GAME SET-UP

THE MATCH-UP

- Tennessee (14-8, 7-3 SEC), which has won its past six games at home, welcomes Arkansas (17-8, 5-5 SEC) to Food City Center on Monday night for its 2024 Play4Kay "pink game" and the first of three contests during the calendar week.
- UT and UA will square off at 7:02 p.m. ET in a contest televised by SEC Network.
- The Lady Vols stumbled in Tuscaloosa on Thursday night, 72-56, but still held onto a share of second in the SEC standings with LSU and Mississippi State.
- Those squads could move ahead of UT with wins on Sunday, but the Big Orange could knot things up with a victory over the Razorbacks the next night.
- Despite the setback at Bama, Tennessee has triumphed in four of its past six games and in 10 of its last 13. All three of UT's SEC losses have come on the road.
- UA, meanwhile, stubbed its toe in Gainesville, dropping an 85-81 decision to Florida on Thursday night.
- The Razorbacks have won four of their past seven games, prevailing at Bama, 77-59, but losing at home to the Tide by an 86-70 count.

SEASON RESET

- After functioning without All-America and SEC Player of the Year candidate Rickea Jackson for eight games from Nov. 13 to Dec. 10 and posting a 4-4 record during her absence, Tennessee has been a drastically different team since she was cleared following a lower leg injury.
- The Lady Vols are 9-3 since Jackson returned to action and are in a season-best stretch where they have won 10 of their past 13 games and are currently positioned among the top teams in the SEC standings and the highest-rated league squads in the NET rankings.
- Among those triumphs are top-60 NET victories over No. 27 Mississippi State, No. 36 Oklahoma, No. 55 Auburn, No. 57 Vanderbilt and No. 58 Florida. The win over Okla. in November was without Rickea Jackson.
- In addition to getting Jackson back, UT has been bolstered by the continued improvement of 6-foot-6 center Tamari Key. The school's all-time leading shot blocker was sidelined after eight games a year ago due to blood clots in her lungs and understandably needed time to reacclimate to the rigors of the game.
- Tennessee also has had to absorb the loss of reserve point guard Destinee Wells, who suffered a lower leg injury just prior to the Wofford game and is out for the season. Fifth-year standout Jasmine Powell has impressively picked up more of the load, and junior Kaiya Wynn has stepped up and provided a spark off the bench on both ends of the floor.
- With the players available for the past 12 contests stepping into and accepting their roles, the Lady Vols have competed cohesively as a team, with different players each game emerging to provide valuable contributions in starring and support capacities.

RECAPPING THE LAST GAME

- The Lady Vols suffered a tough shooting night on the road Thursday, falling in SEC play to Alabama in Coleman Coliseum, 72-56.
- Fifth-year seniors Rickea Jackson and Jasmine Powell were the leading scorers for Tennessee (14-8, 7-3 SEC) with 13 and nine, respectively. Fellow fifth-year Tamari Key also had a productive night, turning in nine points and a team-leading seven rebounds.
- Aaliyah Nye was the top producer for Alabama (19-6, 6-4 SEC) with 23 points. Jessica Timmons was also in double figures with 14, and Loyal McQueen finished with 10.

POSTGAME NOTES VS. ALABAMA

- CLOSER TO 1,000: Rickea Jackson and Tamari Key finished with 13 and nine points, respectively, vs. Alabama, drawing them nearer to milestones. Key moved

LADY VOL POINTS OF PRIDE

- THE ONLY TEAM IN ALL 41: Tennessee is the only women's basketball program to compete in all 41 NCAA Tournaments. Kellie Harper guided the Lady Vols to the 2021 through 2023 tourneys and had the team in position in 2020 before the COVID-19 pandemic forced the cancellation of the event.
- WINNINGEST PROGRAM: The Lady Vols have the most all-time wins by a women's basketball program in NCAA Division I history, standing at 1,465-380 through the Alabama game.
- WNBA FIRST ROUND FACTORY: Jordan Horston became the 45th Lady Vol to be drafted and the 20th first-rounder in the WNBA Draft, going ninth to Seattle in 2023. Kellie Harper has had first-rounders in the past three drafts, making her one of only four active coaches and one of 10 all-time to produce first-round picks in three consecutive WNBA Drafts.
- HALL OF FAMERS: Tennessee has 10 former players, three former coaches and two former administrators enshrined in the Women's Basketball Hall of Fame. Pat Summitt, Tamika Catchings and 1976 U.S. Olympians Summitt (player/UT Martin grad.) Cindy Brogdon and Trish Roberts are members of the Naismith Memorial Basketball of Fame.
- 100 PERCENT GRAD. RATE: Every Lady Vol who has completed her eligibility at UT (150) has gotten a degree and earned the right to sign the "Graduation Pole" in the locker room.

REMEMBERING NIKKI & TASHA

- The Tennessee family lost two beloved alums during the past year, and UT players are wearing NM and TB patches on their shooting shirts to honor their Lady Vol sisters.
- Both women bravely battled breast cancer and will be remembered this season and always.
- On July 7, LVFL Nikki McCray-Penson, an assistant coach at Rutgers, passed away at 41.
- On Oct. 23, LVFL Tasha Butts died at 41.
- McCray-Penson starred at Tennessee from 1991-95 and went on to play in the WNBA and for the U.S. Olympic Team, winning gold medals in 1996 and 2000. She was a college head coach at Old Dominion and Mississippi State.
- Butts played at UT from 2000-04 and in the WNBA as well as overseas. Starting her career as a G.A. at UT in 2004-05, she was hired for her first head coaching job at Georgetown in April.

SPEAR NAMED SEC POTW ON FEB. 6

- Tennessee's Jewel Spear was named SEC Women's Basketball Co-Player of the Week on Feb. 6.
- Spear, who garnered her first-ever SEC weekly honor, shared recognition with Alabama's Sarah Ashlee Barker and is the second Lady Vol this season to earn distinction, joining Jan. 9 recipient Rickea Jackson.
- The 5-foot-10 guard was sensational against Georgia and Missouri last week, averaging 23.5 points, 5.5 rebounds, 3.5 assists and 2.0 steals. She also shot a blazing 60.7 percent from the field and went nine of 16 from the three-point arc (55.6 pct.) as UT went 2-0.
- Spear put up 25 points with five three-pointers at Georgia and followed that with 22 points on four treys along with six rebounds, six assists and three steals vs. Missouri.

