HEAD COACH
KEN ERIKSEN

29TH SEASON // 1,213-616-2 // SOUTH FLORIDA '84

ALL-TIME WINNINGEST COACH IN USF ATHLETICS HISTORY

He's a recognized teacher and advocate for women's athletics. His resume begins as a student-athlete at USF (1979-80) and includes numerous recognitions and achievements as a player and as a coach. His career continued on the highest stage of softball with two Olympic appearances (2004, 2021). Ken Eriksen has pretty much done it all in his profession.

"What I know is this: the people in your organization, whether they are your teammates or you are leading them, matter the most, regardless of their roles. Productivity measurements should not be the end-all of understanding 'value'. Taking into account the needs and wants of the individual is tantamount to organizational success. The people you are charged with leading all have something to say. If you quell their exuberance and enthusiasm, you can never create a 'two-way' sense of loyalty. This, I believe, has helped create a sustained positive environment and culture at USF Softball for the last 26 years."

Eriksen has been honored throughout his career. In addition to his induction into the High School Hall of Fame (2009, Ward Melville HS, East Setauket, NY), the United States Olympic Hall of Fame (2012), USA Softball Hall of Fame (2016), and the Sports Club of Tampa Bay Hall of Fame (2021), Eriksen was awarded what he considers a very humbling recognition as a University of South Florida Distinguished Alumni (2022). In December 2026, Eriksen will be inducted into the NFCA Hall of Fame.

"To be recognized by your university, especially as the first person from athletics to do so, is incredible and nothing I would have thought about or set out to do. It is humbling and appreciated."
