SCOUTING REPORT

ARKANSAS

Fresh off a strong regional victory in which they took down Saint Louis and Oklahoma State (twice), the Arkansas Razorbacks seek their first ever appearance in the Women's College World Series.

Head coach Courtney Deifel has led Arkansas to a 44-13 record, recording several big victories. Leading the way for Deifel is Softball America's Player of the Year, Bri Ellis, who is having a monster season, hitting .444 with 26 home runs and 72 RBI, while also drawing 66 walks. Ellis has run away with most major records at Arkansas and leads the nation in on base percentage and slugging percentage.

Ellis is not the only threat in the lineup, as the Razorbacks hit .323 as a unit. Courtney Day is hitting .329 with 16 home runs and 66 RBI, while freshman Ella McDowell has been a revelation, hitting .356 with 18 extra-base hits and 53 RBI.

Robyn Herron remains the biggest weapon for Arkansas in their rotation, going 18-6 with a 2.69 ERA (138.2 IP) and 157 strikeouts. She is aided by the strong play of Payton Burnham, who is 16-2 with a 2.40 ERA (113.2 IP) and 90 strikeouts. Cam Harrison and Reis Beuerlein are the two main choices out of the bullpen.

Deifel and the Razorbacks are in a Super Regional for the first time since 2022 and the third Super Regional in her tenure. She's been a strong defensive coach, as the Razorbacks lead the nation in fielding percentage.

TOURNAMENT TIME

Ole Miss enters a decisive game three of the Super Regional of the NCAA Tournament in their third Super Regional in program history. This tournament is their ninth consecutive NCAA appearance and fifth consecutive under head coach Jamie Trachsel, holding an all-time record of 21-19 overall. The Rebels are seeking their first ever Super Regional win and title and trip to the Women’s College World Series. Both of the program’s regional titles came in Oxford. The Rebels are now 1-5 all-time super regional games with their last appearance coming in 2019.

Ole Miss is one of four unseeded teams remaining in the field, joining Georgia, Liberty and Nebraska.

FAMILIAR FOES

The Rebels are set to meet the Razorbacks for the second time this season, after winning a three-game series against them in March. The Rebels earned their first ever run rule win over a top-10 opponent in game one, winning 9-1, before taking game two, 9-3.

The Rebels have won the last two series against Arkansas in conference play, but have only ever met once in the postseason prior to the Super Regional in the 2022 SEC Tournament. The Rebels won the last series in Fayetteville in 2024.

RECORDS BROKEN

The Ole Miss Rebels recorded a monumental achievement, when the NFCA announced their All-South Region honorees. Ole Miss finished with a program-high six, smashing the old record of three.

- First Team - Lexie Brady (Catcher) & Jaden Pone (Oufield)
- Second Team - Miali Guachino (Pitcher), Persy Llamas (First Base) & Aliyah Binford (Pitcher/Utility)
- Third Team - Mackenzie Pickens (Second Base)

Brady and Pone gave the Rebels multiple First Team honorees in a season for the first time in program history. The duo become the sixth and seventh First Team honorees, joining Tate Whitely (2023), Kylan Becker (2019), Elantra Cox (2017 & 2016), RT Cantillo (2014) and Lauren Grill (2010 & 2008).

Additionally, three Rebel freshmen took home honors, also setting a program-high. Llamas joins Amanda Fine (1997) as the only freshmen to earn both All-SEC and All-Region honors in the same season.

AMONG THE SEC’S BEST

Ole Miss made history following the conclusion of the regular season as three players took home All-SEC selections.

Leading the charge was outfielder Jaden Pone, who thanks to winning the SEC batting title (conference play only) with a .427 batting average, took home All-SEC First Team and SEC All-Defensive Team honors in left field. Pone became just the second Rebel in program history to earn a first team honor, joining two-time winner Kylan Becker. Additionally, she became the first All-Defensive Team honoree since Joining Pone as first-time honorees were Lexie Brady and Persy Llamas, who each took home All-SEC Second Team honors. Llamas becomes the first Rebel freshman to earn All-SEC First or Second Team honors since Amanda Fine in the program’s first year of 1997.

As a unit, the Rebels had three players tabbed to the first or second team, which marks the most honorees in program history.

SETTING THE MARK

The Rebels have jumped back into the national spotlight this season behind a historic campaign, as the team has already broken a number offensive program records.

