Roberson Earns Regular Season All-American Nod

Joscelyn Roberson's collegiate gymnastics resume continues to get more and more impressive as she was tabbed a WCGA Second Team Regular Season All-American on beam. Regular Season All-Americans are determined by athletes who finish in the top 15 by NQS in respective events heading into regional competition. Roberson currently holds an NQS of 9.915 on balance beam, which is tied for 15th in the country, ninth in the SEC, and tied for second among freshmen nationally. Roberson is Arkansas' first-ever freshman to be named a Regular Season All-American and the first on beam since Kennedy Hambrick in 2021. In all 11 meets of her rookie campaign Roberson has served as the team's beam anchor and has been a steady presence from day one. She has scored 9.900 or better in eight appearances and is currently on a three-meet 9.900+ streak on the event dating back to the team's meet against Alabama on Feb. 28. Joscelyn has found herself on top of the beam podium four times and has placed within the top three in eight of 11 meets so far. Her 9.915 NQS on the event is the best by Gymback heading into regionals since Amanda Elswick in 2022, and the best by any Arkansas freshman beam worker ever at this point in the season.

Roberson, Lang Garner All-Conference Honors

As the No. 16 Gymbacks gear up for postseason, two of their rookies, Joscelyn Roberson and Ja'Leigh Lang, have earned All-SEC honors for their stellar freshman campaigns. With a shift in format to the SEC Championships this season, conference honors have been modified to reflect regular season performance. The All-SEC Team is made up of the student-athletes with the top eight NQS scores including ties on each event and all-around, and the All-SEC Freshman TeAm is comprised of the freshmen student-athletes with the top four NQS scores including ties on each event and all-around. Arkansas' freshman phenom Roberson has been great in all areas, but particularly on beam, where she holds a 9.915 NQS and is currently ranked eighth overall in the conference and second among freshmen. This gets her a spot on both the All-SEC and All-SEC Freshman lists for the event. Roberson also racked up All-SEC Freshman honors on vault (9.865), floor (9.925), and all-around (39.450), in which she ranks in the top three among conference freshmen, including a tie for first on floor. She has 16 total scores of 9.9+ on the season, nearly 40 percent of all her routines, and has collected seven event titles across three apparatuses. On March 7 at Kentucky, Roberson broke the Arkansas freshman all-around record with a score of 39.525, which she matched just a week later in the team's regular season finale against Mizzou. So far she has competed all-around nine times for the Gymbacks and has won the all-around competition in five of those showings. Freshman Ja'Leigh Lang made her collegiate debut for the Gymbacks in their second week of competition and has been rock solid ever since. A key piece of the early part of Arkansas' vault lineup, she's never scored less than a 9.800 and has notched her career high mark of 9.900 two times. Heading into regional competition she holds a 9.865 NQS on vault, tied with Roberson for best on the team, third among SEC freshmen and in the top 25 of the entire conference.

Gymbacks Get No. 16 Seed, Placed in University Park Regional

The Gymbacks will begin their postseason journey out east as Arkansas has been selected to compete in the University Park Regional hosted by Penn State next week. As the No. 16 national seed, the Razorbacks will compete against No. 1 LSU, Michigan and either Maryland or West Virginia in the second semifinal of the University Park Regional on Thursday, April 3. Maryland and West Virginia will have a play-in meet on Wednesday, April 2 to determine which of the two will face off with the Razorbacks, Tigers and Wolverines. The top two teams from Arkansas' semi along with the top two of No. 8 Michigan State, No. 9 Kentucky, Ohio State and Penn State will advance to the regional final on Saturday, April 5. From the regional final, two will advance to the NCAA Gymnastics Championships in Fort Worth April 17-19. Monday's selection marks 21 straight regional appearances for Arkansas, and the fifth under head coach Jordyn Wieber. In her tenure, the Gymbacks have advanced to regional finals three times, which includes last year's final in Fayetteville, where Arkansas punched a ticket to its first NCAA Championships in six years. All sessions of regional competition will be streamed live on ESPN+. The first semifinal on April 3 is set for 12 p.m. CT, and Arkansas' second semifinal will start at 6 p.m. CT. The regional final on April 5 is slated for 4 p.m. CT.