SMOOTH JAZZ

- Jasmine Powell has settled in nicely for year two on Rocky Top, averaging 9.9 ppg. after tallying 4.7 ppg. last season and is Tennessee's leader in assists (91/4.3 apg.) and fourth-leading rebounder in 2023-24 at 4.3 rpg. despite standing just 5-6.
- She's also producing 9.8 ppg. in SEC games, adding 5.6 apg. and 3.8 rpg.
- She has dished her top six assist totals of the season over the past 12 contests, distributing 10 vs. Wofford, nine vs. Kentucky, seven at Miss. State, eight vs. Vanderbilt, six at Ole Miss, nine at Georgia and nine vs. Missouri.
- Against Miss. State (7), Vanderbilt (8), Ole Miss (6) and Georgia (9) and Missouri (6), she tallied 36 assists, averaging 7.2 apg. during that span.
- Powell scored in double figures in four consecutive games from Nov. 19 to Nov. 29, marking the first time she has done that while at Tennessee.
- She missed the Troy game due to a wrist injury but returned vs. #21/19 Indiana and contributed 12 points. She then put up a season-high 19 vs. #22/20 Oklahoma on 5-of-8 marksmanship before getting a start vs. #18/14 Notre Dame and leading UT with 14 points.
- The previous time Powell played in a game before the injury, she tallied 17 points in the win over Memphis on Nov. 13.

PUCKETT PLAYING AT ANOTHER LEVEL

- Sara Puckett is third on the squad at 10.6 ppg. and third in boards at 5.1 rpg. in all games after notching 15 points vs. Missouri on Feb. 4 for her fourth SEC game of double-figure scoring
- She now has 12 total contests in double figures in 2023-24, surpassing her previous career-best season total of seven from her freshman campaign. She now has 23 for her career.
- With 13 points against Oklahoma, Sara Puckett notched her sixth consecutive contest in double figures to open the season and is the only Lady Vol to do that during the Kellie Harper era.
- Her consecutive streak, which ended vs. Notre Dame, was the longest since Mercedes Russell opened the 2017-18 campaign with 23 consecutive contests in double figures, spanning Nov. 12, 2017, to Feb. 4, 2018.
- Puckett's previous best run of consecutive double-figure contests was a four-game spree during games 8-11 of her rookie campaign in 2021-22, when she had 10+ vs. Virginia Tech (15), Georgia State (12), Stanford (10) and ETSU (19).
- Puckett dropped 11, 15, 24, 14, 13 and 13 in her opening six contests as a junior.
- Her 14 vs. Troy on Nov. 19 came on the heels of an illness that kept her out of the previous day's practice.
- Her 13 points vs. #21/19 Indiana came after scoring zero points in the first half due to foul trouble and after she rolled an ankle during the team's shoot-around earlier in the day.

- The only other player over the past five years to open with at least five straight double-figure efforts was Rae Burrell, who began the 2020-21 campaign with five consecutive efforts of 10 or more points.
- Puckett fired in her career high of 24 vs. Memphis, charting a third-straight double-figure performance for only the second time in her career and then matching her career high with her fourth in a row vs. Troy.
- Puckett was the No. 43 ranked player in the HoopGurlz espnW 100 class of 2021 and that season's Alabama Gatorade Player of the Year.

THINGS ARE CLICKING FOR KAIYA

- Kaiya Wynn is enjoying a breakthrough season, putting up career-best averages of 5.4 ppg. and 2.6 rpg. while shooting 41 percent from the field and 72 percent from the charity stripe.
- In SEC play, she is at 5.7 ppg. and 2.6 rpg. while shooting 43 percent from the field and 74 percent at the line.
- Wynn already has posted season mosts for minutes, points, field goals, three-pointers, free throws, assists, blocks and steals during her third year on Rocky Top.
- She averaged 8.2 minutes per game as a freshman, 5.1 last season and now 14.7 per contest in 2023-24.
- In terms of double-figure scoring, Wynn has tallied 10+ points in five games this season.
- Prior to 2023-24, she had reached 10 points only once in 61 games, tallying 12 vs. ETSU as a freshman.

STRIPLIN HAS EMERGED AS JUNIOR

- Karoline Striplin has shown continued growth during her third season on Rocky Top, currently averaging 9.1 ppg. and 3.9 rpg. while shooting 50 percent from the field, 33 percent on threes and 76 on charity tosses.
- She has been in double figures a career season-high eight times this season and on 14 occasions during her time as a Lady Vol.
- Striplin had a four-game streak of double-figure scoring from Dec. 6 to Dec. 31 that ranks as a career best.
- With Jillian Hollingshead out vs. MTSU on Dec. 6, Striplin got her first start of the season and 29th of her career. She responded with a career-best 29 points on 11-of-20 shooting, including 4-of-8 accuracy beyond the arc. Striplin was three of three at the charity stripe as well.
- She followed with a team-high 17 vs. ECU on Dec. 10.
- Striplin tallied 19 points and 14 rebounds vs. Troy on Nov. 19, recording (then) career highs in both categories to notch the first double-double of her career and doing so in the first half alone with 15 and 10.
- Striplin opened the season with her previous scoring high of 18 points on 7-of-8 shooting vs. Florida A&M.
- She also tallied 13 vs. No. 21/19 Indiana and 10 vs. No. 18/14 Notre Dame.
- In the Indiana game, Striplin had a run of 11 straight points vs. the Hoosiers in the third frame.

STRIPLIN JOINS ELITE COMPANY

- With 29 points against Middle Tennessee on Dec. 6, Karoline Striplin became one of only three players during the Kellie Harper era to score that many points.
- Striplin joined Rickea Jackson (31 this season vs. Florida State/34 last year vs. Kentucky in the SEC Tournament) and Renna Davis (four total efforts of 30+ from 2017-21).
- Jewel Spear joined with 30 vs. Ole Miss (1/28/24).
- Prior to that outburst vs. MTSU, Striplin's previous career best was 19 vs. Troy on Nov. 19, 2023.

JILLIAN FINDING HER NICHE

- Jillian Hollingshead is Tennessee's second-leading rebounder through 22 contests, pulling down 5.3 rpg. to go along with a 4.5 scoring average.
- She tallied seven points at Texas A&M on Jan. 14, marking her highest scoring total since posting seven vs. Wofford on Dec. 19.
- She had an 18-point, 10-rebound double-double vs. Troy and turned in a 14-point, nine-rebound effort vs. Memphis the game before.
- Ten of Hollingshead's points and seven of her boards came during the second half/overtime in the victory over Memphis on Nov. 13.
- The double-figure efforts for Hollingshead give her two for the season, eight at UT and nine for her career, with one coming as a freshman at Georgia in 2021-22.
- Hollingshead's inside production was crucial with Tamari Key working her way back from last season's medical shutdown and Rickea Jackson missing games due to injury this season.

