LEAD OFF

• The ULM softball team (1-4) is back in action on the road, taking on Louisiana Tech (2-3) and Arkansas (5-0) in the Louisiana Tech Classic in Ruston, La. ULM will face the Bulldogs at 4 p.m. on Thursday (Feb. 13) and Saturday (Feb. 15) and the Razorbacks at 4 p.m. on Friday (Feb. 14) and at 1 p.m. on Sunday (Feb. 16). Both games against host Louisiana Tech will be available to stream on ESPN+ and all games will have live stats available at ULMWarhawks.com.

SERIES HISTORY VS. ARKANSAS-

The Warhawks will take on the Razorbacks for the 15th and 16th meetings this weekend, hoping to beat the Cardinals for the first time since 2007. ULM holds a 3-11 record against Arkansas, the series dating back to 2001. The last meeting came in 2017, where the Warhawks fell to the Razorbacks, 9-3, in Fayetteville. The first meeting between the two teams came on Feb. 18, 2001, with ULM claiming the 6-2 win in Monroe.

SCOUTING THE RAZORBACKS -

The Razorbacks are on a hot streak to open the season, undefeated after the first weekend of play. Arkansas claimed a whopping 23-0 win over Lipscomb in five innings, also defeated fellow Sun Belt opponent Texas State 3-1. The Razorbacks most recently posted a 2-1 walk-off win over San Diego to improve to 5-0. Senior first baseman Bri Ellis is currently batting .500 with six hits, nine RBIs, three home runs and five runs scored. A preseason All-SEC pick, Ellis currently holds the record for career home runs (51) among all active DI players.

SERIES HISTORY VS. LOUISIANA TECH -

The Warhawks will take on Louisiana Tech for the 117th and 118th meetings this weekend, looking to beat the Bulldogs in Ruston for the first time since 2023. The first meeting for the two teams was in 1980, a 17-0 win for the Warhawks. In 2024, the Bulldogs swept ULM in Monroe, 2-5 and 4-10. Louisiana Tech has not hosted ULM since 2023, where the Warhawks captured a 3-1 win in extra innings.

SCOUTING THE BULLDOGS -

Louisiana Tech is coming out of the Puerto Vallarta College Challenge, where they opened the season with a 2-3 record. Most notably, the Bulldogs took down No. 4 Oklahoma State in a 6-1 win, before falling to No. 12 Florida State. Head coach Josh Taylor, named 2024 CUSA Coach of the Year, looks to take his team to new heights with four returning All-CUSA performers in Alexis Gilio, Allie Floyd, Claire Raley and Mattison Buster. Raley leads the team with a .533 batting average, eight hits and six runs scored.

LAST TIME OUT -

Last weekend, the Warhawks went 1-4 on their trip to Texas, falling in a doubleheader at Lamar and in two high-scoring games at Houston. Maryssa Zenzen led the squad with three home runs, eight RBI and a .944 slugging percentage on the weekend, two of the home runs coming in the final game against Houston. Brooklin Lippert led the team with a .500 batting average, nine hits and four stolen bases. In the doubleheader against Lamar, the Warhawks fell in 0-3 and 2-3 losses before traveling to take on Houston Christian. ULM claimed their first win of the season against Houston Christian in a rally-back 6-5 win. Both games against Houston reached double figures for both teams, with the Warhawks falling 10-13 and 11-15 to the Cougars.

PRESEASON HONORS -

Meagan Brown was named to the All-Sun Belt Team after receiving multiple honors at the conclusion of last season. The true freshman completed the 2024 season as one of the top freshman hitters in the Sun Belt. The outfielder started in 52 of 54 games, leading the Warhawks in slugging percentage, OBP, OPS, doubles, triples and home runs. She posted a batting average of .367, which led all freshmen in the league.

Maddie Nichols made her mark in her sophomore season at ULM, making 33 appearances and 21 starts in the pitching circle. Nichols posted an 11-10 record with a 2.57 ERA, seventh in the Sun Belt. She posted five complete games, ranking third in the Sun Belt in opposing batting average and seventh in strikeouts.

LET'S TALK ABOUT LAST SEASON –

The Warhawks secured the highest number of Sun Belt wins in a single season (12) in program history and the most regular season wins since 1997 after going 31-23. ULM finished the regular season with a sweep at Georgia State and bounced back after dropping eight-straight conference games versus a trio of opponents in the top 75 RPI. After starting the season with a 14-5 record in February, ULM won seven-straight Sun Belt Conference games starting in late March after sweeping Marshall and Georgia Southern and winning the series opener at Troy. ULM's seven-game conference winning streak was its longest since the 2002 season.

GUESS WHO'S BACK –

ULM softball is bringing back 12 players for another season, including three of the top five batters from 2024. All-Sun Belt preseason selection Meagan Brown returns after a record-breaking freshman season, ready to take the 2025 team to greater heights, along with pitcher Maddie Nichols. Also in the pitching circle is senior Victoria Abrams making the return for her fourth season and sophomore Bristin Bordeau returning for her second season at ULM.

Jacelyn Buck, Carys Platt and Layla Thompson all return for their senior seasons, with Buck logging nine extra-base hits, Platt recording 18 stolen bases and Thompson tallying three home runs last season. Infielders Maryssa Zenzen, Elle Carter and Morgan Brown also return after stellar first seasons in Monroe. To round out the returners, Brooklin Lippert and Georgia Polydoros return, with Lippert having hit .314 with 38 hits and 27 runs scored.

