- The Illini are coming off of the team's two largest victory margins of the season – vs. UMES (+47, 87-40) on Saturday and vs. Little Rock (+58, 92-34) on Monday – to improve to 5-0 at home this season, with an average scoring margin of 38.8 points.
- Monday's win over Little Rock marked the 148th victory of Brad Underwood's Illini tenure. In his eighth season in Champaign, Underwood now ranks fifth on the Illinois all-time coaching wins list.

- Newcomers to the Illini roster have accounted for 90.1% of the team's scoring so far (484 of 534 total points), with UI freshmen accounting for 38.7% of those points (207).

ILLINOIS - ARKANSAS CONNECTIONS

- Thursday's matchup between Illinois and Arkansas features a number of connections between the two programs.
- Illinois sophomore C Tomislav Ivusic is the twin brother of Arkansas' Zvonimir Ivusic. Zvonimir came to the U.S. in 2023 after being recruited to Kentucky, then followed head coach John Calipari to Arkansas in the offseason. Tomislav remained in Europe for an additional year where he played for club SC Derby in Podgorica, Montenegro, before being recruited by Underwood and his staff to Illinois this year.
- Illinois associate head coach Orlando Antigua was key to recruiting both Tomislav and Zvonimir Ivusic to Illinois and Kentucky, respectively. Prior to rejoining Brad Underwood's Illinois staff this season, Antigua spent three years at Kentucky (2021-24). In addition to his connection to Zvonimir Ivusic, Antigua was a part of John Calipari's staff that recruited and coached three other current Razorbacks - graduate G Kareem Watkins, junior F Adou Thiero, and sophomore G D.J. Wagner - at Kentucky. Antigua is in his second stint at Illinois after four seasons on Underwood's staff (2017-21) as his first hire in the spring of 2017.
- Arkansas associate head coach Chin Coleman was also a part of Underwood's Illinois staff from 2017-21. He was then hired, alongside Antigua, at Kentucky before following John Calipari to Arkansas this past offseason.

HIGHLIGHTING ILLINOIS' STRONG NONCONFERENCE SLATE

- Illinois head coach Brad Underwood believes in putting together a rigorous schedule to prepare for Big Ten play. That is the case once again this season,
- The Illini traveled to No. 24 Ole Miss on Oct. 27 for a charity exhibition matchup.
- Illinois' nonconference schedule features five games against high-major opponents and four games against reigning NCAA Tournament teams, highlighted by a Final Four squad along with a pair of Elite Eight participants.
- The Illini's first test against an NCAA Tournament team comes Nov. 13 with Oakland visiting Champaign for a second straight season. The Golden Grizzlies upset Kentucky in the first round of last year's NCAA Tournament.
- Illinois then travels to Birmingham, Nov. 20 for one of its many marquee nonconference tilts, facing 2024 Final Four participant Alabama in the C.M. Newton Classic.
- The Orange and Blue will be featured in a Thanksgiving Day Showdown against John Calipari's Arkansas squad in Kansas City on Nov. 28. The game will be televised on CBS (3 p.m. CT) following the NFL matchup between the Chicago Bears and Detroit Lions.
- Illinois welcomes Tennessee to State Farm Center on Saturday, Dec. 14, with the Volunteers, like the Illini, coming off an Elite Eight appearance. Illinois visited Knoxville last season.
- The Illini are in St. Louis on Dec. 22, battling Missouri in the annual McBride Homes Braggin' Rights game. Illinois looks to retain the Braggin' Rights trophy following last year's 97-73 victory over the Tigers. Mizzou marks the fourth SEC opponent Illinois faces in non-conference play.
- The Illini's final non-league game occurs during the heart of Big Ten play, as Illinois heads to New York's Madison Square Garden on Saturday, Feb. 22, to take on Duke in the SentinelOne Classic on FOX. The Blue Devils are also coming off a trip to the Elite Eight.

BIG TEN SCHEDULING DETAILS

- Illinois’ doubles: Michigan State, Northwestern, and Wisconsin.
- Illinois’ home singles: Iowa, Maryland, Ohio State, Penn State, Purdue, UCLA and USC
- Illinois’ road singles: Indiana, Michigan, Minnesota, Nebraska, Oregon, Rutgers, and Washington.

