► How it Ended

Central Arkansas reached a second-straight ASUN Championship Final and hosted a WNIT game for the second-straight season, dropping both to end the Sugar Bears' season.

It marked the second time as a member of the ASUN to reach the ASUN Championship Final, and the fourth time the Sugar Bears have hosted a national postseason game.

► How It's Going

The Sugar Bears opened the home schedule with a 115-43 win against Lyon College Friday night. Five Sugar Bears scored in double-figures, led by Cheyenne Kemp's 22 points. The defense racked up 27 steals, tied for the third-most in a single game in program history.

► Welcome Back, Coach!

After a decade away from the program, head coach Tony Kemper returned to Conway, taking the reins on March 10th, 2023. The move came after Kemper spent six years leading Marshall, compiling a 79-90 record.

Kemper was an assistant coach for both the men's and women's teams during his first tenure, helping the men's squad from 2006-10, and the women's staff from 2010-12. While on the sideline with the Sugar Bears, Kemper and company held a 45-19 record, and 25-7 run in the Southland.

► Who's Gone?

The Sugar Bears return just four players, three of whom played last season.

This means that Central Arkansas saw 74% of its minutes, 81% of its scoring, and 75% of its three-pointers graduate or transfer. Most notably, All-ASUN guards Kinley Fisher, Jade Upshaw and Leah Mafua all graduated.

► So Who is Back?

Of the returning Sugar Bears, the most recognizable is forward Bree Stephens. The ASUN Defensive Player of the Year last year, and this season's Preseason ASUN Defensive Player of the Year, Bree ranked tenth in the nation in blocks (79) and blocks per game (2.39), while also leading the team in assists.

Also returning is Cheyenne Kemp, who averaged 5.3 points off the bench, with six games of double-digit points.

The Sugar Bears also bring back Jenna Cook, who averaged 3.3 points per game and hit 16 threes on 34 percent shooting as a freshman.

► The Newbies

Central Arkansas added nine new players for the 2025-26 season, with four freshmen and five transfers.

Shae Littleford is perhaps the most accomplished of the transfers, joining the Sugar Bears from UT Martin. The grad transfer has nearly 1,000 career points and was a Second Team All-OVC guard.

Linda Amaning (Saint Peters) averaged 5.3 points and 3.7 rebounds per game. She added 29 steals and 12 blocks.

Julianna Gibson spent three seasons at Saint Francis, averaging 4.1 points and 3.3 rebounds per game over 77 appearances. She averaged a career-best 5.1 points per game last season, adding 3.0 rebounds per contest.

Paris Santacaterina played an injury-plagued eight games at San Diego last season, but spent two years before that at Dodge City CC, the same place as Sugar Bear standouts Bree Stephens and Leah Mafua. At Dodge City, she played two seasons, averaging 11.6 points, 4.7 rebounds and 3.4 assists per game.

As a sophomore, Paris had averages of 14.9 points, 6.0 rebounds and 4.5 assists per game, hitting 73 three-pointers on 40.6 percent shooting.

Laylah Reese (Three Rivers CC) played at Cabot HS with Sugar Bear Jenna Cook, and adds a multipositional piece to the team. She averaged 7.8 points and 4.9 rebounds per game last season, adding 1.8 assists per game.

There are four freshman on the Sugar Bears this season, three of whom played at Conway High School together.

Emerie Bohanon is a 1,000 point scorer in high school, earning a number of postseason honors along the way.

Alexis Cox is a three-time all-conference and two-time all-state guard, she brings a versatile scoring ability with three-level range.

Her sister, Alivia Cox, brings a unique athletic ability that comes from letting in multiple sports in high school, which will allow her to impact both sides of the ball.

The fourth freshman comes from outside the States; Carla Ramirez, who joins the Sugar Bears from Spain, adds another long, athletic guard that can handle the ball and defend multiple positions.

Game Notes

► Winning Ways

The Sugar Bears put together a 12-game winning streak that spanned from Jan. 8-Feb. 15 last season. It was the first 10-plus game winning streak since a 17-game streak in 2016-17, the same year that the Sugar Bears last won six in a row on the road. Central Arkansas finished that season 26-5 and made the NCAA Tournament.

► Three Pointers Galore!

The Sugar Bears hit 204 triples in 2023-24, reaching the mark for the first time since 2011-12, when the Sugar Bears hit 216.

The Sugar Bears hit 254 in 33 games, the second-most in a single season in program history, including a program-record 19 against Central Baptist College (Nov. 25). Against Lipscomb (Jan. 8), the Sugar Bears connected on 16-of-30, good for the most threes against a Division I program in school history.

► 100 Points

The Sugar Bears crossed 100 points twice last year, both at home against NAIA schools. It marked the first time since 2010-11 that the Sugar Bears have scored 100 or more in multiple games in a season, and the 120 against CBC were the second-most in a game in the Division I era.

► Preseason Hype

Bree Stephens was named the Preseason Defensive Player of the Year after winning the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year Award last season.

She set the Central Arkansas single season block record in the Division I era, as well as the career record for the program's Division I record, becoming the second player in the program's 19 years of Division I basketball to reach 100 career blocks.

► All Conference

Four Sugar Bears were honored in the ASUN's postseason awards, with Kinley Fisher, last year's Sixth Player of the Year, earning an Academic All-ASUN spot. Jade Upshaw (1st Team) and Leah Mafua (2nd Team) both earned spots, while Bree Stephens was named the ASUN Defensive Player of the Year.

► The Series

The Sugar Bears and Tigers have never faced each other before. Mizzou is the ninth SEC team that Central Arkansas will face all-time.

► Postseasons Past

Hosting Abilene Christian in the WNIT last year marked the fourth national postseason hosted by the Sugar Bears (2011 WBI, 2018 WBI, 2024 WBI).

In 2011, Central Arkansas hosted UAB, falling 58-54 to the Blazers.

Then in 2018, Central Arkansas beat:

SIUE (51-39)

Weber State (82-67)

Nevada (65-56)

Before falling to Yale in the Finals (54-50).

► Block Queen

Bree Stephens has only been at Central Arkansas for the last two seasons, but has cemented herself among the best shot blockers this school has ever seen.

After tying the program's Division I record for single season blocks in 2024-25 with 46, she obliterated it last year, with 79 rejections.

Bree Stephens was named the 2024-25 ASUN Defensive Player of the Year after finishing with 79 blocks and 40 steals.

Against Jacksonville, she became UCA's Division I career record with her 107th block in two seasons.

In ASUN games, Stephens had 57 blocks in 18 games, averaging 3.3 per contest. Stetson was second in the ASUN in team blocks per game, with 3.35 blocks per game, 58 blocks in 18 games.

For 14 games in ASUN play, she was the only player in Division I to lead a conference in a team stat by herself.

► Upcoming/Passed Milestones

Jenna Cook:

First true freshman to hit 15 three-pointers in a season since 2013-14 (Maggie Proffitt, 58 made threes)

Bree Stephens:

79 blocks last season (Set new UCA Division I record against Stetson)

Led team in assists (82) and blocks (79)

129 career blocks (1st in Division I era)
