WENDI WILLITS
Three-Pointers

Since the introduction of the bonus basketball for women's basketball in 1986, Arkansas has been home for some excellent 3-point shooters throughout the program's history. The pioneer of the 3-ball at Arkansas is Fort Cobb, Oklahoma native, Wendi Willits (1997-01). Willits broke the Arkansas career records of Kimberly Wilson early in her senior year, finishing her career just shy of the old SEC's all-time record held by LSU's Cornelia Gayden (now held by Alexis Rock of Mississippi State). In the SEC, Willits currently ranks tied for fourth in 3-pointers in a game (9), sixth for 3-pointers made in a season (104), fourth for career 3-pointers made (316) and ninth for career 3-point field goal attempts (771). Both prolific and accurate, she is the record holder in career 3-point field goals, as well as No. 3 in attempts and percentage for a career at Arkansas. In 1999, she was top five in the NCAA in both 3-pointers per game and percentage, earning her the Ed Steitz Award as the nation's top female 3-point shooter. Since Willits, Arkansas has had lethal outside shooters, such as Amber Ramirez, Chelsea Dungee, Alexis Tolefree, Chrissy Carr and Jessica Jackson, among others.

AMY WRIGHT

Career Assists and Consecutive Games Played

Recruited from Williamsburg, Indiana to become the next great point guard in Arkansas history, Amy Wright did not disappoint. A starter at the point from her first day at Arkansas, she broke the freshman assist record of her immediate predecessor, Christy Smith, and never looked back. Assists became her passion, and Wright rewrote the Arkansas record books in her four seasons, removing both her coach and Hall of Honor member Amber Nicholas Shirey and Smith from almost all the major records. Her 172 assists as a freshman led Arkansas to the WNIT Championship and was the closest anyone had come to Donna Wilson's 1988 season record. Her junior season, Wright crushed Wilson's mark with 198 to take Arkansas to the second round of the NCAA tournament. By the end of her career, the only assist records Wright was breaking were her own, including 205 her senior season. Closing her career with 717, she has almost 200 more assists than the former career leader Nicholas Shirey. Wright had more double-digit assist games than any other player and became the first player in recorded Razorback history to get the hard double of 10 assists and 10 rebounds (versus Mississippi State as a junior). In her four seasons, she never missed a game, playing 131 consecutive to break Sytia Messer's mark of 128. Of all her statistics, the one that is impressive is being the first point guard at Arkansas to lead her team to four consecutive postseason berths, something current point guard Makayla Daniels has now also accomplished. After closing her playing career with WNBA draft camp, Wright spent one season with Arkansas in marketing before becoming an assistant coach for the 2003-04 season at South Florida and then 10 seasons as an assistant coach at Texas A&M. Wright is currently in her first season at the head coach at Long Beach State.

DELMONICA DEHORNEY

Career Blocked Shots, Field Goal Percentage & Free Throw Attempts

While her mark in the career record book is for blocked shots, Delmonica DeHorney is one of the greatest inside players in Razorback history. She was second only to Bettye Fiscus in points until 2004, and she was the first, and to date the only, Razorback to earn Kodak All-America honors. DeHorney also is the most accurate shooter in school history for a season or career. In fact, she set the season shooting record in three of her four years. A back-to-back SWC Player of the Year, she led the SWC in scoring and Arkansas to consecutive league titles. The SWC Newcomer as a freshman, she was the only player in SWC history to earn three league awards. She shattered the previous blocked shot records and became the career leader after her junior year. In one season, 1989-90, DeHorney had more blocks (83) than all but two players in school history had for their careers. DeHorney went on to play professionally in Japan after completing her four-year career at Arkansas.

Of her 235 career blocks, the three most important in DeHorney's career came in the first half of the Feb. 23, 1990, game at Texas. All three came against UT's star forward Susan Anderson, shutting down the Lady Longhorns' inside game and allowing Arkansas to take a 38-31 halftime lead. UA went on to break UT's 183-game SWC winning streak with the 82-77 win.

TEAM SEC SEASON RECORDS

(Before 1998, the SEC regular season was less than 14 games. The brackets indicate records that were achieved during seasons in which the SEC played less than 14 games [11, 12 or 14]. There were only 15 games played during the 2021 SEC slate.)

SHELLY WALLACE

Career Rebounds

Shelly Wallace's career parallels Arkansas' rise to national prominence, leading the Razorbacks to their first NCAA playoff berth and the 1987 Women's NIT title. Wallace made her biggest record impact with rebounding. She is the only Arkansas women's basketball player to go over the 1,000 mark in rebounds and one of only two in Southwest Conference history. She has gone down as Arkansas' greatest double threat. Wallace was the first -- and one of two all-time -- player to average in double figures in points and rebounds for a season (16.5 PPG, 11.8 RPG in 1987-88). She also is one of only three players to score over 40 points in a game, setting the school record with 44. She left Arkansas having the most 30-plus games (seven) of any player until Chelsea Dungee (2018-21) broke that with 14. Wallace was an honorable mention Kodak All-American as a senior.

BUD WALTON ARENA RECORDS

THE BASKETBALL PALACE OF MID-AMERICA

Arkansas has played in Bud Walton Arena - The Basketball Palace of Mid-America - for 30 years and has defended its home court well with a 325-132 (.711) record since the doors opened.

When Arkansas joined the Southeastern Conference in August of 1990, then-Razorback Athletic Director Frank Broyles knew the athletic facilities had to be upgraded to contend in America's most nationally competitive league. His attention turned immediately to basketball. One day, Bud Walton, co-founder of Walmart, visited Broyles and asked him what Arkansas needed most to be competitive in the SEC.

Broyles mentioned the need for additional basketball seats and was asked by Walton what a new arena would cost. The figure $30 million was discussed and Walton offered to pay half. From that visit, Bud Walton Arena was born. Groundbreaking to grand opening was accomplished in a remarkable 18 months.

Eye-catching displays that were recently updated on the concourse level salute Razorback highlights. Enhancements prior to the 2009 season included the addition of courtside seating, electronic signage at the scorer's table, new retractable seats in the lower level, electronic ribbon boards along the bottom of the upper deck, replacing the Razorback on the court with the classic Razorback logo and opening up the student section by converting it from chairback seats to benches. Eight suites were added prior the 2008 season, raising the total to 47.

The Razorbacks received an expanded locker room in 2013 and includes a lounge with a spacious meeting area. In the summer of 2015, a $4 million investment was made to the arena to maximize fan experience. Fans enjoy a updated center hung video board with four LED displays that gave Bud Walton Arena the largest video display of any basketball facility in the country at the time.

To go along with the visual enhancements, a new sound system was also installed to enhance volume and clarity for every seat in the arena. As captivating as the displays, museum and championship banners are, the aspect of the facility demanding the most attention is spirit. Every game still produces an NCAA Tournament-type atmosphere with the exception of the crowd, which is anything but neutral. According to Rosser International in Atlanta, when the arena was built, there were more seats in less space than in any such facility in the world. It's no wonder the noise level can be absolutely ear-splitting. From pregame to postgame, Bud Walton Arena is perfectly choreographed with the band, the spirit groups, the lighting system, the public address, the scoreboard and the team. Each game at Bud Walton Arena is a rich experience, leaving Razorback fans hungry for more.

Arkansas hosted the 1994 NCAA Midwest Regional during Walton Arena's inaugural season. In 1995, the Razorback women's basketball team hosted all four rounds of the Preseason Women's NIT -- thanks in large part to the excellent accommodations provided by Bud Walton Arena. It all paled in comparison to the 1999 Women's NIT as Arkansas hosted all five rounds of the postseason event, including an all-time UA and then WNIT record 14,163 fans for the championship game versus Wisconsin. The 1999 WNIT semifinals and finals alone saw over 23,000 fans attend the two games, helping the Razorbacks to a new all-time attendance record of 77,001 total fans. Arkansas also hosted four rounds of the 2000 WNIT at Walton, while hosting three during the 2019 and 2023 WNITs.

A crowd of 8,292 came to support the Razorbacks and Amber Ramirez's Senior Day against Kentucky on Feb. 20, 2022.

BARNHILL ARENA RECORDS

A TOUGH PLACE TO PLAY

It seemed appropriate the final basketball event at John Barnhill Arena was a women's basketball game and a women's basketball banquet.

As fate would have it, it was a girls' basketball game back in 1977 that was the first hoops contest played in the newly renovated and expanded home court for Razorback men's and women's basketball.

Betsy Broyles' Fayetteville High team played days before the first men's or women's college game in what would become known as one of the most feared home courts in modern collegiate basketball.

The next year, Betsy would become the first high school recruit to accept a scholarship to play women's basketball at the University.

On Dec. 7, 1993, Betsy and over 30 former letterwinners returned for A Moment in Time, a banquet to honor women's basketball in Barnhill. It was the evening prior to the women's opener in Bud Walton Arena against DePaul.

During the 17 years between her first and most recent appearances in Barnhill, The Barn was the site of many great moments of women's basketball history.

Arkansas was undefeated in its first home season (6-0) and in three subsequent years (1981-82, 1982-83 and 1990-91).

The women's basketball team set its home consecutive win streak at 21 games from 1981 to 1984. That streak was broken with 23 in the early 1990s, and for a brief period of time, Barnhill Arena was the home of the longest active women's home winning streak.

Since the start of the NCAA era in 1982-83, only eight unranked teams managed wins in Barnhill (out of 118 who tried). Some 194 women's varsity collegiate basketball games were played in Barnhill Arena, with the last game a 96-60 win over Oral Roberts on March 1, 1993. The last varsity basketball game played at Barnhill was a women's contest as Arkansas won an exhibition game over the Bulgarian team of Levski Total, 83-81, on Nov. 16, 1993.

The Spirit of Barnhill lives on both at Bud Walton Arena, and at Barnhill. "The Barn" received a new tenant in 1994 with the start of varsity volleyball at Arkansas. Thanks in large part to its home court advantage, the inaugural Razorback volleyball team won the SEC Western Division title providing a new banner for the old rafters. Gymnastics enjoyed a similar Barnhill boost in 2006. With the inaugural senior class, Arkansas upset national powerhouse UCLA to advance to the NCAA Championship at the Barnhill-hosted NCAA South Central Regional.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

RAZORBACK HISTORY

EARLY ORIGINS

Women's basketball has been a part of the fabric of the University of Arkansas for almost a century. Teams of female students took to outdoor courts and peach baskets just after the turn of the century. While the women waited until 1976 for the first varsity team to officially represent the University, these early photos show how the game captured what was then deemed "the fairer sex" in action.

THE FIRST TEAM

As the photo at right illustrates, almost since the turn of the century, women have banded together to play basketball at the University of Arkansas. In fact, yearbook references to women's basketball predate men's basketball at Arkansas. There are photographs of at least three teams of women's basketball players prior to 1910. From the 1930s until the late 1950s, some of the nation's best AAU players and teams came from the state of Arkansas. After years of "extramural" women's basketball in the late 1960s and early 1970s at the University, the first varsity Razorback basketball team took the court in Barnhill Arena in 1976-77. Under Coach Sharon Ogle, these Razorbacks established the winning tradition at Arkansas with a 10-6 season. Composed of walk-ons, the 1976-77 team was undefeated in Barnhill Arena (6-0) and set a school record for largest margin of victory that may never be broken - 79 points - with a 108-29 win over Bartlesville Wesleyan. Three walk-ons received aid to become the first scholarship women at Arkansas: Camille Yancey of Marvel, Pat Keck from Rogers and Carol Ann Riggs of Fayetteville.

IN THE BROYLES TRADITION

The next season, the University of Arkansas awarded its first women's athletic scholarship to a freshman recruit. A local basketball star at Fayetteville High, Betsy Broyles, became the first Razorback high school recruit, one of 10 women recruited during the 1977-78 season. Wearing No. 30 for Arkansas, Betsy, daughter of former athletic director Frank Broyles, had her playing career cut short by an injury, but she did letter two seasons at Arkansas.

ARKANSAS' FIRST SUPERSTAR

Wynne, Arkansas' Bettye Fiscus arrived at the University in 1981, and Razorback basketball was never the same in the most positive way possible. Fiscus set the University record for scoring - man or woman - at 2,073 as Arkansas' first All-American. While NBA star Todd Day finally broke Fiscus' scoring mark, she still holds almost all the women's basketball career scoring records. Wearing No. 5, her jersey was the first retired by the University, receiving that honor in 1986.

FIRST NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

A senior-laden Razorback club that had advanced to the NCAA Tournament in 1986 received the snub of the committee in 1987. Behind co-captain guard Tracy Webb, the 1986-87 team wrecked its vengeance on the National Women's Invitational Tournament, sweeping through the postseason tournament to bring home the first team national title for a women's squad at Arkansas. The Razorbacks averaged over 100 points per game for the tournament, crushing California, 112-80, in the championship game.

"DIALING" FOR TROPHIES

Arkansas and the Dial Soap Women's Basketball Classic series had a long, distinguished history. The Dial Classics were the longest-running series in women's hoops. Arkansas had the unofficial distinction of winning more Dial trophies than any team starting in Minnesota. In fact, the Razorbacks played in eight different Dial tournaments in eight seasons, winning trophies in six. This past record combined with increasing promotions led to Arkansas receiving the right to host one of the coveted tournaments, bringing the Dial series to Fayetteville in 1991 (photo below) until the series was disbanded in 1997.

