GYMBACK NOTABLES

Morgan Price Tabbed Newcomer of the Year, Six Get All-SEC Honors

The Gymbacks' success this season continues to show as the team was well-represented in the SEC's annual awards announced on Wednesday. Senior transfer Morgan Price was named the conference's Newcomer of the Year, and six gymnasts combined for 13 total All-SEC honors. The 13 nods are the most in program history and just the second time ever that Arkansas has seen double-digit All-SEC honors in one season.

Morgan Price is just the second-ever recipient of the SEC's Newcomer of the Year award, which recognizes top athletes in their first year of SEC competition. At Arkansas, she has immediately made a tremendous impact on the program, the conference, and strengthened her role in the sport as a whole. Morgan has competed in every meet for the Gymbacks this season, including in every vault and bars lineup and with seven appearances in the all-around. She has season highs of 9.900+ on vault, bars and beam and earned a career high 39.675 in the all-around on Jan. 30. After making history at Fisk as a member of the first-ever HBCU gymnastics program, she has continued to do so at Arkansas. Price scored the first-ever Perfect 10 for the Gymbacks, on vault, on Feb. 20. With the mark, she became one of only five known athletes to score a Perfect 10 at two different universities. She has also earned a 9.975 on bars twice, matching the school record and becoming the first Gymback to get the score on the event more than once. Morgan has been consistently ranked in the top 10 on vault and bars this season and has earned 15 total event and all-around titles: five on bars, three each on vault and all-around and one apiece on beam and floor. At her first SEC Championships, Morgan started out extremely strong with a 9.925 on vault, the second-best score of the afternoon session. Just two athletes in either session earned higher, making Morgan the outright SEC bronze medalist on the event and an All-SEC honoree. Her 9.925 is a new Arkansas SECs high on vault, and her sixth score of 9.900+ on the event this season.

Hailey Klein, Joscelyn Roberson, Frankie Price and Leah Smith are all repeat All-SEC honorees and Allison Cucci and Morgan Price have earned their first conference honors. All-SEC placements are given to the athletes with the top four scores (including ties) in each session of competition at the SEC Championships. Roberson's first SEC Championships was one to remember as she racked up all-conference honors on bars (9.875), beam (9.950), floor (9.900) and all-around (39.575). Her beam score of 9.950 is a new SEC Championships individual record for the event and earned her a share of second place, Arkansas' highest SECs finisher since Sophia Carter on floor in 2021. Roberson has now earned All-SEC honors on beam in both of her seasons at Arkansas. Her all-around mark of 39.575 is also the highest-ever by a Gymback at SECs and was good for sixth place overall. Cucci had an outstanding day with top four scores on bars (9.850), beam (9.900), floor (9.850) and all-around (39.400) for four of a possible five All-SEC nods on the day. Her 39.400 all-around was good for second place in the afternoon session behind Roberson to also clinch SEC All-Freshman Team honors and placed her ninth overall at SECs. Smith's last SEC Championships was one of her best and she went two-for-two on All-SEC nods on the day with a 9.875 on bars and a 9.900 on floor. Leah finishes her SEC career with four total all-conference honors: two on floor, one on bars, and one All-Freshman Team designation. Klein has emerged as one of Arkansas' most consistent competitors this season as a first-year all-arounder, and that was no different at SEC Championships. The junior scored a 39.100 all-around, the fourth-highest score of the afternoon session, and added a second All-SEC nod to her resume after earning the honor on beam in 2024. Frankie Price's last-ever floor at SECs was a good one, where she delivered her trademark power and performance and scored a 9.875, tied for the third-highest score in the afternoon session. She is now a two-time All-SEC floor honoree, has one on vault, and was an SEC All-Freshman team honoree in 2023.