- Unfortunately for Hollingshead and the Lady Vols, her production was paused while missing the MTSU game due to being in concussion protocol, but she returned with a team-high nine rebounds to go with six points and three assists in 19 minutes vs. EKV.
- She pulled down 10 boards in the win over Wofford.

TESS MOVES INTO CAREER TREYS TOP 10

- Tess Darby joined Tennessee's career top 10 for three-pointers made this season and currently stands at No. 8 with 157.

UT SHOOTING, HITTING THREES IN BUNCHES

- Tennessee has attempted 490 three-pointers and hit 154 through 22 games. UT already has made as many treys as it did in 18 different seasons.
- The 2023-24 Lady Vols have hit 10 or more three-pointers on five occasions, tying the 2010-11, 2007-08 and 2002-03 teams for most in a season by the program.
- They also marked the first time in program history that UT knocked down 10 or more treys in a game at least four times during the opening 12 contests of a season.
- The Big Orange made a season-best 12 at Liberty on Dec. 31 and fired in 10 at Florida State on Nov. 9, vs. Troy on Nov. 19 and vs. Wofford on Dec. 19. They struck for 12 again on Feb. 1 at Georgia.

KEY ONCE AGAIN PATROLLING THE PAINT

- After missing all but nine games a year ago due to blood clots being discovered in her lungs, 6-foot-6 redshirt senior Tamari Key was intent on providing an interior presence on both ends of the floor.
- Key was a 2021-22 Lisa Leslie Award top-five finalist and All-SEC Second Team selection by the coaches and the USA TODAY Sports Network, and she is a two-time SEC All-Defensive Team choice (2020-21 & 2021-22).
- She is UT's all-time record holder for blocks in a career (323), career blocks per game (2.71) triple-doubles in a career (2), blocks in a season (119, 2021-22), season blocks per game (3.50) and triple-doubles in a season (1, 2020-21 & 2021-22).
- Key is one of only nine players in SEC women's basketball history to reach 300 career blocks, and she currently ranks No. 8 with 324 as of Feb. 10.
- The top nine are 1.) Heidi Gillingham, Vanderbilt (413, 1991-94), 2.) Marita Payne, Auburn (377, 2003-06), 3.) Angela Gorsica, Vanderbilt (368, 1994-97), 4.) A'ja Wilson, South Carolina (363, 2014-18), 5.) Vanessa Hayden, Florida (357, 2001-04), 6.) Aliyah Boston, South Carolina (330, 2019-23), 7.) Martha Alwal, Miss. State (328, 2011-15), 8.) Tamari Key (UT, 324, 2019-Present) and 9.) Sylvia Fowles, LSU (321, 2004-08).
- She has UT's No. 2 (11) single-game blocks high as well as the No. 3, 4, 5, 6 and 9 sums as well.
- Offensively, Key has shot 59.7 pct. for her career to rank No. 4 all-time at Tennessee.
- Key averaged 8.4 ppg., 4.2 rpg. and 2.0 bpg. while shooting 66.7 percent from the field in 2022-23 before being sidelined. She put up 10.5/8.1/3.5/58.1 in 2021-22.
- She entered the 2023-24 season with 881 points, needing 119 to become the 49th Lady Vol to join the 1,000-point club.

- The Lady Vols turned in a 3.37 team grade point average for the fall, ranking as the team's second-highest term GPA on record (only bested by Fall 21's 3.39).
- There were three perfect 4.0 GPA efforts and eight of 13 team members were above a 3.5 for the term.

FIFTH IN LEARFIELD CUP STANDINGS

- Through the conclusion of fall sports, Tennessee ranks fifth in the LEARFIELD Director's Cup Standings with 292.5 points. That is the most points scored by UT for a fall season.
- Last year, Tennessee's sixth-place finish in the Directors' Cup was its best finish in school history. UT also was the second-best finisher among SEC schools a season ago.
- The Lady Vols contributed a second-straight NCAA Sweet 16 berth to last year's UT finish.

WELLS OUT FOR THE YEAR

- Head coach Kellie Harper shared after the Wofford game the unfortunate news that reserve point guard Destinee Wells was lost for the season due to a lower right leg injury. Wells was hurt in practice leading up to that contest.
- Wells who started four of the 10 games she played, averaged 6.8 ppg., 3.5 app. and 2.3 rpg. while shooting 81 percent from the free-throw line.
- She led the team with 35 assists (3.5 app.) at the time of her injury and scored in double figures on three occasions.
- Destinee Wells knocked down her first three pointer of the season late in the first quarter against Troy and went on to score 18 points while dishing out a game-high eight assists and grabbing four rebounds.
- The senior guard did so while getting her first start at point guard due to an injury to Jasmine Powell.
- She enjoyed her second game in double figures vs. No. 18/14 Notre Dame on Nov. 29, tossing in 13 points and dishing out five assists vs. the Irish, followed by a team-high 11 vs. No. 16/13 Ohio State.

HARPER IN YEAR FIVE AT ALMA MATER

- Kellie Harper is in year five at Tennessee, reaching 100 victories as Lady Vol head coach during UT's We Back Pat game vs. Vanderbilt on Jan. 21 and closing in on 400 wins for her career. She is 102-47 at UT and has a 387-255 record overall through the Alabama game.
- Harper has led her teams to 15 postseason bids in 19 years (8 NCAA/7 WNIT) through 2022-23, including a perfect three-for-three on NCAA bids while in Knoxville.
- She led Tennessee to back-to-back NCAA Sweet 16s in 2021-22 and 2022-23, making her one of only seven coaches nationwide to do that in each of the past two seasons.
- Harper (MSU 2019/UT 2022 & 2023) is one of only 10 NCAA DI coaches to make three or more appearances in the NCAA Sweet 16 since the 2018-19 Big Dance, one of only six females to do so and the youngest of those six.
- She has piloted her squads to 15 top-three league finishes and four league tourney titles along the way, including four straight third-place SEC finishes at UT.
- Her past two teams won 25 games, including a 25-9/11-5 SEC record in 2021-22 and a 25-12/13-3 SEC worksheet in 2022-23, despite losing All-SEC performers and game-changers Jordan Horston and Tamari Key in back-to-back campaigns for medical reasons.
- The Lady Vols' 13 SEC wins a year ago were the most since 2014-15, they recorded 25 victories in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, and they advanced to the SEC Tournament title game for the first time since 2015.
- Harper is 50-21 in SEC games through the Alabama contest, ranking third in winning percentage in league games behind only LSU's Kim Mulkey and South Carolina's Dawn Staley. Harper and Staley are the only coaches to guide their teams to top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four seasons.
- Tennessee's 18-1 start in 2021-22 was its best since 2007-08. UT also defeated five ranked teams for the most since 2017-18, topping its total of five from Harper's first two seasons in Knoxville combined.
- One of only two skippers to guide four different programs to the NCAA Tournament, the 1999 UT graduate and three-time national champion point guard joined Jim Foster in that select company in 2020-21. She has done so while reshaping programs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and now Tennessee.

