THE FIRST PITCH

- The Gators are looking for their first series win over Arkansas since the 2019 season when Florida took 2-of-3 from the Razorbacks in Gainesville. The Gators' last series win in Fayetteville was a 3-0 sweep in 2017
- Florida's last win over Arkansas was a nine-inning 10-7 victory in Gainesville in 2025, when Korbe Otis hit a walk-off grand slam in the bottom of the ninth in a game that lasted nearly four hours. The Gators hit two grand slams in that series, one from Otis and the other from Reagan Walsh
- Florida is looking for its fourth SEC series win of the season. The Gators already have back-to-back series sweeps over Missouri and Kentucky and a 2-1 series victory over No. 1 Tennessee
- Jocelyn Erickson is just three RBIs shy of 200 in her Gator career. She would be just the sixth Gator to reach the milestone and first since Reagan Walsh in 2025. Assistant coach Francesca Enea (2007-2010) is one of the five Gators with 200 or more RBIs in their career, finishing with 221
- Olivia Miller has not allowed a run in her last 15 innings pitched. She earned her first career SEC victory against No. 1 Tennessee on March 21, throwing 4.1 scoreless innings, allowing just a pair of hits with two strikeouts
- Miller has pitched 12.2 innings in SEC play, a single-season career high. She has not allowed a run in conference play
- Taylor Shumaker is on a team and career-long 16-game hitting streak. She's had multi-hit performances in six of Florida's nine conference games and leads the team with a .484 average in SEC play. She has also reached base in 22-straight games
- Shumaker leads the NCAA in runs scored (53) and ranks third in hits (58) and fourth in total bases (108). Keagan Rothrock leads the nation in victories (17) and Erickson ranks fifth in RBIs (52) and sixth in home runs (16)
- Erickson was a home run shy of the cycle against Stetson, going 3-for-3, including recording Florida's first triple of the season, and driving in two runs
- The Gators have not committed an error in seven straight games and in 51 straight innings. In SEC play, the Gators have committed just one error overall, holding a .996 fielding percentage
- Florida leads the nation in doubles (71) and ranks top-5 in hits (361), home runs (71), walks (167), runs (307), pitching shutouts (12), slugging percentage (.693), RBIs (295) and on-base percentage (.484)

2024 NFCA Hall of Fame inductee Tim Walton enters his 21st year at the helm of the Florida Gators softball program. Going into the 2026 season, Walton has tallied a 1,028-255 (.801) record in 20 seasons as Florida's head coach and 1,151-319 (.783) in 23 seasons overall.

Walton earned his 1,000th win as a Gator in 2025, leading Florida to its 13th Women's College World Series appearance as the No. 3 National Seed.

Jocelyn Erickson and Kendra Falby repeated as Rawlings Gold Glove winners at catcher and in center field, just the second and third pair of repeat winners in the award's history. Since the award was established in 2022, three Gator student-athletes have been named winners five times, the most of any program in the nation.

Taylor Shumaker was named the 2025 NFCA Freshman of the Year, the second Gator to earn the honor, and became the first Florida freshman to be named an NFCA First Team All-American.

The Gators also continued to thrive in the classroom. Korbe Otis was named the SEC Student-Athlete of the Year and Elite 90 winner, the first time in program history that a Florida athlete has won either award.

In 2024, Florida returned to the Women's College World Series for the 12th time and earned its sixth SEC Tournament championship, rolling up 54 wins.

The Gators earned extensive recognition within the Southeastern Conference as Jocelyn Erickson earned SEC Player of the Year honors and Keagan Rothrock added SEC Freshman of the Year accolades. Five Gators earned first-team All-SEC honors in 2024, including Erickson, Kendra Falby, Korbe Otis, Skylar Wallace and Reagan Walsh, while Rothrock added second-team recognition. Erickson and Falby also earned SEC All-Defensive Team honors.

Prior to the start of the 2024 campaign, Walton was announced as a member of the 2024 National Fastpitch Coaches Association Hall of Fame Class.