Arkansas Gets Nine Seed, Placed in Lexington Regional

Regional competition is up next for the Gymbacks, and they're headed to the Bluegrass State with some familiar foes as the No. 9 overall national seed. All four of the seeded squads at next week's Lexington Regional are from the SEC: No. 1 Oklahoma, No. 8 Missouri, No. 9 Arkansas and No. 16 Kentucky, who will serve as host. -->

NOTEBOOK CONTINUED

The remaining field at the regional site will include NC State, Maryland, Ohio State, Central Michigan and Rutgers. After a first round dual meet between Central Michigan and Rutgers on Thursday, April 2, the regional semifinals begin on Friday, April 3. The Gymbacks will compete in the first session of the day with Missouri, NC State, and Maryland at 12 p.m. CT at Memorial Coliseum in Lexington. The evening session will consist of Oklahoma, Kentucky, Ohio State and the winner of Central Michigan and Rutgers at 6 p.m. The top two teams from each Friday semifinal will move on to Sunday's regional final, set for 4 p.m. Two from the regional final will advance to the NCAA Gymnastics Championships in Fort Worth April 16-18. Arkansas carries a 197.170 team NOS into regionals, and the nine seed is the highest for Arkansas since 2010, the highest in head coach Jordyn Wieber's tenure, and ties for highest ever. Monday's selection is the 22nd straight regional appearance for Arkansas. Under Wieber, the Gymbacks have advanced to the regional final in four times and have earned one team berth to nationals in 2024. All sessions of regional competition will be streamed live on ESPN+.

Gymbacks Place Seventh, Get Three Podium Finishes at SEC Championships

Arkansas gymnastics started its postseason with the SEC Championships and came in seventh of nine with a score of 196.975. Florida took the team title with a score of 198.175. Oklahoma took second (198.150), LSU took third (197.950) and Alabama rounded out the top four (197.475). Georgia and Missouri came in fifth and sixth with scores of 197.450 and 197.075, respectively, and Kentucky (196.925) and Auburn (195.300) came in eighth and ninth. Sophomore Joscelyn Roberson shined in her first-ever SEC Championships with an all-around score of 39.575. It was the best mark of the afternoon session and held on for sixth place overall. She also earned a share of the beam silver medal with a score of 9.950, the highest individual finish for a Gymback at SEC Championships since Sophia Carter tied for second on floor in 2021. Senior Morgan Price was Arkansas' third podium finish of the day as she earned a 9.925 on vault, good for third place outright at her-first ever SECs. Freshman Allison Cucci also had a great day, as she scored a 39.500 all-around, which was good for ninth place and the best for any freshman in either session. Arkansas' team score of 196.975 is the second highest ever at an SECs, and the second-best under head coach Jordyn Wieber. The Gymbacks got an impressive 49.350 on beam, which also marks the second-highest beam score at an SECs in program history.

Arkansas Falls to LSU in Regular Season Finale

Despite bouncing back well after a shaky first rotation, the No. 8 Gymbacks ultimately couldn't overcome a strong Senior Night performance by the No. 2 LSU Tigers and fell 198.075-197.100. The meet wrapped up the regular season for Arkansas, and the Gymbacks finish with a 5-7-1 record, 2-5-1 in the SEC. The Gymbacks did see four top three finishes on the night. Morgan Price tied for second on vault with a mark of 9.950, Hailey Klein and Allison Cucci tied for third on bars with matching 9.850s, and Joscelyn Roberson came in second on beam with a 9.975. Roberson's score was good to match the program individual beam record and is a new career high for her. She is the first Gymback since 2024 to score a 9.975 on beam, when Priscilla Park also did so at LSU.