SUMMITT BLUE UNIFORMS

- Tennessee wore "Summitt Blue" uniforms for the first time in the modern era on Jan. 15, 2023, as the Lady Vols beat Georgia, 68-55, in Knoxville.
- UT fell to 1-1 in women's hoops while wearing those uniforms after donning them in a road loss at Mississippi State on Feb. 6, 2023.
- The Lady Vols, though, are now 3-1 in blue after defeating Florida, 88-81, on Jan. 11, 2024, and Missouri, 80-69, on Feb. 4, 2024.
- In conjunction with the 50th anniversary of Title IX, Tennessee Athletics' updated brand standards renamed the blue accent color historically associated with the Lady Vols "Summitt Blue."
- Four teams debuted the Summitt Blue uniforms during the 2022-23 academic year - a collection dubbed the "Summitt Legacy" series.
- During fall, the Tennessee soccer and volleyball teams were the first to compete in the new Summitt Blue jerseys.
- The Lady Vol basketball team followed suit with a full Summitt Blue uniform vs Georgia, and the softball squad's jersey rotation also featured a Summitt Blue option last spring.
- Summitt Blue stands alongside "Smokey Grey" and "Dark Mode" (formerly Anthracite) as the three accent colors on Tennessee Athletics' official color palette.
- "Tennessee's history as a worldwide leader in women's athletics, along with the Lady Vols' unique legacy of excellence are traditions we are proud to celebrate," Tennessee Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White said. "As some of our teams saw their new Summitt Blue uniforms for the first time, they reacted with a joy and enthusiasm that extended to our fans and proud alumni."
- The first version of the Lady Vols' blue accent color appeared in 1968 when Joan Cronan set out to obtain jerseys for the women's basketball team. At the time, no company offered an orange uniform, so Cronan opted for Columbia blue uniforms with orange lettering when the Lady Vols played at home.
- Later, when orange uniforms became available, Tennessee switched to the traditional orange jerseys but a touch of Summitt Blue has remained.
- Blue also has appeared on Tennessee men's uniforms in the past, as the men's basketball program used a shade of blue as an accent color on its jerseys during the head coaching tenure of Ray Mears in the 1960s.
- The Tennessee football team wore blue accessories during a 2022 home game vs. UT Martin and a 2023 contest vs. UConn. In addition to commemorating the anniversary of Title IX, the Summitt Blue color honored longtime Lady Vols head coach and innovator in the sport of basketball, Pat Summitt. UT Martin served as the alma mater for the iconic Tennessee head coach.

HARPER ELITE IN DEVELOPING WNBA PICKS

- With Jordan Horston's selection at No. 9 in the 2023 WNBA Draft, Kellie Harper is only the fourth among active women's coaches to have first-round selections in three consecutive drafts and the 10th all-time. UConn's Geno Auriemma, Stanford's Tara VanDerveer and South Carolina's Dawn Staley are the only other active skipper to accomplish that feat.
- The former coaches include Ohio State's Jim Foster, North Carolina's Sylvia Hatchell, Georgia's Andy Landers, Notre Dame's Muffet McGraw, Rutgers' C. Vivian Stringer and Tennessee's Pat Summitt (2001, 2002, 2003).
- Only Auriemma (3 times) and Hatchell (twice) have gone back-to-back-back more than once.
- Only Auriemma and McGraw have had first-round picks in more than three consecutive seasons, with Auriemma doing so four times in a row twice from 2008 to 2011 and from 2013 to 2016, and McGraw enjoying a four-year run from 2012 to 2015. It would appear Harper would have a solid chance to join that small club in 2024, with returnee Rickea Jackson projected as a first-round pick.

- The Lady Vols are one of only seven programs making the NCAA Sweet 16 in each of the past two seasons.
- UT is the only school besides South Carolina to card top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four years.
- Kellie Harper guided the Big Orange past LSU and into the 2023 SEC Tournament title game, marking the program's first appearance since 2015.
- Top scorer Rickea Jackson (2023 Cheryl Miller Award Finalist) and UT's all-time blocks queen Tamari Key (2022 Lisa Leslie Award Finalist), both All-SEC players, return.
- UT's transfer class is ranked No. 6 by 247Sports, via a No. 7 rating for Jewel Spear and a No. 19 spot for Destinee Wells.
- ESPN has Spear and Wells slotted at No. 4 & No. 15, respectively, in its portal rankings, while The Athletic has them at No. 8 and No. 13.

SIX RETURN WITH STARTING EXPERIENCE

- Tennessee welcomed back a veteran nucleus, with upperclassmen Tess Darby (35), Karoline Striplin (28), Rickea Jackson (24), Sara Puckett (15), Jasmine Powell (11) and Tamari Key (9) combining for 122 starts last season and amassing a total of 466 during their careers.
- Key departed after nine games in 2022-23 due to blood clots in her lungs, but she returned to limited practice in June 2023 ahead of UT's European Tour. She practiced but did not play in two games vs. all-star teams.
- Averaging 8.4 ppg. and 4.2 rpg., Key was UT's third-leading scorer and fourth-leading rebounder despite her condition last season.
- Darby (7.4), Jillian Hollingshead (6.2 ppg., 36 games but zero starts) and the trio of Powell, Striplin and Puckett were next, all at 4.7 ppg.
- Powell distributed 3.1 apg.

DISPLAYING PORTAL POWER

- Kellie Harper and her staff have recruited the transfer portal very successfully, and spring 2023 was no exception.
- The Lady Vols added seniors Jewel Spear (Wake Forest) and Destinee Wells (Belmont), who each have a COVID year option they could use for 2024-25.
- UT also welcomed sophomores Avery Strickland (Pitt) and Talaysia Cooper (South Carolina).
- Spear (32), Wells (35) and Strickland (11), who are eligible to play this season, combined for 78 starts last season and bring 189 total career starting nods to UT.
- Cooper, who made her transfer destination decision after the NCAA portal closed, is able to practice this season but must sit out due to that timing. Cooper played in 24 games last season for the Gamecocks.
- Last year's transfer portal class including Rickea Jackson (Mississippi State), Jasmine Powell (Minnesota) and Jillian Hollingshead (Georgia). All three made immediate impacts a year ago, and Jackson was the SEC's third-leading scorer at 19.2 ppg.

