Gymbacks Check in at No. 8 in Preseason Poll

Coming off the best season in head coach Jordyn Wieber's tenure, expectations are high for the Gymbacks in 2025 as the team has been voted No. 8 in the Women's College Gymnastics Association preseason coaches poll. The ranking is the highest in an opening poll during Wieber's tenure, first in the top 10, and fifth in the top 15. Arkansas concluded the 2024 slate ranked No. 7 in the country after the Gymbacks qualified for their first nationals under Wieber and first since 2018. Over the course of the season, the Gymbacks set and broke their team program score record three times. They reached their peak on March 15 against Nebraska with a 198.100, the first 198 ever for Arkansas. The team also set new event records on vault (49.550), beam (49.575), and floor (49.725). The team ultimately tallied 11 total scores of 197+, a new program single season record by six, and compiled a 15-15-1 record, the most wins since 2012 and most in Wieber's tenure. The Gymbacks had a 4-2-1 record in SEC competition, the most conference victories since 2016. Arkansas only loses two key routines from last season heading into 2025 and returns a wealth of talent including All-Americans Reese Drotar (bars), Leah Smith (vault) and Cami Weaver (vault). Floor regular season All-American and All-SEC honoree Frankie Price will be back for another season of fan favorite gymnastics, and fellow all-conference teammates Maddie Jones, Hailey Klein and Lauren Williams will also play big roles for the Gymbacks. The team's new additions are sure to make a big impact, starting with incoming freshman Joscelyn Roberson. Roberson served as a traveling alternate for Team USA at the 2024 Paris Olympics, the first gymnast to ever represent Arkansas at the games. En route to Paris, she had an excellent showing at Olympic Trials with back-to-back personal high all-around scores of 55.475 and 55.500. She placed sixth overall with a combined score of 110.975, finished in fourth place on vault and floor and tied for first on beam. Roberson is 2023 world champion, 2023 U.S. vault champion. Since her senior debut in 2022, Roberson has earned 23 top 10 finishes across eight domestic competitions and 11 in her four international assignments with Team USA. Grace Drexler, Ja'Leigh Lang, Sadie Smith and Julianna Weeks join Joscelyn in the freshman class, and Arkansas has also added two graduate transfers in the off-season, Kaity Ewald and Mati Waligora. All six provide a wealth of expertise on all events to ensure that the Gymbacks continue 2024's success into the new season. Arkansas will also take its talents to a bigger stage this season as the Hogs are set to host all five of their home meets at Bud Walton Arena. Razorback Nation did not disappoint in its support for gymnastics in 2024, starting with a new season ticket record of 2,480. Arkansas recorded a total regular season attendance of 35,367 across five meets and has room to expand on that number with a larger venue and marquee SEC opponents like defending national champions LSU, Florida, Alabama and Mizzou.

Arkansas Gymnastics Inks No. 2 2025 Signing Class

The Gymbacks welcomed six new members to the squad on Signing Day, an impressive class ranked No. 2 in the country by College Gym News. Avalon Campbell, Allison Cucci, Avery King, Addison Bare, Bradley Burton and Riley Jandorf will head to The Hill next year and allow Arkansas to reload, rather than rebuild. Campbell, Cucci, and King are all rated five-star recruits by CGN, and Bare and Burton will arrive as four stars. Jandorf continues a local connection for the program as a Bentonville native. "This 2025 class is stacked with talent, competitiveness, camaraderie, and passion for this Arkansas program," head coach Jordyn Wieber said. "Each of them brings a level of difficulty and excellence through their gymnastics and their character that will undoubtedly make this program better. They are eager to get here and help us win championships.