Gymbacks Set SEC Attendance Record on Senior Night; Fall to Sooners

It was a historic night at Bud Walton Arena on March 6 as the No. 8 Gymbacks went toe-to-toe with the No. 1 Oklahoma Sooners. While Arkansas fell to Oklahoma 197.925-197.500, there were 15,512 fans in attendance, a new Arkansas and SEC gymnastics attendance record. Despite the loss, Arkansas' score of 197.500 was its best at home this season, propelled by the energy of the crowd in the building. The previous SEC gymnastics attendance record, 15,162, was set by Alabama and took 20 years to break. The Gymbacks closed out the meet with a season-high 49.650 on floor, matching the third-best floor score in program history and besting the Sooners' 49.375 on the event. Both Joscelyn Roberson and Morgan Price had record nights, as each matched the program high of 9.975 on floor and bars, respectively. Roberson became the second-ever Gymback to score 9.975 on floor with the mark, along with teammate Frankie Price. Morgan is now the only Arkansas gymnast to score 9.975 on bars two times. Roberson and Morgan Price's scores were good for the event titles, and Arkansas also had four more top three finishes on the night: Cami Weaver tied for second on vault with a 9.925, Leah Smith earned shares of second on floor (9.950) and third on bars (9.900) and Allison Cucci tied for second on floor (9.950) and third on beam (9.900).

Arkansas Bested by Mizzou on the Road

It was a tight battle all the way through, but ultimately No. 7 Missouri took down No. 8 Arkansas in March 1's SEC dual, 197.425-197.225. There was plenty for the Gymbacks to be proud of in the meet, starting with the all-around performance of freshman Allison Cucci. She earned a new career high of 39.500, good for the all-around crown and the third-highest of any freshman in the nation this season. Cucci also tied for first on vault (9.875) and got second on beam (9.925). Redshirt junior Lauren Williams had a fantastic outing as a floor specialist and scored a 9.875 on vault and 9.925 on floor. Both marks were good for a share of first place on the events. Senior Morgan Price earned a big 9.925 at bars anchor, which tied for first on the event. The last two events of the day kept Arkansas in contention with Mizzou, as the Gymbacks went 49.425 on both floor and beam, the latter a season high.

Morgan Price Records First-Ever Perfect 10 in Program History, Gymbacks Tie Wildcats

After 8,442 days and 24 competition seasons later, Arkansas gymnastics finally saw perfection rewarded in its scores as senior Morgan Price earned the first 10 in program history, on vault, in the No. 7 Gymbacks' 197.125-197.125 tie against No. 24 Kentucky. Price's 10 was the second of her career, as she also attained perfection last season on bars at Fisk University. Continuing her streak as a trailblazer, she has now scored the first perfect 10 in HBCU history and the first ever for the Gymbacks. Morgan's 10 earned her the vault title, and she won all-around with a score of 39.575. Those were two of five titles on the night for Arkansas: Joscelyn Roberson took the beam crown with her sixth 9.950 on the event in eight meets. Roberson and Lauren Williams also tied for the title on floor with matching 9.950 marks. Despite the meet ending in a draw, Arkansas outscored Kentucky on vault and floor and tied the Wildcats on beam. The Gymbacks' 49.600 was a season high and ties for the fourth-highest floor mark in program history. She also scored 9.900 on bars, Arkansas' highest score on the event and tied for fourth overall.

Prior to the 2019 season, the NCAA changed regionals to three days of competition at four locations. The NCAA Regional field still consists of 36 teams with nine teams assigned to each of the four sites.

Day 1 - First Round: The two lowest-ranked teams at each of the four locations compete in a dual meet for a spot in the Second Round meets. The winner advances to Day 2 (Second Round).

Day 2 - Second Round: Eight teams will compete in two four-team meets. The top two finishing teams in each of those meets will advance to Day 3 (Regional Final).

Day 3 - Regional Final: The top two finishing teams from each of the Second Round meets will compete in the Regional Final. The teams that finish in the top two in the Regional Final will then advance to the NCAA National Championships.

MEET 13 AT NCAA REGIONAL SEMIFINAL APRIL 3, 2026

JORDYN WIEBER

SEVENTH-YEAR HEAD COACH

Olympic gold medalist Jordyn Wieber was introduced as the head coach of the Arkansas Women's Gymnastics program on Wednesday, April 24, 2019, by Vice Chancellor and Director of Athletics Hunter Yurachek.

Following a historic slate in 2024, the Gymsbaks kept up the consistency in 2025 as they finished No. 12 in the nation and had four top 10 wins on the season. Wieber coached standout freshman and Olympic alternate Joscelyn Roberson to All-SEC honors, and Roberson qualified for NCAA Championships as an individual competitor. In Fort Worth, Roberson scored a 39.425, the best-ever mark by an Arkansas freshman at nationals, and she also earned All-American honors on beam.