Ole Miss has already set several offensive single-season highs, with 65 home runs, beating 2023’s old record of 49. Additionally, the Rebels have beaten the old program high in RBI with 320 on the season, passing 2022’s (286). The Rebels also have moved past the all-time total bases record of 677 in 2017 with 782 and counting this season. The Rebels have passed the single-season runs record with 349, breaking the old mark of 318 (2017). Finally, the Rebels have a new single season doubles record of 86, breaking 2022’s mark of 84. Further records are still in play including:

Single-Season Batting Average: .309 (2015) - Currently .307
Single-Season Hits: 495 (2017) - Currently 483

The Rebels are also set the program record for strikeouts in the circle, with 371. The old program record of 360 was set in 2019.

BRADY BOMBS

Perhaps the most critical bat for the Rebels is the veteran Lexie Brady, who brings a powerful bat to the middle of the lineup. Brady launched 13 home runs and 35 RBI in her breakout junior campaign and has surged to even new heights in 2025.

The power surge has been constant for Brady, who is hitting .333 with a career-high 16 home runs and 49 RBI. After starting the season 0-11 at Florida Atlantic, Brady has surged to a .360 batting average in the 50 games since and has 15 home runs in her last 47 games.

Brady continues to pound the ball at the plate and has at least one extra-base hit in 22 of her last 46 games played. Her 16 home runs are the most by any Rebel in program history, breaking a record that stood since 2003 (DeDe Justice). Brady

FRESHMAN SENSATION

Persy Llamas has been a revelation in her first season in Oxford, from the moment she stepped on a field. From her very first collegiate at-bat, where she hit a pinch hit three-run home run to take the lead in a 3-2 win over No. 25 Clemson to a three-run blast to power the Rebels past No. 4 Florida in the SEC Tournament, Llamas ranks second on the Rebels in total RBI (53) and has proven to be a highly capable batter at first base.

In fact, her 53 RBI rank third on the Rebels all-time single season chart and are the most by a Rebel freshman in program history.

Clutch play from Llamas has continued in SEC play, as the freshman hit a go-ahead, solo home run to power the Rebels past Missouri in game two and clinch the series. As a result, Llamas was named the SEC's Co-Freshman of the Week on Apr. 1.

Llamas opened her collegiate career with 81 at-bats without a strikeout, good for the most by a Rebel since Hailey Lunderman in 2016 and remains one of the most difficult to strikeout in the nation.

MACK ATTACK

Freshman infielder Mackenzie Pickens recorded a breakout performance en route to SEC Freshman of the Week honors on Feb. 24. Pickens hit .600 over four games at the Rocket City Softball Showcase, tallying a home run, a double, six RBI and two stolen bases.

The Flowery Branch, Ga., native has adjusted to the college game quickly, hitting .329 with eight home runs and 36 RBI, while becoming the first SEC Freshman of the Week from Ole Miss since Blaise Biringer in 2021.

Her biggest moment yet came during the second round of the SEC Tournament, when she blasted a three-run, go-ahead home run in the eighth inning to take down No. 4 Florida and advance to the quarterfinal. She added a two-run blast in the regional final game vs. No. 12 Arizona.

A STAR IS BORN

Freshman Miali Guachino has burst onto the scene as one of the top freshman pitchers in the nation and an early candidate for national freshman of the year. The Pala, Calif., native has wasted little time in becoming a star, as she broke the Rebels single-game strikeout record with 19 at Southern Miss, shattering the old record of 15. She followed that up with her first collegiate no-hitter against Samford and SEC Co-Pitcher of the Week honors on Mar. 18.

Guachino enters the NCAA Super Regional at 16-11 with a 3.44 ERA (146.2 IP) and has struck out 172 batters, which is fourth in the SEC and ranks 32nd in the nation. Guachino has tallied 11 complete games, six solo shutouts and has four performances with 10 or more strikeouts.

ALL EYES ON ALIYAH

Two-way star Aliyah Binford joins the Rebels for her final season of eligibility after a standout career in the circle and at the plate at Baylor and has generated talk since arriving in Oxford. Binford is hitting .330 with 13 doubles, three triples, 12 home runs, 55 RBI and slugging .618, while also holding a 10-3 record and 3.71 ERA through 26 appearances in the circle.