Bud Walton Arena Tabbed as Regional Site for 2027 NCAA Gymnastics Championships

Bud Walton Arena will serve as a big stage yet again in 2027 as it has been named a regional site for the 2027 NCAA Gymnastics Championships, the NCAA announced on Wednesday. 2027 will mark the second time an NCAA Gymnastics Regional is hosted at Bud Walton Arena, the first was this past spring. Arkansas hosted an action-packed three days of regional competition in April that ended with the Gymbacks punching their ticket to nationals as a team for the first time since 2019. The Hogs won their semifinal in Fayetteville with a then-program regional record of 197.325 and broke it just two nights later with the 197.825 mark that sent them to Fort Worth. The regional event saw a combined attendance of 8,206 and brought in teams --> and individual student-athletes across 11 states and 12 programs, including Arkansas, and seven different conferences. "We are extremely grateful for the opportunity to host an NCAA Regional again in 2027. Our first postseason weekend at Bud Walton Arena in April was an incredible experience for us and all other participating teams and student-athletes," head coach Jordyn Wieber said. "As we continue to elevate our program, we look forward to hosting some of the best competition our sport has to offer and making Fayetteville one of the first stops in the journey to a national championship." Arkansas has played host to regional competition six times throughout program history and has been very successful in each. The Gymbacks have never finished lower than third in a home regional and have advanced to nationals out of their own regional all but twice. Of the program's nine team NCAA Championships berths, four of them had the road begin in Fayetteville.

13 Gymbacks Named WCGA Scholar All-Americans

Following a historic season on the competition floor, the Razorback gymnastics team is also being recognized for its efforts in the classroom as 13 Gymbacks have been named Scholar All-Americans by the Women's Collegiate Gymnastics Association (WCGA), the organization announced on Wednesday. To earn a Scholar All-America spot, athletes must have a cumulative or year-long GPA of 3.5 or above. Arkansas' 13 gymnasts on the list, 72 percent of the roster, matches a program record set in 2021 and the fourth season with 10+ Scholar All-America honorees under head coach Jordyn Wieber. The team finished the year with a team GPA of 3.656, which ranks 33rd among NCAA gymnastics programs and third in the SEC. It is also the highest team GPA since 2021, and second-highest in program history. In five seasons under Wieber, Arkansas' average annual GPA stands at 3.576. Chandler Buntin, Reese Drotar, Kalyxta Gamiao, Emma Kelley, Jensen Scalzo, and Lauren Williams all recorded 4.0s in the 2023-24 academic year. Dakota Essenpries, Maddie Jones, Sirena Linton, Priscilla Park, Frankie Price, Leah Smith and Cally Swaney round out the list for the Gymbacks. In addition to the WCGA nods, Arkansas received 16 total SEC academic awards between the Winter Honor Roll and First Year Honor Roll.

Roberson Named to Team USA as Traveling Replacement Athlete

The Arkansas gymnastics program will be represented by an athlete at the Olympic Games for the first time ever as incoming freshman Joscelyn Roberson was named a traveling replacement athlete for the Paris 2024 squad on Sunday night. Roberson put together a phenomenal two days of competition at the Olympic Trials in Minneapolis and placed sixth overall with a combined score of 110.975. She also finished in fourth place on vault and floor and tied for first on beam. Prior to the Olympic Trials, Roberson had never scored 55.000+ plus in all-around competition but earned a mark of 55.475 after Friday's preliminary competition. The career high held for only 48 hours, as she bested herself with a 55.500 in Sunday's final. Seven athletes of the nine total named to the team or as alternates have either competed for or are committed to NCAA programs, including four from the SEC: Arkansas, Auburn, Florida and LSU. As traveling alternates, Roberson and Leanne Wong (Florida) will head to Paris and can be called upon to replace an athlete for Team USA up until the start of team qualification competition on Sunday, July 28. Roberson joins head coach Jordyn Wieber (2012) and assistant coaches Chris Brooks (2012, 2016) and Kyla Ross (2012) in representing the red, white, and blue at the Olympic Games, on the team or as an alternate.

