HEAD COACH - MELISSA INOUYE

The 2026 Softball season will mark the eight for Melissa Inouye as Head Coach of the program, coming off the Rams' third trip to the Atlantic 10 Championship game under her tutelage.

In her seven years thus far, Inouye has led the Rams to a pair of Atlantic 10 titles, including the program's seventh straight in 2019, a season that coincided with her earning Atlantic 10 Coach of the Year accolades. A former assistant at Fordham under long-time head coach Bridget Orchard in 2012, Inouye claimed her second conference crown in 2022, leading the program to its 10th NCAA Tournament appearance all-time.

A trio of players would light up the statsheet throughout the year during the 2025 campaign, with Sydney Wells, Neleh Nogay, and Holly Beeman setting numerous single season records, while ranked amongst the national leaders in a variety of categories for much of the campaign. Upsetting both the No. 2 and No. 1 seeds at the A-10 Championship in Washington D.C. Fordham would advance to the title game for the first time since winning in 2022, falling in a pair of pitchers duels via walk-offs on championship Sunday.

Wells would tally one of the best offensive seasons in program history, setting single season Top-10 marks in six different categories, including hits, walks, RBIs, total bases, slugging percentage, and on-base percentage. At season's end the Rams took home 10 total All-Conference accolades awarded to seven different players, the second most awards ever for Fordham Softball in a single year.

In 2024, the Rams once again reached the postseason, with the offense clinching all-season long, rattling off the sixth most doubles of any team in the country, and the third most by a Fordham team in program history, with four different players rattling off 12 or more doubles on the year.

The spring of 2023 saw Neleh Nogay become just the eighth player in program history to be named to the All-Atlantic 10 First Team as a freshman. Nogay and fellow freshman Holly Beeman earned All-Rookie honors as the Rams qualified for their 20th consecutive Atlantic 10 Tournament.

The Rams posted a banner year in 2021, going 37-10 overall and 17-3 in league play to earn the no. 2 seed at the A-10 Championship. Fordham's season came to a close with a loss to eventual champion, George Washington. Still, the Rams saw six student-athletes garner All-Conference honors in May - Devon Miller was named Rookie of the Year along with First Team All-Conference and All-Rookie, while Brianna Pinto and Sarah Taffet were named to the Second Team, Bella Ayala and Bailey Enoch to the All-Rookie team, and Madie Aughinbaugh to the All-Academic squad. Aughinbaugh, Rachel Hubertus, Miller, and Pinto were all selected as NFCA Third Team All-Region honorees, as well.

Despite the 2020 campaign getting cut short, the team still garnered five Atlantic 10 weekly awards in just four weeks - freshman Amanda Carey was named Co-Rookie of the Week after the opening weekend, while Aughinbaugh earned one Player of the Week and one Pitcher honor, and freshman Devon Miller was named Rookie of the Week twice.

2019 was another stellar season for the softball program during Inouye's first campaign in charge, as the Rams finished with a 29-26 overall record, 16-6 in league play, and a seventh consecutive, and eighth overall, A-10 title. They added a sixth regular season championship for good measure. In addition to Inouye's Coach of the Year accolade, junior Madie Aughinbaugh was named the league's Pitcher of the Year and the A-10 Championship's Most Outstanding Player for a second consecutive year, plus First Team All-Conference and NFCA Third Team All-Region honors.

Prior to her return to the Bronx, Inouye spent six years as head coach of the Iona softball program. While in charge of the Gaels, Inouye was named MAAC Coach of the Year on two occasions, including in 2017 after leading the team to the MAAC regular season title with a 15-5 league record and the inaugural National Invitational Softball Championship (NISC), where Iona defeated Campbell for its first-ever postseason victory. Inouye also took home the MAAC's top coaching honors after leading the program to its sixth conference championship, and a trip to the Seattle NCAA Regional, in 2014.
