KELSI MUSICK

Head Coach
3rd Season
Cameron, '02
Career Record: 295-156

A native of Canton, Oklahoma, Kelsi Musick, enters her third year at the helm for the Golden Eagles. Musick previously spent 13 seasons as head coach at Southwestern Oklahoma State University where she led the Lady Bulldogs to the NCAA Division II National Championship game in 2019.

In her first year, Musick implemented an offensive system that saw the emergence and unlocking of Hannah Cooper, whose points per game increased by nearly 14 under Musick, and a team offense that ranked 16th in the country in scoring, averaging 78.1 points per game.

ORU posted a 21-11 record in Musick's second season as the Golden Eagles made it to the Summit League Semifinals before falling to North Dakota State. ORU clinched a WNIT berth for the first time since 2012, but fell short in the first round vs Grambling State.

Prior to ORU

Musick took the Lady Bulldogs to the NCAA Tournament seven times that included one regional championship and four GAC Tournament Championships. Musick averaged 18.3 wins per season with eight 20-win seasons in six of her last seven campaigns with four straight from 2015-19. Over the past three seasons, Musick's teams have had a record of 90-12 (.882) which were the three highest-win totals at SWOSU in the NCAA era.

During her time at SWOSU, Musick became one of the nation's best coaches in Division II history. She has managed a 259-125 (.674) overall record and a 182-74 (.710) record in conference play with two seasons in the Lone Star Conference and the other nine in the Great American Conference.

The Lady Bulldogs ranked in the top ten nationally in scoring offense in seven of her seasons at the helm, averaging more than 80 points per game in five of those campaigns. In 2021-22, the team averaged 82.1 points per game to rank third in the country. The Lady Bulldogs have been in the top ten in three-pointers made five times in the past eight seasons including third with 9.5 per game last season. In 2021-22, Musick coached sophomore Makyra Tramble to be the Ron Lenz National Player of the Year and a two-time All-American. Tramble transferred to ORU this offseason to continue her career under Coach Musick. SWOSU ended the season at No. 2 in the central region ranking and No. 23 nationally.

In 2018-19, she led the Lady Bulldogs to their best season. The team won 35 consecutive games and advanced to the NCAA National Championship game. SWOSU finished the year with a school-record 35 victories, becoming the first team to win the Great American Conference Championship undefeated before winning the GAC Tournament and the school's first Central Regional Championship. For her efforts, Musick was named the GAC Coach of the Year for the second straight year. During her time at SWOSU, she's been named GAC Coach of the Year five times.

Prior to SWOSU, Musick was an assistant coach at Fresno State where she was part of consecutive 20-win seasons. Fresno State won the Western Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles and finished 24-9 and to advance to the NCAA Tournament in 2008-09.

Musick played collegiately at Cameron University where she set school records in career three-point average and assists. Her final season in 2001-02, the Aggies set a school record for most wins (25) and made their first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament.

Musick is married to her husband, Josh Musick, and together they have two sons, Maddox and Titus and one daughter Amaria.

ABOUT ORU

Founded in 1963 by evangelist Oral Roberts, ORU is a 400-acre campus located in South Tulsa. ORU boasts a total enrollment of over 5,000 students from all 50 states and more than 30 foreign countries. Some famous ORU alums include entertainer Kathy Lee Gifford, Pulitzer-prize nominated author Clifton Taulbert and two-time NCAA track & field national champion and 2008 Olympic silver medalist Andretti Bain, 2012 NCAA outdoor national champion Jack Whitt and 2012 Olympians Prince Mumba (Track) and Dominique Allen (Women's Basketball). "The Simpsons" creator Matt Groening briefly attended ORU, and subsequently, many of the characters on the show are modeled after former ORU students and staff members. In fact, if you look closely over Ned Flanders' fireplace, his college diploma reads "Oral Roberts University".

ABOUT THE SUMMIT LEAGUE

Through 42 years of Division I athletics, The Summit League offers 19 championship sports and has a combined enrollment of around 98,000 at nine institutions, including four located in top 60 U.S. metropolitan populations and two land-grant universities. Member institutions include: the University of Denver, University of Missouri-Kansas City, University of North Dakota, North Dakota State University, University of Nebraska Omaha, Oral Roberts University, University of South Dakota, South Dakota State University and Western Illinois University.

The Summit League was previously known as the Mid-Continent Conference before undergoing a rebrand in 2007. The Summit League has produced 15 NCAA National Champions with over 125 All-Americans and 100 Academic All-Americans including numerous student-athletes competing at the highest professional level.

Each year, approximately 3,000 student-athletes continue to raise the bar and help The Summit League reach exceptional success and development. Within the past eight years alone, The Summit League has produced a national postseason team tournament championship, an NCAA semifinal appearance, and eight NCAA Champions. That level of success also carries into the classroom. The Summit League ranked first for NCAA Graduation Success Rate in women's basketball from 2014-16. A total of 21 Summit League teams achieved perfect NCAA Academic Progress Rate scores in the most recently released figures, while 23 other teams garnered NCAA Public Recognition Awards for top academic progress rates.