Maddie Jones Named to SEC Community Service Team for Third Straight Year

For her unwavering dedication to the University of Arkansas and greater Northwest Arkansas community, Gymback senior Maddie Jones has been named to the SEC Community Service Team. It's the third straight year in which Jones has been given the honor, one of only two Arkansas gymnasts to receive the nod more than two times. Maddie has given as much time and effort to serving the Arkansas community as she has in the gym over her four years as a Razorback. She is currently the Student-Athlete Advisory Committee president, her second consecutive year in a leadership role and her fourth on the committee. In her role as president, she helps lead monthly meetings and has played a key role in outreach and goals for the committee. Jones and SAAC organize service activities in the area like Shop with the Razorbacks, Healthy Hogs, and Book Hogs. Last summer, she was involved in one of her biggest service projects to date as she and several other Arkansas student-athletes took a trip to Nassau, Bahamas in July that included volunteering in a local kids' basketball camp and clean-up of a community park. She has not only been an excellent representative of the gymnastics program, but of the entire athletic department, as she has attended events such as the Women Leaders in Sports National Convention and the SEC Student-Athlete Leadership Council meeting.

Gymbacks Fall to Tigers on Senior Night

In the team's last SEC regular season meet, the No. 16 Gymbacks put up a good fight, but ultimately fell to the No. 7 Missouri Tigers 197.800-197.225. Freshman Joscelyn Roberson scored a 39.525 all-around, matching her rookie all-around record that she set just a week prior. She didn't score lower than 9.825 in any routine and also came away with a share of the floor title with a 9.925. Redshirt junior Frankie Price tied Roberson for the floor gold and helped Arkansas put a 49.425 event score together on the event. A total of 8,199 fans were in attendance, the seventh-best number in program history. That brings Arkansas' total season attendance to 39,575 and the average attendance to 7,915, both new records.

Roberson Breaks Freshman All-Around Record, Arkansas Sets Team Season High at Kentucky

Needing a big score to close out their road regular season slate, the No. 16 Gymbacks delivered in a big way as Arkansas earned a 197.725 in a loss to Kentucky, a new season high and the third-highest team score in program history. The night was highlighted by Joscelyn Roberson's 39.525 all-around score, which broke the previous rookie all-around record of 39.500 set by Sarah Shaffer in 2018. She didn't score below a 9.850 on any event and matched her career high of 9.850 on bars. One of Arkansas' most seasoned veterans, Mati Waligora, also had an excellent night for the Gymbacks with scores of 9.925 on bars and beam and 9.950, a new career high. Arkansas recorded a total of 10 scores of 9.9+, matching the high for the season.

Gymbacks Gets Season High 197.425 in Loss to Alabama

Despite taking a loss in the standings, the No. 16 Gymbacks made huge strides in their meet against No. 17 Alabama at Bud Walton Arena as they recorded a season high 197.425 score to the Crimson Tide's 197.650. Freshman Joscelyn Roberson had a standout meet as she posted 9.925+ scores on both beam and floor, which earned her titles on the events. Her 9.975 on floor matched the program record and the freshman individual record on the event. Her mark helped push the Gymbacks to a new season high of 49.650 on floor, which is the third highest on the event in program history. Arkansas also collected five more top three finishes on each event. Freshman Ja'Leigh Lang and sophomore Hailey Klein tied for second on vault (9.900), senior Maddie Jones tied for third on bars (9.925) and floor (9.950) and Kalyxta Gamiao tied for second on beam (9.900). A total of 8,578 fans were in attendance, the fifth-highest tally in program history.