FOUR SELLOUTS ON FIRST DAY OF TICKET SALES

- Tickets continue to move fast, and the allotment of 3,000 student season tickets sold out, in a record 26 minutes, for the fourth year in a row.
- Tickets are available for the remaining 13 home games, and can be purchased at FightingIllini.com.

SHANNON & DOSUNMU REPRESENTING IN THE NBA, STATE FARM CENTER RAFTERS

- For the second time in four seasons, a Fighting Illini All-American guard from Chicago was drafted into the NBA and will be immortalized by having his jersey raised to the State Farm Center rafters.
- Following one of the greatest single seasons in program history in 2023-24, Terrence Shannon Jr. was selected by the Minnesota Timberwolves with the No. 27 overall pick in the first round of the 2024 NBA Draft in June.
- Shannon became the second player of Head Coach Brad Underwood’s tenure to be drafted, meanwhile, following Ayo Dosunmu’s selection by the Chicago Bulls in the second round (No. 38 overall) of the 2021 draft.
- Shannon also joins Dosunmu and Kofi Cockburn to become the 36th player in Fighting Illini men’s basketball history, and the third of the Underwood era, to be recognized as part of the Illinois Basketball Honored Jerseys program.
- Dosunmu, now in his fifth season with the Bulls, averaged 20.1 points, 6.3 rebounds and 5.3 assists during his final season at Illinois, becoming the first NCAA player since 2010 and just the second Big Ten player since 1993 to average at least 20 points, six rebounds and five assists. He accumulated the most impressive single-season list of accolades ever by an Illini player, highlighted by USA Today National Player of the Year, Bob Cousy Point Guard of the Year, and consensus first-team All-American.
- Shannon was named an All-American by four media outlets after helping leading Illinois to 29 wins, the third-winningest season in school history, and No. 6 ranking in final AP poll. He earned NCAA All-Region Team honors, leading Illinois to its first Elite Eight appearance since 2005, and was named the Big Ten Tournament Most Outstanding Player, starring as Illinois won its third conference title in four years. A first-team All-Big Ten selection by the coaches, media, and AP, Shannon shattered the Illinois all-time single season scoring record, totaling 736 points (first Illini ever to top 700 points), ranked third in the NCAA in scoring at 23.0 ppg, the highest scoring average by an Illini player in 51 years, set the Big Ten Tournament’s three-game scoring record with an astounding 34.0 points-per-game average (102 total), and set Illinois single-season records for 20-point games (21) and made free throws (221).

Brad Underwood has reinvigorated Illinois Basketball, bringing the Fighting Illini back to the national stage and building a championship program during his tenure in Champaign.

Underwood is the 18th head coach in Illinois history, hired in March 2017 as the Richmond Family Endowed Men's Head Basketball Coach. He has won nearly 69 percent of his games during his 11 years as a Division I head coach, recording nine 20-win seasons. Underwood has made eight appearances in the NCAA Tournament, with a ninth precluded by the cancellation of the 2020 post-season due to COVID-19.

Illinois hoisted a conference trophy for the third time in four years in 2024, winning the Big Ten Tournament Championship in Minneapolis. Underwood became the first Illinois coach to win multiple Big Ten Tournaments, claiming two in a span of just four years. That followed a runner-up finish during the regular season where the Illini went 14-6 in conference play.

The Illini were 29-9 overall in Underwood's seventh year at the helm, with the 29 victories ranking as the third-winningest season in the 118-year history of the program. Illinois earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Tournament and won three games to advance to the East Regional Final, marking the program's first Elite Eight appearance since 2005. Upon making his first trip to the NCAA second weekend, Underwood led the Orange and Blue to a victory over No. 2 seed Iowa State in the Sweet 16 as Illinois recorded just its second NCAA Tournament win ever over a top-two seed.

Illinois ended the year at No. 6 in the Associated Press poll, marking its second top-10 final ranking in four years and fourth top-25 finish over the last five years. The 2023-24 offense was Illinois' most efficient in the kenpom era, placing third nationally at 1.255 points per possession. The Illini averaged 83.4 points per game, its highest scoring average in the last 30 years.

