Head Coach,
20th Season

Colin Carmichael has been at OSU since the inception of the women's soccer program in the fall of 1996, and he continues to help lead Cowgirl soccer to new heights and a spot among the nation's elite.

OSU is in the midst of the most successful stretch of seasons in its history as the program is in its 29th year, 20 of those with Carmichael as head coach.

Carmichael, who served as OSU's co-head coach with Karen Hancock during the 2005 and 2006 seasons, entered the 2024 season with a 251-105-50 career record in 19 seasons as the Cowgirls' head coach, compiling a winning percentage of .680. He has led OSU to 12 appearances in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship, including six straight from 2006-11, and after advancing to the second round of the NCAA tourney four-straight years, the Cowgirls made back-to-back trips to the Elite Eight in 2010 and 2011.

The Cowgirls have been a force in the Big 12 Conference under Carmichael, capturing six league titles. OSU claimed four consecutive conference championships from 2008-11 and added crowns in 2017 and 2019; the Cowgirls won regular season titles in 2008, '11, '17 and '19 and Big 12 Soccer Championship titles in 2009 and 2010.

Carmichael has guided OSU to a 14-10-3 record and four finals appearances at the Big 12 Championship and an 11-8-6 record in NCAA tourney play.

IN THE RANKINGS

On Aug. 19/20, the Cowgirls entered the national rankings for the first time since Aug. 30, 2021, when the Cowgirls were 22nd in the TopDrawerSoccer.com poll. They stayed in the polls for six consecutive weeks before dropping out on Sept. 30/Oct. 1. During that time, they climbed as high as No. 11 in the Aug. 27th United Soccer Coaches poll, their highest ranking since they were No. 11 in both the United Soccer Coaches and TopDrawerSoccer.com polls on Nov. 17, 2020.

OSU also spent two weeks in the TopDrawerSoccer.com polls from Oct. 21-Nov. 4.

The Cowgirls finished No. 31 in the official NCAA RPI.

IT'S AN HONOR

OSU had seven players honored with Big 12 awards for 2024 and achieved a first in program history.

Six Cowgirls collected All-Big 12 honors, which ranks as the second most in program history behind 2011's seven. OSU placed three on the All-Big 12 First Team, which is tied for the third highest total in program history behind the 2011 (5) and 2010 (4) squads.

Earning spots on the All-Big 12 First Team were defender Alex Morris and midfielders Xcaret Pineda and Laudan Wilson, while goalkeeper Grace Gordon, defender Mollie Breiner and forward Gracie Bindbeutel collected All-Big 12 Second Team accolades.

- The streak of nine-straight shutouts is tied for the second longest in Big 12 Conference history. West Virginia owns the record with 10 in a row in 2016, while WVU (2015) and Nebraska (1997) also had streaks of nine consecutive clean sheets.
- The Cowgirls' previous best shutout streak to begin a season was three games in 2005.
- OSU's 15 shutouts in 2024 is the second most in a season in program history and fifth all time in Big 12 history. The Cowgirls posted a record 18 clean sheets in 2011, which led the NCAA that year and is tied for the conference mark.
- Grace Gordon's 12 shutouts rank third nationally this season, one behind UCLA's Ryan Campbell and Mississippi State's Maddy Anderson, and is tied with AD Franch for the most in a single-season in program history; Franch had 12 in 2011.

SHARING THE WEALTH

OSU's 42 goals this season have been scored by 14 different players. Logan Heausler leads the Cowgirls with eight goals, while Xcaret Pineda has six.

Sixteen Cowgirls have also recorded assists on the year. Laudan Wilson leads the Big 12 and ranks 17th nationally with nine assists, and Alex Morris has five.

THE DIFFERENCE BETWEEN ME & YOU

OSU has outscored its opponents 42-15 on the year and ranks 21st nationally in goal differential.