FIVE ALL-CONFERENCE HONOREES

- Tennessee has five players on its roster who have earned all-conference honors here or at their previous schools.
- Forward Rickea Jackson is a three-time WBCA All-America Honorable Mention choice, two-time All-SEC & SEC All-Tournament honoree and 2023 Cheryl Miller Award finalist.
- Center Tamari Key is a 2022 Lisa Leslie Award & Naismith Defensive Player of the Year finalist, All-SEC Second Team member & two-time SEC All-Defensive Team choice.
- Guard Jewel Spear was a two-time All-ACC and ACC All-Tournament honoree in three years at Wake Forest.
- Point guard Destinee Wells was a three-time first-team all-league pick (twice OVC, then MVC in 2022-23) at Belmont.
- Guard Jasmine Powell was Coaches All-Big Ten Second Team at Minnesota in 2020-21.

LADY VOLS GO 2-0 ON EUROPEAN TOUR

- The Tennessee women's basketball team took the first steps on its 2023-24 journey in June, beginning the chemistry-building process while embarking on a summer tour in Europe.
- The Lady Vols visited Italy and Greece and played two games during an excursion that lasted June 11-22.
- UT traveled by boat to defeat the Venice All-Stars, 89-76 at Palestra Leo Perziano on the Venetian lagoon island of Murano on June 13.
- The Big Orange then overwhelmed the Rome All-Stars, 100-48, on June 15 at EuroBasket Roma Arena.
- During the excursion, the Lady Vols had stops in Venice, Rome, Pompeii, Sorrento and Capri via plane, train, bus, boat, water taxi and gondola before heading to Greece, where they spent some time exploring the historic environs of Athens and made a day trip to Cape Sounion and Astir Beach along the Aegean Sea.

TWO LADY VOLS REP USA AT AMERICUP

- Tennessee standouts Rickea Jackson and Jewel Spear represented the United States at the 2023 FIBA Women's AmeriCup in Leon, Mexico, from July 1-9.
- Spear and Jackson were part of the youngest team in the AmeriCup tournament with an average age of 20, and they helped that squad capture a silver medal.
- Jackson (14.6 ppg.) finished the competition averaging a team-leading 14.6 points and 4.9 rebounds per game.
- Her scoring average was fourth among the 109 players who saw action in the tournament, earning her a spot in the AmeriCup All-Star Five.
- Jackson's 102 points were the second most in USA AmeriCup history behind Lisa Leslie (129, 7 games, 1993).
- Spear produced 5.6 ppg. and 1.4 apg. while leading the USA in three-pointers with 10 in just seven contests. She did so after signing with UT on May 5.
- The two were roommates at the USA Trials in Colorado Springs and at the AmeriCup in Mexico, helping them begin building a bond that will benefit the Lady Vols this season.

ADDITIONAL SUMMER TRAVEL

- In addition to the Lady Vols' European Tour and the AmeriCup experience in Mexico by Rickea Jackson and Jewel Spear, three other Lady Vols traveled overseas for university experiences over the summer.
- Tess Darby was in Iceland and Karoline Striplin journeyed to England, with each completing study abroad experiences.
- Sara Puckett made her way to The Philippines with the VOLEaders Leadership Academy as part of the organization's goal to positively impact team, campus and community, both locally and globally.

LADY VOLS EMBRACE MISSION MONDAYS

- During the summer, the Lady Vol basketball team spent Mondays during the month of July taking part in community service events around Knoxville.
- The Lady Vol program has always been active at volunteering in the community, and this emphasis is part of Kellie Harper's focus of developing well-rounded successful women on the court and off, always helping those in the area her program calls home.
- During summer 2023, the Lady Vols participated in services events with iCan Bike, A Place at the Table, Big Orange Pantry and Flenniken's Landing.
- Big Orange Pantry is a food pantry on the UT campus offering low cost items for students and faculty members in need.
- In addition to Mission Mondays, the Lady Vols annually join the men's basketball team in participating at the Down Syndrome Awareness Group of East Tennessee's Hoops for Hope basketball event.

UT OPENED WITH BEST FOUR 1K SCORERS

- Tennessee finished the 2022-23 season with its most ever 1,000-point scorers (5). That group included Rickea Jackson (1,756), Jordan Walker (1,359), Jordan Horston (1,445), Jasmine Franklin (1,279) and Jasmine Powell (1,046).
- UT now has had three or more 1,000-point scorers at season's end on 13 occasions and four or more twice.
- It could match that UT record again in 2023-24, as returnees Jackson (2,014) and Powell (1,254) are joined by newcomers Destinee Wells (1,716) and Jewel Spear (1,679), while Tamari Key is not far off at 973 through the Alabama game.

- That foursome of Jackson (1,756), Wells (1,613), Spear (1,385) and Powell (1,046) marked the first time Tennessee had entered a season with four 1,000-point scorers on its roster, the 10th time with two or more and the second time with three or more.

LADY VOL ROSTER NOTES

- After having 16 players on Tennessee's largest roster in modern history a year ago, Kellie Harper has assembled a squad of 13 in 2023-24.
- Twelve players will be active this season, while sophomore South Carolina transfer Talaysia Cooper will redshirt after opting to sign with Tennessee after the NCAA's transfer portal window had closed.
- Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield, Tenn.) will play alongside one another for the second season. They are the second set of sisters to play basketball at Tennessee but the first to play on the same team.
- Amanda (1998-2002) and Abby Canon (2004-05) of Shelbyville, Tenn., were the first sister duo to represent the Big Orange, playing for Pat Summitt.
- Amanda Canon played on the 1998-99 Tennessee team, which included then-senior Kellie (Jolly) Harper.
- Tennessee technically has five players from the Volunteer State on the roster, including Tess and Edie Darby (Greenfield/GHS), Avery Strickland (Knoxville/Farragut H.S.) and Destinee Wells (Lakeland/Houston H.S.).
- Kaiya Wynn lived in Tennessee (Nashville) and attended Ensworth High School before her family moved to Texas for her senior year of high school. She lived in Richmond, Texas, and graduated from Foster High School before moving back to the Volunteer State.

