SERIES HISTORY

All-Time: 0-5

Home: 0-2

Away: 0-3

Neutral: N/A

Last Meeting: Loss, 57-84 on Dec. 4, 2005

Current Streak: Arkansas, Five Wins

THE STARTING 5

- For the first time in 20 years, Kansas City squares off with Arkansas as the Roos look for their first win over a Power Five opponent since 2019, when Kansas City beat Missouri 59-56 on December 8, 2019 inside the Swinney Center.
- Coach Jackson-Durrett has plenty of experience coaching against the Razorbacks from her time as an assistant/associate head coach at Mississippi State. In a handful of matchups, Jackson-Durrett went a perfect 7-0 vs. Arkansas from 2015-2020. Following Jackson-Durrett's departure, the Bulldogs lost their next three games with Arkansas from 2021-22.
- Kansas City has prior experience facing Coach Musick and Razorbacks leading scorer Taleyah Jones from their time in the Summit at Oral Roberts. In five career matchups, the Roos have held Jones to 27% shooting from three point range, 10 percentage points under her current season average of 37%.
- Emani Bennett comes off back-to-back games of 27 point performances, giving her four outings of 20-plus points this season. The 2025-26 All-Summit First Team selection is 68 points shy of 1,000 points in her career. The junior guard has amassed 932 career points in 74 career games played with 66 career starts.
- Kansas City and Arkansas both have leading rebounders standing 5'9 (Elauni Bennett 7.0, Bonnie Deas 9.8) making the Roos and Razorbacks two of only 12 programs in the country to have a leading rebounder that stands 5'9 or shorter this season.

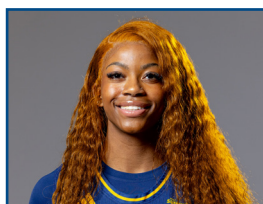

SCOUTING THE RAZORBACKS

- Under first year Head Coach Kelsi Musick, Arkansas is 9-3 and coming off two wins over Jackson State 77-46 and most recently, Missouri State 73-58.
- The Razorbacks are 6-1 at home this season with the lone loss coming to Harvard 69-51 on November 30. Musick has a history of defending home court well, going 34-9 in home games during her tenure with the Golden Eagles.
- Arkansas is 88th in NET ranking this season, making the Razorbacks the fourth top 100 NET team the Roos have faced this season (Oklahoma 18, Kansas 65, Lindenwood 86).
- The Razorbacks hustle on the glass, ranking 9th in the country by grabbing 45.8 rebounds per game. Arkansas hauls in 31.3 defensive rebounds a night, the 8th best mark in the country and the second best mark in the SEC.

QUICK HITTERS

Chasing 1,000

- In her third season with Kansas City, Emani Bennett is chasing 1,000 career points. The Lee's Summit, Mo. native is currently sitting at 932 points in 74 games played with 66 career starts for KC.
- Bennett is averaging a team-best 17.5 points per game, the fourth leading scorer in the Summit League.
- Bennett has scored 23 points or more in four games this year, including the Roos latest two contests with Bennett posting 27 points in each game vs. Portland State and Utah Valley.

Toughness>Size

- Kansas City is one of nine schools in NCAA college hoops to have two players who stand under 5'10 to average at least 5.5 RPG.
- For the Roos, Elauni Bennett stands 5'9 and leads the team, hauling in 7.0 rebounds per contest while four-year Roo Zaire Harrell is second on the team in rebounding with 5.6 per game while standing 5'8.

Grit & Grind

- Kansas City specializes in wrecking havoc on opposing offenses, leading the Summit League in steals per game (10.6), turnover margin (4.4) and turnovers per game (20.0), while also being top 75 nationally in each of those categories.
- Kansas City generated 19 steals and 26 turnovers in a 121-43 win over Hesston, the most the Roos have forced in a single game this season.
- Against the Roos three top 100 NET opponents (KU, OU, LU), Kansas City forced an average of 16 turnovers.

Catching Fire

- Kansas City is one of the best three point shooting teams in America, knocking down 40.3% of shots from long range this season which ranks as the best mark in the Summit and is 4th best in the country.
- The Roos have three games of shooting above the 50% mark from three and five of 37%-plus shooting from downtown.
- Kansas City is one of two teams in the country (Quinnipiac) to have two three point shooters (Emani Bennett 46.3%, Jamyah Winter 46.0%) shooting 46% from behind the arc or better this season.

Board Woman Gets Paid

- For the second consecutive season, Elauni Bennett leads the Summit League in offensive rebounding, averaging 3.9 offensive boards per game which is 24th in the country.
- Bennett has recorded two double-doubles this season, racking up 18 points and 14 rebounds against William Jewell and 12 points and 10 rebounds vs. Northern Colorado.