NOTES CONTINUED

Her efforts in the circle have caught national attention and placed her in the Ole Miss record books after being named the SEC Pitcher of the Week on Mar. 3. Binford delivered back-to-back complete games that week, beginning with a one-hitter against Nicholls and ending the week with the program’s first solo no-hitter since 2014 in a win over Murray State. Binford added her name to the record books again by setting the single season program record for RBI with 55.

A three-time NFCA All-Region and two-time All-Big 12 honoree, Binford recovered from a season-ending injury in 2023 to be named D1Softball’s Comeback Player of the Year winner in 2024. Rebel fans will remember Binford’s performance on the other side of the field in the 2024 NCAA Tournament as she threw a complete game, one-hitter in Baylor’s win 3-1 over Ole Miss to open the regional.

Binford saw the awards pour in during the preseason, as she was named a Softball America Preseason Second Team All-American. Additionally, she was named to the prestigious USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top-50 Watch List, becoming the first Rebel to do so since Kylan Becker in 2019. Further honors include being named as the top two-way player in the nation by D1Softball and as a top-50 player in the nation by both D1Softball and Softball America.

BACK FOR MORE

An incredibly steady pitcher down the stretch in 2024, Brianna Lopez is the lone returner in a remade rotation, where she will be called upon for a heavy workload this season. The Riverside, California native hit her stride in SEC play last season, maintaining a sub-2.00 ERA in the month of April and went on to pitch 4.2 innings of one run softball across two NCAA Tournament games in May.

This spring has been no different, as Lopez is 6-4 with a 3.04 ERA since the start of April over 19 appearances, tallying 67 strikeouts. Lopez recently threw 5.2 innings to secure an NCAA Regional win over No. 12 Arizona.

Lopez has consistently held batters around a .230 batting average and recorded four straight, 100 strikeout seasons behind her ability to change speed and will form a key one-two-three punch alongside Aliyah Binford and Miali Guachino.

CONSISTENCY IS KEY

A consistent hitter throughout her entire career, Jaden Pone enters her senior season having dramatically adjusted to SEC play and is poised for a big season. The North Carolina native didn’t let the switch from the Big South to the SEC deter her, as the career .385 hitter has maintained her high-caliber contact ability by hitting .357 at Ole Miss. Pone has factored into a number of roles in 2025, having played in 227 games in her collegiate career. Pone even made noise in the power department, launching a grand slam in a win over Nicholls on Mar. 1. Pone continues to roll and is hitting .369 (31-for-84) with three RBI and nine stolen bases since April 1, as she's returned to the leadoff role.

FAB FRESHMEN

Eight of the 16 newcomers to Oxford are true freshmen, as the Rebels injected some youth into the program. Several of those freshman have already caught national attention, as four were named to Softball America's Freshman Watch List - pitchers Miali Guachino and Abby Herndon, two-way player Persy Llamas and infielder Mackenzie Pickens were all named to the list. Herndon was also named to D1Softball's Top-100 Freshman List.

The quartet is also joined by catcher Rachel Connors, infielder Tate Davis, outfielder Addison Duke and pitcher Graycen Jordan. As a unit the Rebel freshmen provide strong depth to the roster after standout high school careers.

It proved to be a dream season for the freshmen class, as Miali Guachino ranks 32nd in the nation and ranks fourth in the SEC in strikeouts (172), while Persy Llamas ranks second on the team with 53 RBI. Mackenzie Pickens has also shined, hitting .333 with 36 RBI, while Rachel Connors (3 RBI), Tate Davis (1 HR, 2 RBI) and Addison Duke (4 RBI) have added contributions. In fact, the Rebels have gotten 98 of their 320 RBI from freshmen this season (30.6 percent).

MEETING OF THE MINDS

Joining head coach Jamie Trachsel in 2025 are a highly accomplished trio of new coaches, who bring decades of championship experience to Oxford.

A longtime head coach at Missouri, Ehren Earleywine returns to the college game after reaching three Women's College World Series while in Columbia. Earleywine recorded nearly 600 wins over 14 seasons and helped develop countless All-American, All-Region and All-Conference student athletes.

One of the most successful and highly decorated pitchers in NCAA history, Nancy Evans joins as the team's pitching coach. Evans won three national championships in her playing career at the University of Arizona (1994-98) and still holds the NCAA record with a .939 career winning percentage (124-8 overall record). Last season, Evans served on staff at UIC as the Flames' pitching coach, where she helped UIC post a 3.43 team ERA, its best mark since 2018.