THE SHOTS HEARD 'ROUND THE WORLD

On Feb. 23, 1990, Arkansas ended the longest conference winning streak in NCAA history by defeating the Texas Lady Longhorns, 82-77. The win broke UT's 183-game streak against Southwest Conference foes and cleared the way for the first non-Texas SWC women's basketball titlist. It also ended the nation's longest active home win streak at 47 games. Senior guard Juliet Jackson, who hit six free throws in the closing minute to clinch the game, summed it up best: "We messed up all their streaks." The next week junior center Delmonica DeHorney was named Sports Illustrated Women's College Basketball Player of the Week.

ONLY SWC WOMEN'S TROPHIES OUTSIDE THE LONE STAR STATE

Arkansas was the first team to beat Texas and the first team to win a share, then later an outright, Southwest Conference Championship besides the Lady Longhorns. In 1991, Arkansas also ended the Lone Star state's dominance of the SWC tournament by defeating Texas Tech for the title. These three trophies—the 1990 and 1991 SWC Championship and 1991 SWC Classic—are the only women's basketball trophies in captivity outside the state of Texas.

DELMONICA DEHORNEY, ALL-AMERICAN

While Delmonica DeHorney may have several notable seconds in her resume – second Razorback player to have her jersey (50) retired, second Razorback to play professional basketball and second all-time leading scorer (1,785) – she claims one of the most significant firsts: the first Kodak All-American at the University of Arkansas. DeHorney also is in the record books as the all-time leader in field goal percentage and blocked shots for a career. Her domination in the paint carried Arkansas to the 1990 NCAA West Regional Finals and to the 1991 NCAA Sweet 16. A two-time SWC Player of the Year, Delmonica is the only women's basketball player in SWC history to earn three all-conference honors and was tabbed SWC Newcomer of the Year as a freshman. DeHorney was inducted into the UA Hall of Honor in 2000.

BARNHILL CROWDS TO REMEMBER

Beginning with the 1989–90 season, the Razorbacks declared W.A.R. (Women's Attendance Record) on a select opponent. The first two W.A.R.s were against Texas and resulted in the two largest crowds at Barnhill for a women's basketball game. Upon entering the SEC, Arkansas had a Border W.A.R. with LSU. W.A.R. IV featured the 24th-ranked Kentucky Lady Kats. Arkansas' feared home crowd worked its Barnhill magic in the last three W.A.R.s. The last two years were particularly dramatic as the Razorback fans rallied Arkansas from halftime deficits.

AN ALL-AMERICAN BY EVERY MEASURE

No other point guard in Arkansas history had a career that can match Newark's Amber Nicholas. In her four years, she never missed a game, playing 117 consecutive games, and she set the record for the most consecutive games started: 87. Nicholas set the school record for career assists, and her steady hand guided Arkansas to the best record of any four-year period in school history. Named the MVP of the 1991 SWC Tournament, Nicholas also earned three Dial MVP awards in consecutive seasons. One of the most beloved Razorbacks, Nicholas also was a two-time selection to the highly prestigious CoSIDA Academic All-America team and received an NCAA Post-graduate Scholarship. She was inducted into the Hall of Honor in 2002 and has served as a member of the basketball staff for 31 years, currently as the Director of Basketball Operations.

THE NATION COMES TO FAYETTEVILLE

At the end of the 1993–94 season, the University of Arkansas Women's Athletics Department hosted the first major NCAA championship event held in the state of Arkansas. The 1994 NCAA Division I Women's Basketball Midwest Regional set marks for regional attendance and hospitality. A true community project, one of the highlights was a street party and battle of the bands on the downtown square called Fayetteville Friday Night for the two teams in Saturday's championship game. Louisiana Tech advanced from Fayetteville to the Final Four with upsets of No. 1-ranked Tennessee and Lisa Leslie's USC Trojans.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

A MOMENT IN TIME

As the Razorbacks prepared to move to Bud Walton Arena in December 1993, the Women's Athletics Department held a celebration of 17 years of women's hoops in Barnhill Arena with "A Moment in Time." The banquet held in Barnhill was attended by dozens of former Razorbacks, including three of the four career leaders. A special retrospective video tracing the Razorbacks and their winning tradition in Barnhill was screened as a part of the festivities.

THE CARDIAC KIDS

The 1994-95 season saw the Razorbacks return to the Associated Press Top 25 and the NCAA tournament, posting a 23-7 record. Arkansas did it by winning nine games in the closing minute and three games on last shots, with a team composed mostly of freshmen and sophomores.

A STREAK UNEQUALED

The first freshman recruit to start opening day at point guard for Arkansas, Christy Smith, earned attention for her free throw shooting, 89.9 percent to lead the nation, as well as her tenacious defense in which she led the SEC in steals with 3.0 per game. But on Dec. 6, 1995, Smith took her first step toward a mark that might stand for all time. The 5-6 West Lafayette, Indiana, point guard started that night against Alabama, and did not leave the court against a SEC opponent for the rest of the season. For all 11 regular season games and two SEC tournament games, Smith played 525 consecutive minutes – a feat unequaled by man or woman in the league. The 1995 SEC Freshman of the Year, Smith also became Arkansas' first woman named to the Associated Press All-America team as an honorable mention.

A PRESIDENTIAL VISIT

Usually, the national champion visits the President of the United States in the White House. On Dec. 9, 1996, President Bill Clinton visited the women's basketball team in their locker room during halftime of the men's game against Cincinnati. It may be the first time a sitting President has dropped in to the locker room of a collegiate women's basketball team, and as luck would have it, it was not the last time the Razorbacks posed with the President.

DREAMS DO COME TRUE

On March 9, 1998, the Razorbacks wanted to get back into the NCAA Tournament. By March 27, 1998, they were in the NCAA Final Four, living the dream they had wished for years. Arkansas made NCAA Tournament history as the lowest seed -- #9 in the West -- to advance to the Final Four. The Razorbacks were the first unranked team in women's basketball history during the modern era to reach the Final Four. Additionally, they were the lowest finishing team in conference play -- tied for sixth in the SEC -- to reach the Final Four. Arkansas did it all on the west coast, spending two whole weeks in the Bay Area. Along the way, the Razorbacks beat four conference champions coming from the WAC, Pacific, Ivy and ACC, as well as three ranked teams in Hawai'i, Kansas and Duke. This all set up Arkansas to face conference rival Tennessee in Kansas City.

Arkansas played all four of its pre-Final Four games on late night TV, earning the nickname of Good Morning America's team. Every member of the team contributed to the run, starting with a 24-point effort by Karyn Karlin in the opening round win over #20 Hawai'i, 76-70. Then it was freshman Wendi Willits' turn with a near-NCAA record six three-pointers to blow open Arkansas' second round contest with Harvard, 82-64. In the opening round games held in Stanford, California, Christy Smith had zero turnovers and 16 assists over those two contests.

At the West Regionals in Oakland, junior Sytia Messer stepped to the front as Arkansas' leading scorer in both wins, earning herself the honor as the most outstanding player at the West Regional. Messer had 23 points as Arkansas used an impressive 54-point second half to dispatch Kansas, 79-63, in the Sweet 16. Fellow junior Treva Christensen announced herself with 14 points off the bench against Duke to earn all-tournament selection. Junior Tennille Adams was 6-of-9 with 14 off the bench including the go-ahead bucket in the closing minutes against Duke. The defining moment belonged to Smith, as she calmly sank four free throws in the final seconds to send Arkansas to the Final Four for the first time in school history with a 77-72 win over ACC champion Duke. "Do you believe in fairy tales? Christy Smith sure does."

FIVE GAMES TO GLORY

When the 1999 season ended, Arkansas was 15-14 and 11th in the SEC. Leading scorer Karyn Karlin was out for the year with a torn ACL. Not the ending Cinderella hoped for after the Final Four. But Arkansas got a second chance with the WNIT, and by virtue of its season attendance, was chosen to host the opener with SLC champion Northwestern State. Sophomore Lonniya Bragg, quiet most of the season, tore into NSU for a career-tying 22 points. Arena conflicts helped Arkansas host round two, and a late-season snowstorm led to the smallest crowd (at the time) at Bud Walton for women's basketball (890). Those that braved the weather saw a sophomore class record 35 points as Okie Wendi Willits busted the Sooners in an overtime thriller, 97-93. The crowds began to pour back into Bud Walton, and Arkansas survived Rice, 76-70, in the quarterfinals thanks to 18 points from Bragg. The WNIT picked Arkansas to host again, and the crowd and the Razorbacks did not disappoint as 9,041 saw 5-11 Bragg rack up a career-high 23 against the 6-5 and 6-4 posts of MVC runner-up Drake in a 80-56 rout. It set the stage for a titanic showdown at Walton with Wisconsin. An all-time record 14,163 paid to see Arkansas win the WNIT title behind an inspired senior performance from Kamara Stancle with 15 points and 13 rebounds. The victory was marred by the sudden illness and death of Sytia Messer's mother on the eve of the game.

AMERICA'S BEST THREE-POINT SHOOTER

Wendi Willits shattered all of Arkansas' three-point records during the 1998-99 season. More impressive, the 5-8 Fort Cobb, Oklahoma sophomore came within a single trey of breaking a previously thought unbreakable SEC record -- Cornelia Gayden's single season mark. Willits finished with 104, shooting 35.7 from the arc. Ranking top five in the nation in both percentage and production, Willits was chosen by the Basketball Hall of Fame as its Ed Steitz Award winner. Her uniform, complete with her trademark headband, was displayed for the 1999-2000 season at the Basketball Hall of Fame in Springfield, Massachusetts. Her senior year, she became the No. 2 three-point scorer in SEC history as well as the all-time leader at Arkansas. Willits closed her career at the ESPN College Three-Point Shooting Contest, where she reached the Final Four.

DROPPING DIMES

Point guard Amy Wright started the second century of Razorback basketball by shattering a once-thought-untouchable record of 186 assists in a season set by Donna Wilson in 1989. Wright's 198 led Arkansas back into the NCAA Tournament second round in 2001 and left her in striking distance for her senior season of the all-time leader, Amber Nicholas Shirey. For her final season, Wright not only took the career record early on, but she broke her own season mark to become the first woman to go over 200 in a season with 205 and closed her career with 717.

SECOND TO ONE, BUT SECOND TO NONE

Hot Springs, Arkansas native Shameka Christon finished her four-year career at Arkansas as the first woman to threaten the all-time scoring mark of Bettye Fiscus and ended up second all-time with 1,951 points. However, in many ways Christon was second to none in her Arkansas career with many firsts. Early in her career Christon became the first Razorback women's basketball player to represent the United States at the World Championships and the first to win a gold medal on the world stage. As a senior, she was the first Razorback named Associated Press All-America with her selection to the third team, surpassing Christy Smith's four times on the AP team, but as an honorable mention. Christon also became the first voted SEC Player of the Year (both coaches and AP), making her the second Razorback to take player of the year (Delmonica DeHorney in the SWC days). She closed out her time in Fayetteville by becoming the first Razorback taken as a first-round draft pick of the WNBA, going fifth overall to the New York Liberty. Christon added another first as the first Razorback to make an all-pro team as she was on the WNBA's Rookie Team in 2004.

IT WAS THE BEST OF TIMES... IT WAS THE WORST OF TIMES

Tom Collen returned as the head coach for the Arkansas women's basketball team in April 2007. Inheriting a team that had set the standard for best start to the first loss with a 15-1 run before setting the standard for futility with a 10-game losing streak, Collen had no expectations of another streak against a schedule including key road contests. After the first win in several years at Missouri, Arkansas came home to face Clemson -- the first ACC team in Walton Arena. Downing the Tigers, the Razorbacks faced the toughest test with NCAA participant Marquette in the finals of the Dartmouth tournament. Trailing by eight, Arkansas rallied for a two-point win. Riding a 14-game streak, the Razorbacks pummeled former SWC rival Texas Tech to close out the pre-conference schedule perfect.

The 15-0 start broke the in-season winning streak of the 1990-91 SWC Championship team that set the school record for wins and percentage with a 28-4 finish. The 15 straight games also bested the 11-game run to close the 1998-99 and start the 1999-00 season. Behind senior double-double averaging post player Lauren Ervin, Arkansas looked ready to vault its top 25 AP ranking back into the NCAA Tournament. Fate had different plans as Ervin tore her ACL in the SEC opener, ending her career as the second all-time double-double points-rebound player. The Razorbacks suffered several other injuries and stumbled to a 2-13 close.

HISTORIC CHANGES

On Jan. 1, 2008, the University of Arkansas brought together the men's and women's athletic departments. Starting with the new fiscal year on July 1, 2008, the women's sports teams dropped the usage of "Lady" and "LadyBack" nicknames.

RAZORBACK HISTORY

MORE CHANGES

The Razorbacks returned to the NCAA Tournament reaching the second round before elimination in 2011–12. The team that bumped them? New SEC member Texas A&M. Arkansas and the 12–member SEC began preparation for the addition of the Aggies and Missouri moving the SEC to 14 teams for the 2012–13 season.

A NEW ERA

In April 2014, Arkansas welcomed its eighth head coach in program history with the hiring of former, and now current, ESPN analyst Jimmy Dykes. In his first year, Dykes faced the task of playing one of the nation's toughest (ranked sixth) schedules. What did the first-year coach and the Razorbacks do? That team won 18 games, defeated three ranked opponents and reached the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Along the way, sophomore Jessica Jackson picked up All-SEC Second-Team honors and Dykes earned the respect of his peers, being named one of two finalists for the Spalding Maggie Dixon Division I Rookie Coach of the Year.

