The Quick Story: The Chicago Bandits (16-8) rallied in the bottom of the eighth inning with two runs on three infield singles en route to a 2-1 walk-off victory over the Utah Talons (15-9) in Athletes Unlimited Softball League action at Hillsboro Ballpark on Saturday afternoon.

Key Moment: After the Talons took a 1-0 lead in the top of the eighth inning, Chicago tied the game at 1-all with a pair of infield singles. Infielder Sami Williams completed the comeback with a bunt single on a suicide squeeze play to score outfielder Bella Dayton for the team's third walk-off win of the season.

Same Names, Different Places: Saturday's game was played at Hillsboro Ballpark, the home of the Portland Cascade, after the series was moved due to air quality issues in the Chicago area.