The 2025 season was Arkansas' first to have all home meets hosted at Bud Walton Arena. The Gymsbaks saw a new average attendance record of 7,915, a total single season record of 39,575, and a new season ticket holder record.

Season five in 2024 was the best yet for Wieber in her tenure, as she led the Gymsbaks to their first NCAA Championships team appearance in six years in 2024. Arkansas finished seventh of eighth to conclude the season ranked No. 7, the highest final rank for the team since 2012. The season was filled with milestones for the program, including five of the top 11 program high scores for Arkansas, including a new best of 198.100 set on March 15. The Gymsbaks set and broke their program score record two other times, and finished 2024 with 11 marks of 197+, the most in a single season by six. Arkansas has now earned all of its top program team scores in Wieber's tenure, and in 2024, five athletes matched the program-high 9.975 individual scores across all four events: Hailey Klein on vault, Reese Drotar on bars, Priscilla Park on beam and Maddie Jones and Frankie Price on floor.

In Fort Worth, Drotar earned First Team All-America honors on bars with a sixth place finish and matched the program NCAA Championships bars record with a score of 9.925. Leah Smith and Cami Weaver garnered Second Team honors on vault as they tied for 13th overall with matching scores of 9.8875. Wieber has now coached six athletes to 10 All-America honors over the last five years, at least one each season dating back to 2021.

Arkansas began the 2024 postseason at SEC Championships, where the Gymsbaks placed sixth with a score of 197.050, the first time ever scoring 197+ at the event and a new program best at SECs. Six athletes earned All-SEC honors: Lauren Williams on vault, Hailey Klein and Cami Weaver on beam, and Maddie Jones, Frankie Price and Leah Smith on floor. Six ties the program record for Gymsbaks on the All-SEC list in a single season, and is the most under Wieber so far.

The Gymsbaks compiled an 8-6-1 regular season record and 15-15-1 record overall, the most wins for the program since 2012. Arkansas went 4-2-1 in SEC competition, the most conference victories in eight years, another high for Wieber in her fifth season at the helm.

During her fourth season in 2023, Wieber guided the Gymsbaks to their 19th consecutive regional appearance. The team set a then-Onew regional team score record of 197.275, and a new regional floor record of 49.500. The team finished the year ranked 17th in the country, maintaining the program's 18-year streak in the top 20.

Graduate transfer Norah Flatley and freshman Lauren Williams both earned berths to the NCAA Championships as individuals, extending Wieber's unblemished national appearance streak in each eligible year. Flatley earned her fourth All-American honor at the event on balance beam with a score of 9.9375, which is the best-ever score by a Gymsbak as an individual beam qualifier.

Arkansas' 196.825 at SEC Championships in 2023 and placed seventh. Five Gymsbaks earned All-SEC or All-SEC Freshman honors at the meet: Norah Flatley (VT, FX, AA), Lauren Williams (VT, FX), Reese Drotar (UB), Frankie Price (VT) and Cami Weaver (VT).

The Gymsbaks continued to grow their fanbase with new single meet (11,031), home single season (36,619), and average attendance (7,324) records in 2023, the latter two ranking sixth and seventh in the country. Arkansas also sold out Barnhill Arena for the first time in program history on Jan. 27, when 7,147 fans were in the building to watch the Hogs take down the LSU Tigers.

Wieber has coached five regular-season All-Americans in Sophia Carter (2020), Maggie O'Hara (2021), Kennedy Hambrick (2020, 2021), Frankie Price (2024) and Joscelyn Roberson (2025).

Hambrick became the new all-around score record holder (39.750) during the 2021 season, a record that had gone unbroken for seven years prior. Under her guidance in and out of the gym, the Gymsbaks were awarded the Arkansas Athletics Lee Spencer Cup for the first time ever in 2022, which is awarded to the team that earns the most points in the areas of personal and career development, community engagement, and academic and athletic excellence. Arkansas also saw its first SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year in 10 years in 2022 with Bailey Lovett.