In Dykes' second season, the Razorbacks started the conference schedule facing four ranked teams in its first five opponents – the only team in the Power Five conferences to do so. Arkansas picked up three wins in home games against No. 13 Texas A&M, No. 13 Tennessee and No. 24 Missouri during that run. The Razorbacks finished with seven SEC wins, improving from six league wins in the previous season.

WELCOME TO THE NEIGHBORHOOD

The University of Arkansas welcomed home Mike Neighbors as the ninth coach in Arkansas women's basketball history on April 3, 2017. Neighbors returned to his alma mater after four seasons as the head coach at the University of Washington where he led the Huskies to their first-ever Final Four with three NCAA Tournament appearances and a WNIT Quarterfinals showing.

Neighbors guided Washington to four seasons of unprecedented success, highlighted by the 2016 NCAA Final Four and two NCAA Sweet 16 appearances. Named the program's head coach after two years as an assistant, Neighbors led the Huskies to a 98–41 record that was fueled by three consecutive 23-plus win seasons and included four postseason appearances (3 NCAA, 1 WNIT).

In the eight years after his return to his alma mater, Mike Neighbors transformed Arkansas into a nationally recognized women's basketball program. During his time back home, Neighbors guided his Hogs to the best eight-year period of sustained success in program history. The proof of his success, and the success of his system, lies in the numbers – Neighbors has accumulated 246 wins during his 12 seasons as a head coach, then the most of any NCAA Division I Head Coach of a Power 5 program. The Hogs qualified for six straight postseason berths (if including 2020) from 2019–2024, one of three SEC programs to do so, as well as earned back-to-back NCAA Tournament appearances in 2021 and 2022, marking the first back-to-back appearances in 20 years (2001 and 2002). Had the 2019–20 postseason have not been cancelled due to the COVID–19 pandemic, that 24–8 squad was well on its way to a deep run at the NCAA Tournament, which would have made it three straight NCAA Tournament trips for the Hogs. With a postseason appearance in the NCAA WBIT in 2023–24, Neighbors tied Gary Blair for most consecutive postseason appearances with six.

As the Razorbacks' head coach, Neighbors has logged a 148–113 mark and the best winning percentage in league play among the program's head coaches. Neighbors has coached seven All-SEC recipients, the 2022 SEC Freshman of the Year in Samara Spencer and four SEC All-Freshman selections. Boasting the best success rate of any Arkansas coach at the SEC Tournament, Coach Neighbors' 2019 team made it to the program's first SEC Tournament final. Not to mention, Neighbors has guided his Arkansas teams to 42 wins over AP-ranked teams. Under Coach Neighbors' leadership, he has guided the Hogs to becoming the first Arkansas team to beat two top-five teams in the same season with victories over No. 4 Baylor and No. 3 UConn in 2020–21. Additionally, at Arkansas, Neighbors has coached two WNBA draft picks (Chelsea Dungee, first round, fifth pick [tied for highest draft pick in school history]; and Destiny Slocum, second round, 14th pick in the 2021 draft).

CUE THE MUSICK

Kelsi Musick was hired as the program's 10th head coach on March 21, 2025. Musick comes to Arkansas after a successful three-year stint at Oral Roberts, where she led the Golden Eagles to postseason appearances in each of the last two seasons while increasing the team's win total every year. ORU wrapped up their season last night in the first round of the WBIT to finish the year 24–9 and give the Golden Eagles consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time since 2009–12. She built the program each of her three seasons, winning 12 games in the first season, 21 wins in the second and 24 this past season – the most for the Golden Eagles in a single season since Debbie Yow won 26 games in 1982–83. Along the way, her teams were no strangers in taking down opponents from bigger conferences with a pair of wins against Southeastern Conference teams this past season to go with four total wins over teams from the American Athletic Conference over the last two years.

Known for her fast-paced, dribble-drive offense, Musick quickly turned around Oral Roberts. Her Golden Eagles have finished in the Top 20 nationally in points per game each of her three seasons – scoring 78.1 points per game in her first season to finish 16th, 81.8 points per game last season to finish eighth and averaged 83.2 points per game during the regular season to rank eighth nationally entering postseason play. Musick has also attracted elite talent, coaching 2023–24 Summit League Freshman of the Year Emily Robinson and Newcomer of the Year Taleyah Jones and reigning two-time Sixth Woman of the Year Jalei Oglesby. Jones and Oglesby were both named to the All-Summit League First Team this season after the duo led the Golden Eagles in points per game with Jones scoring 18.1 and Oglesby 17.3, respectively.

30 GREATEST GAMES

A total team effort. Christy Smith fulfills the dream of every little girl—she must make the free throws to send Arkansas to the Final Four. Smith does not get to the line without Tennille Adams' offensive stick-back to put Arkansas ahead. Treva Christensen and Sytia Messer solidify their picks as All-West and West Region MVP. The game gives rise to two of the greatest moments in women's basketball history. The first came before the game. After a silent ride through the Oakland twilight, Gary Blair rose as the team bus halted. "Don't get off the bus if you don't expect to win," he said, then turned and left the bus. The second came after as Smith and Stancle fell to the floor at the end of the game. ESPN commentator Beth Mowins declared, "Do you believe in fairy tales?"

Texas coach Jody Conradt appears somber as Arkansas' Juliet Jackson exults Friday after the Lady Razorbacks snapped UT's 183-game winning streak.

The clipping above from the Dallas Morning News says it all. Senior Juliet Jackson's clutch free throws ice the first loss by UT to a SWC member—183 consecutive games. Delmonica DeHorney led Arkansas with 26 points, eight boards and four blocks. Jackson had 19 points and seven assists, and of course, was 7-of-8 at the line—4-of-4 in the closing minute. DeHorney was national player of the week after the game, but those that were there will tell you the best part was seeing The Drum bathed in white—not victory burnt orange—lights.

Hard to believe that a game that wasn't on the schedule until late January could be the third greatest game in program history, but beating WBB's gold standard will do that. In front of a 4,400 COVID sell-out crowd at BWA, the Hogs torched the Huskies, led by Chelsea Dungee's legendary 37-point performance. That was the most points scored by an individual on the Huskies since the turn of the century. With the win, Arkansas became just the ninth team to take down UConn since 2012.

#4A | ARKANSAS 58, #15 TEXAS A&M 51

March 9, 2019

Arkansas punched its ticket to its first-ever SEC Championship game with one of the greatest comebacks in the history of the program, using a 17-0 burst to top No. 15 Texas A&M in the SEC Tournament Semifinal. Chelsea Dungee (17 points), Jailyn Mason (15 points) and Alexis Tolefree (11 points) led the way out of what was once a 16-point hole, while nine fourth-quarter turnovers forced was enough to get the Hogs into the SEC Final.

#4B | ARKANSAS 67, #15 TEXAS A&M 66

March 6, 2020

It happened again. The Razorbacks, who had just beaten A&M the season before in dramatic fashion in Greenville, came back from 17 down to eliminate the Aggies for the second straight season in the SEC Tournament. Senior forward Kiara Williams, a 57 percent FT shooter, knocked in two from the stripe to seal the historic win. Freshman Makayla Daniels led the Hogs with 13 points, while also guarding future pro Chennedy Carter.

The largest regular season crowd in school history (11,486) and ESPN watched as Arkansas won the first top 10 vs. top 10 game in school history. Arkansas' "Big Three" of Shameka Christon (25 points, 7 boards), India Lewis (19 points) and Dana Cherry (13 points, 12 rebounds) were joined with SEC all-freshman Ruby Vaden (13 points, 7 boards) as the Razorbacks dominated the second-ranked Tigers. LSU threatened late, but the comeback only served to add to the instant classic status of the game. Along with mark the best start in SEC play to date, LSU became the highest-ranked team to lose to Arkansas.

Sarah Watkins hit a layup with eight seconds on the clock forcing overtime with the game tied at 62, and Lyndsay Harris hit two in overtime giving Arkansas a 72-71 win in overtime over No. 9/11 Tennessee in Knoxville, Tennessee. The Razorbacks hit the final four points and held Tennessee scoreless late for the win. Harris paced Arkansas with 20 points and Watkins had 18. Senior C'eira Ricketts added 16 in the win.

December 6, 2020

Drawing the team no one else wanted in the 2020 SEC/Big 12 Challenge, the Hogs secured the first of two top-five wins during the 20-21 season against the Lady Bears. It was the Hogs' first win over a top-five team in 17 years, and it was their first win over a defending national champion since 1996. Amber Ramirez and Chelsea Dungee led the way, scoring 23 and 22, respectively. The Hogs got to the free throw line at will, which changed the game—they made 30 of their 39 FTA.

#9 | #22 ARKANSAS 81, #7 GEORGIA 70

March 18, 1990

Considered for years one of the top 10 upsets in NCAA women's tournament history, Arkansas goes to Athens, Georgia, to stun the Lady Bulldogs behind 30 points from Juliet Jackson. Georgia's strategy was to shut down Delmonica DeHorney and Blair Savage inside and isolate Amber Nicholas outside. They dared Jackson to beat them, and she did by raining down 12-of-19 from the perimeter.

Don't try to tell the then-WNIT record crowd of 14,163 fans at Walton Arena that this was the game for 65th in the country. The back-and-forth battle with the Badgers was befitting any championship. The Razorbacks make national headlines with their first-ever win over Tennessee. Sytia Messer holds Chamique Holdsclaw to a single field goal and only 7 points while Christy Smith and Kimberly Wilson go off for 21 points each. Wilson jumped on UT early, hitting her first three treys and giving Arkansas a 19-11 advantage. Defense was the difference as four turnovers keyed a 13-0 run by Arkansas, capped by a three-pointer by Sytia Messer for a 48-36 lead. Tennessee did not go away, rallying to within a point, 76-75, with 0:56 to play. The Lady Vols had one last chance to win the game but missed an inside shot. Karen Jones pulled down the rebound of her life and was fouled by Tennessee. Jones' free throw in the final seconds gave Arkansas its final margin of victory.

#12A | ARKANSAS 74, #7 SOUTH CAROLINA 46

January 27, 2002

Arkansas accomplished one of the most profound reversals in Lady Razorback history with this win over the Gamecocks. The Razorbacks lost to South Carolina on the road, 91-66, earlier in the month of January prior to defeating the Gamecocks at home in dominating fashion, 74-46. This marked a 53-point turnaround in the same season. In the Razorbacks' big win, Arkansas forced 26 turnovers compared to UA's 12, while shooting 42 percent as opposed to 26.3 percent for South Carolina. Arkansas also held South Carolina's best player, Jocelyn Penn, to 1-for-8 shooting for four points.

#12B | ARKANSAS 67 - #8 VANDERBILT 57

January 31, 2002

A combination entry because they are the first time that Arkansas defeated consecutive top 10 teams at Fayetteville, and because of the circumstances around the games. The Razorbacks stumbled at USC only three weeks earlier, 91-66, and thanks to some humbling early games were 1-6 to open SEC play. Not only did Arkansas turn the season around but did so in convincing fashion. Forcing 26 turnovers, India Lewis and Dana Cherry had 17 each as UA meted out its worst beating of a ranked team during the regular season on USC. Four days later, Shameka Christon poured in 21 to lead Arkansas past Vanderbilt as the Razorbacks controlled the game start to finish.

#14 | #1 TEXAS 71, ARKANSAS 70

February 18, 1984

The Texas win that wasn't. Arkansas scrapped with the top team in the nation and got the opportunity of a lifetime with the ball and the clock running out at Barnhill Arena. Senior Amanda Holley's baseline jumper hangs in the air, hits the bucket, rolls around the rim and falls out as the horn sounds. The Razorbacks will have three more close calls with their arch-rivals, but a basketball generation will pass before Texas falls in 1990.

#15 | #22 ARKANSAS 90, UCLA 80 (OT)

March 14, 1990

Perhaps the most exciting overtime game in Arkansas history, the Razorbacks come back from a 10-point deficit late in the game to tie the contest and send it into overtime. Led by All-America candidate Rehema Stephens, UCLA had five players in double figures, but the Bruins ran out of gas in the extra five minutes as Amber Nicholas (22 points) and Blair Savage (21 points) lead a 15-5 overtime run. Not only a memorable game, but it was also the first-ever win by Arkansas in the NCAA tournament and the first-ever NCAA tournament game hosted by Arkansas.

#16 | ARKANSAS 79, KANSAS 63

March 21, 1998

The Cinderella story comes to life as Arkansas holds All-American Lynn Pride of Kansas scoreless to rally from a 32-28 half-time deficit. Sytia Messer leads the charge with a 17-point second half effort as Arkansas dominates KU, 51-31, in the final 20 minutes. After shooting only 36 in the first half, UA blisters the Jayhawks for 63 in the second.

#17 | #6 TEXAS 101, ARKANSAS 99

March 11, 1989

Quite simply, Southwest Conference fans say this may be the greatest championship game ever played—men or women—at the SWC Classic. The first-ever women's basketball game at Reunion Arena did not disappoint as the two teams produced near-flawless games. Each committed a season-low eight turnovers, and the 200 points scored were school records for combined score for both. Trailing 51-46 at halftime, Arkansas responded with 52.8 percent from the field led by a career game by Lisa Martin with 31 points. Four of Arkansas' starters were in double digits as Shelly Wallace added 20 points and 15 boards. Clarissa Davis saved the day with 36 for Texas.