Walton reached a historic milestone during the Gators 2022 campaign as he became the second fastest head coach to reach 1,000 career NCAA Division I softball victories with 2-1 (9 inning) win at LSU on May 1. In addition, Walton led the Gators to its 11th overall Women's College World Series appearance after the Orange & Blue defeated No.3-seed Virginia Tech in Blacksburg during the NCAA Super Regional round. In 2021, Walton led the program to a Southeastern Conference leading ninth regular season championship.

During the 2019 season, the Gators became back-to-back SEC Tournament Champions for the second time in program history and Walton navigated the program through a shortened 2020 campaign due to COVID-19 with a 23-4, 3-0 SEC record and a No. 7 national ranking.

With an incredible record of 1,030-255 (.802) at Florida, the five-time SEC Coach of the Year has led the Orange and Blue to numerous school records and other SEC records, and his squads have earned various firsts for the Gator softball program. By the end of the 2008 season, the Gators had set the NCAA single-season record for wins (70) and the SEC single-season record (27). In 2018, the program set the NCAA record for walks (360) in a season and most recently set the UF program record for stolen bases (132).

In 2018, Florida became only the second SEC program to win four straight SEC Regular Season Championships and now holds a league leading nine titles, eight of which have come under Walton's guidance. In 2017, Walton and his staff earned their fifth NFCA Southeast Coaching Staff of the Year award and the team finished the season leading the nation in ERA (0.81) and fielding percentage (.985) for the second consecutive season.

With back-to-back national titles in 2014 and 2015, Walton's Gators are one of only four teams to have achieved the feat in consecutive seasons.

The five-time SEC Coach of the Year recipient, has led his squads to 19 NCAA Regional appearances, 16 Super Regionals, 13 Women's College World Series berths, eight SEC Regular Season Championships and six SEC Tournament Championships. From 2006 to 2018, the Orange & Blue appeared in a nation's best five WCWS championship series appearances. That success led to a 2015 NFCA Division I National Coaching Staff of the Year award and five NFCA Southeast Region Coaching Staff of the Year selections.

Under Walton's tutelage, Gator softball student-athletes have earned 56 NFCA All-American honors, 83 All-SEC honors, two USA Softball Player of the Year recipients, three Honda Award winners, 13 SEC Player & Pitcher of the Year honorees, two NFCA Players of the Year and two NFCA Freshman of the Year honorees.

The Gators have not only excelled on the field but in the classroom as well under Walton. Since 2006, Florida student-athletes have achieved 23 College Sports Communicators (CoSIDA) Academic All-American honors, 191 appearances on the SEC Academic Honor Roll and 79 SEC Academic Honor Roll First-Year recipients.

Prior to arriving at Florida, he took Wichita State to the NCAA Tournament in 2005 where his team finished with a school single-season record 46 wins (46-18). After three seasons with the Shockers he amassed a record of 123-64.

Walton has been a part of national championship teams as a baseball player, an assistant softball coach and a head softball coach. Before heading to take his first head coaching position at Wichita State, Walton served as an assistant softball coach for the University of Oklahoma, as the hitting coach and outfielders' coach. In his four seasons at OU, the Sooners won three Big 12 titles and made three consecutive WCWS appearances, including winning the 2000 NCAA title.

Outside the collegiate ranks, Walton has continuously prepared his student-athletes for success. Numerous Gators have gone on to play professionally and 15 players have been selected to various national teams including the United States, Puerto Rico and Mexico.

After graduating from Oklahoma with a degree in history, Walton played in the Philadelphia Phillies organization from 1995-97.

Walton is married to the former Samantha Rhoten, who was a basketball player at Oral Roberts. The couple has two sons, Brooks and Palmer, and a daughter, Camden.

Walton earned his 1,000th victory as a Gator on Feb. 28, 2025, in a 9-1 six-inning victory over Samford

Entering the 2026 season, Walton ranks fourth in the NCAA in winning percentage (.783) of any active head coach

Walton was inducted into the National Fastpitch Coaches' Association (NFCA) Hall of Fame in December of 2024

Kendra Falby & Kara Hammock Join Softball Coaching Staff

Head Coach Tim Walton announced on January 16 that Kendra Falby and Kara Hammock are both joining the 2026 Florida softball coaching staff as student assistant coaches.

The former Gators both graduated in December.

The back-to-back Rawlings Gold Glove Award winner in center field and a 2025 National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Second Team All-American, Falby will assist Florida's hitters and outfielders. She will also coach first base during games.

