PRESEASON FAVORITES

- After their historic season, the Stags were unanimously chosen as the preseason favorites, receiving all 13 first place votes in the MAAC Preseason Poll
- It is the first time since the 2015-16 season that the Stags were picked as the MAAC's top team and just the third time since the 2003-04 campaign.
- Fairfield had four players named to the Preseason All-MAAC squads, highlighted by the MAAC Preseason Player of the Year, Janelle Brown. Meghan Andersen was named to the All-MAAC First Team while Emina Selimovic was chosen to the Second Team and Kaety L'Amoreaux earned a spot on the Third Team.

THE HISTORIC SEASON

- Fairfield is coming off one of the most historic seasons in conference history, earning a 31-2 overall record, culminating in a MAAC Championship and NCAA Tournament appearance.
- Highlighted in that record was a conference record 29-game winning streak that featured a perfect 23-0 mark against MAAC opponents
- For their success, the Stags earned a No. 25 ranking in the AP national poll for the first time in program history

RETURNING

- The Stags return the bulk of last year's historic team including 91 percent of their scoring and 90 percent of their assists
- Fairfield also returns four starters, four All-MAAC selections, and nine returnign letterwinners.

PRESEASON NATIONAL RANKINGS

- The Stags will enter the season receiving votes in the national rankings, grabbing three votes in the AP national poll and seven in the USA Today Coaches Poll.
- Fairfield will also start the year ranked No. 2 in the World Exposure Report Mid-Major Top-25 poll

CARLY'S COACHING TREE

- Third year Head Coach Carly Thibault-DuDonis has grown up in one of the most successful coaching families in Women's Basketball history
- Her father Mike Thibault is the all-time winningest head coach in WNBA history after earning 379 victories as a Head Coach for the Connecticut Sun and Washington Mystics.
- Thibault-DuDonis was also part of the Mississippi State squad who advanced to two Final Fours.

THE OFFENSE

- The Stags netted 2,391 points last season, the second-most in program history and missing the top spot by just 16.
- The Stags also obliterated the program's single-season 3-point record by hitting 292 long-range field goals, exactly 100 more than any other Fairfield squad.
- Fairfield also finished second in program history in field goals (892), field goal percentage (.462)

THE DEFENSE

- The Stags stifling defense led the MAAC and rank 10th in the country in scoring defense (55.2) while placing 15th in field goal percentage defense (.361).
- Fairfield has held 12 of their opponents to less than 50 points and nine foes to shoot under 30 percent in the game.
- The .361 opponent field goal percentage was the third-lowest by any Fairfield team while the 55.2 points allowed per game was the fourth-lowest in a single season

THREE!

- The Stags also obliterated the program's single-season 3-point record by hitting 292 long-range field goals, exactly 100 more than any other Fairfield squad.
- The 292 made 3s was the second most ever for a MAAC team, trailing only the 2014-15 Quinnipiac team. For the year, the Stags were 15th in the country with 8.8 made per game.

ROAD RUNNERS

- The Stags built a new theme with their post players, referring to the forwards as "road runners" based on their speed and athleticism.
- That talent was seen throughout the season as the post players have accounted for 34.8 points, 17.6 rebounds per game, a .515 (437-849) field goal percentage, and five double-doubles

WATCH LIST

- Fairfield's Janelle Brown and Meghan Andersen were two of just 25 players named to the Becky Hammon Mid-Major Player of the Year Preseason Watch List.
- Brown was the most efficient guard in the country last season with a .572 shooting percentage, which was the third highest in program history. She also set the program record with a .451 3-point shooting percentage.
- Andersen had one of the best rookie seasons in program history, breaking the rookie scoring mark with 497 points. She also led the MAAC in points, field goals (195), 3-point percentage (.359), and blocks (46).

ROAD WARRIORS

- The Stags tallied the most road wins in the nation with their 15 victories
- Fairfield also won 14-straight road games which was in the top-20 in NCAA history and the longest for any team since South Carolina during the 2020-21 season.

WELCOME ABOARD

• The Stags will welcome five new members to the squad this season with three transfers and two freshmen.

• Jillian Huerter started 14 of 33 games she while scoring in double-digits eight times for Rutgers last season. She drained a team-high 61 3-pointers while leading all freshmen with 7.2 points per game. She hit multiple 3-pointers in 18 games including a career-high five in her seven attempts against Saint Francis (Pa.)

• Sydney Scott appeared in 63 career games and tallied double-figures in scoring 19 times in her career with Marshall. She combined for 103 career 3-pointers in her two seasons, including 61 long-range shots in her sophomore year. She helped the Thundering Herd to 26 wins, a Sun Belt Championship, and a NCAA Tournament appearance during the 2023-24 campaign.

• Raina Brown amassed 2,070 points which was the fifth most among any active Division II player. She led the Dustdevils, and the Lone Star conference with a 20.5 scoring average during the 2023-24 season, ranking seventh in the country. She also totaled a program record 657 points on 246 field goals, and a .586 field goal percentage, all ranking in the top-10 in the nation. She reached double-figures in 29-straight games during her senior season which featured five 30-point outings.

BEACH NCAA REPRESENTATIVE

• Juior Lauren Beach was named to the NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Student-Athlete Engagement Group, as one of their 32 representatives.

• The group consists of current NCAA Division I women's basketball student-athletes from all 32 conferences, nominated through the WBCA NCAA Division I Conference Captains program.

• Off the court, she has maintained a 3.90 GPA while studying in the Marion Peckham Egan School of Nursing, which was ranked in the top-five in New England and received national accolades from the US News & World Reports.

THE FRESHMEN

• Cyanne Coe was named the Ontario Basketball Association (OSBA) Defensive Player of the Year after finishing the campaign with 63 steals and 32 blocks. She was one of just 24 Canadian players chosen to take part in the 2023 BioSteel All-Star Game, earning All-Star First Team accolades. She was also named the MVP in five different tournaments including a three-time MVP at the She Got Game Classic and two-time MVP at the Chris Smalling Tournament.

• Julia Karpell helped her high school squad St. John Vianney become one of the best teams in the country, ranking in the top-10 in the nation for all three of her seasons. She connected on a career-high 56 3-pointers and amassed a personal-best 239 points during her junior season. She also added career-highs 72 assists and showed her versatility on the defensive side with 56 steals.

IZA GOING FOR SILVER

• Fairfield graduate student guard Izabella Nicoletti-Leite had the experience of a lifetime as she represented her native country Brazil in the South American Women's Championship, helping the team to a silver medal.

• In the six games of the tournament, Nicoletti-Leite averaged 9.7 points per game with 5.0 rebounds and 5.0 assists. Those numbers included a game-high 20 points in the win against Colombia and a team-high eight against Uruguay.

• With their second-place finish, Brazil has qualified for the 2025 FIBA Women's AmeriCup which will also be hosted in Chile.