LOOKING BACK TO 2022-23

KEY LOSSES FROM A YEAR AGO

- Three key performers departed after the 2022-23 season, including four-year starter Jordan Horston and three-year starter Jordan Walker.
- Horston (15.6 ppg., 6.1 rpg., 3.3 apg.), a two-time All-SEC and All-America Honorable Mention choice, was the No. 9 pick in the WNBA Draft.
- Walker (5.7 ppg., 3.2 apg.) graduated with two master's degrees after starting 77 games over three seasons in Knoxville following two seasons at Western Michigan.
- Reserve Jasmine Franklin exhausted her eligibility after one season at UT, putting up 4.5 ppg. and 3.8 rpg. while shooting 49 pct. in 35 games.

UT PERSEVERES, WINS 25, MAKES SWEET 16

- Tennessee won 25 games in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, wrapping up the 2022-23 campaign at 25-12 overall and 13-3 in SEC play to finish third for the fourth straight year.
- The Lady Vols' 13 SEC victories were their most since 2014-15, and they advanced to their first SEC Tournament title game since 2015. They defeated No. 2 seed and eventual NCAA champ LSU in the SEC semifinals, 69-67, to do so.
- The Big Orange went to back-to-back Sweet 16s for the first time since 2014-15 and 2015-16 and were one of just seven schools to do that during the 2021-22 and 2022-23 postseasons.
- UT's season came to an end in the Seattle 3 Regional semifinals to No. 1 seed Virginia Tech, 73-64.
- The Lady Vols were resilient despite losing 6-6 center Tamari Key for the season after eight games when tests revealed blood clots in her lungs.

38TH SEASON WITH 25 WINS

- Tennessee reached a pair of milestone victory plateaus in 2022-23, improving numbers that date back to 1974.
- With the win over Toledo in the NCAA Second Round, the Lady Vols hit the 25-win target for the 38th time.
- Kellie Harper also tied her career best win tally for a season with that outcome, giving her back-to-back 25-win campaigns at Tennessee in 2021-22 and 2022-23 and four total for her career.
- Harper also won 25 at Missouri State in 2018-19 en route to a Sweet 16 and at Western Carolina in 2007-08.

- The regular-season finale triumph at Kentucky gave the Big Orange a 20-win campaign for the 46th time.
- It marked Tennessee's third 20-win season in Kellie Harper's four years as head coach (10th in her career), with the 2020-21 total of 17 wins impacted by several COVID-related game cancellations that no doubt would have pushed the Lady Vols to 20 victories.

SEC TOURNAMENT RUNNERS-UP

- Tennessee advanced to its first SEC Tournament Championship game since 2015.
- South Carolina defeated UT in Greenville, S.C., 74-58, but only after the Lady Vols had upset No. 2 seed and eventual national champ LSU, 69-67, in the semifinal round for the Big Orange's signature win of the season.
- It marked the first time UT has had two All-Tournament Team members since Cierra Burdick and Jordan Reynolds earned that recognition in 2015.
- Rickea Jackson averaged 25.7 ppg. and 7.7 rpg. while shooting 52.0 percent from the field and 95.7 percent (22-23) from the free-throw line during the 2023 event.
- Jackson's season-high 34 points against Kentucky in the quarterfinals were the most scored in any game by a Lady Vol since Diamond DeShields had 34 vs. Georgia on Feb. 5, 2017.
- A 14-of-14 (100-percent) effort at the charity stripe for Jackson vs. Kentucky in the quarterfinals was a school record for percentage with the most attempts.
- Jordan Horston (19.0 ppg.) also averaged in double figures for the weekend, with Horston leading the team in rebounding (8.7 rpg.), assists (3.0 apg.) and blocks (2.3 bpg.) en route to SEC All-Tournament honors.
- Tess Darby went six of 12 beyond the arc (50 percent) in three games.
- Jordan Horston's career-best seven blocks vs. Kentucky on March 3 tied centers Tamari Key (2020) and Kelley Cain (2009) for most swats ever in an SEC Tournament contest by a Lady Vol.

THE ONLY SCHOOL IN ALL 41

- The Lady Vols made their 41st consecutive NCAA Tournament, continuing as the only school to appear in every Division I tourney.
- Tennessee was an at-large qualifier for the 2023 NCAA Tournament, finishing third in the SEC regular season for the fourth-straight season and falling to No. 1/1 South Carolina in the SEC Tournament title game.
- UT earned a No. 4 seed for only the third occasion and has a 7-3 record all-time in that role after routing Saint Louis and Toledo in NCAA First and Second Rounds and falling to No. 1 seed Virginia Tech in the Sweet 16 in the Seattle 3 Regional at Climate Pledge Arena.
- Tennessee is now 130-33 in NCAA Tournament play, ranking first all-time in games played (163) and ranking second in victories (130) and in win percentage (.798).
- Tennessee is 5-3 in NCAA play under Kellie Harper, going 2-1 in 2023, 2-1 in 2022 and 1-1 in 2021 after the 2020 tournament was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- The Lady Vols have advanced to the NCAA regional round on 36 occasions, owning a 28-8 mark in the Sweet 16.

HEAD COACH KELLIE HARPER

FIFTH SEASON AT TENNESSEE / 20TH SEASON AS A HEAD COACH

BORN: May 3, 1977

EDUCATION:

White County High School (Sparta, Tenn.), '95

B.S. (Math), Tennessee, '99

SPOUSE: Jon Harper

CHILDREN: Jackson (son), Kiley (daughter)

PLAYING CAREER:

University of Tennessee (1995-99): three-time NCAA champion point guard, 1999 All-SEC Coaches Second Team & H.M. All-American, three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll, 1999 WNBA Draft (Cleveland, 4th Round)

Classy. Personable. Trustworthy. Intentional. Proficient. Determined. Those are just a few of the adjectives that aptly describe fifth-year Tennessee head coach Kellie Harper. Her array of impressive traits has been on full display in leading one of only seven programs to make NCAA Sweet 16 appearances in each of the past two seasons.

Also one of only two skippers to guide four different programs to the NCAA Tournament, the 1999 UT graduate and three-time national champion point guard joined Jim Foster in that select company in 2020-21. She did so while reshaping programs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and Tennessee. Foster accomplished that feat during stops at St. Joseph's, Vanderbilt, Ohio State and Chattanooga during a career lasting from 1978 to 2018.

The respect for Harper's leadership capabilities, basketball acumen and development of the UT program has been underscored by her selection to the USA Basketball Women's Junior National Team Committee, upon which she is serving from 2021-24. It was further underscored in 2022-23, when USA TODAY Sports Network voted her as its Preseason SEC Coach of the Year.