A brilliant recruiter and offensive mind, Bobby Buchanan joins the Rebels after a stint at Texas A&M, where he was the director of player development for their NCAA Super Regional squad.

DOWN GOES NO. 1

The Rebels recorded one of their biggest wins in the last decade on Apr. 25, as the Rebels took down No. 1 Tennessee, 3-2. The win was their first over the No. 1 team in the nation since an SEC Tournament win over No. 1 Florida in 2017 and was the first such victory of the Jamie Trachsel era. Mackenzie Pickens, Angelina DeLeon and Taylor Malvin each drove in a run in the second inning, while freshman sensation Miali Guachino outdueled Karlyn Pickens in the circle, going 5.2 innings and allowing just two runs on four hits to pick up the win. Brianna Lopez earned the save in relief.

A WEEKEND TO REMEMBER

The series win at No. 23 Georgia provided some historic moments, particularly in game one, as the Rebels opened with a thrilling, 20-11 win over the Bulldogs. Not only was it the most runs scored by the Rebels in SEC play since 2019 against Mississippi State, but it was also the most runs ever given up in a single game by the Bulldogs.

The two teams matched the most runs scored in an SEC game with 31, while Lexie Brady led the way with six RBI to tie the single game program record. Additionally, the Rebels matched a program record with 12 walks, which had been done three times, but was last accomplished in 2017 against Colgate.

Game one was also notable in that the Rebels recovered from an early 8-2 deficit, marking their largest comeback victory in SEC play under head coach Jamie Trachsel.

To make even more impressive, the 29 runs scored over the three game series win were the most runs scored by the Rebels in an SEC series since scoring 31 against Arkansas in 2014.

LANSDELL LANDS IN OXFORD

One of the newest members of the Rebels lineup is the sweet-swinging Ashton Lansdell, who joins the Rebels after two seasons at Florida International. Lansdell brings an interesting background to Oxford, as the senior began her collegiate career as a baseball player at Georgia Highlands College, where she was the first female to play baseball at the NJCAA level. Lansdell has had several eye-catching experiences, including competing in the 2019 MLB Home Run Derby X and spending this past summer as a member of the Savannah Bananas.

It's not the first time head coach Jamie Trachsel and the Rebels have added a player with a baseball background, as catcher

Jamie Mackay competed alongside her on the United States Women's National Baseball Team in high school.

Lansdell has surged in recent weeks, hitting a home run in four consecutive games against No. 6 Florida and all three games at No. 23 Georgia. Lansdell had four of her five home runs and nine of her 12 RBI in the month of April.

The success continued in game one of the NCAA Tournament, as Lansdell sparked a rally with a solo home run and made a game-ending diving double play to defeat No. 23 Grand Canyon.

DEPEND ON THE VETS

A dependable starter over her first three seasons in Oxford, senior infielder Angelina DeLeon continues to play a large role across the diamond in 2025. DeLeon played and started in all 58 games last season and tallied a career-high 11 extra base hits and 21 RBI. The Valley Springs, Calif., native is the veteran of the 2025 infield, as she moves over to third base, where she plays a key defensive role on the left side of the infield.

DeLeon has showed her veteran accumen down the stretch by hitting .375 in the SEC Tournament, headlined by a critical, game-tying two RBI single against No. 3 Texas in the quarterfinal. Additionally, DeLeon has hit .375 over her last 11 games, dating back to the regular season including a home run vs. No. 12 Arizona in the NCAA Tournament.

NEW BLOOD

The Rebels feature a number of new faces in 2025, as the team welcomes 16 newcomers, compared to 10 returners, to the roster. Eight of the 16 are true freshmen, while the remaining half are transfers. Despite this, the Rebels still have an experienced lineup, with 11 seniors and several transfers with plenty of NCAA Tournament experience.

TRANSFER TO THE SIP

Ole Miss softball has continued to shine in the transfer portal entering the 2025 campaign, as eight transfers join the fold. Leading the way is two-time NFCA All-Region honoree Aliyah Binford (Baylor). Her former teammate, Taylor Strain (Baylor) joins her in Oxford, alongisde dyanmic hitters Lair Beatae (Houston) and Ashton Lansdell (FIU), slugger Taylor Roman (Louisiana), the speedy Star Ferguson (Texas A&M) and the reliable pitcher Alison Cooper (Wichita State). Promising pitcher Lilly Whitten (Missouri), will also see action in 2026 after joining as a winter transfer.