CAN'T STOP, WON'T STOP

OSU's trio of starting center backs is a big reason the Cowgirls have allowed just six goals this season - and it's rare to not see them on the field.

Mollie Breiner, who collected All-Big 12 Second Team honors, has played the full 90 minutes in 14 of OSU's 21 matches and has been on the field for 1,785 of a possible 1,890 minutes. Ellie Geoffroy has played full time in 11 matches (1,698 minutes total), while Chloé Joseph has played 90 minutes seven times (1,697 minutes total).

X GIVES IT TO YA

Junior midfielder Xcaret Pineda is one of the leaders of OSU's attack, and she had a breakout sophomore season to earn a spot on the 2023 All-Big 12 Second Team.

Pineda started all 20 games for the Cowgirls a year ago and was second on the team with 17 points. She posted six goals and five assists, both of which rank third on the squad.

The Illinois native led OSU with 60 shots, 25 on goal. She tallied three goals and an assist in Big 12 play. Pineda is OSU's third-leading scorer this season with six goals and four assists and earned All-Big 12 First Team honors.

SHE'S A GIVER

Laudan Wilson has nine assists on the season, which is tied for the Big 12 lead and ranks 17th nationally. It's the most assists in a season by a Cowgirl since Jaci Jones had 12 in 2019.

Wilson, who was named to the All-Big 12 First Team, leads OSU with 19 points as she's also contributed five goals.

CLIMBING

Grace Gordon is tied for third on OSU's career shutouts list with 18 in just 40 games in a Cowgirl uniform. She needs three more to move into second place along with Erin Stigler; AD Franch owns the record with 38 from 2009-12. Gordon has 27 clean sheets in her collegiate career after recording nine in three seasons at Seton Hall.

Gordon's 135 saves in an OSU uniform ranks seventh in program history, and she is currently tied for fifth in career goals against average at 0.79.

Gordon was named to the 2024 All-Big 12 Second Team.

BREAKOUT

In her first two collegiate seasons, Logan Heausler played in just 17 games; she appeared in 14 as a freshman then missed the majority of 2022 after suffering a season-ending injury just three games in.

Last season, the Houston native emerged as one of OSU's top threats in the attack, playing in all 20 games and leading the Cowgirls with 18 points. She tied for the team lead with seven goals and turned in a streak of four consecutive matches - three of those vs. Big 12 opponents - in which she scored a goal.

Heausler leads the attack again in 2024 with a team- and career-high eight goals as well as two assists.

LAST YEAR BEST YEAR

Alex Morris is saving her best for last.

The Cowgirls' fifth-year senior wingback scored in back-to-back matches against Houston and Cincinnati, with both goals credited as game winners, and has a career-high four goals on the year after entering the season with two career goals in 66 games.

Morris, who also ranks second on the squad with five assists after posting a career-best six last season, is No. 93 on the TopDrawerSoccer.com Midseason Women's Top 100 recognizing the top upperclassmen in college soccer.

COACH COLIN

Colin Carmichael recorded his 250th career win with OSU's 2-1 victory over UCF on Sept. 28, 2023. Carmichael has spent all 20 of his seasons as a head coach in Stillwater.

Carmichael entered the 2024 season with 251 career wins in 19 seasons, ranking third among active Big 12 coaches in wins at their current school behind only BYU's Jennifer Rockwood (435 wins in 28 seasons) and West Virginia's Nikki Izzo-Brown (390 wins in 28 seasons).

WINNING IS A HABIT

Now in its 29th season, Oklahoma State soccer has built itself into an established winner.

- OSU has earned a berth in the NCAA Women's Soccer Championship 13 of the last 19 years (beginning in 2006) and seven of the last 12.

- From 2006-11, the Cowgirls earned six-straight NCAA tourney bids and advanced to at least the second round each time, including back-to-back Elite Eight appearances in 2010 and 2011.

- From 2008-11, OSU celebrated four consecutive Big 12 championships — two regular season (2008, '11) and two tournament ('09, '10). The Cowgirls also won regular season titles in 2017 and 2019.

