QUICK KICKS

Back to Back

Exactly one year to the day of their previous meeting, No. 7 seed Georgia faces No. 2 seed and nationally fifth-ranked Arkansas in a rematch of the 2023 SEC Tournament final, with the winner of Tuesday's match advancing to Thursday's semifinals. The Bulldogs used an early own goal in last year's final to pull off a 1-0 upset victory over the Razorbacks, clinching the first conference tournament title in program history. Georgia advanced Sunday with a 1-0 win over Texas A&M, while Arkansas has not played in nine days since a 5-0 win at Ole Miss on Oct. 27. A Georgia victory would give the program its first ranked win since last year's Arkansas win and only the fourth-ever win over a top-5 opponent.

Georgia leads Arkansas, 13-6-5, in the all-time series, although the teams are tied, 1-1-1, in previous SEC Tournament matchups. The Bulldogs are now 15-19-4 all-time in the SEC Tournament and are looking to reach the semifinals for the third-consecutive season, a feat never accomplished in program history. Under coach Keidane McAlpine, the Bulldogs are unbeaten (5-0-1) in SEC Tournament matches.

Dasia Torbert's first-half goal proved to be the difference as No. 7 Georgia eliminated No. 10 Texas A&M, 1-0, in the opening match of the SEC Tournament Sunday. After a pair of early chances, Torbert put Georgia on the board in the 19th minute as fellow grad midfielder Nicole Vernis picked off an Aggie pass and kicked ahead for the assist. Torbert used her right foot to deposit the ball in the bottom left corner from 16 yards out. The win was Georgia's third-straight against Texas A&M in as many seasons.

Brown's Best

Junior goalkeeper Jordan Brown has provided consistent excellence for Georgia throughout the season, earning the No. 29 spot in Top Drawer Soccer's Midseason Top 100 Player rankings. Brown was the third-highest ranked goalkeeper in the country and highest-ranked in the SEC. The Las Vegas native was named SEC Defensive Player of the Week for the second time this season after shutting out Tennessee with six saves on Oct. 18. During the Auburn match, she became the fifth keeper in program history to reach 100 saves in a season - with four more, she'll pass Ashley Baker (112 - 2012) for third and remain in striking distance of Nicole Williams' 122 posted in 2000. She also ranks third all-time in program history with 20 shutouts, along with leading the league in saves per game and total saves, while ranking second in save percentage - all three rank in the top 20 nationally as well.

Strong Slate

Throughout his early tenure in Athens, Keidane McAlpine has made it a point to challenge his team with a difficult non-conference schedule. This year's schedule is no different with the slate currently ranking as the seventh-toughest nationally (first in the SEC) with a current .642 win percentage, bolstered by nine opponents ranked top-30 in RPI. In 2023, the Bulldogs were the only Power 5 school to play a team from each of the other four leagues. This season, they are one of five with the distinction, joining Texas, Iowa, Michigan, and Baylor.

Dawg Bites

- Junior goalkeeper Jordan Brown and graduate midfielder Nicole Vernis were named to the Second Team All-SEC Sunday morning. Brown is the fifth Bulldog goalie to earn All-SEC accolades and the first since Emory Wegener in 2020.
- Georgia's draw at Auburn on Oct. 24 clinched the Bulldogs' third unbeaten SEC road slate in program history (2007, 2022, 2024). With Sunday's win against Texas A&M, Georgia is 12-2-7 in road and neutral matches against SEC opponents under Keidane McAlpine.

Keidane McAlpine (kuh-DAWN-ee mik-AL-pine), who has led his teams to 12 consecutive NCAA tournament appearances, including a national championship for USC in 2016, became the sixth head coach of the Georgia soccer program in December 2021.

The Huntsville, Alabama native immediately changed the Bulldogs' fortunes, leading the team to a 13-6-3 record and a trip to the NCAA Second Round in his first season. Under McAlpine's leadership, Georgia received its first NCAA Tournament bid since 2014 and hosted a home postseason match for the first time since 2007. The Bulldogs also upset Tennessee in the SEC Tournament, reaching the semifinals for the first time since 2010 before falling in penalties to eventual champion South Carolina.