#18 | ARKANSAS 78, #10 FLORIDA 69

March 2, 2001

Arkansas rode a 10-game losing streak to the Gators into the second round of the SEC Tournament, but freshman Shameka Christon had 22 points, 11 rebounds and four stitches as the LadyBacks jumped on Florida early. Arkansas led by as many as 20 before Christon departed the game with a busted lip. She returned, but not before Florida closed to within seven. Behind 22 from Wendi Willits and 10 from Lonniya Bragg, Arkansas went on a 7-0 run late to advance to the SEC Tournament semifinals for the first time in school history.

#19 | #18 ARKANSAS 73, #8 VANDERBILT 71 (OT)

February 19, 1995

Kelly Johnson said she had never hit a game-winner at the buzzer in her life. She didn't get the chance to do so again in her career, but when Christy Smith laced the pass down low to Johnson, she buried the 15-foot baseline jumper as time expired to give Arkansas its first-ever win over Vandy. The photo, above, of Johnson's shot has become one of the most requested classic images in women's basketball history.

#20 | ARKANSAS 80, MISSISSIPPI STATE 73

March 4, 2005

Midway through the first half of Arkansas' opening game at the SEC Tournament, Susie Gardner's team looked headed for a blowout trailing by 17 points with 4:01 left in the first. Trimming the deficit to 11 at half, Arkansas held MSU scoreless almost four minutes to start the second and soon pulled within striking distance. A trio of sophomores led by Sarah Pfeifer were in double-digits to give Arkansas an eight-point lead with just under four minutes to play, a 25-point swing from the same point in the first half.

#21 | ARKANSAS 66, #23 SOUTHWEST MISSOURI STATE 63

December 29, 1993

There are few things better than beating a rival, and even better when it comes unexpectedly. First-year head coach Gary Blair drew up the play for his freshman three-point sharpshooter Kimberly Wilson. With seconds left, Wilson calmly stroked the winning shot, breaking an unprecedented two-year losing streak to SMS. Wilson posted a 4-0 career mark with SMS.

#22 | CALIFORNIA 66, ARKANSAS 62

March 21, 1982

Arkansas' first appearance at a national tournament almost became its first win. The host Golden Bears hold off a pesky Arkansas team in the opening round of the 1982 AIAW Championships. Tied 29-29 at halftime, turnovers and fouls are the undoing of Arkansas. The Razorbacks had 31 turnovers—11 more than Cal—and leading scorer Bettye Fiscus fouls out with 17 points. Kim Bunge also has 17 points, but with four fouls.

30 GREATEST GAMES

#23 | ARKANSAS 73, OLE MISS 72

January 2, 1993

The first major victory in the SEC as the former SWC Champion defeats the defending SEC Champion Lady Rebels. Shea Henderson is the star of the day as the Star City guard drives down the lane in the closing seconds to hit the game winner.

#24 | ARKANSAS 97, OKLAHOMA 93 (OT)

March 14, 1999

Fort Cobb, Oklahoma product Wendi Willits takes over the Border War between UA and OU. The second round Women's NIT match-up is a toe-to-toe physical battle. In the midst of a record-setting season of three-point shooting, Willits scores a career-high 35 points to lead Arkansas into the quarterfinals.

#25 | #6 VANDERBILT 81, ARKANSAS 78

March 9, 2002

Shameka Christon had the greatest game at the University of Arkansas in over a generation, but her 40 points in 37 minutes played was not enough to overcome Vanderbilt at the Gaylord Entertainment Center in Nashville for the SEC Tournament semifinals. At the start of the second half, it looked like there wouldn't be much drama as Vandy extended its 44-26 halftime lead to 22-points, 52-30, with 17 minutes left. Then Christon took over, scoring a school record 28 points for a half. Arkansas cut the lead to one, 79-78, with 22 seconds left. Missed VU free throws gave Arkansas the last shot, but with nine seconds to play Christon was called for a charge that allowed Vandy to shoot free throws for the final score.

#26 | ARKANSAS 52, #20 VANDERBILT 51 (OT)

January 8, 2006

Another Commodore OT heartache, but this one came in one of the most dramatic fashions as sophomore Brittney Vaughn sank the longest buzzer-beating shot in Walton Arena history to send this contest into OT. One of only three known end of the period half-court shots, Vaughn's 47-footer is the only one to close regulation. Vaughn was scoreless for 39:30, but her driving reverse layup trimmed the Vandy lead to three, 46-43, to set the stage for her game-tying heave. The night proved "vaughn-derful" as her sister Rochelle scored a career-high tying 22 points, including a pair of free throws with 13 seconds left in the overtime period to ice the victory for Arkansas.

#27 | ARKANSAS 82, #17 PENN STATE 78

January 9, 1999

In its first appearance on CBS, Arkansas does not disappoint. Karyn Karlin dominated the Lady Lions in the paint, scoring 18 points almost at will as Arkansas built a 15-point lead with eight minutes to play. Penn State rallied, and with two minutes left led by two points. Wendi Willits to the rescue with a 21-footer to put Arkansas back up by one, then a steal on the ensuing PSU possession that led to a pair of free throws. The 5-0 Willits run put Arkansas up by three with 50 seconds to play.

#28 | ARKANSAS 45, #24 KENTUCKY 43

January 23, 1993

Undoubtedly the quirkiest win in Arkansas history. The Wildcats were returning to the top 25 for the first time in years, but the Razorbacks made sure the stay was short. It was an improbable win as Arkansas rode a five-game losing streak and was in jeopardy of losing three straight at home for the first time in school history. Defense was the key as Arkansas not only got the win but did it in record-setting fashion. This was only the second game in Arkansas history in which no one was in double figures and remains the only time Arkansas has won without a double-digit scorer. Shea Henderson led the team with nine points. Barnhill Arena and one of the Women's Athletics Department's W.A.R. (women's attendance record) promotions share credit for the win. At 5,391, it ranked as the fourth largest crowd to watch the Razorbacks in Barnhill Arena.

#29 | ARKANSAS 71, #16 GEORGIA 63

February 8, 2004

Arkansas rode a three-game home losing streak for only the second time in school history into an ESPN game with #16 Georgia, but Susie Gardner continued her coaching mojo against her alma mater as the Razorbacks controlled the close game from start to finish. With only eight players on the bench due to injuries, UA was led by Shameka Christon with 28 points, a double-double from Rochelle Vaughn with 11 points and 12 assists and a near-double of 14 points and 9 rebounds from Kristin Moore.

#30 | ARKANSAS 59, ALABAMA 58

February 2, 2003

India Lewis was known for her 3-point shooting, but in her career at Arkansas she had not hit a game-winner until this afternoon in Tuscaloosa. Arkansas struggled most of the game, no player more than Lewis who entered the final seconds 0-for-7 from the field. Down by two, Lewis took the ball to her right, feinted a drive then stepped back for a fall-away 22-footer as the horn sounded. The win proved a turning point for the conference season, ending a three-game losing streak.

#31 | ARKANSAS 79, OKLAHOMA STATE 70

February 16, 1982

Coach Matilda Willis called it her "Champagne Game" in the pregame press, but Oklahoma State was not so willing to give up Arkansas' first-ever 20-win season easily. It looked easy with a 43-29 lead at half, but the Cowgirls cut the spread to three, 69-66, with 3:17 to play. In turn, Bettye Fiscus, Connie Fitzgerald and Erma Greer stepped up with key buckets to pull away from OSU. For the game, Fiscus had 27, followed by Kim Bunge with 14 and Amanda Holley with 12 points and 10 rebounds.

#32 | ARKANSAS 68, KSU 53

January 2, 1982

This 15-point victory marked the first win for Arkansas over a top 20 ranked team. Bettye Fiscus and Amanda Holley turned in double-double games—Fiscus an amazing 20 points with 18 rebounds and Holley 12 points with 11 rebounds. Cheryl Orcholski shared top scoring honors with 20 points of her own.

SEC TOURNAMENT RECORDS

SEC TOURNAMENT HISTORY

Beginning with its inception on Feb. 7, 1980, and through 1986, the tournament was held at campus sites. The tournament was then sent to Albany, Georgia, which served as the site for six years from 1987–92. The tournament then moved to Chattanooga, Tennessee, where it was held from 1993–00, with the exception of 1998 when the tournament moved to Columbus, Georgia.

Since 2001, the tournament has enjoyed many new sites, including Memphis, Nashville, North Little Rock, Arkansas, Greenville, South Carolina and Duluth, Georgia.

SEC TOURNAMENT FACT

The SEC was the first conference ever to televise every game of its post-season Women's Basketball Tournament.

SEC TOURNAMENT CHANGES

The 2012–13 season marked the second time in SEC history the Women's Basketball Tournament underwent a format change. The tournament, which had been a four-day event featuring 12 teams since 1992, expanded to 14 teams, adding an extra day of competition. The addition of a day to the tournament has featured two additional contests played on Wednesday. Seeds 11 through 14 compete in the opening games of the bracket, with the rest of the event continuing on Thursday.

PREVIOUS SEC WOMEN'S BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT SITES:

Fourteen cities have hosted: Albany, Ga. (1987–1992); Athens, Ga. (1984, 1986); Baton Rouge, La. (1981); Chattanooga, Tenn. (1993–1997, 1999–2000); Columbus, Ga. (1998); Duluth, Ga. 2003 NCAA TOURNAMENT

March 23, 2003 | Fifth Third Arena
Cincinnati, Ohio | First Round

#24 Arkansas 71, Cincinnati 51

Dana Cherry stepped up with one of her most complete games of the season, scoring 18 points to lead the 24th-ranked Arkansas to a 71-51 win over Cincinnati in the first round. The margin of victory is not indicative of the close nature of the game as the Lady'Backs trailed most of the first half as Shameka Christon played only three minutes due to foul trouble and India Lewis faltered from the field. The duo was scoreless in the first half for the first time this year, but one of Cherry's best opening periods kept Arkansas close, 32-28 at halftime. Cherry scored 10 in the first half, over a third of Arkansas early scoring. Arkansas shot 45 in the second half with Christon getting all 13 of her points in the second half along with 10 from Lewis late. Lewis went on an eight-point run to hold Cincinnati at bay before the Bearcats' fouling in the last minute inflated the score. While the focus was on the top three scorers, Arkansas' bench out-scored Cincinnati, 26-3, with freshman Ruby Vaden scoring 10 points on 5-of-5 from the field before fouling out of the game.

2003 NCAA TOURNAMENT

March 25, 2003 | Fifth Third Arena
Cincinnati, Ohio | Second Round

#5 Texas 67, #24 Arkansas 50

Shameka Christon scored 16 points, but the Lady Razorbacks weren't able to overcome the inside strength of Texas. Christon and senior India Lewis came out blazing from behind the arc as the Lady'Backs hit their first five 3-pointers on the way to a 6-of-9 first half. Arkansas led the game midway through the first half, but the slow wearing down by Texas' inside game led by Stacy Stephens gave the Longhorns a 38-29 halftime lead. Arkansas cut the Texas halftime lead to eight, 41-33, off a layup from senior Lakishia Harper, but UT went on a 13-3 run to take control. The Lady'Backs tied their record low for points in a NCAA tournament game.

Arkansas 68, #24 Baylor 59

Lonniya Bragg led four Lady Razorbacks in double digits with 16 points and picked up a career-tying 14 rebounds. The Lady'Backs struggled from the field in the first half, hitting only 28.6 percent and missing their last 11 shots of the half to trail 33-28 at halftime. Then Bragg and fellow seniors Wendi Willits and Celia Anderson took over the game. Bragg outrebounded Baylor's All-Big 12 center Danielle Crockrom, and with Anderson controlled the lane in the second half. Arkansas held Baylor to only 27.8 percent from the field in the second half, including eight straight missed shots by the Lady Bears' leading scorer, Sheila Lambert.

#5/5 Duke 75, Arkansas 54

Amy Wright and Dana Cherry led Arkansas with 11 points each. Wright opened the game with a 3-point flurry and took UA out to a quick lead. Poor shooting after the first three minutes of the game crippled the Arkansas offense. The Lady'Backs finished with only 33 percent from the field compared to 48 percent for Duke. Trailing by seven at half, Arkansas made a final run at Duke with back-to-back jumpers from Bragg and Christon to cut the lead to three, 36-33. A 10-0 run by Duke put the game away.

1998 NCAA TOURNAMENT

March 27, 1998 | Kemper Arena
Kansas City, Mo. | Final Four

#1 Tennessee 86, Arkansas 58

Arkansas hung with Tennessee in the first half and looked to go into the locker room down by eight until a missed assignment left Kelly Jolly wide open for the only 3-pointer the Lady Vols made in the NCAA semifinal game. As a result, UT took a 39-28 spread to intermission, and Arkansas was sent reeling by a Tennessee run to start the second half. Teva Christensen led with 14 points and Kamara Stancle came off the bench with 12.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT

March 16, 1995 | Alaska Airlines Arena
Seattle, Wash. | First Round

#15 Arkansas 67, San Francisco 58

Karen Jones' jumper capped a 15-0 run midway through the second half to advance Arkansas into the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Arkansas trailed 28-27 at halftime after committing 13 first half turnovers. The turnovers continued in the early second half as the LadyBacks stumbled to a 43-35 deficit with 13:02 to play. From that point, Arkansas shut down USF's offense for nearly six minutes. Jones finished with a new career-high 17 points. Stephanie Bloomer led Arkansas with 19 points, followed by Kelly Johnson's 14 (12 in the second half). Kimberly Wilson had 11.