NEAL PATTERSON STADIUM

Neal Patterson Stadium was officially dedicated on Aug. 19, 2018, prior to the Oklahoma State-Oklahoma match. The Cowgirls were 2-1 victors in that contest as an OSU women's soccer record crowd of 4,122 fans were in attendance. Kim Rodriguez scored the first-ever goal in the stadium when she converted a penalty kick in the 15th minute.

A $20 million project, Neal Patterson Stadium is a showcase for Cowgirl Soccer and one of the top soccer facilities in the collegiate ranks. It is named for its major benefactor and Oklahoma State alumnus, the late Neal Patterson.

Patterson, who passed away during the summer of 2017, grew up near his family's farm in Manchester, Okla. He earned a bachelor's degree in finance and a master's degree in business from Oklahoma State. He was one of five entrepreneurs who founded Sporting Club, which in 2006 purchased the Sporting KC Major League Soccer franchise. He was also chairman of the board and chief executive officer of Cerner Corporation, a company he co-founded with two colleagues in 1979. Today, Cerner is the world's largest publicly traded health information technology company with $4.8 billion in revenues in 2016 and approximately 24,000 associates worldwide. FORTUNE recently named Cerner one of the world's most admired companies.

"When you provide an education to someone with intelligence, work ethic, determination and big dreams, you occasionally create a force that changes the world," said Mike Holder, OSU's Director of Athletics. "Neal Patterson did that in the health care industry, and our goal is to use his investment in OSU soccer to attract bright, determined, big dreamers from around the world to our soccer team.

"We have been blessed to have an abundance of successful and generous people that have helped transform our athletic department," he added. "Our hope is that Neal's gift will motivate someone else to make a difference on our campus. His name on the stadium is our way of saying thank you and inspiring that next great donor."

The new facility includes club seats, plaza and upper bowl gathering areas and a north end zone terrace area and seating designed specifically for OSU students. Team facilities include locker rooms, meeting areas, kitchen facilities, sports medicine areas and equipment rooms. The stadium can accommodate 2,500 fans in permanent seats.

The west side of the stadium includes 346 reserved chairback seats and 810 reserved bleacher-back seats. There are 552 general admission seats.

The north end zone includes bleacher seating for more than 500 and includes a patio, a building and a concourse area that can host more than 125 for gatherings.

Atop the west side of the stadium are two club levels with a capacity of 80 and two suites with a capacity of 20 guests each. A new press box sits atop the stadium. The west side is anchored by a club area at field level that can host more than 100 and serve as a player lounge and nutrition area on non-game days.

Other unique aspects of Patterson Stadium include:

- A large roof that covers much of the seating areas, providing shade and a soccer-specific feel like that in many international venues;
- Home and visitor bench areas with chairback seating built into the stadium;
- A 26 feet by 40 feet high-definition video scoreboard in the southeast corner of the facility.