In 19 complete years as a Division I head coach, Harper has led her teams to a 373-247 record and 15 postseason appearances (8 NCAA/7 WNIT) through the 2022-23 campaign. She has piloted her squads to 15 top-three league finishes and four conference tourney titles along the way, and in 2022-23 she led a team to the NCAA Sweet 16 for the third time in the past four seasons the event was held, including her final unit at Missouri State and her past two editions at Tennessee.

During her first four years on Rocky Top, Harper has led the program on a steady return toward lofty heights. Her past two teams won 25 games, including a 25-9/11-5 SEC record in 2021-22 and a 25-12/13-3 SEC worksheet in 2022-23, despite losing All-SEC performers and game-changers Jordan Horston and Tamari Key in back-to-back campaigns. The Lady Vols' 13 SEC wins a year ago were the most since 2014-15, and they recorded 25 victories in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15.

In 2022-23, Tennessee remained the only school perfect in NCAA Tournament berths, notching its 41st appearance. It also made its first trip to the SEC Tournament championship game since 2015, defeating #4/3 LSU in the semifinals and falling to #1/1 South Carolina during the title game in Greenville, S.C.

Harper is 88-39 overall and 43-18 vs. SEC competition during a quick makeover on Rocky Top, ranking third in winning percentage in league games behind only LSU's Kim Mulkey and South Carolina's Dawn Staley. Harper and Staley are the only SEC coaches to guide their teams to top-three SEC finishes in each of the past four seasons.

"Including her tenure at Missouri State, Kellie has guided her teams to three of the past four NCAA Sweet 16s," University of Tennessee Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Danny White said after extending Harper's contract in 2023 through the 2027-28 campaign. "She's among an elite group of coaches in achieving that, and it didn't happen by accident. The Lady Vols have a strong program culture, visible player development, a commitment to excellence and intentional leadership in place, and I look forward to watching our program continue to rise under her leadership.”

A native of Sparta, Tenn., Harper was a floor general for the legendary Pat Summitt at UT from 1995-99, playing 132 games and piloting the Lady Vols to NCAA National Championships in 1996, 1997 and 1998. She was part of a senior class that helped the Big Orange forge a 131-17 overall record as well as win two SEC regular season titles (1998, 1999) and three SEC Tournament crowns (1996, 1998, 1999).

High school recruits and players in the transfer portal have been drawn to Harper’s valuable experiences as a player who reached the pinnacle at the all-time winningest program in women’s college basketball history. The LVFL also attracts players who cherish a welcoming family environment and an atmosphere of competitive excellence that is embraced by arguably the country’s most supportive fan base.

She was able to keep the previously signed No. 9 class (Jordan Horston, Tamari Key) intact when she was hired in 2019, managed to ink future starters Tess Darby, Keyen Green, Marta Suárez and Jordan Walker during the pandemic in 2020, and followed with a No. 15-ranked group in 2021 (including starters Sara Puckett and Karoline Stripplin). She also added seven players through the portal the past two seasons, including key contributors Rickea Jackson, Jillian Hollingshead, Jasmine Powell and Jasmine Franklin in 2022 and the nation’s No. 6 ranked portal class in 2023 by 247Sports in Jewel Spear, Destinee Wells and Avery Strickland.

UT signees also have embraced a coaching style from a mentor who builds foundational relationships and challenges young women daily to become the best players, teammates, students, leaders and people they can be. That formula has proven successful for everything from program chemistry to team success to individual accomplishments.

During Harper’s brief time at Tennessee, she has coached three WNBA first-round picks in Renna Davis (2021), Rae Burrell (2022) and Jordan Horston (2023). It marked only the second time in school history that UT had players selected in the first round in three consecutive seasons. Pat Summitt produced first-round picks in 2001 (Tamika Catchings), 2002 (Michelle Snow) and 2003 (Gwen Jackson, Kara Lawson). Tennessee is the only women’s program to have two different coaches accomplish that feat.

In 2022, Alexis Dye also earned a shot at the WNBA, going to camp with the Connecticut Sun. Previously, Lou Brown and Kasiyahna Kushkituah earned opportunities to play professionally overseas following their Lady Vol careers.

Davis (2020 AP/USBWA/WBCA, 2021 AP/USBWA/WBCA), Horston (2022 AP/WBCA, 2021 AP/WBCA) and Jackson (2023 AP/USBWA/WBCA) were All-America Honorable Mention selections under Harper’s tutelage, and Davis claimed the Senior Class Award in 2021 as well.

At the league level, Harper has tutored All-SEC First-Teamers Davis (2020, 2021), Horston (2022, 2023) and Jackson (2023); All-SEC Second-Teamers Burrell (2021) and Tamari Key (2022); SEC All-Defensive Team member Key (2021, 2022); SEC All-Freshman Team honorees Horston (2020), Suárez (2021) and Puckett (2022); and SEC All-Tournament Team members Dye (2022), Horston (2023) and Jackson (2023).

In the classroom, 18 of 29 Lady Vols playing for Harper have earned SEC Academic Honor Roll recognition a total of 38 times through 2022-23. A program-best 12 of 14 Lady Vols made the honor roll in 2021-22, while nine (of 13) made it in 2020-21, nine (of 15) made it in 2022-23 and eight (of 12) did so in 2019-20. That ’19-20 group carded a Lady Vol best-ever GPA of 3.48.

HARPER YEAR-BY-YEAR AT TENNESSEE

2019-20: Harper personally enjoyed the (then) finest start of any season in her career at 7-0 and recorded the most victories in her first season at a school (21-10), as UT climbed to a high ranking of No. 17. She picked up her 300th overall career win vs. Alabama and surpassed her 500th contest as a head coach along the way as UT tied for third in the SEC before the season ended without an NCAA Tournament due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

2020-21: In year two for Harper, the Lady Vols climbed as high as No. 13 in the AP Poll. They earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament, advancing to the second round and a 17-8 record despite having four games canceled due to COVID and losing three post players to season-ending injuries. UT carded an outright third-place finish in the SEC and defeated four ranked teams, including No. 2/3 South Carolina in Knoxville and No. 15/15 Indiana in Bloomington.

2021-22: Tennessee returned to national prominence in Harper’s third year, but season-ending injuries to three players limited the team’s ceiling after it began the year 18-1 (best start since 2007-08) and climbed to No. 4 in the AP Poll. Still, UT finished 25-9, placed third in the SEC at 11-5, beat five ranked foes and advanced to Harper’s second career Sweet 16, the first for UT since 2015-16. Harper matched personal bests for wins in a season (25) and deepest NCAA tourney run (Sweet 16), and she had her most wins ever over ranked teams (5). The Tennessee Sports Writers Association named her the organization’s state women’s college basketball coach of the year.