1995 NCAA TOURNAMENT

March 18, 1995 | Alaska Airlines Arena
Seattle, Wash. | Second Round

#14 Washington 54, #15 Arkansas 50

The cardiac kids came up just one shot short of the Sweet 16, losing to Washington on the Huskies' home court. Trailing most of the game, Kimberly Wilson and Christy Smith teamed for back-to-back 3-pointers in the closing seconds to make it a two-point game. This time, however, Washington had the young guard with ice water in her veins as Laure Savasta stepped to the line to hit six-of-six in the last 20 seconds of the game to advance the Huskies. Arkansas trailed by five, 23-18, at halftime in a low scoring defensive battle. In fact, 15 of the game's 104 points came in the last 45 seconds. Smith had 14 points and Stephanie Bloomer and Karen Jones each had 12.

Arkansas 87, Stephen F. Austin 82

Arkansas traveled to the coast, facing a regional opponent in Stephen F. Austin as tournament action continued. Delmonica DeHorney scored 32 to lead four Razorbacks in double figures in the six-point win over the Ladyjacks. DeHorney was 14-for-16 from the floor and had seven rebounds. Amber Nicholas dished out 12 assists for Arkansas.

1990 NCAA TOURNAMENT

48 teams

March 24, 1990 | Maples Pavilion

Palo Alto, Calif. | Regional Final

#2 Stanford 114, Arkansas 87

Delmonica DeHorney's 39 points was not enough to lift the Razorbacks over Stanford in the Regional Final on the Cardinal's home court. DeHorney's point total stands as Arkansas' NCAA Tournament player point record and was just five points shy of the school record for points in a single game. Amber Nicholas set an Arkansas NCAA Tournament single game record with 13 assists. The 114 points allowed is the most points a Razorback team has ever given up in the NCAA Tournament.

NCAA WBIT RECORDS

The NCAA announced the creation of the Women's Basketball Invitation Tournament in July 2023. The 32-team postseason tournament, which is owned and funded by the NCAA, is held annually and began in 2024. Preliminary round games (first, second and quarterfinal rounds) will be played at campus sites. The WBIT semifinals and finals will be played at Hinkle Fieldhouse on the campus of Butler University in Indianapolis. The top 16 seeds, as determined by the selection committee, will host first round games provided they submit a bid and meet the minimum hosting requirements. With the addition of the WBIT, 100 postseason NCAA-funded opportunities are available for Division I women's basketball teams, equal to that of men's basketball through its two events (the 68-team championship and 32-team National Invitation Tournament). ESPN is the official broadcast partner of the WBIT with ESPN+ covering the preliminary-round games and the semifinals being aired on ESPNU and the championship being broadcast on ESPN2. Arkansas was one a part of the inaugural WBIT, playing on the road at Tulsa in 2024.

Bud Walton Arena | Fayetteville, Arkansas

A large crowd of people, many wearing red clothing, cheering with their hands raised in the air. The scene is captured from a low angle, looking up at the audience, creating a sense of being part of the event. The lighting is bright, and the overall atmosphere is one of excitement and celebration.

ONE OF A KIND

These are the only Southwest Conference women's basketball trophies located outside the state of Texas. Arkansas was the first team to defeat the University of Texas in SWC play, capturing a share of the 1990 regular season title. Arkansas took the 1991 title outright, then defeated Texas Tech for the 1991 SWC Classic title to become the first non-Texas team to win the league's postseason tournament. Arkansas departed the SWC the next season, and the fact that the Razorbacks were the team to end the Longhorn dynasty is sometimes overlooked in women's basketball history.

BACK IN THE DAY - SWC SCHEDULING

The Southwest Conference started championships for women during the 1981-82 academic year. As was the custom of many conferences, there was no regular season play in 1982, and only a conference championship tournament. Not all of the SWC members participated in the event hosted by Texas A&M, and it took place midseason rather than at the end of the year.

In 1982-83, the league played single round robin and hosted its first true postseason tournament at Austin. The following year, the regular season format of double-round robin was established. The 16-game schedule remained unchanged for the rest of SWC history, and featured a looping schedule that reversed the order of play during the year. The primary game days followed the men's schedule -- Thursdays and Saturdays -- and several institutions played doubleheaders.

The top teams in the league both in attendance and performance, Arkansas and Texas, did not play doubleheaders.

BEHIND THE NUMBERS

2 numbers are retired at Arkansas, both in the year following the end of the careers of the only players to wear those numbers in school history: #5 (Bettye Fiscus) and #50 (Delmonica DeHorney).

18 student-athletes have worn 23, the most worn number in Razorback history

19 players have worn two (or more) different numbers during their career: Saylor Poffenbarger (14, 0 & 4), Amber Ramirez (23 & 51), Erynn Barnum (4 & 11), Sarah Pfeifer (33 & 40), Melissa Hobbs (22 & 23), Rochelle Vaughn (21 & 25), Cara Wright (14 & 31), Shameka Christon (24 & 20), Celia Anderson (44 & 33), Debbie Roe (15 & 30), Debbie Olivas (14 & 30), Connie Fitzgerald (15 & 24), DeAnn Henry (20 & 23), Tammy Siefkes (22 & 32), Lita Stricklin (25 & 44), Tamara Mathis (33 & 52), Paula Phillips (42 & 52), Quistelle Williams (42 & 24) and Carol Ann Riggs (33 & 35). Pfeifer became the first player ever to switch back, going from 40 to 33 in 2007-08.

ARE YOU MISSING FROM OUR LISTS?

The records for the first three varsity teams at the University of Arkansas are not complete, but we believe we have identified all the modern-era Razorbacks. If you find a mistake in our letterwinner or all-time jersey listings, please contact us to let us know. Also, if you played basketball for Arkansas in the pre-varsity era -- prior to 1976 -- we are looking for your information. Please contact Fuller Birch in communications at fdbirch@uark.edu.

LETTERWINNERS

Sarah Pfeifer

Letters Won and Years Played

One of the most unique careers at Arkansas belonged to one of its most loyal players. Two season-ending injuries and an extension of her eligibility clock resulted in Pfeifer becoming the first player in school history to participate in six seasons and earn five varsity letters. She is also the only player to have played for three different coaches. Pfeifer may also have the title for most surgeries during a career -- five -- including three on her two shoulders. Along with her devotion to the team, she also earned her bachelor's and master's degrees.

ALL-SOUTHEASTERN CONFERENCE HONORS

The All–Southeastern Conference Team is selected by the league coaches and has changed twice in the recent seasons. Since the league's inception, the team was composed of a first and second team of 10 players each. In 2003, only 10 players -- five first, five second -- were selected. In 2004, 16 players -- eight first and eight second -- were chosen, the format which continues today. Five freshmen are chosen to the all–freshman team (with the exception of 1999). In addition, the academic team for the SEC, the SEC Academic Honor Roll, is chosen each season. After 2001, the honor roll is one year out of sequence to allow seniors to earn fourth–year honors. Recent additions to the team structure were made in 2003 with the community service team, as well as 2004 with scholar athlete of the year and defensive player of the year. They year 2006 saw the first freshmen of the week accolades and 2008 added a five–player all–defensive team.

SWC HALL OF FAME

The Texas Sports Hall of Fame (TSHOF), in conjunction with the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame and the Little Rock Touchdown Club, announced the selection of Bettye Fiscus into its 2015 class of inductees for the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame.

As the first female athlete inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor in 1994, Bettye Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged. She was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only Razorback women's basketball player with over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the University's all-time leading scorer. She averaged 18.5 points per game during her career and was a Wade Trophy Award finalist, an award given to the nation's top women's player. Her jersey number - No. 5 - was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas - male or female - and was placed in the trophy case and the rafters of Barnhill Arena. In 2015 during a special ceremony, a banner was raised in her honor in Bud Walton Arena, the current home of Razorback Basketball. She still holds 12 Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws and eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

Administrator Bev Lewis was inducted in 2016 followed by player Amber Nicholas Shirey, the current director of basketball operations, in 2017.

NCAA WOMAN OF THE YEAR

AMBER NICHOLAS
1992 STATE WINNER

BLAIR SAVAGE
1993 STATE WINNER

CHRISTY SMITH
1998 STATE WINNER

Started in 1991 to recognize female athletes, the NCAA Woman of the Year program showcases individuals who have been standouts in athletics, academics and community service.

The Razorback women's basketball team has three university and statewide selections in the NCAA Woman of the Year program.

The University of Arkansas has produced 10 of the first 11 Women of the Year for the state, including the first top 10 national finalist for the state of Arkansas -- track and field All-American Jessica Dailey.

Each NCAA member institution selects its university-wide Woman of the Year. Those nominations are forwarded to the state level where a panel of journalists and NCAA officials vote to select a representative for the state at the national level. These 51 state Women of the Year are honored at the NCAA Woman of the Year banquet where a top 10 and a single National Woman of the Year are chosen.

HALLS OF FAME/HONOR

ARKANSAS SPORTS HALL OF FAME

(Established in January 1959 to honor individuals who have made a special contribution to athletics in Arkansas.)

2006 Bettye Fiscus

A native of Wynne, Bettye Fiscus is listed as the first "great" women's basketball player for the modern-day Lady Razorbacks. Having guided Wynne to the 1981 state championship (scoring 18 points in the final 2:30 minutes of the title game), she also became a legend at the University of Arkansas. The first Lady Razorback to score more than 1,000 points in her career, Fiscus took the U of A to the Sweet 16 as a freshman. She's a member of the Southwest Conference's All-Decade team and had her number 5 jersey retired. Fiscus continues to hold a number of U of A records to this day. She is the program-leading scorer with 2,073 points, was the first player in program history to score 1,000 points and the only one to reach the 2,000-point plateau. Fiscus still holds program career records for points, field goals made (794) and free throws made (485). She is a member of the Arkansas Hall of Honor and named an SEC Great in 2006.

2008 Tracy Webb Rice

Tracy Webb Rice was a standout basketball player at Batesville High and was named "Player of the Year" by the Arkansas Democrat and the Associated Press. Playing on two state championship teams, she was named to the Gazette's Super Team, averaging 22.5 points, 8.6 rebounds and 6 assists her senior season. She scored a career 1,691 points and was named state tournament MVP. Webb was also a member of the state championship tennis doubles tennis team her sophomore and senior years. As a Lady Razorback true point guard, she gained All-SWC status, guiding Arkansas to four consecutive 20-win seasons and the NCAA tournament for the first time. She also guided the Lady'Backs to an NWIT title, grabbing MVP honors. Upon leaving the U of A, she held most of the steal and assist records

2014 Gary Blair, women's basketball coach

Gary Blair is a former head women's basketball coach at the University of Arkansas and recently retired from being the head women's basketball coach at Texas A&M University for 19 seasons. Blair led Arkansas to five NCAA appearances including the 1998 Final Four and four second-round appearances including his last three seasons with the Razorbacks. During his tenure (1993-03), the Razorbacks made eight postseason appearances in 10 years including earning a WNIT championship in 1999. Blair's overall record at Arkansas was 198-120 (.623). He is one of only three NCAA Division I women's basketball coaches to lead two schools to the NCAA Women's Final Four and led Texas A&M to the 2011 national championship. Blair finished his career with a 444-185 (.706) record at Texas A&M and an 852-348 (.710) overall record. He was the head coach at Stephen F. Austin from 1985-93, compiling a 210-43 record at the Texas school. During his final season in 2021-22, he ranked third in career victories among active head coaches and ended his career at No. 12 for the most wins in NCAA women's basketball. Blair has been inducted into 10 Halls of Fame, including most recently the prestigious Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame in 2023, along with the Arkansas Hall of Honor, Texas High School Basketball Hall of Fame in 2002, Stephen F. Austin University Ladyjack Hall of Fame in 2008 and Southland Conference Hall of Honor in 2009.

2015 Christy Smith

Christy Smith graduated from Arkansas with a bachelor's degree in exercise science in 1998 and a master's degree in biomechanics in 2001. She was a four-year starter at point guard from 1995-98. Smith's honors include being a four-time honorable mention All-American, All-SEC First Team in 1998, All-SEC Second team in 1996 and 1997 and SEC Freshman of the Year in 1995. Smith led Arkansas to the 1998 Final Four and was a UA Sports Hall of Honor inductee in 2005. The Razorbacks were 84-41 overall in her four seasons with two NCAA Tournament appearances and a WNIT appearance. She is Arkansas' 10th all-time leading scorer with 1,459 career points, ranks fourth in career assists with 507, third in steals with 239 and third in minutes with 3,960. She played two seasons in the WNBA with the Charlotte Sting after being a first-round draft pick, No. 17 overall, in 1998. Smith is married to Tommy Cook and has three kids: daughter Dayton and sons Tyson and Crew.

UNIVERSITY OF ARKANSAS SPORTS HALL OF HONOR

The University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor was established in 1988 as a means of honoring the all-time great athletes and coaches that have done so much in establishing a tradition of excellence in University of Arkansas athletics. Only former Razorback letterwinners are allowed to vote. Bios from their induction release are posted if they were available.

1994 Bettye Fiscus

The first of the true greats in Lady Razorback history, Bettye Fiscus Dickey set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged. In a career of firsts, Fiscus received perhaps her final and most unique honor in 1994 when she became the first female athlete inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor. Fiscus was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only Lady'Back to score over 2,000 points, and until Razorback all-American and NBA standout Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the University's all-time leading scorer. Also, one in a long line of Arkansas prep legends to play for the Lady Razorbacks, she led her hometown of Wynne, Arkansas to the AAA state title and was named player of the year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette. Her jersey number - No. 5 - was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas - male or female - and hangs in the Lady'Back trophy case, as well as in Barnhill Arena. Even though her career ended in 1985, she still holds 12 Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws, as well as eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785. She is married to former Razorback assistant, James Dickey, who spent 40 years coaching collegiate men's basketball.