Hammock, who spent her senior season with the Gators in 2025, will use her pitching experience to assist with Florida's hitters, including throwing batting practice.

Falby is one of the most accomplished players in program history. She finished her four-year career in Gainesville tied for first in runs scored (259), second in hits (337) and stolen bases (118) and third in career batting average (.393).

The Odessa, Fla., native, led the Gators in hits for four-straight seasons and in batting average in three of four seasons.

Hammock, a right-handed pitcher from Mechanicsville, Va., made 25 appearances in the circle for Florida.

She posted a 9-2 record last season, including a 3-1 mark in Southeastern Conference play, earning a top-5 victory at No. 5/4 Texas A&M.

Prior to her season at Florida, Hammock spent three seasons at UNCW and was a three-time All-Coastal Athletic Association selection in 2022, 2023 and 2024.

Falby is currently pursuing her sport management certificate and Hammock is enrolled in the sport management master's program.

Trio Of Gators Named to USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 50 Watch List

Jocelyn Erickson, Keagan Rothrock and Taylor Shumaker were named to the 2026 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year Top 50 Watch List, the organization announced on January 21.

Shumaker was a Top-25 finalist for the award in 2025, while Erickson was a Top-26 finalist in 2024.

Lauren Haeger & Kelly Barnhill are the only Gators to have won the prestigious award. Haeger earned the title in 2015 after leading Florida to the program's second national championship and Barnhill secured the honor after having a historic season in 2017.

The Top 25 Finalists for the 2026 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year award will be announced on April 29.

While an athlete does not have to be on the Watch List to be considered for the Top 25, the eventual USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year will come from the Top 25 Finalists. The Top 10 Finalists will be revealed May 13, with the Top 3 being released May 18. The 2026 USA Softball Collegiate Player of the Year will be announced prior to the NCAA Women's College World Series (WCWS).

USA Softball released its Preseason ESPN.com/USA Softball Collegiate Top 25 Poll on Tuesday, with Gators coming in at No. 6.

Erickson, Rothrock & Shumaker Tabbed Preseason All-SEC

Florida softball's Jocelyn Erickson, Keagan Rothrock and Taylor Shumaker were named to the 2026 Preseason All-Southeastern Conference Team, the league office announced on Thursday morning.

The trio of Gators were selected to the 21-member preseason team by a vote of the league's head coaches.

Shumaker was a 2025 First team All-SEC selection, Erickson was the 2024 SEC Player of the Year and Rothrock was the 2024 SEC Freshman of the Year.

In the SEC Preseason Coaches' poll, the Gators were picked to finish fourth in the conference. Points were compiled on a descending basis, and coaches were not allowed to vote for their own team.

No. 6 Florida is coming off a 48-win 2025 season that included the program's 13th trip to the Women's College World Series. The Gators finished tied for fifth in the SEC with a 14-10 conference record.

Opening Day for the 2026 Gators is set for Feb. 6 vs. Illinois State at the USF-Rawlings Invitational in Tampa, Fla.

Kendall Grover Named NFCA Player of the Week

Senior Kendall Grover has been named the Louisville Slugger/NFCA Player of the Week, the organization announced on Tuesday afternoon.

The Florida third baseman slugged five home runs with a team-best 14 RBI in a 7-0 week for No. 4/5 Florida.

Grover hit .417 (10-for-24) with a 1.042 slugging percentage, scoring nine runs and drawing a pair of walks.

She matched her career-best of two home runs vs. Marshall on Feb. 14, both three-run shots, driving in six runs in the game, the most by any Gator this season. She also recorded four multi-hit and four multi-RBI performances.

In her first 12 games in Gainesville, the Mooresville, Ind., native, has hit .341 (15-for-44) with 17 RBI, five home runs, 13 runs, two doubles and a pair of walks.

Grover becomes the eighth player in program history to be named NFCA Player of the Week. It's the 12th time overall a Florida player has been selected.

Shumaker Named SEC Softball Player of the Week

Taylor Shumaker was named the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week on March 2 following a standout weekend back in her hometown at the Judi Garman Classic.