Arkansas Wins Metroplex Challenge, Collects Another Top 10 Victory

The Gymbacks made their fifth appearance at the Metroplex Challenge on Feb. 21 and won the meet for the first time ever as Arkansas defeated Arizona, Oregon State and SEMO on the night with a team score of 196.400. No. 19 Arizona came in second to the Gymbacks with a 196.125, and Oregon State came in third with a 196.025, cementing Arkansas' third victory over a top 10 opponent this season. SEMO rounded out the team standings in fourth with a score of 192.350. Freshman Joscelyn Roberson earned a 39.300 all-around score, which put her in second behind elite teammate Jade Carey. Roberson notched another two top three finishes as well: She tied for second on beam with a mark of 9.875 and tied for second on floor with a 9.900 score. Senior Kalyxta Gamiao also had a solid night with top three finishes on both of her events. She matched Roberson's 9.875 on beam to tie for second and earned a 9.875 on floor, placing her in third.

Gymbacks Notch Highest Road Score of the Season in Close Loss to Georgia

While the No. 11 GymDogs snapped a six-match win streak for the No. 15 Gymbacks against Georgia, Arkansas did earn its season high road score of 197.050 on Feb. 14 in Athens. The team score was the third of 197+ for the Gymbacks through seven meets and second straight. The Hogs also set a new season high on beam in the meet with an event score of 49.450. Freshman Joscelyn Roberson posted an all-around score of 49.450, her second straight meet with the mark. She earned a career high 9.900 on vault in the second rotation, which also secured the first vault title of her collegiate career. Sophomore and Georgia native Priscilla Park got a 9.925 on beam, which tied for first and is a new season high for her.

Razorbacks Set New Season High, Defeat No. 2 for the Second Time in 2025

The No. 15 Gymbacks hosted the No. 2 team in the country for the second time this season and yet again came away with the victory as they took down Florida 197.175-196.625 on February 7. The team score was a new season high and Arkansas also registered new bests on vault (49.300) and bars (49.400) to help push toward the win. Graduate transfer Mati Waligora had a great night with shares of two event titles on bars (9.950) and floor (9.925). Both scores matched her personal bests and were the highest in her Arkansas career so far. Freshman Joscelyn Roberson collected the beam title with a 9.900 mark, her second of the season. She has now scored 9.900+ on beam in four of six meets for Arkansas. She also came in second all-around with a total score of 39.450. Redshirt junior Frankie Price rounded out the titles on the night as she matched Waligora's 9.925 on floor for her fourth win on the event this season. A total of 7,341 fans were in attendance Friday, Arkansas' sixth-highest turnout in program history.

Prior to the 2019 season, the NCAA changed regionals to three days of competition at four locations. The NCAA Regional field still consists of 36 teams with nine teams assigned to each of the four sites.

Day 1 - First Round: The two lowest-ranked teams at each of the four locations compete in a dual meet for a spot in the Second Round meets. The winner advances to Day 2 (Second Round).

Day 2 - Second Round: Eight teams will compete in two four-team meets. The top two finishing teams in each of those meets will advance to Day 3 (Regional Final).

Day 3 - Regional Final: The top two finishing teams from each of the Second Round meets will compete in the Regional Final. The teams that finish in the top two in the Regional Final will then advance to the NCAA National Championships.

JORDYN WIEBER

SIXTH-YEAR HEAD COACH

Olympic gold medalist Jordyn Wieber was introduced as the head coach of the Arkansas Women's Gymnastics program on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek.

Season five was the best yet for Wieber in her tenure, as she led the Gymsbacks to their first NCAA Championships team appearance in eight years in 2024. Arkansas finished seventh of eighth to conclude the season ranked No. 7, the highest final rank for the team since 2012.

Sophomore Reese Drotar earned First Team All-America honors on bars with a sixth place finished and matched the program NCAA Championships bars record with a score of 9.925. Leah Smith and Cami Weaver garnered Second Team honors on vault as they tied for 13th overall with matching scores of 9.8875. Wieber has now coached six athletes to 10 All-America honors over the last five years, at least one each season dating back to 2021.