1998 Bev Lewis

Bev Lewis spent 19 years (1989-07) as the director of Arkansas Women's Athletics. During her tenure, the University of Arkansas has moved to increase athletic participation for women with the addition of volleyball, golf, gymnastics and softball. All four sports competed in NCAA postseason competition by each inaugural recruiting class' senior season and have established themselves as nationally competitive programs. Lewis received one of her greatest personal honors as Bob and Marilyn Bogle requested that Arkansas' new facility be named the Bev Lewis Center for Women's Athletics. Lewis' leadership was also key to the construction of Bogle Park and Razorback Field, the home to Razorback softball and soccer, respectively. Lewis served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. In 1998, she was voted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor for her contributions as a coach and administrator.

2000 Delmonica DeHorney

Delmonica DeHorney, who played for Arkansas from 1987-91, still remains as one of the best bigs to have ever dressed in a Hog uniform. She was named a Kodak All-American in 1990, two-time Southwest Conference Player of the Year and the league's Newcomer of the Year. To this day, she holds program records for field goal percentage (.609), free throw attempts (648) and blocks (235). DeHorney led Arkansas in scoring in the program's record-setting win over Texas that snapped a 183-game SWC win streak for the Longhorns and led Arkansas to a conference title.

2002 Amber Nicholas Shirey

The 1990 Southwest Conference Tournament MVP, Amber Nicholas Shirey lettered from 1989-92 and was a two-time All-SWC selection. The career leader in assists at Arkansas prior to the 2002 season, no point guard has matched her team's run of back-to-back conference titles and three consecutive NCAA appearances. The only 1,000 point-500 assist Lady'Back, she was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American, was NCAA Woman of the Year for the state of Arkansas and received an NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. Becoming an assistant coach in 1993, she was an assistant for the 1998 NCAA Final Four team. Nicholas Shirey is a constant fixture in the Arkansas women's basketball program, currently serving as the Director of Basketball Operations, going on year 36 as a player or coach for the program this upcoming season, 2023-24.

2004 Tracy Webb Rice

The fourth Lady Razorback basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era. Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the Lady'Backs' first NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament. The leader of a recruiting class that put Arkansas on the map, the Batesville, Arkansas native stole more than the basketball during her four-year career. Aside from 293 basketballs, Webb stole the show and the hearts of Lady'Back fans as one of the most popular on-the-court personalities of the mid-1980s. The first true point guard star, Webb finished her career holding almost all the Lady Razorback assist and steal records. She was the first Lady'Back player to earn All-Southwest Conference First Team honors, as well as one of the first three Lady'Backs named conference player of the week. Her junior season team was the first in school history to earn an NCAA berth, losing by a point at Missouri in the opening round, 66-65. Her senior season was exciting, as the Lady'Backs missed beating #1-ranked UT by a bucket in Fayetteville (59-56) and at the SWC Tournament (72-70). Fueled to prove they belonged in the NCAA Tournament after narrowly missing the dance, Webb's team crushed the NWIT field by a 16-point average and was named the tournament MVP.

2005 Christy Smith

The fifth Razorback basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Christy Smith Flowers lives forever in the memories of women's basketball fans for her heroic leadership of the 1998 NCAA Final Four team. A point guard's point guard, Smith exemplified the toughness and leadership expected on the court from her first days at Arkansas. Playing every minute of every SEC game as a freshman - an astounding 445 consecutive minutes played - Smith was voted the SEC Freshman of the Year and paced Arkansas into the NCAA Tournament for the first time since the SWC glory days. While her personal achievements caught the attention of the nation, it was her ability to rally - both personally and through the team - that endears her to Arkansas fans to this day. She became the first Lady'Back to lead the nation in a NCAA statistical category by shooting 89.9 percent at the free throw line as a freshman. Smith would not be denied and led Arkansas on a 6-1 finish to give the Lady'Backs their best SEC finish in school history, 7-4, tied for fourth overall. As a sophomore, Smith had the best single free throw shooting game in Division I for the 1995–96 season, a 15-of-15 effort to defeat Ohio State in the Preseason WNIT. Arkansas roared to a program–best start of 13–1, but the team faltered when Smith tore her ACL at Kentucky midway through conference play. Without Smith, the team accepted a WNIT berth. Upon her return, Arkansas opened 12–1 including Smith leading the LadyBacks' first-ever win over Tennessee, but a tough close made Arkansas the bubble team left out of the NCAA Tournament. In her final season, Smith rallied Arkansas again into a NCAA bid, but with a ninth seed and the unenviable assignment to the Stanford–hosted subregional, it appeared Smith would end her career short of her dream. But two flawless games from the West Lafayette, Indiana guard – zero turnovers – put Arkansas into the West Regional at Oakland. Defeating Kansas in the Sweet 16, but struggling from behind against eight-ranked Duke, Smith fulfilled her destiny appropriately at the free throw line. In the waning seconds, Duke fouled Smith twice and she calmly sank all four free throws to send Arkansas to the Final Four in Kansas City. It remains to this day the only time an unranked team reached the Final Four. Smith closed her career second all-time in assists and fifth in scoring. Only 31 assists shy of her coach, Amber Nicholas', record, she certainly would have closed No. 1 in assists without her knee injury. She is married to former Razorback defensive back Jeremy Flowers. The Flowers have three children and live in Austin, where she is the director of operations for the Texas women's basketball team.

2014 Shameka Christon

The first Arkansas women's basketball player to earn Associated Press All-America honors. Hot Springs, Arkansas native Shameka Christon became Arkansas' first, first-round professional draft selection after earning 2004 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors. Leading the league in scoring with 21.8 points per game her senior year, Christon played in three NCAA tournaments at Arkansas and closed her career as the second all-time leading scorer with 1,951 points. She led Arkansas to semifinal finishes at the 2001 and 2002 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, still the all-time best performance for the Razorbacks. As a six-year veteran with the WNBA New York Liberty, she was on the 2004 Rookie Team and a WNBA All-Star in 2009. Christon was traded to the Chicago Sky for the 2011 season, but injuries kept her out of the lineup. Christon ended her WNBA career with the Phoenix Mercury in 2015.

2017 Amy Wright

The all-time record holder for assists in a career (717) and second for a single season (205), Wright finished her career as the first starting point guard to take her team to four consecutive postseason appearances (1999–2000, WNIT; 2001–02, NCAA). As a freshman, Wright guided Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT Championship. Her teams won 77 games, including three 20-win seasons, for one of the most successful four-year periods for Arkansas. Her senior season team set the Arkansas record for the least turnovers in a season. After her playing career, she has become a successful Division I women's basketball assistant coach. An SEC Academic Honor Roll selection and member of the Arkansas Academic Honor Roll as a sophomore (1999–00), Wright never missed a game, playing in a school-record 131 consecutive contests. She was named to the Women's Basketball News Service Preseason All-America Team in 2001–02. Following her collegiate career, Wright participated in the WNBA Pre-Draft Camp and was drafted by the Detroit Shock in 2002. A native of Williamsburg, Indiana, Wright earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Arkansas in 2002. She completed her master's degree in sports and administration from Ohio University in December 2012. Following her playing career, Wright went into coaching and after 10 seasons on her former coach Gary Blair's staff at Texas A&M. She is now in her first season as the head coach at Long Beach State.

2018 Sytia Messer

Named the most outstanding player of the 1998 NCAA West Regional, former Razorback women's basketball player Sytia Messer was an integral part of two of Arkansas' greatest women's basketball teams, the 1998 Final Four and 1999 WNIT Championship squads. Messer is a 1,000–point scorer (1,379) and, at 5–8, she pulled down 603 rebounds as one of the best rebounding guards in school history. She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996. Messer averaged 12.6 points per game in 1997–98, her best season, leading Arkansas to the program's first Final Four appearance. She was named to the Joe Smith Preseason All-American team in 1998–99 and then led her team as they ran the table to the WNIT title against Wisconsin. Along with her play for the Razorbacks, Messer also took time to play in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletes in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletes in Action touring team. Following college, Messer began her coaching career with stops at Arkansas State, Memphis, Georgia Tech, Tennessee Tech and Baylor. Messer is now in her second season as the head coach at UCF going into the 2023–24 campaign.

2022 Gary Blair

The head women's basketball coach at Arkansas for 10 seasons (1993–03), Gary Blair led the Razorbacks to five NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the 1998 NCAA Women's Final Four. That finish is the best in program history and Arkansas remains the lowest seed (No. 9) to ever make a Women's Final Four. In addition, Blair led the Hogs to three WNIT appearances, including the 1999 WNIT Championship. Overall, Blair coached Arkansas to a record of 198–120 (.623). Five Razorbacks who played or coached during Blair's era at Arkansas are members of the UA Sports Hall of Honor (Shameka Christon, Sytia Messer, Amber Shirey, Christy Smith and Kimberly Wilson). Following the 2021–22 season, Blair retired after 42 years of coaching. In 37 years as a collegiate head coach with stops at Stephen F. Austin, Arkansas and Texas A&M, Blair had 35 winning seasons, 30 20-win seasons, 41 postseason victories, 26 NCAA Tournaments, 18 conference titles, 13 Sweet Sixteens, four Elite Eights, two Final Fours and one National Championship (Texas A&M). His career record as a collegiate head coach was 852–348.

2022 Kimberly Wilson Jenkins

A bucket-getter while at Arkansas, Kimberly Wilson Jenkins was the leading scorer for three seasons for Gary Blair's Hogs, averaging 14.4 points over her career. The Hampton, Arkansas native still ranks sixth on Arkansas' all-time scoring list, as she poured in 1,733 points over her 120 games played in Fayetteville. For her efforts, Wilson was named an All-SEC performer in 1995, 1996 and 1997. Wilson also was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1994. She was one of the most well-rounded players in Arkansas women's basketball history and is one of three players in the history of the program to score at least 1,000 points, dish at least 300 assists and collect 400 rebounds. Wilson was remarkably efficient over her four-year career, averaging over 13 points per game every season she played on the Hill. A member of the SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor roll in 1997, Wilson was invited to the inaugural WNBA pre-draft combine and was selected to compete on the Athletes in Action team in 1995. In 2007, she was honored as an SEC Great at the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament.

2025 C'iera Ricketts

Ricketts was an All–Southeastern Conference guard for the Razorbacks from 2008–12. The Louisville, Ky. native's name is sprinkled throughout the Arkansas record books, including being eighth in total career points. Ricketts was as versatile a player as the Hogs have ever had, as she still ranks first in career steals, piling up 321 career takeaways, 12th in career rebounds, pulling down 644 boards, and fourth in career assists, dishing 516 helpers. Ricketts earned SEC Co-Freshman of the Year, Second-Team All-SEC and AP SEC Freshman of the Year honors in 2009. She added a Second-Team All-SEC selection as a junior in 2011 and wrapped up her career with First-Team honors in 2012. After graduation, Ricketts played professional basketball. She was drafted 24th overall by the Phoenix Mercury and played for the Flying Foxes of Vienna, Austria, earning league MVP and player of the year honors in 2013.

SOUTHWEST CONFERENCE HALL OF FAME

1994 Bettie Fiscus

Bettie Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged. She was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only Razorback women's basketball player over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the University's all-time leading scorer. She averaged 18.5 points per game during her career. She was a Wade Trophy Award finalist, an award given to the nation's top women's player. Her jersey number – No. 5 – was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas – male or female – and was placed in the trophy case and the rafters of Barnhill Arena. In 2015 during a special ceremony, a banner was raised in her honor in Bud Walton Arena, the current home of Razorback Basketball. She still holds 12 Arkansas overall individual records including total points, career scoring average, field goals and free throws and eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

2016 Bev Lewis (Women's Track and Field, Administrator)

Prior to Bev Lewis assuming the duties of director of women's athletics in 1989, her Razorback women's cross country and track teams had six top 20 national finishes, and she coached Team USA at the 1990 World Junior Cross Country Championships. Her coaching was instrumental in establishing Arkansas' perfect record of sending a team or individual to every collegiate national meet since the program's inception. Lewis also coached Arkansas' first women's conference championship team at the 1988 Southwest Conference Cross Country Championships. As a result, her peers voted her SWC Coach of the Year for the second year in a row. She also was named SWC Outdoor Track Coach of the Year in 1989. Lewis spent 19 years (1989–07) as the director of Women's Athletics. She served collegiate athletics at the highest level as an administrator, as a member of the NCAA Management Council, the NCAA Championship Cabinet and the Southeastern Conference Executive Committee. From 2008–14, Lewis served as Associate Vice Chancellor and Executive Associate Athletic Director in the combined men's and women's athletic program. In 1998, she was voted into the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor for her contributions as a coach and administrator. In recognition of her outstanding achievements, Lewis was named to Arkansas Business magazine's "Top 100 Women in Arkansas" in 1996, 1997 and 1998. The publication also named her to their 2010 "Women of Influence" in Arkansas.