BUILDING LEADERS

Freshman Rachel Connors has been named a 2025 College

Football Playoff (CFP) Foundation Class of Go Teach Tuition Giveaway Recipient. Connors was nominated by the university and will receive a $2,500 tuition grant in support of her pursuit of a degree in match education.

THE FUTURE IS NOW

One of the most exciting things fans and student-athletes have to look forward to in 2025 is the completion of the brand new softball stadium as part of Ole Miss' Champions. Now. Campaign. The old Ole Miss Softball Complex, which served as the Rebels' home field since 1998 and has seen one SEC Tournament, two NCAA Regionals and countless other memories, saw its final game ever as the Rebels walked off No. 14 Alabama with a four-spot in the bottom of the seventh inning on May 7, 2023. Just 23 days later, construction crews began demolition on the ballpark as part of a brand new $32 million facility upgrade. The Rebels played their first game in the completed stadium on Feb. 26, 2025, earning a 4-0 win over McNeese. The ribbon cutting for the new stadium was done on Friday, Apr. 11, 2025 prior to play against No. 6 Florida.

The Ole Miss Softball Stadium includes numerous fan amenities, upgraded grandstands, restrooms and concessions. The team will also benefit from enlarged bullpens, as well as improved team offices, locker rooms and storage.

STACKED SCHEDULE

The Rebels did not let national rankings define them in 2024, as they delivered several standout victories, particularly in SEC play. The Rebels took two of three games against both No. 2 LSU and No. 8 Arkansas, while also adding ranked wins over No. 17 Mississippi State and No. 25 Kentucky.

The ranked opportunities have been plentiful in 2025 as the Rebels have matched 2024 by going 15-13 in ranked matchups, downing No. 25 Clemson in the season opener, taking two of three games from No. 10 Arkansas during the SEC opening weekend, as well as games at then No. 6 South Carolina and vs. No. 6 Florida, followed by a series win over No. 23 Georgia and a series opening win over No. 1 Tennessee. To end the regular season, the Rebels took a game from No. 18 Mississippi State. From there, the Rebels took No. 4 Florida again, this time in the SEC Tournament Second Round. In the NCAA Tournament, the Rebels defeated No. 23 Grand Canyon on the opening day and ultimately took two of three games from No. 12 Arizona to win the Tucson Regional. The Rebels earned their third win over Arkansas on May 23 defeating the No. 4 Razorbacks for their first Super Regional win.

JAMIE TRACHSEL

RUN DOWN

Head coach Jamie Trachsel enters her fifth season at the helm of the Ole Miss softball program heading into the 2025 season. In just four years in Oxford, she has guided the Rebels to four consecutive NCAA Regional appearances. In 2023, she became the fastest coach in Ole Miss Softball history to achieve her 100th victory, needing only 159 games to accomplish the feat.

The sixth head softball coach in Ole Miss history and the 2019 NFCA Great Lakes Region Coach of the Year, Trachsel has collected 11 conference regular-season and tournament championships, developed 48 all-conference honorees, and guided her teams to the NCAA Tournament in 11-of-13 seasons, including a trip to the 2019 Women's College World Series with the Golden Gophers.

2024 represented another strong campaign for the Rebels under Trachsel's leadership, as they played some of their best softball down the stretch. The Rebels recorded a 31-27 record and 7-17 mark in SEC play. The season began with a 9-1 start to notch the best start in program history through 10 games.

The Rebels solidified their NCAA tournament resume in conference play, as they earned their first conference win over No. 17 Mississippi State. The results only improved, as the Rebels promptly won both their highest-ranked victory under Trachsel and the highest-ranked series win in program history, with the Rebels taking two of three games from No. 2 LSU in Baton Rouge, La.

Over their final eight games against SEC opponents, the Rebels went 5-3, earning two wins over Auburn in Oxford, before taking two of three from No. 8 Arkansas in Fayetteville. The Rebels added another win over No. 25 Kentucky in the SEC Tournament for good measure. Their efforts helped the Rebels return to the NCAA Tournament, where they competed in the Lafayette Regional.

Despite playing the sixth toughest schedule in the nation in 2023, Trachsel's squad battled adversity and finished with a 32-28 record and an 8-16 mark in the SEC. The Rebels solidified their spot in the postseason after knocking off ranked opponents in conference play all season, earning a spot in the Salt Lake City Regional, where they went on to play in the Regional Final.

