BILLINGSLEY TENNIS CENTER

One of the newer additions to Arkansas' athletic facilities was completed with the dedication of George M. Billingsley Tennis Center on April 15, 2008.

The $2.8 million expansion and renovation gives the Razorback men's and women's tennis teams a complete facility combining the outdoor courts of Billingsley Tennis Center with the indoor courts of Dills Indoor Stadium.

The outdoor facility includes bleacher seating between the two sets of six courts. Fans can sit in the bleachers and watch matches on either side, or stand on top and view matches on both sides.

The renovation includes locker rooms, offices and an indoor club area attached to Dills Indoor Stadium and connecting the indoor facility with the outdoor facility. The club area includes chair back seats on one side overlooking the Dills Indoor courts and chair back seats on the other overlooking the Billingsley Center outdoor courts.

Other additions include scoreboards for individual courts and a larger scoreboard on the west end of the north set of outdoor courts which will display the scores from outdoor courts one through six.

Unlike many other programs across the country, Arkansas' tennis teams take advantage of facilities which give the Razorbacks an opportunity to play and practice 365 days a year, regardless of weather.

Billingsley Tennis Center has been home to top collegiate tennis tournaments including the ITA Central Regional Championships and the SEC Tennis Tournament.

HEAD COACH JAY UDWADIA

Former Razorback men's tennis standout Jay Udwadia was named the Head Coach of the Arkansas men's tennis team on June 7, 2022. Udwadia returns to his alma mater to lead the men's program after successful head coaching stints at Oklahoma State, Fresno State and Drake.

During his third year as the head coach of the Hogs, Udwadia and the Razorbacks picked up a tournament victory in their final competition of the fall season after winning the Bonita Bay Classic team championship. The Hogs closed the 2024-25 season with an 18-14 record and completed SEC play at 4-10. Udwadia guided Arkansas to back-to-back 18+ win campaigns for the first time since 1988-89 while earning two top-25 victories (No. 12 Texas A&M, No. 21 Alabama). The Razorbacks collected four ranked wins overall in addition to eight wins over teams in the final ITA rankings. Udwadia led the Hogs to a season-high ranking of No. 29 before ending the year ranked No. 43.

In just his second season at the helm, Udwadia led the Razorbacks to a historical 2023-24 season, including a nine-win improvement from the 2022-23 season, the program's first NCAA Tournament berth since 2021 and the most wins in a season since 1986 (21). The Hogs achieved a season-high ITA team ranking of No. 28 and defeated 11 teams that finished inside the final ITA top-75 team rankings. Arkansas concluded the year with its highest year-end ITA team ranking since 2016 (No. 31). The Razorbacks notched five SEC victories in 2024 after none the previous season and recorded top-25 wins over No. 25 Auburn and No. 25 Florida. The Hogs also secured their first victory at Texas A&M since 1994 after a 4-3 comeback victory over the No. 8 Aggies.

In his return to Fayetteville, Arkansas ended the 2022-23 season with a 12-15 record. The Razorbacks jumped out to an impressive 12-1 start to open the year while defeating two teams that finished inside the final ITA top-75 team rankings. The Hogs attained a season-high ITA team ranking of No. 31 and concluded the year at No. 75.

Udwadia has produced All-SEC Second Team honorees Lukas Palovic and Gerard Planelles Ripoll in addition to the program's first All-Americans since 2018 with Božo Barun and Jared Horwood earning ITA Doubles All-American honors after advancing to the quarterfinals of the 2024 NCAA Doubles Championship.

In his most recent head coaching tenure at Oklahoma State, Udwadia posted a record of 137-71 in nine seasons and led the Cowboys to seven NCAA Tournament appearances, including a Sweet Sixteen appearance in 2016. During his tenure, OSU was ranked inside the top-25 rankings for eight years in a row, including three years inside the top 10. OSU reached as high as No. 4 in the national rankings during his time in Stillwater.

Oklahoma State posted seven consecutive winning campaigns and was selected to compete in the NCAA Tournament in the final full six seasons under Udwadia's tutelage. In his time at OSU, nine players achieved ITA All-American status, while four singles players and six doubles tandems achieved All-Big 12 honors.

Prior to beginning the turnaround at Oklahoma State, Udwadia served eight seasons as the Fresno State men's tennis coach and spent the previous year as the head coach at Drake. His overall record of 257-132 includes a 2004 MVC Championship and consecutive WAC titles in 2011 and 2012.

After kicking off his coaching career at Drake with a 17-6 season in 2004, Udwadia took over the program at Fresno State. He led the Bulldogs from a 10-11 record in his first year to seven consecutive winning seasons from 2006-12. Udwadia took Fresno State to the conference championship match six times and won the league title twice. His teams were consistently well regarded in the ITA National Rankings, reaching as high as No. 14 in 2012.

Udwadia, who was named the WAC Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012, guided three Bulldogs to WAC Player of the Year honors, including Jakub Cech in 2006, Rudolf Siwy in 2008 and Remi Boutillier in 2012. He guided 12 singles players and 11 doubles tandems to All-WAC honors during his time at FSU.

Udwadia, a native of Williamsville, N.Y., was a four-year letterwinner under Arkansas head coach Robert Cox at the University of Arkansas and was team captain during his senior year. While at Arkansas, Udwadia helped lead the Razorbacks to three NCAA Tournament appearances and a spot in the top 25 of the national rankings before graduating from the university in 1997 with a bachelor's degree in sociology. Udwadia and his wife, Jennifer, have two sons, Dash (10) and Fynn (8), and a daughter, Raya (3).

Udwadia becomes the fourth former Razorback tennis letterwinner to be named head coach of the men's tennis program, joining Jay Dickey, Jr. (1962-63), Ron Hightower (1985-86) and Robert Cox (1988-2013).