The Big Ten has been the nation's preeminent conference in recent years. It was ranked No. 1 by kenpom in 2020 and 2021, received a league-record nine NCAA Tournament bids in 2021 and 2022, led all conferences once again with eight tournament bids in 2023, and sent six teams to the NCAAs in 2024. Yet no team has fared better during this stretch than the Fighting Illini, who are 69-31 (.690) in Big Ten play the last five years of the Underwood era. Illinois owns the most wins in league play over the last five seasons (69), as well as the most regular season and conference tournament wins combined (75).

The 69 victories in conference play marks the winningest five-year run in school history, with Underwood claiming Illinois' two all-time winningest Big Ten seasons (16 in 2021, 15 in 2022), three of the top five (14 in 2024), and four of the top eight (13 in 2020) during this stretch.

Illinois has now recorded at least 20 wins and a winning record in B1G play in five straight seasons for the first time since doing so eight years in a row from 1999-2000 through 2006-07. The Illini are also part of an elite group nationally, standing as one of just five schools to post 20-win regular seasons in each of the last five years.

Illinois had another successful season in Underwood's sixth year in Champaign. Despite replacing all five regular starters, its top five leading scorers, and a total of 10 players from the previous year's Big Ten championship squad, Illinois went 20-13 overall and finished fifth in the Big Ten (11-9) in 2023, securing a third straight NCAA Tournament bid and fourth straight 20-win season.

Illinois ranked in the bottom 25 nationally in minutes continuity from last year. Of those last 25 teams, Illinois was the only one to earn a bid in the 2023 NCAA tournament. The Illini were one of just two teams with multiple kenpom top-10 non-conference wins away from home, posting dramatic comeback wins over UCLA in Las Vegas and Texas at Madison Square Garden.

Underwood led Illinois to the 2022 Big Ten championship in year five, navigating a challenging schedule with a frequently depleted roster to post a 15-5 league record and earn the school's first regular season conference title in 17 years. Illinois went 23-10 overall as Underwood recorded his third-straight 20-plus win season. Illinois ended the year at No. 19 in the AP poll to register a third-straight Top 25 finish, the program's longest streak since 2000-06.

Illinois was a No. 4 seed in the 2022 NCAA Tournament, becoming one of just six programs to receive top-4 seeds over the two-year stretch after earning a No. 1 seed in 2021. Illinois was one of just 12 schools to advance to the Round of 32 in both the 2021 and 2022 NCAA Tournaments, which marked Illinois' first time advancing in consecutive NCAA Tournaments in 16 years.

Underwood's fourth Illini team in 2021 put together one of the best seasons in school history, ending the year ranked No. 2 in the final AP poll, winning the Big Ten Tournament championship, and earning a No. 1 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Illinois went 16-4 in conference play to mark its winningest Big Ten season ever. Illinois led the Big Ten in victories while playing the full conference schedule, but missed out on the regular season title due to an unequal number of games played creating a win percentage differential of .024. The Illini went on to win the Big Ten Tournament, earning the program's first conference tournament title since 2005.

Illinois earned the fourth NCAA Tournament No. 1 seed in school history after winning 14 of 15 games over a two-month stretch leading into NCAA March Madness. The remarkable run included seven wins over ranked teams, with five coming against top-10 foes.

Illinois defeated No. 2 Michigan, 76-53, in Ann Arbor on March 2, recording its highest ranked road win in program history. The 23-point margin was the largest victory in the NCAA on the road over a top-2 team since 1995. Four days later, the Illini won at No. 7 Ohio State to notch its first back-to-back wins over top-10 teams since 2005.

Not finished with that accomplishment, Illinois again defeated back-to-back top-10 opponents the following week at the Big Ten Tournament, beating No. 5 Iowa in the semifinal and No. 9 Ohio State in the championship to win the title.

Brad and his wife, Susan, have a son, Tyler, and two daughters, Katie and Ashley. Tyler, who played four seasons for the Illini while earning three degrees, is an assistant coach on the Illinois staff. Katie also is a U of I graduate, and Ashley graduated from Miami-Ohio.