Ole Miss opened the season in Puerto Vallarta, Mexico, before returning stateside for three other non-conference tournaments, including two in Oxford. The Rebels began conference play where they would earn victories over No. 10 LSU, No. 19 Auburn, No. 15 Kentucky, No. 21 Texas A&M, No. 14 Florida and No. 14 Alabama, as well as take the series at Missouri. Trachsel also earned her 100th career victory at Ole Miss on April 9, becoming the fastest coach in program history to reach the milestone. Ole Miss earned a spot as the No. 11 seed in the SEC Tournament and went on to win its opening game for the second consecutive year. In the NCAA Tournament, the Rebels advanced to the Regional Final with a pair of wins over Baylor, including a shutout, but fell to No. 15 national seed and host Utah.

Freshman Jalia Lassiter earned NFCA All-South Region honors, grabbing a spot on the third team, while senior Tate Whitley was named to the SEC All-Defensive team. Whitley and senior Mya Stevenson also registered their 200th career hits nearly a week apart. Graduate transfer Savana Sikes tied for the team lead with 48 hits, while fifth-year senior Mikayla Allee put together the best offensive season of her career, posting a .288 average (third on the team) and 46 hits (18 more than her single-season high). The Rebels also saw success in the circle, with Aynslee Furbush and Catelyn Riley leading the way with nine and eight wins, respectively.

The 2022 campaign was one for the record books as Trachsel and Ole Miss got off to a blistering 21-4 start to the season, tied for the best record through 25 games in program history. The Rebels won 41 games on the year, the second most in a single season in school history. With a tough conference slate that featured three consecutive series against top-10 opponents, Ole Miss managed to pick up marquee wins over No. 9 Arkansas and No. 8 Kentucky. The Rebels got hot down the stretch, winning nine of their final 11 contests and taking series from No. 11 Tennessee and at No. 16 Georgia to close out the regular season and tie the program record with 38 regular season victories.

Ending the regular season with a 38-16 mark, Ole Miss cracked the top 25 in multiple polls and finished eighth in the SEC. The Rebels went on to win a game at the SEC Tournament for the first time since 2019 and secure the program's sixth straight NCAA Regional bid, earning the No. 2 seed in the Los Angeles Regional. Despite dropping the opening game of the regional, they climbed back into the regional final with wins over Grand Canyon and LMU before falling to No. 5 UCLA.

Following a standout season, three Rebel outfielders in Tate Whitley, Abbey Latham and Bre Roper each earned NFCA All-Region honors. Whitley led the SEC in hits with 74 during the regular season, while Latham became the program's all-time RBI leader in March. Roper shined as a graduate transfer, she ranked second on the team with a .364 batting average and 64 hits and 39 runs scored. Ole Miss also saw unparalleled success in the classroom, posting a 3.70 team GPA during the spring semester, the highest in program history.

Picked to finish dead last in the 2021 SEC Preseason Coaches Poll, Ole Miss exceeded all expectations in Trachsel's first campaign at the helm. The Rebels collected a 36-22 overall record, including a 12-12 mark in SEC play, good for an eighth place finish and the second most conference victories in program history. Ole Miss received its fifth-consecutive NCAA Tournament bid for its work, earning the No. 2 seed in the Tucson Regional. The Rebels made Oxford a fortress in Trachsel's inaugural season, posting a 24-3 home record, including the first-ever sweep of rival Mississippi State and a three-game sweep of No. 25 UCF.

Under Trachsel's guidance, four Rebels received SEC postseason honors, tied for the most in a single season in program history. Paige Smith was named to the newly minted SEC All-Newcomer Team, while rookies Blaise Biringer and Aynslee Furbush received a nod for the all-freshman squad. One of the most feared backstops in the country, Rebel catcher Autumn Gillespie was tabbed to the SEC All-Defense Team.

ALMA MATER	ST. CLOUD STATE, '01
CAREER RECORD	527-299-1 (15TH SEASON)
OLE MISS RECORD	181-115 (FIFTH SEASON)

In her three-year stint with the Golden Gophers, Trachsel took over a program on the rise and kept the ascent going to the upper echelon of the softball world. After finishing off her inaugural season in Minneapolis with 41 wins, a Big Ten Tournament title, an appearance in the NCAA Seattle Regional Final and four All-Big Ten and NFCA All-Region honorees, Trachsel helmed the Gophers to their most prolific season in history in 2019.