The road to Fort Worth began in Fayetteville as the Hogs hosted regional competition for the first time in seven years, and Arkansas set a then-regional high of 197.325 to advance to the final. With a nationals berth on the line, the Gymsbacks punched their ticket with a new regional high of 197.825, also the second-best score in program history.

Arkansas began the postseason at SEC Championships, where the Gymsbacks placed sixth with a score of 197.050, the first time ever scoring 197+ at the event and a new program best at SECs. Six athletes earned All-SEC honors: Lauren Williams on vault, Hailey Klein and Cami Weaver on beam, and Maddie Jones, Frankie Price and Leah Smith on floor. Six ties the program record for Gymsbacks on the All-SEC list in a single season, and is the most under Wieber so far.

The season was filled with milestones for the program, including seven of the top 10 program high scores for Arkansas, including a new best of 198.100 set on March 15. Prior to that, the Gymsbacks set and broke their program score record two other times, and finished 2024 with 11 marks of 197+, the most in a single season by six.

Arkansas also set new event records on vault (49.550), beam (49.575) and floor (49.725) in 2024, and five athletes matched the program-high 9.975 individual scores across all four events: Hailey Klein on vault, Reese Drotar on bars, Priscilla Park on beam and Maddie Jones and Frankie Price on floor.

The Gymsbacks compiled an 8-6-1 regular season record and 15-15-1 record overall, the most wins for the program since 2012. Arkansas went 4-2-1 in SEC competition, the most conference victories in eight years, another high for Wieber in her fifth season at the helm.

Continuing to develop Arkansas as a premier program in all aspects, Wieber spearheaded marketing and promotions efforts for five home meets, including two at Bud Walton Arena, for a total season attendance of 35,367, ninth-best in the country. Barnhill Arena saw a sold out meet for the second consecutive season in 2024, and Arkansas' 6,084 average fans across three meets at Barnhill is a new venue record. For the past three seasons, Arkansas has set new program season ticket sales records, this time 2,480 in 2024.

During her fourth season in 2023, Wieber guided the Gymsbacks to their 19th consecutive regional appearance. The team set a then-Onew regional team score record of 197.275, and a new regional floor record of 49.500. The team finished the year ranked 17th in the country, maintaining the program's 18-year streak in the top 20.

Graduate transfer Norah Flatley and freshman Lauren Williams both earned berths to the NCAA Championships as individuals, extending Wieber's unblemished national appearance streak in each eligible year. Flatley earned her fourth All-American honor at the event on balance beam with a score of 9.9375, which is the best-ever score by a Gymsback as an individual beam qualifier.

Arkansas' 196.825 at SEC Championships in 2023 and placed seventh. Five Gymsbacks earned All-SEC or All-SEC Freshman honors at the meet: Norah Flatley (VT, FX, AA), Lauren Williams (VT, FX), Reese Drotar (UB), Frankie Price (VT) and Cami Weaver (VT).

The Gymsbacks continued to grow their fanbase with new single meet (11,031), home single season (36,619), and average attendance (7,324) records in 2023, the latter two ranking sixth and seventh in the country. Arkansas also sold out Barnhill Arena for the first time in program history on Jan. 27, when 7,147 fans were in the building to watch the Hogs take down the LSU Tigers.

Wieber has coached four regular-season All-Americans in Sophia Carter (2020), Maggie O'Hara (2021), Kennedy Hambrick (2020, 2021) and Frankie Price (2024). Hambrick became the new all-around score record holder (39.750) during the 2021 season, a record that had gone unbroken for seven years prior. Under her guidance in and out of the gym, the Gymsbacks were awarded the Arkansas Athletics Lee Spencer Cup for the first time ever in 2022, which is awarded to the team that earns the most points in the areas of personal and career development, community engagement, and academic and athletic excellence. Arkansas also saw its first SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 10 years in 2022 with Bailey Lovett.