Mati Waligora Commits to Gymbacks for Sixth Year

The Arkansas gymnastics program continues to reload for 2025 with another big offseason piece as sixth year Mati Waligora has committed to the Gymbacks. Waligora is no stranger to SEC competition, spending the last five seasons at Alabama. She was a staple in the Tide's bars, beam, and floor lineups in 2024 and competed in all but one meet on the season. She scored 9.850+ seven times on bars and beam and nine times on floor. As a senior in 2023, Waligora appeared in all 13 meets for the Tide and had a particularly successful season on floor. She matched her career high of 9.925 on Feb. 3 and scored 9.850+ in nine appearances. Mati appeared on each event at least five times in her junior campaign, and twice competed all-around in 2022. She set or matched every event's career high in that season: 9.900 on vault, 9.950 on bars, 9.925 on beam and 9.925 on floor. Her 9.950 mark on March 31 also earned her the NCAA regional bars title. Waligora's first full season with the Tide came in 2021. She made the vault lineup 10 times and scored below 9.850 just twice, made nine appearances on bars, and seven on beam. Mati has been an exemplary student in her time at Alabama and has been named to the SEC Academic Honor Roll five times and is a four-time WCGA Scholastic All-American. She has won the Alabama Fern Hampton Academic Award three years in a row and was also earned the Paul W. Bryant Award at the 2024 Crimson Choice ceremony, "given to the top male and female student-athletes encompassing athletic success, academic success, as well as service to the community." Waligora completed a master's degree in health studies this year and earned her bachelor's in kinesiology/exercise science in 2023.

Gymbacks Land Grad Transfer Kaitlyn Ewald for 2025 Season

Arkansas gymnastics will bolster its roster for the 2025 season with an experienced veteran in Kaitlyn Ewald, who has been added as a graduate transfer. Ewald has spent the last four seasons at Illinois, where she competed in 46 meets dating back to her freshman year. Kaity has made lineups on all events throughout her collegiate career but has been a mainstay on bars for the Illini. She has scored 9.850+ in 19 of her appearances on bars, and holds a personal best of 9.950, set this past season. Ewald also evolved into a solid beam contributor for Illinois in her senior year and competed on the event in all but one meet. She scored 9.850+ in six appearances, which included a career-high 9.875 on March 17. Of her five total top three finishes of 2024, three came on beam. As an underclassman, she consistently appeared in the Illinois floor lineup and has matched her career high of 9.875 five times, the last on March 1 of this year. One of just six Illini gymnasts to appear in every meet in 2024, Ewald's steadiness and reliability helped lead the team to a sixth place finish at Big Ten Championships and a regionals appearance. The Illini ultimately finished the season ranked 22nd overall. Kaity graduated with a bachelor's of science in kinesiology in May, and was a three-time Academic All-Big Ten honoree, 2023 CoSIDA Academic All-District honoree, and two-time WCGA Scholastic All-American.

ARKANSAS AT SFM COLLEGIATE QUAD

>> 2025 marks Arkansas' first appearance in the Sprouts Farmers Market Collegiate Quad, and it's just the second year of the event

>> The Gymbacks have not opened the season with more than a dual meet since 2016, and have not opened against 2+ opponents since the 2012 slate in Cancun, Mexico

>> While the quad meet start is rare, Arkansas is very familiar with its opponents at the event and has competed against each at least once since 2018

KENTUCKY

>> After meeting four times last season, Saturday's match-up is the first of at least two between Arkansas and SEC foe Kentucky in 2025

>> Last time out, the Gymbacks took down the Wildcats at the Fayetteville Regional Final to punch their ticket to the 2024 NCAA Gymnastics Championships

>> Arkansas' is 15-8 over Kentucky at neutral sites dating back to 2003

OHIO STATE

>> The Gymbacks are 4-1 against the Buckeyes since 2009, their only loss coming in the 2023 Norman Regional

>> The Buckeyes finished the 2024 slate ranked No. 15 in the country and were voted No. 16 in the 2025 WCGA preseason coaches poll

>> Ohio State has been picked to finish fourth in the Big 10 behind Michigan State, UCLA and Michigan

UCLA

>> Of Arkansas' three opponents at the SFM Collegiate Quad, it's been the longest since the Hogs have seen the Bruins, their last meeting at the 2018 NCAA Championships, which UCLA would go on to win

>> Head coach Jordyn Wieber was a team manager and volunteer assistant coach for the Bruins through 2019. Saturday marks her first time coaching against her alma mater, and Arkansas is 3-14 all-time against UCLA, its last win in 2009

>> Assistant coach Kyla Ross was a five-time national champion and 24-time All-American at UCLA. Ross made her collegiate debut against Arkansas in 2017, and will now coach a season opener between the two teams eight years later

JORDYN WIEBER

SIXTH-YEAR HEAD COACH

Olympic gold medalist Jordyn Wieber was introduced as the head coach of the Arkansas Women's Gymnastics program on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek.

