NCAA Tournament rematch

Sunday's match is the first contest between Northwestern State and Arkansas since the teams met in the 2021 NCAA Tournament, a 5-1 Razorbacks win in Fayetteville. Three players who are on the NSU roster were on the team when it lost in that NCAA Tournament game (Emily Mougia, Sara Fernandez, Caroline Hilliard), but Hilliard is the only one of the three to play in that game. The 2024 contest against No. 9 Arkansas is the highest-ranked opponent for NSU since that NCAA Tournament game.

Libe off to strong start

Despite seven goals being allowed in the first two games, Northwestern State goalkeeper has been up to task in those two games, stopping 18 shots, including 11 in the opener at SMU. She only allowed one goal through the first 75 minutes against No. 18 Mississippi State until a few bad bounces went against NSU, as MSU cemented the game with a goal off a penalty kick as well as an own goal. Her nine saves per game leads the Southland Conference and the 18 saves in are the most saves for a Lady Demon goalkeeper since Alex Latham recorded 25 saves in the first two games in 2016, which happened against Little Rock and Ole Miss.

Sister Act

Northwestern State has a tremendous offense/defense duo in twin sisters Taylor Spitzer and Jessica Spitzer. Taylor leads the offensive attack for NSU. The junior has eight career goals and led the team in goals (4), points (9), shots (57) and shots on goal (21) in 2023. That helped her earn a Second Team All-Conference selection last year and a Second Team All-SLC Preseason selection this year. Jessica, on the other hand, was a rock on the defensive end for NSU, playing every minute of every game in 2023, she helped lead a defense that aided surrendering a 1.20 goals against average, one of the best in the conference last season, also earning a Second Team Preseason All-Conference selection.

Brophy excited about start

Even with losing 3-0 and 4-0 in the first two games of the season, head coach Ian Brophy is hopeful with the start against two power conference teams. Without two of their most accomplished goal scorers (Taylor Spitzer, Kassi Schoen), the Lady Demons held its own. NSU was only behind 1-0 after 75 minutes on the road against No. 18 Mississippi State before the Bulldogs scored three goals in three minutes to put it out of reach. Despite the losses to begin the year, Brophy believes the team is playing much better than the team was at the beginning of the season a year ago. His six wins are three shy of the top five for coaching wins in program history.

Returning production

Of the 17 goals that were scored by NSU last season, it returns 12 of those goals, led by Spitzer's four. The Lady Demons also return 15 of the 16 assists for a total of 78 percent of the scoring returning from last season. Three returners--Spitzer, Sabrina Lopez and Emily Senatore--all return after scoring multiple goals in 2023. In addition to the freshmen, head coach Ian Brophy brought in two transfers, Kassi Schoen and Paige Baumgartner. Schoen scored 16 goals in her four years at Alabama State and led the school to the conference regular season championship as a freshman. After starting out at Oral Roberts, Baumgartner transferred to Seminole State College, where she was named NJCAA Division I Second Team All-American and First Team All-Region after scoring 17 goals and dishing out 15 assists for 49 points.

IAN BROPHY
Head Coach

2nd season at NSU • 3rd overall (as head coach)
Emerson College (2012)

Ian Brophy is in his second season as the lead man of the Northwestern State soccer team.

Despite losing 16 players from the 2022 team and inheriting no recruits committed to NSU when he took over, Brophy led the program to its fourth appearance in the Southland Conference Tournament semifinals in the last five seasons.

NSU was playing its best down the stretch, not losing in regulation in any of its final five contests, going 2-0-3 during that span, earning a No. 4 seed in the SLC Tournament.

In his first year, he coached all-conference selection Taylor Spitzer, who scored four goals and recorded nine points.

Brophy came to NSU from Mount Olive (NC) where he led the Trojans to a 13-5 record and the Conference Carolinas regular season crown in his only season as the person in charge, going 11-1 during league play.

He led the Trojans to the championship despite the team losing its top two goal scorers from the previous season as well as the Conference Carolinas Defensive Player of the Year.

Brophy coached eight all-conference selections in his one season at Mount Olive, the most of any team in the conference.

Prior to his time at Mount Olive, he was an assistant for Division II Florida Southern for five seasons, where he led the Mocs to 18 wins after the school won just nine games combined in the previous three seasons.

In his first season, he helped guide the Mocs to an 8-3-4 mark in 2017, despite operating with the lowest scholarship total in the conference. That 2017 campaign was their best mark since 2010.

Brophy spent one season as an assistant at Knox College in 2016, Brophy helped lead the Prairie Fire to an unblemished 19-0-1 overall record after the team recorded just one winning season in the previous eight years.

The only season at Knox was the first NCAA appearance in program history, along with the first conference regular season and tournament titles. The team also earned its first top-25 ranking in school history.

He began his career as an assistant coach for both the men's and women's soccer teams at Treasure Valley CC.

Inheriting a team who posted a 2-14-4 mark the year before, he helped guide the women's team to an incredible turnaround, going 28-9-5 in his two seasons there. Among those two seasons was a 16-3-3 mark in his first season, a 14-win turnaround.

In that historical first season, it was the school's first ever appearance in the Northwest Athletic Conference quarterfinals and best season in school history.

During his tenure, the women also found the national rankings in the NSCAA top 25 for the first time in school history.

In his second season with the women, the team went 12-6-2, while setting a school record eight-game unbeaten run and returned to the NWAC playoffs.

The men's program went 8-7-5 in his first season, narrowly missing the NWAC playoffs by a single point after finishing last the season before.

Brophy graduated in 2012 from Emerson College in Boston.

He lives in Natchitoches with his wife Autumn and the couple welcomed their first child in March 2024.