2017 Amber Nicholas Shirey

Selected in 2017, Amber Nicholas began her career at Arkansas as a player for the Razorbacks (1989–92) becoming the first women's student-athlete selected to receive a NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship. She closed her career as one of two players in school history to rank on four career total lists (points, 6th; rebounds, 10th; steals, 2nd; assists, 1st). Twice named All-Southwest Conference, she was the MVP of the 1991 SWC tournament, leading Arkansas to the first non-Texas title. Shirey equaled her court performance in the classroom. A kinesiology major, she had over a 3.9 GPA, and twice was voted to the College Sports Information Directors of America's Academic All-America Team. She was a three-time conference academic team member as well. Shirey graduated and went on to a student coaching role for one season before being named assistant coach, a position she held for 14 seasons with two different head coaches. In 2007 Shirey redefined herself in a new role as executive director of operations, a position she held until returning to the sidelines as the Razorback assistant from 2012–14. Shirey went back to the director of operations title in 2014 and holds that title to this day for Mike Neighbors' staff.

2018 Tracy Webb

Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era. Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the LadyBacks' first NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament. The leader of a recruiting class that put Arkansas on the map, the Batesville, Arkansas native stole more than the basketball during her four-year career. Aside from 293 basketballs, Webb stole the show and the hearts of LadyBack fans as one of the most popular on-the-court personalities of the mid-1980s. The first true point guard star, Webb finished her career holding almost all the Lady Razorback assist and steal records. She was the first LadyBack player to earn First Team All-Southwest Conference honors, a distinction that began her senior season. She was also one of the first three LadyBacks named conference player of the week. Her junior season team was the first in school history to earn an NCAA berth, losing by a point at Missouri in the opening round, 66–65. Her senior season was exciting as the LadyBacks missed beating #1-ranked UT by a bucket in Fayetteville (59–56) and at the SWC Tournament (72–70), then was overlooked for a return trip to the NCAA. Fueled to prove they belonged in the NCAA, Webb's team crushed the WNIT field by a 16–point average as she was named the tournament MVP.

HALL OF HONOR

GARY BLAIR

Gary Blair was the head Hog of the Arkansas women's basketball team for 10 seasons (1993–03), while leading the Razorbacks to five NCAA Tournaments, including a run to the 1998 NCAA Women's Final Four. The finish is the best in program history and Arkansas remains the lowest seed at No. 9 to ever make a Women's Final Four. In addition, Blair led the Hogs to three WNIT appearances, including the 1999 WNIT Championship. Overall, Blair coached Arkansas to a record of 198–120 (.623). Five Razorbacks who played or coached during Blair's era at Arkansas are members of the UA Sports Hall of Honor (Shameka Christon, Sytia Messer, Amber Shirey, Christy Smith and Kimberly Wilson Jenkins).

COACHING AWARDS

GARY BLAIR TODAY

Blair wrapped up his final year coaching collegiate basketball at Texas A&M after a 37-year career coaching college basketball, 48 overall, following the 2021–22 season. Blair has two children, Paige and Matt, and four grandchildren, Logan, Lola, Landry and Reagan. Logan is a student manager for the Arkansas women's basketball team. Paige owns a children's boutique in Fayetteville and is married to Beau Thompson, head boys basketball coach at Farmington High School. Matt is married to the former Alli Nielsen and works in logistics in Fayetteville. In 2020, Blair married his wife, the former Kyla Gay.

HALL OF HONOR

SHAMEKA CHRISTON

The first Arkansas women's basketball player to earn Associated Press All-America honors, Hot Springs, Arkansas, native Shameka Christon became Arkansas' first, first-round professional draft selection after earning 2004 Southeastern Conference Player of the Year honors. Leading the league in scoring with 21.8 points per game her senior year, Christon played in three NCAA tournaments at Arkansas and closed her career as the second all-time leading scorer with 1,951 points. She led Arkansas to semifinal finishes at the 2001 and 2002 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament, still the all-time best performance for the Razorbacks. As a six-year veteran with the WNBA New York Liberty, she was on the 2004 Rookie Team and a WNBA All-Star

RECORDS

One of the most decorated players in program history, Christon worked with the Razorbacks as the team's color analyst on the radio for one season as well.

In addition, Christon was the yearly leader in points, scoring average, field goals made and attempted in 2002, 2003 and 2004. She led the team in field goal percentage (2002), 3-pointers made and attempted (2004), and percentage (2003, 2004). Defensively she led the team in rebounds and rebounding average in 2002, 2003 and 2004, as well as blocks (2001, 2002, 2003 and 2004) during her career.

in 2009. Christon was traded to the Chicago Sky for the 2011 season, but injuries kept her out of the lineup. Christon was traded to the San Antonio Stars and retired from the WNBA with the Phoenix Mercury in 2015.

During her WNBA career:

- Named to the WNBA All-Star team in 2009 in a year that saw her average a career-high 16.1 points and 4.9 rebounds
- Finished 10th in the WNBA in scoring in 2009
- Averaged 9.9 points, 2.8 rebounds and 1.3 assists in her professional career
- Career 34.3 percent (431-of-1255) shooter from the three-point line
- Played in all 34 games three times in her career (2005, 2006 and 2012)
- Appeared in 98 of a possible 102 games over a three-year period
- Scored a career-high 32 points vs. Atlanta on July 19, 2009
- Handed out a career-best eight assists at Atlanta on June 4, 2010
- Led New York in scoring four consecutive seasons (2006 - 2009)
- Named Eastern Conference Player of the week on July 7, 2008, after averaging 24 points and three rebounds per game during the week prior
- Finished the 2006 season ranked seventh in the WNBA in blocked shots (42) and ninth in three-point field goals (99)
- Owns career playoff averages of 10.1 points and 3.7 rebounds in 18 career games, 12 career starts
- Missed the entire 2011 season after suffering a right knee injury during training camp
- Played in 10 games in 2010 before suffering an eye injury that sidelined her for the remainder of the season
- Signed with San Antonio as a free agent on February 8, 2012
- Acquired by Chicago in a three-team trade along with Catherine Kraayeveld on March 29, 2010 - New York received Cappie Pondexter and Kelly Mazzante from Phoenix while Phoenix received Candice Dupree and a second-round draft pick from Chicago
- Originally selected by New York in the first round (fifth overall) of the 2004 WNBA Draft

HALL OF HONOR

DELMONICA DEHORNEY-HAWKINS

Delmonica DeHorney Hawkins became the second Razorback basketball player and the fourth overall inductee to the Arkansas Hall of Honor in September 2000. The first Kodak All-American at the University of Arkansas, DeHorney set the standard for the Arkansas women's basketball program. The only player in Southwest Conference history to receive three player of the year honors during her career, DeHorney led Arkansas to its peak of domination of the SWC and onto the national stage as a top 10 team.

DeHorney exhibited her promise her first season at Arkansas, earning SWC Newcomer of the Year honors. Her sophomore season was limited due to injuries, but the 6-4 Poteau, Oklahoma product came back stronger than ever as a junior.

It was during the 1989-90 season that DeHorney and Arkansas became household words in the sports world. Leading Arkansas and the SWC in scoring and field goal percentage, DeHorney paced the Razorbacks to the first win over Texas by a conference opponent. The win at Texas broke a 183-game streak and the UT strangle-hold on the conference title. As the SWC Co-Champions, Arkansas was selected for the NCAA tournament. DeHorney stepped up her game, earning All-NCAA West Regional team honors for her back-to-back 30-point games at the Stanford-hosted tournament. Arkansas reached the Elite Eight with DeHorney leading the way.

For her efforts, DeHorney was voted the SWC Player of the Year in 1990, as well as one of the 10 players selected by the WBCA for the Kodak All-America team.

As a senior, DeHorney proved herself again. Repeating as SWC Player of the Year, she led Arkansas to an undisputed SWC crown with a pair of wins over Texas and a 15-1 conference mark. Arkansas added the 1991 SWC Classic trophy to its collection to become the first team besides UT to win the postseason conference tournament. Ranked as high as 8th in the nation, Arkansas received a first-round bye in the 1991 NCAA Tournament but was upset in the Sweet 16 by Lamar.

RECORDS

The post against all others are measured in Arkansas Razorback women's basketball history, Delmonica DeHorney was one of the most accurate scorers in school history and the key to Arkansas leading the nation in field goal percentage during the 1990-91 season.

ONE OF A KIND

In the storied history of the Southwest Conference, only one woman was voted by the league coaches to a player of the year honor three times in a career. Delmonica DeHorney was the SWC Newcomer of the Year as a freshman in 1988. An injury limited her playing time as a sophomore, but she returned full force as a junior and a senior to lead the league in scoring and earn the 1990 and 1991 SWC Player of the Year award. The first player twice voted first team all-conference, DeHorney was chosen SWC Player of the Week three times and all-tournament once. Her career was remembered years later as she was the only women's basketball player voted to the five-player SWC All-Decade First Team.

Additionally, one of Delmonica's three blocks was key to Arkansas' snapping the Texas 183-game win streak in SWC games in 1990.

DELMONICA HAWKINS TODAY

Married to Jackson Hawkins and the mother of two, Delmonica lives in Baltimore, Maryland, and works as a juvenile probation officer. Immediately after her playing career at Arkansas, she spent a season in Japan in professional basketball, then a brief time in France. She returned to Fayetteville for the retirement of her jersey, only the second in school history, before settling with her family in Baltimore.

DeHorney-Hawkins joined the Razorback women at the 2011 SEC Championship where she was honored as an SEC Great.

HALL OF HONOR

BETTYE FISCUS

The first of the true greats in Razorback history, Bettye Fiscus set the definition by which all other Arkansas women's basketball players are judged.

In a career of firsts, Fiscus received perhaps her final and most unique honor in 1994 when she became the first female athlete inducted into the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor.

Fiscus was the first player to score over 1,000 points in a career and broke the school record in only two seasons. She went on to become the only women's basketball player to finish with over 2,000 points, and until Razorback All-American and NBA standout Todd Day in the early 1990s, Fiscus was the university's all-time leading scorer.

Also one in a long line of Arkansas prep legends to play for the Razorbacks, she led her hometown of Wynne, Arkansas to the AAA state title and was named player of the year by the Arkansas Democrat-Gazette.

Her jersey number -- No. 5 -- was the first to be retired by the University of Arkansas -- male or female -- and hangs in the Razorback trophy case, as well as in Barnhill Arena.

Even though her career ended in 1985, she still holds two Arkansas overall individual records including career points and field goals made along with eight class records. When she completed her career, she not only was the all-time leading scorer, but the leader in rebounds as well with 785.

Adding to her career honors, she was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2006 and the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in 2015.

RECORDS

Two decades later, Bettye Fiscus remains Arkansas' all-time scoring leader with 2,073 points, but the original star of the program still holds two individual records and eight class records.

She also holds two records for SWC games only, career scoring average and season field goals.

IT'S NOT ALL ABOUT SCORING

While her career rebound mark of 785 did not last more than three years, Fiscus remains No. 2 on the career rebound list and the top guard-wing rebounder. Notable Razorbacks below Fiscus in boards: Kodak All-American Delmonica DeHorney and SEC Player of the Year Shameka Christon.

Fiscus was Arkansas' first all-conference player, earning first-team all-SWC in 1982. She was a three-time all-SWC selection in her career, two-time all-SWC tournament and was selected to the SWC All-Decade Team.

BETTYE FISCUS TODAY

Fiscus remains a part of the great history of the Razorback program. She was the first player in university history to have her jersey retired in 1986.

To celebrate the end of the Barnhill Arena era and the opening of Bud Walton Arena, the Women's Athletics Department issued commemorative tickets for the first women's game in the new facility. Each ticket had the image of one of the four career leaders, and a special banquet was held to celebrate "A Moment in Time." Fiscus was joined at the banquet by Amber Nicholas Shirey (UA's then assist leader) and Shelly Wallace, the only woman to break Fiscus' mark for rebounds.

As a part of the 30th anniversary season of Razorback basketball, the University chose Fiscus as its Southeastern Conference Great to be honored at the 2006 SEC Women's Basketball Tournament in North Little Rock.

HALL OF HONOR

SYTIA MESSER

Named the most outstanding player of the 1998 NCAA West Regional, former Razorback women's basketball player Sytia Messer was an integral part of two of Arkansas' greatest women's basketball teams, the 1998 Final Four and 1999 WNIT Championship squads.

Messer is a 1,000-point scorer (1,379) and, at 5-8, she pulled down 603 rebounds as one of the best rebounding guards in school history. She was a two-time captain for Arkansas as a junior and senior and was named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1996.

Messer averaged 12.6 points per game in 1997-98, her best season, leading Arkansas to the program's first Final Four appearance. She was named to the Joe Smith Pre-Season All-American team in 1998-99, and then led her team as they ran the table to the WNIT title against Wisconsin.

Along with her play for the Razorbacks, Messer also took time to play in the summer prior to graduation for the collegiate squad of Athletes in Action. She also played for the post-collegian Athletes in Action touring team.

SYTIA MESSER TODAY

Messer was hired as the head women's basketball coach at UCF on April 3, 2022. She brings 22 years of coaching experience to the Knights after previously having served on Kim Mulkey's staffs at LSU (Associate Head Coach, 2021-22) and Baylor (Assistant Coach, 2013-21), as well as had stops at Arkansas State, Memphis, Georgia Tech and Tennessee Tech.

RECORDS

Sytia Messer was a part of two record-setting seasons for Razorback women's basketball. She was a two-time captain while helping Arkansas to the program's first Final Four in 1998 and again when the Razorbacks won the Postseason WNIT title in 1999.

