992. The Sun Devils finished with 20 wins – the most in a single season at ASU since 1993. The nine conference wins equaled the most since 2000. ASU made the program's 16th appearance in the NCAA Tournament and Watson became just the fifth coach from ASU to guide the Sun Devils to a NCAA postseason berth.

Watson arrived as the head coach at ASU in 2008. In 2013, he was also named head coach of the sand volleyball team when the sport was added to the athletics program.

In June 2015, Watson was selected by USA Volleyball to serve as the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team on a six-match tour of China.

In his three seasons at the helm of the BYU program, Watson compiled a 74–18 (.804) overall record while leading BYU to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. During his first season as head coach, Watson was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 25–4 record, the program's best mark since 1998. In addition to leading BYU to the MWC regular-season title, Watson also helped lead the Cougars back to the NCAA Tournament.

In 2007, he led the Cougars to a 24–8 overall record and an Elite 8 finish in the NCAA Regional Final. His team also finished the year ranked 12th nationally, and at one point through the season, the Cougars held a rank as high as ninth in the country. No stranger to the best competition, Watson's teams have been ranked as high as eighth on RPI, showing the character and strength of the teams he builds. Never backing down from challenges are also another hall-mark trait of Watson-led teams.

Watson previously amassed 11 years as an assistant coach at four universities. After an All-American playing career at BYU, Watson coached for two years under his former coach, Carl McGown, before beginning his career in women's volleyball with extremely successful stints at Kansas State, Arkansas State, and Montana State.

Watson was a four-year starter at BYU from 1990–1994 and two-time captain. He graduated from BYU in 1995 with a degree in physical education and sports business management after leaving his native home of Homebush, Australia.

He and his wife, Larissa, have two sons and a daughter.