NEW ON THE BAYOU –

The Warhawks are bringing in nine newcomers to add to the 2025 team, including three freshmen and six transfers. At catcher, junior Kelsey Kovar and freshman Hollie Thomas will make their Warhawk debuts, with Kovar coming from Paris JC and Thomas coming from Liberty High School. In the pitching circle, ULM welcomes sophomore Dakota Lake, redshirt junior Chloe Randall and Texas Tech transfer Mimi Blackledge to the bayou. Lake transfers in from Hutchinson CC, while Randall spent two seasons at Paris JC. At infielder, junior Kennan Nunamaker, redshirt junior Reece Briggs and freshman Olivia Faggard join the team. To round out the newcomers, freshman Cheyenne Jenkins arrives in the outfield.

HOMETOWN HEROES –

The Warhawks also have two hometown heroes on the 2025 roster, with Monroe's Elle Carter and West Monroe's Maddie Nichols both making the return for the season. Carter hails from Neville High School, a four-year letterwinner in soccer and softball, as well as softball team captain. The sophomore was valedictorian of her class before arriving at ULM, the eighth member of her family to attend ULM.

Nichols went to West Monroe High School, where she was a four-year letterwinner before graduating as valedictorian in 2022. In her time at West Monroe, the junior won three District 2-5A championships and was named 2022 District 2-5A Pitcher of the Year. Her brother, Mason Nichols, attended ULM and competed on the track and field team from 2017-21.

MOLLY FICHTNER

SEVENTH SEASON AS ULM HEAD COACH (125-175) SEVENTH SEASON OVERALL (125-175)

Molly Fichtner starts her seventh season leading ULM softball in 2025. She was hired as the seventh head softball coach in ULM softball history on September 21, 2018.

The 2024 Warhawks claimed the highest number of Sun Belt wins in a single season (12) in program history and the most regular season wins since 1997 after going 31-24. After starting the season with a 14-5 record in February, ULM won seven-straight Sun Belt Conference games starting in late March after sweeping Marshall and Georgia Southern and winning the series opener at Troy. ULM's seven-game conference winning streak was its longest since the 2002 season.

Fichtner earned her 100th career victory as a head coach on Feb. 17, 2024 when the Warhawks beat Lindenwood 3-1 at the ULM Softball Complex.

Fichtner's third season at ULM in 2021 saw the Warhawks pick up 17 wins, which included a signature win over the No. 14 Ragin' Cajuns to conclude the regular season. It marked ULM's first win over the Cajuns since 2012. The Warhawks also picked up a pair of wins over I-20 rival Louisiana Tech. ULM also picked up a win at the Sun Belt Conference Championship for the second consecutive tournament.

Fichtner coached senior Jayden Mount to NFCA Third Team All-South Region and First Team All-Sun Belt Conference honors after hitting .338 with five home runs, nine doubles, one triple, 24 RBIs and 18 walks to seven strikeouts. Junior Korie Kreps was Second Team All-SBC after hitting .324 with four homers, 12 doubles, three triples, 16 RBIs and 33 walks. As a team, ULM's batting average jumped 17 points and ERA dropped by nearly two-thirds of a run as compared to the 2019 season.

In the COVID-19 pandemic shortened 2020 season, Fichtner's Warhawks built off the success established late in the 2019 season by going 10-14. As a team, ULM was hitting .295 and had posted a team ERA of 4.30 before the season was shut down. The Warhawk pitching staff threw three shutouts and allowed just one run twice.

In her first season at ULM, the Warhawks improved throughout the course of the season, winning two of their final three Sun Belt Conference series to claim the final spot in the 2019 SBC Championship. Once ULM arrived in San Marcos, Texas the Warhawks hit their peak, winning three games and advancing to the semifinals before having the season come to an end.

Fichtner has seen success at the highest levels of the game. The Houston, Texas native won 14 games in her first season as ULM head coach and led her team to the semi-finals of the Sun Belt Conference tournament.

Fichtner made the transition to Monroe from East Carolina University, where she spent a year as an assistant coach. Before her time with the Pirates, Fichtner spent two seasons in the same role at Dartmouth College.

After her honor-filled collegiate career, Fichtner remained at Alabama as a volunteer coach while pursuing her master's degree. After finishing her master's degree in 2015, she played one season in the National Fastpitch (NPF) league with the Dallas Charge.

Fichtner is a 2014 graduate of Alabama, who started her collegiate career at UTSA in San Antonio, Texas, before transferring to Tuscaloosa for her final two seasons. With the Crimson Tide, Fichtner appeared in 102 games, starting in 88.

As a senior, she was named to the All-SEC Second Team after pacing the Crimson Tide with a .391 batting average in conference play while tallying 27 hits, seven doubles and 16 RBI. Fichtner threw out a conference-leading seven would-be base stealers and committed just two errors in 125 chances with no passed balls behind the dish for a .984 fielding percentage in SEC play. Fichtner helped the Crimson Tide reach the Women's College World Series as Alabama advanced all the way to the National Championship Series.

During her time at UTSA, Fichtner was a two-time All-Southland Conference player, the 2011 Southland Freshman of the Year and 2012 Southland's Student-Athlete of the year.

During her years as an assistant coach at ECU and Dartmouth, Fichtner became familiar with the responsibilities required to run an efficient and successful softball program. She oversaw all administrative management duties for each program, in addition to her on-field and team responsibilities.

Fichtner shares her immense awareness of the game with her student-athletes, assisting with drills, studying film, and further growing her knowledge through statistical research and data collection. She has coached and counseled players in all positions, specializing in outfield skills, catching and hitting.

Fichtner has built a repertoire of experience in breaking down film, preparing scouting reports and practice plans, and preparing student-athletes for both the physical and mental aspects of the game.

Fichtner received her Master of Science degree in sports management from the University of Alabama in May 2015, only one year after earning a bachelor's degree in human environmental sciences.