The Gymsbacks earned their first-ever spot in the SEC night session in 2021 and advanced to the NCAA regional final after scoring a 197.250 on day one. In total, Arkansas registered five scores of 197.000 or better in 2021, for the first time in program history.

In 2020, the Gymsbacks ranked as high as fourth in the nation on floor and finished the season ninth in the nation. Arkansas scored a 49.00 or higher in 14 of 16 events over the course of four home meets, nearly 90 percent of all events.

The Razorbacks' success on floor helped them lock in back-to-back SEC wins against No. 20 Missouri and No. 10 Georgia midway through the season. The consecutive wins marked the first time since 2017 that Arkansas won two-straight conference meets and consecutive meets against a ranked opponent.

Arkansas saw six Gymsbacks wrap up the 2020 season ranked in the top 100 by Road to Nationals in at least one event, with four Hogs finishing with multiple top 100 rankings. With Wieber's lead, Arkansas won 27 event titles through 10 meets. Hambrick finished the season with the most individual titles among the Gymsbacks, securing 11 event titles including a team-high four all-around titles.

The first home meet of the Wieber era was held on Jan. 17 against No. 3 Denver, bringing a then-record crowd of 6,714 fans to Barnhill Arena. On Feb. 21, Coach Wieber and her Arkansas squad hosted Auburn for a Women's Empowerment Meet, the first of its kind in NCAA gymnastics and now an annual tradition for the Gymsbacks.

Wieber wrapped up her third season as a volunteer assistant coach at UCLA and her sixth with the program in 2019, assisting the team in a variety of roles during her first three years in Westwood following her Olympic career. Wieber coached the Bruins on floor exercise, an event in which UCLA finished the 2018 and 2019 regular seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation. In 2019, the Bruins recorded scores of 49.5 or better in 11 of 14 meets, averaging a national-best 49.604 on floor. Four Bruins earned regular season All-America honors in the event - Katelyn Ohashi, Kyla Ross, Gracie Kramer and Felicia Hano. At the 2019 NCAA Championships, Wieber coached future Arkansas assistant Ross to the individual floor title with a score of 9.950, the program's second in as many years. After winning their semifinal session with a 197.650, UCLA finished third overall in the finals.

The 2018 Bruins scored 49.4 or higher in 11 meets and 49.6 or higher in three meets, including a national season-high of 49.775 set on Feb. 25. She and her fellow UCLA coaches were named the 2018 West Region Assistant Coaches of the Year, as they helped lead the Bruins to Pac-12, NCAA regional and NCAA national titles.

Wieber, who has been a vocal advocate for safe sport, has won many awards in the past several years, including the Arthur Ashe Courage Award at the ESPYs, the Rising Star Award by the Los Angeles Business Journal, and the Giant Steps A Hero Among Us Award.

A member of the "Fierce Five" United States squad that won team gold at the 2012 Olympics, Wieber was a two-time U.S. all-around champion (2011 and 2012) and the 2011 World all-around champion. Her illustrious elite career included three medals (all-around and team gold, beam bronze) at the 2011 World Championships, four U.S. senior national titles (all-around, bars and floor in 2011 and all-around in 2012). She was also the 2008 U.S. junior all-around, vault and floor exercise champion and the American Cup all-around champion in 2009, 2011 and 2012. She dominated the competition at the 2010 Pacific Rim Championships, winning four gold medals (all-around, uneven bars, floor exercise, team) and one silver (vault). In her first international competition at the 2007 Junior Pan American Championships, she won gold medals on uneven bars and balance beam, silver in the all-around and bronze on floor exercise. Wieber officially retired from competitive gymnastics in 2015.

Wieber, from DeWitt, Mich., graduated from UCLA in 2017 with a degree in Psychology. She was a 2016 inductee into the Greater Lansing Sports Hall of Fame, a 2021 Michigan Sports Hall of Fame Inductee and is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame.