HALL OF HONOR

AMBER NICHOLAS SHIREY

While others may have better statistics, arguably no other Razorback has had the impact upon the Arkansas women's basketball program as Amber Nicholas Shirey. An All-SWC and Academic All-America player in the late 1980s and early 1990s, she is the first former women's player to become a full-time coaching staff member at Arkansas. As a result, she played a critical hand in recruiting and coaching the athletes who replaced her in the record books.

It seems fitting that the player to hold the Arkansas record for assists would have the best winning percentage in her career (over 75 percent) of any Razorback. In the process, her teams won 86 games, two SWC titles and made three NCAA appearances. Thanks in part to her 538 assists, her post players led the SWC in scoring twice.

She ended her career second in steals and one of only two players to rank in the top 10 in points, rebounds, steals and assists. Nicholas can rightly lay claim to a stake in the 86 games won during her four years as she played in all 117 games and started a school-record 87 consecutive games. The 1991 SWC Tournament MVP, Nicholas also was a two-time CoSIDA Academic All-American and NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipient.

Her legacy to the program continued as an assistant coach, working with guards like former SEC three-point accuracy champion Kimberly Wilson, former four-time AP All-American Christy Smith and three-point record holder Wendi Willits. She had the privilege to coach the woman who finished off her assist record, Amy Wright.

Shirey was inducted into the Southwest Conference Hall of Fame in the fall of 2017.

"MISS LADY'BACK"

During the program's 25th anniversary celebration, that's the headline on the newspaper article about Nicholas Shirey. The label fits as no person has been involved in more games than any other individual in Arkansas history, 117 as a player, 27 as a graduate assistant coach and 436 as an assistant coach. That's a total of 580 games over a span of 19 years (when the article was written).

A SCHOLAR AND AN ATHLETE

Recipient of several academic awards, Nicholas Shirey was the first Razorback to earn an NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship. She also was the NCAA Woman of the Year from the state of Arkansas in 1992.

AMBER NICHOLAS SHIREY TODAY

Nicholas Shirey currently serves as the director of basketball operations for the Razorbacks' women's basketball team. Honored by the university with selection to the University of Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor in 2002 as the third Razorback women's basketball player inducted, Shirey was also honored by the athletic department as the Legend Player at the 2003 Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament hosted in North Little Rock at ALLTEL Arena. She married Farmington High teacher Jason Shirey in 1999, and the Shireys have three children, a son, Ross, and daughters, Reese and Rheid.

RECORDS

Of all the records that Amber Nicholas set during her career, which included virtually every assist and free throw mark, the two that speak to the essence of her game remain to this day. She is the only starting point guard to take her team to play in three consecutive NCAA tournaments and the only Arkansas player named MVP of the SWC Classic.

HALL OF HONOR

CHRISTY SMITH

The fifth Razorback women's basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Christy Smith lives forever in the memories of women's basketball fans for her heroic leadership of the 1998 NCAA Final Four team.

Smith became the first Razorback to lead the nation in a NCAA statistical category by shooting 89.9 percent at the free throw line as a freshman. Yet, one of her 15 missed free throws that season cost Arkansas a chance to advance to overtime versus Ole Miss. That loss put Arkansas at 1-3 for SEC games, but Smith would not be denied and led Arkansas on a 6-1 finish to give the Razorbacks their best SEC finish in school history, 7-4, tied for fourth overall.

As a sophomore, Smith had the best single free throw shooting game in Division I for the 1995-96 season, a 15-of-15 effort to defeat Ohio State in the preseason WNIT. Arkansas roared to a program-best start of 13-1, but the team faltered when Smith tore her ACL at Kentucky midway through conference play. Without Smith, the team accepted a WNIT berth.

Upon her return, Arkansas opened 12-1 including Smith leading the Razorbacks' first-ever win over Tennessee, but a tough close made Arkansas the bubble team left out of the NCAA Tournament.

In her final season, Smith rallied Arkansas again into a NCAA bid, but with a ninth seed and the unenviable assignment to the Stanford-hosted subregional it appeared Smith would end her career short of her dream. But two flawless games from the West Lafayette, Indiana guard -- zero turnovers -- put Arkansas into the West Regional at Oakland. Defeating Kansas in the Sweet 16, and struggling from behind against eight-ranked Duke, Smith fulfilled her destiny appropriately at the free throw line. In the waning seconds, Duke fouled Smith twice and she calmly sank all four to send Arkansas to the Final Four in Kansas City. It remains to this day the only time an unranked team reached the Final Four.

Smith closed her career second all-time in assists and fifth in scoring. Only 31 assists shy of her coach Amber Nicholas' record at the time, she certainly would have closed in on No. 1 in assists without her knee injury.

Along with her All-SEC honors, Smith was a member of the inaugural AP Women's All-America Team in 1995. Smith was a four-time honorable mention AP All-American, a feat made more notable by her season ending knee injury in 1996.

CHRISTY SMITH TODAY

Following her trip to the NCAA Final Four, Smith was a WNBA second-round draft pick of the Charlotte Sting, and as the starting point guard for the franchise, Smith led the Sting to the WNBA Playoffs. Injuries limited her playing time the following season and eventually ended her professional career.

Smith was the fifth Razorback women's basketball player selected by the A-Club membership for inclusion in the Arkansas Hall of Honor. She was inducted in 2005.

Smith and former Razorback defensive back Jeromy Flowers have three children. She served as the head coach at Incarnate Word in San Antonio from 2016-19. Now, Smith is the Director of Operations at the University of Texas, a position she has held since the start of the 2022-23 season.

RECORDS

Smith was one of the most accurate free throw shooters in the nation during her career. In fact, she led Division I in 1994-95 for the season and had the single best game in all of Division I in 1995-96.

HALL OF HONOR

TRACY WEBB RICE

The fourth Razorback women's basketball player inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Honor, Tracy Webb Rice was the fiery leader of the basketball team during its climb to power in the Southwest Conference era.

Webb's scrappy play resulted in four consecutive 20-win seasons, the Razorbacks' first women's basketball NCAA tournament appearance and first major title with the 1987 National Women's Invitational Tournament.

The leader of a recruiting class that put Arkansas on the map, the Batesville, Arkansas native stole more than the basketball during her four-year career.

Aside from 293 basketballs, Webb stole the show and the hearts of Arkansas fans as one of the most popular on-the-court personalities of the mid-1980s. The first true point guard star, Webb finished her career holding almost all the Razorback assist and steal records. She was the first Razorback player to earn All-Southwest Conference First Team honors, a distinction that began her senior season.

She was also one of the first three Razorbacks named conference player of the week. Her junior-season team was the first in school history to earn an NCAA berth, losing by a point at Missouri in the opening round, 66-65. Her senior season was exciting as the Razorbacks missed beating No. 1-ranked UT by a bucket in Fayetteville (59-56) and at the SWC Tournament (72-70), then was overlooked for a return trip to the NCAA. Fueled to prove they belonged in the NCAA, Webb's team crushed the WNIT field by a 16-point average as she was named the tournament MVP.

MAKING HER POINT

RECORDS

One of the first true point guards in Arkansas history, Tracy Webb set the standard by which future "1" players were measured. When she finished her career in 1987, she held almost every guard-oriented career mark, including assists, steals and free throw percentage. She still holds these Arkansas marks.

She also holds the record for career assists and career steals in SWC games, plus the career and season records for best free throw percentage in SWC games.

Back in the 1980s, the NCAA tournament was limited to only 32 bids, and as a result many great basketball players never reached the Big Dance. Such was the case for the 1986-87 Razorbacks and their leader, Tracy Webb. Snubbed by the NCAA committee, Webb and company headed west to Amarillo, Texas, and the National Women's Invitational Tournament on a mission. Not only did Arkansas want to win, the team crushed the opposition by a record-setting margin that stood until the end of the WNIT's existence. That same year, Webb had a profound impact on Arkansas' future as she impressed upon a young recruit, Amber Nicholas, her duty to stay home and take over for her at point guard.

TRACY WEBB RICE TODAY

After finishing her playing career at Arkansas, Webb Rice was a graduate assistant coach for the Razorbacks in 1987-88.

She worked for several years as a flight attendant for a major carrier. Married to Paul Rice and the mother of three, Webb lives in Hot Springs, Arkansas.

Tracy was the University of Arkansas' honored former player at the 2005 Southeastern Conference Women's Basketball Tournament in Greenville, South Carolina.

She was inducted into the Arkansas Sports Hall of Fame in 2008.

HALL OF HONOR

KIMBERLY WILSON JENKINS

Kimberly Wilson, a true Arkansas native, etched her name into the history of Razorback Women's basketball with her remarkable scoring prowess and all-around game. Wilson was one of the most well-rounded players in Arkansas Women's Basketball history and stands among a select trio of players in the program's storied history to score at least 1,000 points, dish at least 300 assists and collect 400 rebounds. She became a beloved figure in the program, competing as a shooting guard and a three-year team captain from 1993–1997 at the University of Arkansas. Known as a relentless "bucket-getter," she led the Razorbacks in scoring for three consecutive seasons under the guidance of Coach Gary Blair, boasting an impressive career average of 14.4 points per game.

To this day, Wilson remains a revered figure, holding the sixth spot on Arkansas' all-time scoring list, with an astonishing 1,733 points accumulated across 120 games played in Fayetteville. Her contributions on the court were rightfully recognized with multiple All-SEC performer honors in 1995, 1996, and 1997, alongside being named to the SEC All-Freshman team in 1994.

RECORDS

Wilson is one of three in Arkansas women's basketball history to have tallied 1,000 points, 400 rebounds and 300 assists in their career.

What truly sets Kimberly Wilson apart is her well-rounded skill set, a cornerstone of Arkansas Women's Basketball history. Wilson's hallmark was her efficiency, as she consistently averaged over 13 points per game in each season spent on the Hill. Even beyond her athletic achievements, she excelled academically, earning a place on the SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll in 1997. Her talent and dedication extended further than just college, as she received an invitation to the inaugural WNBA pre-draft combine and represented her university with pride as part of the Athletes in Action team in 1995. In a fitting tribute to her enduring impact, Kimberly Wilson was honored as an SEC Great during the SEC Women's Basketball Tournament in 1997, forever cementing her legacy in the hearts of Razorback fans and the hall of fame.

"As an Arkansas native, it was a dream come true to play for the University of Arkansas Lady Razorbacks. I had great coaches, teammates, support staff and fans that influenced my experience and made it unforgettable. Being a Division 1 and SEC student-athlete was very difficult with all of the expectations, travel and extra time commitment, but we were held to high standards and made to be accountable on and off the court, which taught me great life lessons."

KIMBERLY WILSON TODAY

Coach Kimberly Wilson Jenkins now lives in Springdale with her husband of 26 years, Quincy Jenkins. She is in her sixth year as a Springdale Public Schools and Har-Ber High School staff member. The couple have two sons who are Har-Ber High School graduates. Lawson Jenkins is currently playing basketball at Missouri Southern State University, and Connor Jenkins, attends the University of Arkansas.

HALL OF HONOR

AMY WRIGHT

The all-time record holder for assists in a career (717) and second for a single season (205), Wright finished her career as the first starting point guard to take her team to four consecutive postseason appearances (1999–2000, WNIT; 2001–02, NCAA).

As a freshman, Wright guided Arkansas to the 1999 WNIT Championship. Her teams won 77 games, including three 20-win seasons, for one of the most successful four-year periods for Arkansas. Her senior season team set the Arkansas record for the least turnovers in a season.

After her playing career, she has become a successful Division I women's basketball assistant coach. An SEC Academic Honor Roll selection and member of the Arkansas Academic Honor Roll as a sophomore (1999–00), Wright never missed a game, playing in a school-record 131 consecutive contests. She was named to the Women's Basketball News Service Preseason All-America team in 2001–02.

Following her collegiate career, Wright participated in the WNBA Pre-Draft Camp and was drafted by the Detroit Shock in 2002.

A native of Williamsburg, Indiana, Wright earned a bachelor's degree in marketing and management from Arkansas in 2002. She completed her master's degree in sports and administration from Ohio University in December 2012. Following her playing career, Wright went into coaching and served 10 years on Gary Blair's staff at Texas A&M before becoming the associate head coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma. She was named head coach at Long Beach State prior to the 2023–24 season.

AMY WRIGHT TODAY

Amy Wright was hired by Long Beach State as the head coach in the summer of 2023. She heads to California after finishing her second season at the University of Oklahoma as the associate head coach and recruiting coordinator. Wright spent 10 seasons as an assistant coach at Texas A&M with her collegiate coach Gary Blair, working with A&M's point guards, in-bound plays and serving as the recruiting coordinator.

In Wright's final season with the Aggies in 2020–21, the team captured its first SEC regular season title, made its way to No. 2 in the AP poll (highest ranking in program history) and advanced to the NCAA Sweet 16. In nearly 20 years of coaching, Wright has been a part of 15 postseason teams (11 NCAA tournaments) and has won five conference championships. At Texas A&M, she helped the Aggies to eight NCAA Tournament appearances, four Sweet 16 trips and a ticket to the 2014 Elite Eight. Texas A&M also won the SEC Tournament with her on staff.

Wright has coached over 11 first team all-conference selections, including Kelsey Bone (2012–13) and Courtney Walker (2013–14, 2014–15, 2015–16), who were named All-SEC at Texas A&M.

RECORDS

Amy Wright led Arkansas in assists four consecutive seasons erasing one of the oldest records in program history with 717 career helps. She is one of three point guards (Tracy Webb and C'eira Ricketts) to lead the Razorbacks in assists all four seasons.