Shumaker earned her first-ever SEC Player of the Week after hitting a team-best .714 (15-for-21) with 19 RBIs, four home runs, four doubles, four walks and 14 runs while in Fullerton, California.

The sophomore outfielder also slugged 1.476 and held a .731 on-base percentage over five games.

Against East Texas A&M on Feb. 26, Shumaker set a new Florida single-game record, scoring five runs and driving in eight, a new career-best and just one RBI shy of matching the program single-game record.

Shumaker hit a pair of home runs against No. 8/9 UCLA on Feb. 27, her second multi-home run game of the season and seventh of her career.

She recorded two four-hit performances, versus both the Bruins and Oregon State, matching her career-best.

Shumaker Earns D1 Softball National Player of the Week Honors

For the second time in her career, Taylor Shumaker has been named the D1 Softball National Player of the Week, the organization announced on Tuesday afternoon.

Shumaker, who was named the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week on Monday, helped lead Florida to a 4-1 week at the Judi Garman Classic in her hometown of Fullerton, California.

The sophomore outfielder hit a team-best .714 (15-for-21) with 19 RBIs, four home runs, four doubles, four walks and 14 runs. She also slugged 1.476 and held a .731 on-base percentage over five games.

Against East Texas A&M on Feb. 26, Shumaker set a new Florida single-game record, scoring five runs and driving in eight, a new career-best and just one RBI shy of matching the program single-game record.

She hit a pair of home runs against No. 8/9 UCLA on Feb. 27, the second multi-home run game of the season and seventh of her career.

Shumaker recorded two four-hit performances, versus both the Bruins and Oregon State, matching her career-best.

Thomas Claims SEC Softball Freshman of the Week Honors

After helping lead the No. 5/8 Florida softball team to a 3-0 weekend at Kentucky, Townsen Thomas earned her first Southeastern Conference Freshman of the Week honors, the league office announced on March 17.

Thomas batted a team-best .667 (6-for-9) with four doubles, four RBI, four runs, a stolen base and a walk while in Lexington.

The redshirt freshman entered the weekend with four career doubles, doubling that number over three games.

She set a new career-best of two doubles in game one on March 13, and recorded one double in both game two and in the series finale.

Thomas had two hits in all three games and extended her hitting streak to 14 games.

Six games into conference play, the Humble, Texas, native, is leading the Gators in batting average (.500) and on-base percentage (.571).

Shumaker Snags Second SEC Player of the Week Honor

For the second time this season, Taylor Shumaker is the Southeastern Conference Player of the Week after helping lead the Florida softball team to a 2-1 series victory over No. 1 Tennessee.

She shares the weekly award with Oklahoma's Isabela Emerling.

Shumaker batted a team-best .500 (5-for-10) with a home run, two RBIs, a walk and two runs in three games against the Lady Vols, including driving in two of Florida's three runs in the series-clinching game on March 22.

She opened the rubber match with a lead off solo home run, her 13th home run of the season, to give the Gators an early lead, before batting in another with an RBI single in the bottom of the fifth.

The outfielder had two multi-hit games against the Tennessee, who's pitching staff holds the lowest ERA in the NCAA, extending her hitting streak to a career and team-best 15 games. She now has 19 multi-hit outings this season.

Shumaker ranks second in the NCAA in runs scored (52), third in hits (56) and fifth in total bases (106).

She has plated a run in all but four of Florida's 33 games this season.

Small, But Mighty

During his 21 seasons at Florida, Coach Walton has always fielded smaller teams than others in the Southeastern Conference and this season is no different.

The 2026 roster features 18 Gator student-athletes, including early enrollee Caroline Stanton who is redshirting and will not see the field this season.

Despite having the smallest roster in not only the SEC but in the Power 4, the Gators are versatile and have multiple players who are able to play multiple positions on the field.

The closest roster sizes to the Gators this season include Arizona (19), Louisville (19) and Minnesota (19).

Versatile Positions

Ava Brown - P/1B/DP

Kenleigh Cahalan - 3B/SS

Gabi Comia - 2B/SS

Giulia Desiderio - C/2B

Jocelyn Erickson - C/1B

Kalie Matsuno - 2B/SS

Madison Walker - 1B/DP/OF

Ella Wesolowski - C/OF