The Gymsbaks earned their first-ever spot in the SEC night session in 2021 and advanced to the NCAA regional final after scoring a 197.250 on day one. In total, Arkansas registered five scores of 197.000 or better in 2021, for the first time in program history.

In 2020, the Gymsbaks ranked as high as fourth in the nation on floor and finished the season ninth in the nation. Arkansas scored a 49.00 or higher in 14 of 16 events over the course of four home meets, nearly 90 percent of all events.

The Razorbacks' success on floor helped them lock in back-to-back SEC wins against No. 20 Missouri and No. 10 Georgia midway through the season. The consecutive wins marked the first time since 2017 that Arkansas won two-straight conference meets and consecutive meets against a ranked opponent.

Arkansas saw six Gymsbaks wrap up the 2020 season ranked in the top 100 by Road to Nationals in at least one event, with four Hogs finishing with multiple top 100 rankings. With Wieber's lead, Arkansas won 27 event titles through 10 meets. Hambrick finished the season with the most individual titles among the Gymsbaks, securing 11 event titles including a team-high four all-around titles.

The first home meet of the Wieber era was held on Jan. 17 against No. 3 Denver, bringing a then-record crowd of 6,714 fans to Barnhill Arena. On Feb. 21, Coach Wieber and her Arkansas squad hosted Auburn for a Women's Empowerment Meet, the first of its kind in NCAA gymnastics and now an annual tradition for the Gymsbaks.

Wieber wrapped up her third season as a volunteer assistant coach at UCLA and her sixth with the program in 2019, assisting the team in a variety of roles during her first three years in Westwood following her Olympic career. Wieber coached the Bruins on floor exercise, an event in which UCLA finished the 2018 and 2019 regular seasons ranked No. 1 in the nation. In 2019, the Bruins recorded scores of 49.5 or better in 11 of 14 meets, averaging a national-best 49.604 on floor. Four Bruins earned regular season All-America honors in the event - Katelyn Ohashi, Kyla Ross, Gracie Kramer and Felicia Hano. At the 2019 NCAA Championships, Wieber coached future Arkansas assistant Ross to the individual floor title with a score of 9.950, the program's second in as many years. After winning their semifinal session with a 197.650, UCLA finished third overall in the finals.

The 2018 Bruins scored 49.4 or higher in 11 meets and 49.6 or higher in three meets, including a national season-high of 49.775 set on Feb. 25. She and her fellow UCLA coaches were named the 2018 West Region Assistant Coaches of the Year, as they helped lead the Bruins to Pac-12, NCAA regional and NCAA national titles.

Wieber, who has been a vocal advocate for safe sport, has won many awards in the past several years, including the Arthur Ashe Courage Award at the ESPYS, the Rising Star Award by the Los Angeles Business Journal, and the Giant Steps A Hero Among Us Award.

A member of the "Fierce Five" United States squad that won team gold at the 2012 Olympics, Wieber was a two-time U.S. all-around champion (2011 and 2012) and the 2011 World all-around champion. Her illustrious elite career included three medals (all-around and team gold, beam bronze) at the 2011 World Championships, four U.S. senior national titles (all-around, bars and floor in 2011 and all-around in 2012). She was also the 2008 U.S. junior all-around, vault and floor exercise champion and the American Cup all-around champion in 2009, 2011 and 2012. She dominated the competition at the 2010 Pacific Rim Championships, winning four gold medals (all-around, uneven bars, floor exercise, team) and one silver (vault). In her first international competition at the 2007 Junior Pan American Championships, she won gold medals on uneven bars and balance beam, silver in the all-around and bronze on floor exercise. Wieber officially retired from competitive gymnastics in 2015.

Wieber, from DeWitt, Mich., graduated from UCLA in 2017 with a degree in Psychology. She was a 2016 inductee into the Greater Lansing Sports Hall of Fame, a 2021 Michigan Sports Hall of Fame Inductee and is also a member of the USA Gymnastics Hall of Fame.