Trotter's Impact

- UTRGV transfer point guard Tierra Trotter has made a staunch impact on Kansas City this season. The graduate guard leads the team in assists and steals.
- Trotter averages 3.3 assists per game which ranks 2nd in the Summit League. Additionally, Trotter averaged 1.7 steals per game.

Jay's Block Party

- Jumoke Adaramoye threw her own block party against Portland State, recording a career-best six blocks, the most by a Roo in a single game this season.
- Adaramoye's six rejections are the most by a Roo in a single game in two seasons and is nearly double what the team averages, at 3.4 per game.

Winter is Coming

- Kansas City has seen a major impact from graduate transfer Jamyah Winter this season. Winter averages 9.6 PPG while shooting 46% from three point range.
- Winter has posted two games of six made three pointers against Lindenwood and Hesston. The Lincoln Memorial transfer has notched a 40%-plus mark from three in six of the Roos 10 games this year.
- Winter is top 35 in the country in total three pointers (33), three pointers per game (2.9) and three point percentage (46.0%) while leading the Summit in all of those statistical markers.

Historic Performance

- The Roos 121 point outing vs. Hesston tied the single game program record for points while KC's 64 spot in the first half broke the program record for most points in a half.
- Kansas City also scored over 100 points for the third time in the Jackson-Durrett era. The Roos had their third ever game of shooting over 60% from the field and from three, KC's second under Jackson-Durrett.

Twin Telepathy

- Headlining Kansas City's returning talent for the 2025-26 season are the Bennett twins, Elauni and Emani.
- Both Kansas City area natives, the Bennett twins starred at Lee's Summit North High School, both earning multiple bids to All-Conference teams.
- Between the two sisters, there are over 1,000 points and 500 rebounds in 89 starts combined in their first two seasons from 2023-25.

Preseason Hardware

- Emani Bennett heads into her junior season as a member of the Preseason All-Summit League First Team, the Roos' first since 2021.
- Bennett is the only returning player in the conference to have averaged over 30 minutes per game and 15 points per game last year.
- As a sophomore, Bennett was second on the team in scoring at 15.1 PPG and third in rebounding at 4.5 RPG. Bennett produced eight games of 20-plus points or more.

Key Returners

- Kansas City returns key upperclassmen rotational pieces Kelby Bannerman and Zaire Harrell. The two have made a combined 64 starts for the Roos across the last two seasons.
- In her senior season, Bannerman averaged 6.2 PPG (5th on team), 4.2 RPG (4th on team) and led the squad with 25 blocked shots.
- Harrell averaged 3.9 PPG (6th on team) and 4.0 RPG (5th on team) as a junior. The senior guard is the only player under Jackson-Durrett to have played in all four seasons of her tenure.

Experience Matters

- All told, Kansas City comes into this season as one of the most experienced teams in college basketball.
- The Roos have five graduate students, tied for the second most in NCAA college hoops ahead of the 2025-26 season.
- Additionally, KC is also tied for the second most upperclassmen players in the country with 12, making up 75% of the roster.

Kansas City Ties Single Game Scoring Record in Dominant Victory Over Hesston

The Roos set a program record for points in a half, scoring 64 on the Larks in the first half

KANSAS CITY, Mo. – Kansas City Women's Basketball (2-3) put together a team performance for the program record book on Thursday afternoon in a wire-to-wire 121-43 victory over Hesston (3-8) at the Swinney Center.

The Roos high point total tied the program best that KC first accomplished in a 121-37 win over Kansas Christian in 2023. The Roos did set the program record for most points in a half, posting 64 on the Larks at the break.

Not only did the Roos rack up 100-plus points for the third time in the Jackson-Durrett era but Kansas City did so on remarkable efficiency.

Against the Larks, Kansas City shot 61% from the floor and 68% from three point range, making it the third ever time the Roos have shot 60% from both the field and three in the same game and the second time done so in the Jackson-Durrett era.

Kansas City put up a dominant effort from the opening tip to the final buzzer, out-scoring Hesston 35-5 after the first quarter. The Roos opened the game going 15-26 (57%) from the floor and knocking down a flurry of shots from distance.

KC continued to pour it on the rest of the way, showcasing high level shot making and pesky defense that flustered Hesston's offense all game long. Kansas City didn't have a quarter in which they shot under 50% from the field and notched 19 steals, two shy of the all-time program record.

Kelby Bannerman did a little bit of everything, leading the Roos in scoring off a career-high 28 points on 10-14 (71%) overall shooting along with grabbing nine rebounds, dishing out three assists, nabbing four steals and blocking three shots.

Elauni Bennett joined Bannerman in the 20-plus point club, racking up 22 points and nine rebounds on 9-15 (60%) shooting in 22 minutes of action. For Bennett, it was her second straight game of scoring over 20 points and fourth consecutive game of shooting 60%-plus from the floor.