During the season, Georgia went unbeaten on the road in conference play and finished the regular season with six straight results against league opponents, including the first three-game SEC shutout streak since 2010. The Bulldogs tied two program records with 16 different goal scorers and 12 shutouts during the year, all while tallying the second-lowest goals against average rate in program history. Graduate Abby Boyan became the program's fourth All-American, with Madison Haugen, Dani Murguia, and Cecily Stoute joining her on the United Soccer Coaches All-America Third Team.

McAlpine followed 2022 up with the most successful season in Georgia soccer history. Facing one of the nation's toughest schedules, the Bulldogs finished 13-4-6 and with a No. 13 final national ranking, the highest among the SEC schools and highest in program history. He also won his 200th career game with a 2-1 victory at Missouri. During the season, Georgia won its first SEC East Division title, followed by the first SEC Tournament championship in school history, overcoming deficits against Kentucky and Texas A&M to advance. The run in Pensacola included playing with 10 players for 88 minutes against the Wildcats and a last-second winner from Croix Bethune to take down the Aggies. The Bulldogs clinched the title with a 1-0 win over No. 10 Arkansas in the final, led by seven saves from Jordan Brown.

In the NCAA Tournament, a late winner from Kiera Staude took down Liberty, 2-1, before a sold-out crowd in Athens before a 3-2 win against Iowa sent Georgia to the Sweet 16 for only the second time in program history. Despite a go-ahead goal from Bethune in the 85th minute, the Bulldogs surrendered a late equalizer and fell in overtime. Nonetheless, the Bulldogs earned a program-best five postseason victories and were the final SEC team remaining in the field.

Bethune became the fifth All-American in program history, earning a place on the United Soccer Coaches Second Team. She was also named to the All-Southeast Region Team, SEC All-Tournament Team, and was named SEC Tournament MVP. She was later drafted third overall by Washington Spirit in the 2024 NWSL Draft, the highest-picked player in school history and highest-drafted SEC player since 2016, followed by winning a gold medal with the United States women's soccer team. Redshirt freshman Summer Denigan was named SEC Co-Freshman of the Year and was the only freshman named to the All-Southeast Region Team. All the while, Georgia soccer attracted 14,571 spectators to the Turner Soccer Complex during the season, the largest season-long crowd in a decade.

Prior to arriving in Athens, McAlpine guided USC to unprecedented success for eight seasons from 2014-21. His 2016 squad finished with a 19-4-2 record on its way to the program's second national championship, shutting out four consecutive tournament opponents before a 3-1 victory over West Virginia in the College Cup Final. His final 2021 team boasted a 14-3-3 record and finished second in the Pac-12 standings, earning him USC's first Pac-12 Coach of the Year honors since 1998.

Under his guidance, USC never missed the postseason, won at least one NCAA tournament match in six of the last seven years and never finished worse than fourth in the Pac-12. The Trojans averaged nearly 16 wins a season during his tenure and owned a 13-2-7 postseason record under his watch.

McAlpine's teams have produced 12 All-Americans, over 40 All-Conference selections, three Pac-12 Forwards of the Year, one Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year, one Pac-12 Midfielder of the Year, one Pac-12 Freshman of the Year and two Pac-12 Goalkeepers of the Year. McAlpine and his staff also picked up United Soccer Coaches West Region Staff of the Year honors in 2018 and 2021.

McAlpine's 17-year head coaching career features stops at Birmingham-Southern, Washington State and USC, where he has compiled a 195-95-40 career record — a 65 percent winning percentage. His career began at his alma mater Birmingham-Southern in 2001 as he guided the program into Division I, eventually winning the Big South championship in 2004 and earning the program's first NCAA Tournament bid. For his efforts, he was named that season's Big South Coach of the Year. Following his tenure at BSC, he spent six seasons as an assistant coach at Auburn.

In addition to his success at USC, McAlpine was named the 2013 Pac-12 Coach of the Year and NSCAA Pacific Region Coach of the Year at Washington State. He led the Cougars to a program-record 14 wins and a school-best second-place finish in the conference standings. Washington State also made back-to-back trips to the NCAA tournament during his tenure.

He has been active in Olympic Development Program for many years and holds a National "A" Coaching License from the United States Soccer Federation and a National Goalkeeping License. McAlpine was actively involved as a coach with the Alabama Youth Soccer Association Olympic Development Program and several club teams. In the summer of 2004, he was selected as a staff coach for the USYSA Region III squad.