Season five was the best yet for Wieber in her tenure, as she led the Gymsbacks to their first NCAA Championships team appearance in eight years in 2024. Arkansas finished seventh of eighth to conclude the season ranked No. 7, the highest final rank for the team since 2012.

Sophomore Reese Drotar earned First Team All-America honors on bars with a sixth place finished and matched the program NCAA Championships bars record with a score of 9.925. Leah Smith and Cami Weaver garnered Second Team honors on vault as they tied for 13th overall with matching scores of 9.8875. Wieber has now coached six athletes to 10 All-America honors over the last five years, at least one each season dating back to 2021.

The road to Fort Worth began in Fayetteville as the Hogs hosted regional competition for the first time in seven years, and Arkansas set a then-regional high of 197.325 to advance to the final. With a nationals berth on the line, the Gymsbacks punched their ticket with a new regional high of 197.825, also the second-best score in program history.

Arkansas began the postseason at SEC Championships, where the Gymsbacks placed sixth with a score of 197.050, the first time ever scoring 197+ at the event and a new program best at SECs. Six athletes earned All-SEC honors: Lauren Williams on vault, Hailey Klein and Cami Weaver on beam, and Maddie Jones, Frankie Price and Leah Smith on floor. Six ties the program record for Gymsbacks on the All-SEC list in a single season, and is the most under Wieber so far.

The season was filled with milestones for the program, including seven of the top 10 program high scores for Arkansas, including a new best of 198.100 set on March 15. Prior to that, the Gymsbacks set and broke their program score record two other times, and finished 2024 with 11 marks of 197+, the most in a single season by six.

Arkansas also set new event records on vault (49.550), beam (49.575) and floor (49.725) in 2024, and five athletes matched the program-high 9.975 individual scores across all four events: Hailey Klein on vault, Reese Drotar on bars, Priscilla Park on beam and Maddie Jones and Frankie Price on floor.

The Gymsbacks compiled an 8-6-1 regular season record and 15-15-1 record overall, the most wins for the program since 2012. Arkansas went 4-2-1 in SEC competition, the most conference victories in eight years, another high for Wieber in her fifth season at the helm.

Continuing to develop Arkansas as a premier program in all aspects, Wieber spearheaded marketing and promotions efforts for five home meets, including two at Bud Walton Arena, for a total season attendance of 35,367, ninth-best in the country. Barnhill Arena saw a sold out meet for the second consecutive season in 2024, and Arkansas' 6,084 average fans across three meets at Barnhill is a new venue record. For the past three seasons, Arkansas has set new program season ticket sales records, this time 2,480 in 2024.

During her fourth season in 2023, Wieber guided the Gymsbacks to their 19th consecutive regional appearance. The team set a then-Onew regional team score record of 197.275, and a new regional floor record of 49.500. The team finished the year ranked 17th in the country, maintaining the program's 18-year streak in the top 20.

Graduate transfer Norah Flatley and freshman Lauren Williams both earned berths to the NCAA Championships as individuals, extending Wieber's unblemished national appearance streak in each eligible year. Flatley earned her fourth All-American honor at the event on balance beam with a score of 9.9375, which is the best-ever score by a Gymsback as an individual beam qualifier.

Arkansas' 196.825 at SEC Championships in 2023 and placed seventh. Five Gymsbacks earned All-SEC or All-SEC Freshman honors at the meet: Norah Flatley (VT, FX, AA), Lauren Williams (VT, FX), Reese Drotar (UB), Frankie Price (VT) and Cami Weaver (VT).

The Gymsbacks continued to grow their fanbase with new single meet (11,031), home single season (36,619), and average attendance (7,324) records in 2023, the latter two ranking sixth and seventh in the country. Arkansas also sold out Barnhill Arena for the first time in program history on Jan. 27, when 7,147 fans were in the building to watch the Hogs take down the LSU Tigers.