The Roos had 10 players get on the scoreboard, five of which reached double figures. Jamyah Winter recorded 18 points off six three pointers, all of which came in the first half. It was Winter's second consecutive game of six made triples, giving her a team-leading 18 treys this season.

Hallie Majoros chipped in 14 points and canned four threes herself while Claudia Frances was the fifth member of the double figure scoring club, notching 12 points on 5-5 shooting.

All told, Kansas City put together a season-high in total points, points in a half, field goals made, field goal percentage, three pointers made, three point percentage free throws made, assists and steals.

Kansas City focuses its attention to UTEP next Tuesday at 7 p.m. for the Roos second leg of a three home game stretch.

Dionnah Jackson-Durrett was announced as the head coach of Kansas City Women's Basketball on March 30, 2022 and enters her third season with the Roos in 2024-25. Jackson-Durrett, a former first round WNBA pick and one of the most highly touted up-and-coming coaches in the nation, served as the associate head coach at Texas for two seasons and coached in five consecutive NCAA Elite Eights prior to her arrival in KC.

In 2023-24, the Roos posted a 12-20 record, including a five-game winning streak throughout the month of December. Kansas City won three games in Summit League play, taking the #8 seed into postseason play. Emani Bennett was named to the Summit League All-Freshman Team, while Alayna Contreras and Dominique Phillips earned All-Newcomer Team honors.

In her first year as head coach, Jackson-Durrett took a short-handed and injury-riddled team beyond expectations in the postseason. After winning her first two games as a head coach with victories over Westminster and Tennessee State, the Roos had highlights with an overtime win over Bradley and conference victories over ORU, UND and Omaha. Jackson-Durrett's tutelage of E'Lease Stafford throughout the year led her to earn Summit League Newcomer of the Year and Honorable Mention All-League honors.

Taking the 10-seed into the Summit League Championships, the team made a historic run in March, first defeating Denver on a SportsCenter Top 10 buzzer-beating game-winner by Sanaa' St. Andre. Then, Kansas City became the first double-digit seed to reach the Summit Semifinal round, running past second-seeded North Dakota State.

"I'm honored and ecstatic to be a part of the Kansas City Athletics family," Jackson-Durrett said. "Throughout the process the energy has been amazing, and my decision developed organically. I'm supposed to be here, I feel it in my heart."

A native of St. Louis, Jackson-Durrett has deep ties to basketball within Missouri and the Midwest at large. The 2001 Missouri High School Player of the Year put together an All-American career at Oklahoma before spending five years in the professional ranks. From 2010-22, she made coaching stops at Mississippi State, George Mason and Southeast Missouri State, in addition to her time with the Longhorns.

"We are delighted to have Dionnah as a part of our Kansas City family," Vice Chancellor/Director of Athletics Dr. Brandon Martin said. "Not only does she have impeccable integrity, her basketball acumen and coaching pedigree is unmatched. She is a phenomenal leader and teacher of the nuances of basketball, and a maven of life skill development and championing academic excellence. Dionnah will further elevate our departmental mantra of comprehensive excellence."

No stranger to winning culture, Jackson-Durrett helped lead the Longhorns to 50 wins, a 2022 Big 12 Tournament Title and back-to-back NCAA Elite Eights in her two years as associate head coach. The Longhorns' 2021 Elite Eight appearance was their first since 2016, and the 2022 appearance marked the first back-to-back Elite Eight showings since 1989-90. The Big 12 Tournament win was the program's first since 2003.

Known for her ability as a talent developer and mentor, Jackson-Durrett made her mark on Texas' guard play throughout her two seasons. In 2021-22, each of the Longhorns' top-four scorers played primarily from the guard position.

Highlighting Jackson-Durrett's mentoring ability in 2021-22 was freshman Rori Harmon, who was named Big 12 Freshman of the Year, as well as earning spots on the All-Big 12 Second Team, All-Defensive Team and All-Freshman Team. She averaged 11.4 points per game and broke the program's freshman assist mark, notching AP All-America Honorable Mention, Big 12 Tournament Most Outstanding Player, ESPN W Player of the Week, NCBWA National Freshman of the Week and four-time Big 12 Freshman of the Week honors, and was a candidate for National Freshman of the Year.

"(Jackson-Durrett) will not only add to Kansas City's athletic department on campus, but she and her family will be tremendous in the city and state," Texas Head Coach Vic Schaefer said. "Dionnah understands the impact that a successful women's basketball program can have on a university, a community and a state, and she will work tirelessly to make sure that happens. Kansas City has hit a home run in hiring Coach Jackson-Durrett."

Jackson-Durrett also helped develop Joanne Allen-Taylor into a two-time All-Big 12 honoree and led Aliyah Matharu to her first All-Conference nomination after transferring from Mississippi State. In 2020-21, in addition to Allen-Taylor's All-Big 12 selection, guards Kyra Lambert and Celeste Taylor were named to All-Big 12 teams.