2022-23: The Lady Vols recorded 25 wins (25-12) in back-to-back seasons for the first time since 2013-14 and 2014-15, their 13 SEC victories (13-3, 3rd) were their most since 2014-15 and their trip to the SEC Tournament title game was their first since 2015. A fourth consecutive top-three SEC regular season finish tied South Carolina as the only programs to do so during that span, and UT’s advancement to back-to-back Sweet 16s made it one of just seven schools to advance to that round in both 2021-22 and 2022-23. Harper guided teams to back-to-back 25-win seasons and NCAA Sweet 16s for the first time in her career and matched Pat Summitt’s UT record by producing a first-round WNBA Draft pick for a third consecutive season.

Only the third Lady Vol head coach in the NCAA era of women’s basketball, Harper took the reins at Tennessee after six years of leading the Missouri State Lady Bears, capped by the 2018-19 season’s impressive march to the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament title and magical run to the NCAA Sweet 16.

Harper guided Missouri State to NCAA appearances in 2015-16 and 2018-19 with WNIT berths on three other occasions. At previous schools, she also led North Carolina State to the NCAA Tournament in 2009-10 (plus two WNIT appearances) and guided Western Carolina to NCAA berths in 2004-05 and 2008-09 (plus two trips to the WNIT).

In 28 full seasons as a Division I head coach, assistant coach or player, Harper has made 23 post-season appearances with a combined 621-300 record, 16 NCAA Tournament appearances and seven WNIT bids.

She recorded a 118-79 won-lost record at Missouri State, claiming Missouri Valley Conference Tournament crowns in 2016 and 2019 and notching regular-season runner-up finishes in 2015-16, 2017-18 and 2018-19. After her first team at MSU finished 14-17/6-12 MVC (t6th), she never placed lower than third in the league standings or missed the post-season. Three of her last four editions there surpassed the 20-win plateau, including the 2015-16 squad that forged MSU’s first NCAA appearance in a decade.

The 2018-19 MSU squad improved measurably as the season progressed, resiliently overcoming a 1-7 start to post the program’s best overall record (25-10) since 2004-05 and its top league mark (16-2) since 2003-04 with a 24-3 run over the final 27 contests. The Lady Bears finished No. 24 in the final 2019 USA Today Sports Coaches Poll, which was their first national ranking in 15 years. Harper was named the Missouri Valley Coach of the Year and also was chosen as the 2019 Kay Yow Coach of the Year, which goes to the Division I women’s head coach who embodies a winning spirit while displaying great character, on and off the court.

Her final Lady Bears team developed into her best one with a late season spree that included victories over No. 21 Drake, No. 24 DePaul and No. 13 Iowa State and a nine-point loss to sixth-ranked Stanford in the Sweet 16. Harper’s 2018-19 squad featured only one senior and included 11 freshmen or sophomores on the 14-player roster.

Prior to her arrival at Missouri State, Harper became just the third women’s basketball coach in North Carolina State history in 2009 and directed the Wolfpack to three postseason appearances and a 70-64 record during her four-year stint at the helm, including the 2010 NCAA Tournament.

Kellie Harper coached three straight top-10 WNBA Draft picks from 2021-23, including No. 9 overall selections Jordan Horston (above), Rae Burrell and Renna Davis, tying Pat Summitt’s record (2001-03) at UT.

NC State joined Tobacco Road rivals Duke and North Carolina as the only Atlantic Coast Conference teams to score wins over the league's other 11 teams during that span and earned six top-25 victories in four seasons.

Before her tenure in Raleigh, Harper piloted Western Carolina to a 97-65 record and four post-season berths in five seasons, including a 70-31 mark her final three years in Cullowhee. The Catamounts captured the first two Southern Conference (SoCon) Tournament titles in school history while seven student-athletes captured all-conference honors during her tenure.

She earned 2007 SoCon Coach of the Year accolades and placed her squads in the WBCA Academic Top 25 on three occasions, including a fifth-place finish in 2007-08.

Prior to her first head coaching job, Harper spent three seasons as an assistant at Chattanooga, helping the Mocs to three consecutive Southern Conference championships, three NCAA appearances and a combined 78-15 record under head coach Wes Moore. She tutored four all-conference guards while at Chattanooga, including the 2004 league player of the year.

In advance of her time in Chattanooga, Harper spent two seasons at Auburn, the first as an administrative assistant before being promoted to assistant coach under Joe Ciampi for the 2000-01 campaign.

As a college player, Harper was part of a women's basketball dynasty at Tennessee. As a junior, she guided the Lady Vols to a 39-0 record and their third-straight national championship, averaging 7.6 points and 3.8 assists for the season and scoring a career-high 20 points in the national title game against Louisiana Tech. She went 4-of-5 from beyond the arc in that contest and was named to the 1998 All-Final Four Team.

Harper set an NCAA championship game record with 11 assists and dished out 20 helpers in two games for All-Final Four honors in 1997 after returning from a knee injury midway through her sophomore season. That year, the National Strength and Conditioning Association named her its Strength and Conditioning Female Student-Athlete of the Year.

For her Tennessee career, Harper scored 894 points and had 452 assists, leaving UT on the school's career top 10 lists for assists, assist average, 3-point attempts and 3-point percentage. She still ranks eighth in career assists and is 11th in 3-point percentage (.364, 99-272).

Harper was drafted by the Cleveland Rockers in the fourth round of the 1999 WNBA draft and earned her degree in mathematics that same year. She was a three-time SEC Academic Honor Roll member and earned both All-SEC Coaches Second Team and honorable mention All-America honors as a senior. She also was named to the SEC Community Service Team as a senior.

She played for her father (the late Kenneth Jolly), an assistant coach at White County High School in Sparta, Tenn., and was a five-time All-American during her AAU playing career. She was inducted into the UT Athletics Hall of Fame in 2009 and White County High Hall of Fame in 2012. On Dec. 24, 2019, the basketball hardwood at the new Findlay Elementary School in Sparta was dedicated as "Kellie's Court."

Harper is married to Jon Harper, an assistant coach on her staffs at Western Carolina, NC State, Missouri State and Tennessee. The Harpers welcomed their first child, son Jackson, in November 2013, and had a daughter, Kiley, in June 2018.

The Harpers (L-R): Jon, Jackson, Kellie and Kiley.