Wieber has coached four regular-season All-Americans in Sophia Carter (2020), Maggie O'Hara (2021), Kennedy Hambrick (2020, 2021) and Frankie Price (2024). Hambrick became the new all-around score record holder (39.750) during the 2021 season, a record that had gone unbroken for seven years prior. Under her guidance in and out of the gym, the Gymsbacks were awarded the Arkansas Athletics Lee Spencer Cup for the first time ever in 2022, which is awarded to the team that earns the most points in the areas of personal and career development, community engagement, and academic and athletic excellence. Arkansas also saw its first SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 10 years in 2022 with Bailey Lovett.

The Gymsbacks earned their first-ever spot in the SEC night session in 2021 and advanced to the NCAA regional final after scoring a 197.250 on day one. In total, Arkansas registered five scores of 197.000 or better in 2021, for the first time in program history.

In 2020, the Gymsbacks ranked as high as fourth in the nation on floor and finished the season ninth in the nation. Arkansas scored a 49.00 or higher in 14 of 16 events over the course of four home meets, nearly 90 percent of all events.

The Razorbacks' success on floor helped them lock in back-to-back SEC wins against No. 20 Missouri and No. 10 Georgia midway through the season. The consecutive wins marked the first time since 2017 that Arkansas won two-straight conference meets and consecutive meets against a ranked opponent.

Arkansas saw six Gymsbacks wrap up the 2020 season ranked in the top 100 by Road to Nationals in at least one event, with four Hogs finishing with multiple top 100 rankings. With Wieber's lead, Arkansas won 27 event titles through 10 meets. Hambrick finished the season with the most individual titles among the Gymsbacks, securing 11 event titles including a team-high four all-around titles.

The first home meet of the Wieber era was held on Jan. 17 against No. 3 Denver, bringing a then-record crowd of 6,714 fans to Barnhill Arena. On Feb. 21, Coach Wieber and her Arkansas squad hosted Auburn for a Women's Empowerment Meet, the first of its kind in NCAA gymnastics and now an annual tradition for the Gymsbacks.

Wieber wrapped up her third season as a volunteer assistant coach at UCLA and her sixth with the program in 2019, assisting the team in a variety of roles during her first three years in Westwood following her Olympic career. Wieber coached the Bruins on floor exercise, an event in which UCLA finished the 2018 and 2019 regular seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation. In 2019, the Bruins recorded scores of 49.5 or better in 11 of 14 meets, averaging a national-best 49.604 on floor. Four Bruins earned regular season All-America honors in the event - Katelyn Ohashi, Kyla Ross, Gracie Kramer and Felicia Hano. At the 2019 NCAA Championships, Wieber coached future Arkansas assistant Ross to the individual floor title with a score of 9.950, the program's second in as many years. After winning their semifinal session with a 197.650, UCLA finished third overall in the finals.

The 2018 Bruins scored 49.4 or higher in 11 meets and 49.6 or higher in three meets, including a national season-high of 49.775 set on Feb. 25. She and her fellow UCLA coaches were named the 2018 West Region Assistant Coaches of the Year, as they helped lead the Bruins to Pac-12, NCAA regional and NCAA national titles.

Wieber, who has been a vocal advocate for safe sport, has won many awards in the past several years, including the Arthur Ashe Courage Award at the ESPYs, the Rising Star Award by the Los Angeles Business Journal, and the Giant Steps A Hero Among Us Award.

A member of the "Fierce Five" United States squad that won team gold at the 2012 Olympics, Wieber was a two-time U.S. all-around champion (2011 and 2012) and the 2011 World all-around champion. Her illustrious elite career included three medals (all-around and team gold, beam bronze) at the 2011 World Championships, four U.S. senior national titles (all-around, bars and floor in 2011 and all-around in 2012). She was also the 2008 U.S. junior all-around, vault and floor exercise champion and the American Cup all-around champion in 2009, 2011 and 2012. She dominated the competition at the 2010 Pacific Rim Championships, winning four gold medals (all-around, uneven bars, floor exercise, team) and one silver (vault). In her first international competition at the 2007 Junior Pan American Championships, she won gold medals on uneven bars and balance beam, silver in the all-around and bronze on floor exercise. Wieber officially retired from competitive gymnastics in 2015.

Wieber, from DeWitt, Mich., graduated from UCLA in 2017 with a degree in Psychology. She was a 2016 inductee into the Greater Lansing Sports Hall of Fame, a 2021 Michigan Sports Hall of Fame Inductee and is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame.