Playing arguably the nation's most challenging schedule, Minnesota racked up a 41-12 record during the regular season, setting the stage for a magical postseason run. The No. 8 national seeded Gophers ripped through the Regional and Super Regional rounds of the NCAA Tournament with five straight wins, including two apiece over SEC foes in No. 14 Georgia and No. 10 LSU. Minnesota then set sail for Oklahoma City, making its first trip to the Women's College World Series in the NCAA era.

Five Gophers were named to the All-Big Ten and NFCA All-Region squads, respectively, following Trachsel's second season at Minnesota, while Gopher ace Amber Fiser was named the Big Ten Pitcher of the Year and a First Team All-American.

Minnesota finished the season ranked No. 8 in both the USA Today/NFCA Top-25 Coaches Poll and the ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top-25 Poll. The No. 8 ranking is the highest the Gophers have finished a season in either major poll. Minnesota also finished No. 7 in the NCAA RPI, which is not only the school's highest RPI to finish a season, but the highest at any point in program history. For their efforts, Trachsel and her staff were named the NFCA Great Lakes All-Region Coaching Staff of the Year.

Ranked in the top 10 in five different preseason polls heading into 2020, Trachsel and the Gophers hit the ground running once again. Minnesota collected a 15-9-1 record prior to the cancelation of the remainder of the spring season due to the coronavirus, including ranked wins over No. 5 Florida State and No. 19 Missouri. Sophomore slugger Natalie DenHartog was tabbed a Shortened Season All-American by Softball America.

The Gophers also made history in the classroom under Trachsel. Their spring 2019 semester GPA of 3.63 was the highest in program history, while eleven different players notched 2019 Academic All-Big Ten honors. In total, Trachsel's players have received 41 academic all-league honors.

Prior to taking over Minnesota, Trachsel spent one season in the Big XII as the head coach at Iowa State. She led the Cyclones to a fifth-place conference finish in 2017, garnering their highest league win total in eight years along with the best regular-season Big XII finish since 1994. Trachsel's squad also saw improvement in the circle, dropping its team ERA by nearly two runs per game to the lowest since 2010. Two Cyclones earned NFCA All-Region First Team honors in Kelsey McFarland and Sami Williams, the latter selected to the All-Big XII First Team as well, one of only three freshmen league-wide to earn that award.

Trachsel arrived in Ames following 14 seasons at North Dakota State, including the final six as co-head coach. In those half-dozen seasons, NDSU compiled a 221-109 overall record (.670), a 98-19 mark (.838) in the Summit League and advanced to NCAA Regional play five times. The Bison won their conference regular-season championship and the tournament championship five times each with Trachsel as co-head coach.

NDSU won at least 30 games – including a school-record 45 in 2015 when it climbed as high as 41st in the NCAA Percentage Ratings Index (RPI) – for 10 straight seasons. The Bison advanced to the NCAA Regionals in seven of Trachsel's final eight seasons in Fargo. In 2009, NDSU pulled a shocking upset, claiming the Norman Regional over perennial power Oklahoma.

Her tenure with NDSU began with two seasons (2002-04) as a graduate assistant, followed by three (2005-07) as an assistant coach, three (2008-10) as associate head coach and the last six (2011-16) as co-head coach.

During her stay in Fargo, Trachsel coached five All-Americans, 25 All-Region players and 59 All-Conference student athletes, including five Summit League Players of the Year and five Summit League Pitchers of the Year. The Minnesota native was also a part of staffs recognized as NFCA Midwest Region Coaching Staff of the Year twice in 2009 and 2015.

As a player, Trachsel competed for NCAA Division II program St. Cloud State in St. Cloud, Minnesota. She led the Huskies to three straight NCAA Division II tournament appearances and one conference title. Trachsel made the 1999 NCAA Division II All-Region Tournament Team and received All-Academic honors from the NFCA twice. SCSU won 127 games during her career.

As a prep athlete, Trachsel earned 17 letters across four sports at Duluth (Minn.) Central High School. She is also a nine-time national champion in racquetball (1988-93 and 2003-05).

Trachsel earned a bachelor's degree in sports management (minors in coaching and human relations) from St. Cloud State in 2001. She added a Master of Education degree in athletics administration from North Dakota State in 2006.