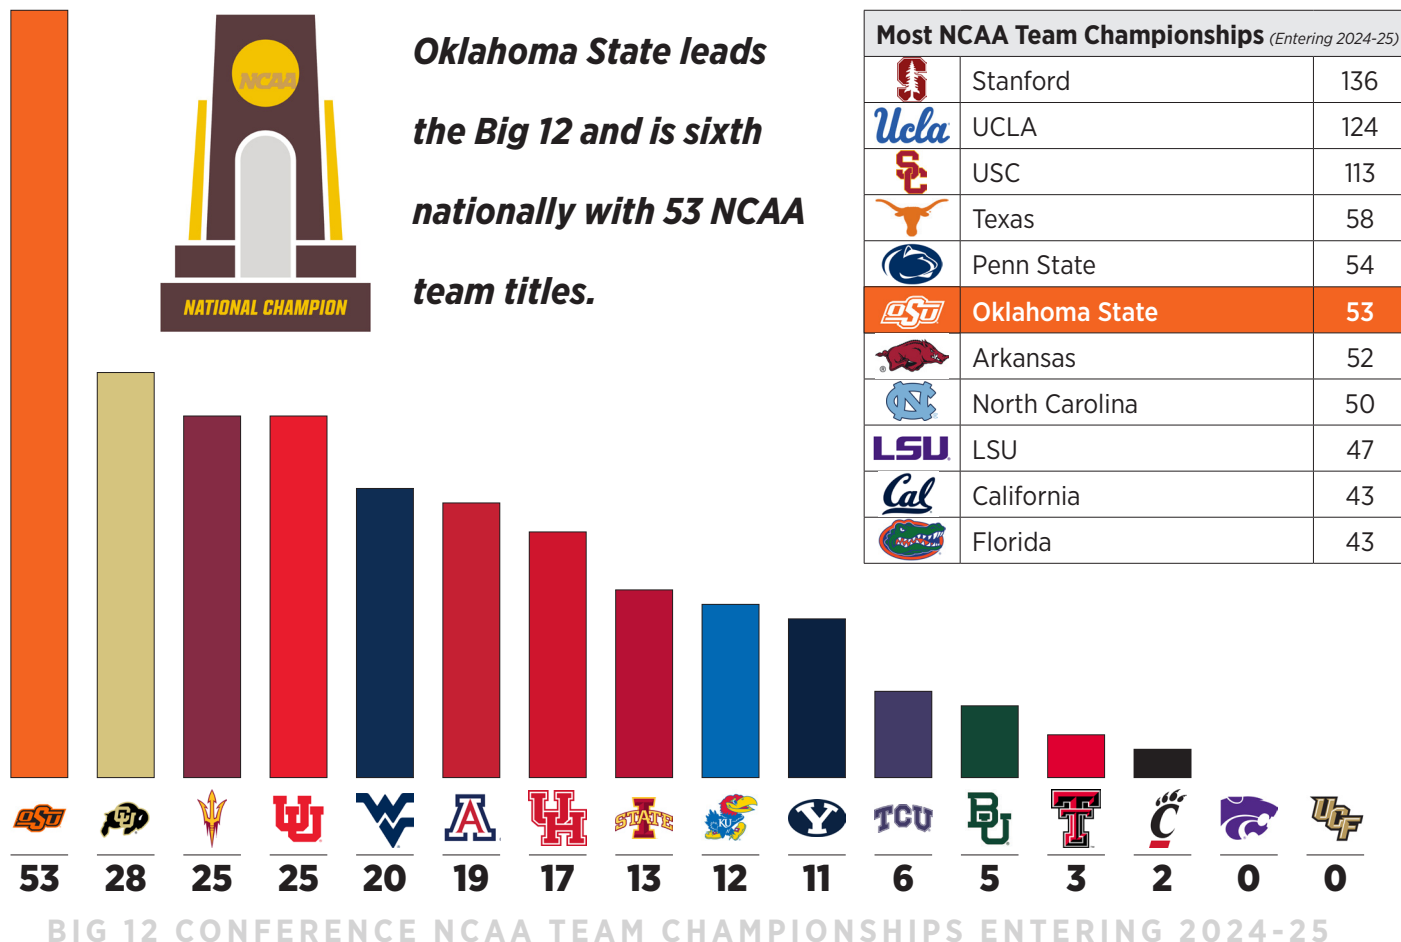

"A facility of this magnitude is a game changer for our program," said OSU head soccer coach Colin Carmichael. "It helps the current student-athletes to be in one of the nicest facilities in the country. Our fans are going to have a much better game day experience. We want it to be a real family atmosphere.

"We have always had a good student following," he added. "But we want to enhance their experience, which will make for a better atmosphere. And of course this will affect recruiting.

"Every recruit wants to know that how serious a school is about their sport. This is a huge statement from our administration."
