COACH OATS POSTGAME COMMENTS

“Unbelievable effort from our guys, really the effort we’ve been looking for outside of the start to the second half. You take that four minutes out, which I wasn’t really happy with that effort, but the other 36 minutes, I thought we played really hard. Outrebounded a really good team by 16 and still scored 20 even though we had 20 turnovers. Now, we’ve got to fix the turnovers. Obviously, it’s a major problem, and 12 of those 20 were from three of our fifth-year seniors, which shouldn’t be the case, but I thought those guys kind of set the tone.

I thought that was the hardest Mark Sears has played. He had some turnovers but he sprinted back and made tough plays on defense. He didn’t sulk, didn’t pout. His leadership and the effort he gave tonight really helped set the tone for how the team is supposed to look. So, if we can take that mentality and that effort on the defensive end and clean up the offense, we’ve got something ahead in the right direction going in the second half of conference play.”