McAlpine was a four-year starter at Birmingham-Southern and was named team captain in 1996. During that season, the Panthers finished as runners-up in the NAIA Tournament after advancing to the semifinals the previous season. After graduation, McAlpine spent the 1999 season playing for the Tennessee Rhythm of the A League.

McAlpine earned a bachelor's degree in music business with a minor in computer science from Birmingham-Southern in 1997.

- Georgia has displayed a great ability to play with the lead this season, holding a 8-1-2 record when scoring first in a match, with Mississippi State being the lone loss in such matchups this season.
- Against Auburn, graduate forward Tori Penn made her 85th appearance for Georgia, placing her eighth in program history. Penn is the Bulldogs' active career leader in appearances, shots, and shots on goal, while ranking second in points and goals.

Up Next

If victorious, Georgia will face the winner of the Texas-LSU quarterfinal in the second semifinal on Thursday, Nov. 7 at 7 p.m. EST on SEC Network. Following SECs, the NCAA Tournament Selection Show is scheduled for Monday, Nov. 11 at 4 p.m.

Play to the Whistle

Georgia remained in the hunt for an SEC Tournament bye with a thrilling 2-2 tie at No. 13 Auburn Oct. 24. Nicole Vernis put Georgia on the board at both ends of the match, scoring in the second minute off an assist from sophomore midfielder Devon Winters and with 25 seconds left via a service from junior defender Cate Hardin. The North Palm Beach, Florida native has now scored in consecutive matches after going scoreless for the first 15 contests of the season.

Lady Vols Vanquished

Georgia earned consecutive SEC shutouts for the first time in two seasons with a 2-0 win over Tennessee Oct. 18 at the Turner Soccer Complex. Following a quiet first 60 minutes of play, Georgia finally got on the board as Nicole Vernis notched her first goal of the season in the 67th minute, heading in a corner kick from Devon Winters. Just three minutes later, Dasia Torbert tallied her third goal of the season as she deposited an assist from graduate forward Tori Penn to extend the lead to two. Jordan Brown continued her amazing run of play, racking up six saves as she preserved her eighth clean sheet of the season. With the win, Georgia has now defeated Tennessee three straight times for the first time in program history and improved to 8-0 in Friday matches under Keidane McAlpine.

Sunshine Stalemate

For the second-consecutive season, Georgia and Florida played to a 0-0 draw on Oct. 13 in Gainesville. The Bulldogs were limited in scoring opportunities for the evening with Jocelyn Chinae posting the only shot on frame in the first half with a strong look. Georgia ratcheted up the pressure with four on frame in the second half, but all were saved by Florida keeper Alexa Goldberg. With the tie, Georgia increased its unbeaten streak against Florida to seven, dating back to the 2019 season.

Looking to Rebound

Georgia was forced to bounce back from a late loss to No. 4 Mississippi State on Oct. 10. Margie Detrizio gave the Bulldogs an immediate lead as she scored off Hannah White's assist just 80 seconds into the contest, giving her a team-best eight for the season and earning the only goal scored against MSU in conference play this season. The Bulldog attack was only able to muster four more shots on frame as MSU continued to ratchet up the pressure, resulting in a tying penalty kick in the 53rd minute. Georgia was then unable to claim the conference point as Mississippi State played a through ball pass the back line for a winning goal in the 86th minute.

Sooner Rather Than Later

In its first-ever meeting, Georgia moved into a tie for fifth in the SEC with a 2-0 victory at Oklahoma last Friday. Amber Nguyen opened the scoring with a goal in the 32nd minute, taking an assist from Hannah White and scoring from the top of the 18 for her second-straight match with a goal. In the 57th minute, Tori Penn tallied her third score of the season as she deposited a Devon Winters assist in the bottom right corner of the net. With the win, Georgia is now 11-2-5 against SEC opponents in road and neutral matches under Keidane McAlpine.

Roll Tied

Georgia earned its second-consecutive SEC tie on Sept. 29 with a 2-2 tie against Alabama before a season-high 2,012 spectators at Turner Soccer Complex. Amber Nguyen recorded her first point of the season, scoring a 30th minute goal to level the match at 1-1 only three minutes after Alabama's opening score. Margie Detrizio notched her seventh goal of the season off Summer Denigan's assist, tallying a 57th minute equalizer to bring the score to 2-2. Facing a consistent Tide attack, Jordan Brown tallied 10 saves, her second-highest total of the season.

Raining Cats and Dawgs

In driving rain in Lexington, Georgia earned an important road point with a 1-1 tie at Kentucky on Sept. 26. In the 80th minute, graduate forward Hannah White played a long ball from fellow grad forward Margie Detrizio before switching feet and scoring up top from 12 yards out for the equalizer. The score was White's third goal of the season and Detrizio's second assist this year. Junior goalkeeper Jordan Brown continued her terrific play with six saves, her seventh match of the season with at least five stops.

Brown Shuts the Dore

Georgia earned its first SEC win last Sunday against Vanderbilt, earning a 1-0 shutout over the Commodores for its first win in Nashville since 2015. Summer Denigan provided the lone scoring in the 17th minute with her fifth goal of the season, expertly depositing junior teammate Cate Hardin's first assist of the season and scoring for the second-straight match. Denigan also entered the program's top-10 in game-winning goals at six. Despite Vandy earning 12 corner kicks, Jordan Brown racked up nine saves, her second-highest total of the season, as she earned her 16th career shutout. The Bulldogs' depth was fully utilized with a season-high 23 players taking the field in the Nashville heat that eclipsed 100 degrees in heat index.

Playing with Expectations

Following last season's historic achievements, including the first SEC Tournament title in program history and a trip to the NCAA Sweet 16, Georgia entered the 2024 season with the highest preseason expectations in its history. The Bulldogs were ranked 14th in the United Soccer Coaches and 11th in the Top Drawer Soccer preseason rankings, both highest marks in school history. Georgia also tied for third with South Carolina in the SEC preseason coaches' poll. Additionally, seven Bulldogs were named to the SEC Preseason Watch List, while redshirt sophomore midfielder Summer Denigan ranked 92nd in TDS' Top 100 Players List.

Coming Back Strong

The Georgia roster received a boost for 2024 as senior midfielder Ellie Gilbert returned to the field against Pitt just 10 months after tearing her ACL at Tennessee. Gilbert entered this season ranks second among active Bulldogs in starts (53) and third in appearances (63) and was named a captain alongside graduate midfielder Nicole Vernis. In addition to Gilbert, graduate midfielder Dasia Torbert also made her return to the field after missing nearly two years due to a knee injury. Torbert established herself as the Bulldogs' top playmaker early in the 2022 season and just tallied her first career brace against Washington State on Sept. 15.

Cut Down by Carolina

Following three straight wins, Georgia opened SEC play with a tough 2-1 loss to South Carolina on Sept. 19. In the 11th minute, the Bulldogs were unable to clear three straight Gamecock shots before Corinna Zullo scored on a bicycle kick for the early lead. South Carolina added to the lead in the 48th minute with a top-shelf goal from Cuyler Zulauf. Six minutes later, Summer Denigan cut the deficit with a goal off Devon Winters' first career assist. The Bulldogs had multiple opportunities to find an equalizer but were turned away by the Gamecock defense.

Dominant Closer

Georgia wrapped up a difficult non-conference schedule with a 4-1 win over Washington State on Sept. 15, boosted by a career-high two goals from graduate midfielder Dasia Torbert, her first scores in two seasons. Both of Torbert's goals were set up by assists from redshirt sophomore midfielder Summer Denigan, setting her new career best total. Washington native Aly Akers opened the scoring in the 42nd minute with a goal off Maddy Pirrello's first assist as a Bulldog, while graduate forward Margie Detrizio tacked on a goal against her former team with a service from sophomore forward Jocelyn China. While junior keeper Jordan Brown only tallied two saves, the Bulldogs' defense only allowed seven shots (three on frame) and two corner kicks.

Gold Medal Croix

Last season, Croix Bethune helped lead Georgia to its most historic season ever, earning SEC Tournament MVP and Second Team All-America honors. The Alpharetta native has only continued to make history since, going third overall to the Washington Spirit in January's NWSL Draft. She became the first-ever first round draft pick in program history and the second-highest drafted SEC player ever. Since joining Washington, she has scored five goals and assisted on nine, already tying for the second-most in a season in NWSL history. Bethune has been named Rookie of the Month and a Best XI selection in each month of the season prior to a meniscus injury in late August. Along with her pro exploits, she was named as an alternate for the United States Olympic team, eventually being called up to the main roster and playing the closing minutes of its group finale against Australia before winning Georgia Soccer's first gold medal in Paris.
