» WR Chris Marshall led Arkansas in receptions (4) alongside Antonio Jordan and paced the Hogs in receiving yards (63) for the eighth game this season. Marshall is the first Hog to lead Arkansas in receiving yards in 8+ games through 10 games of a season since Marcus Monk (8) in 2006.

» DB Joker Johnson became just the fifth Arkansas defender since 1995 to register 8+ tackles and record multiple interceptions in a game alongside Jalen Catalon (Sept. 9, 2021), Dre Greenlaw (Sept. 29, 2018), Henre' Toliver (Nov. 24, 2017) and Tramain Thomas (Oct. 8, 2011). He also became the first Hog with a multi-interception game since TJ Metcalf had two in a win at Auburn on Sept. 21, 2024. He

» The Razorbacks recorded their first ranked win since Oct. 5, 2024, when they defeated No. 4 Tennessee, 19-14.

» DB Joker Johnson registered his second interception return for a touchdown this season courtesy of a 63-yard pick-six at the 4:22 mark of the third quarter. He became just the third Arkansas defender since 1956 to return multiple interceptions for touchdowns in a season alongside Orlando Waters (1993, 2) and David Dudley (1985, 2). It marked the fourth multi-interception game by an Arkansas defender vs. a ranked opponent since 1995 alongside Joseph Fouca (2020, 2, No. 16 Mississippi State), Tramain Thomas (2011, 2, No. 10 Auburn) and Vickiel Vaughn (2005, 2, No. 3 LSU).

» Arkansas now leads the all-time series with South Carolina, 15-10. Arkansas has won five of the previous six meetings on The Hill dating back to 2007.

» DL Charlie Collins registered the first recovered fumble of his collegiate career at the 9:19 mark of the second quarter. It marked the Hogs' 6th fumble recovery of the season, their most since 2022 (9).

GAME NOTES

» The Razorbacks' 17-0 lead at the break was the largest halftime lead against an SEC opponent since holding a 31-10 lead at Mississippi State in 2024. It was the Hogs' largest halftime lead at home since a 35-6 advantage over Ole Miss in 2022.

» With his fourth win this season, Ryan Silverfield has earned the most wins by a first-year Arkansas head coach since John L. Smith recorded four in 2012.

» Ryan Silverfield became the eighth head coach in program history to defeat a ranked opponent in his first season at the helm. He joins Sam Pittman (2020, 1), Bobby Petrino (2008, 2), Houston Nutt (1998, 1), Danny Ford (1993, 2), Lou Holtz (1977, 3), Frank Broyles (1958, 1) and John Barnhill (1946, 1). Additionally, Joe Kines also earned a ranked win in 1992 while serving in an interim capacity.

» The Razorbacks recorded their third first-half shutout of the season, the most first-half shutouts in a season since they registered four in 2024. They previously accomplished the feat this season against North Alabama and Tulsa.

» LB Ja'Quavion Smith became just the third Arkansas defender to register 7+ tackles, 1.0+ sacks and 1+ pass breakups against a ranked opponent since 1995. He joins Trey Flowers, who accomplished the feat twice in 2014 against No. 7 Alabama (8 TKL, 1 sack, 2 PBU) and No. 17 Missouri (8 TKL, 1 sack, 1 PBU) and Antwain Robinson, who did so against No. 6 USC (8 TKL, 1 sack, 2 PBU) in 2006.

» Arkansas allowed no points in the first quarter for the fifth time this season. The Razorbacks also accomplished the feat against North Alabama, Tulsa, Tennessee and Auburn. It marks the most first-quarter shutouts by an Arkansas defense since 2024 (5).

» The Hogs' four turnovers forced tonight were the most in a single game since they registered five in a 58-25 win at Mississippi State on Oct. 26, 2024. The four turnovers forced were the most against a ranked opponent since Oct. 3, 2020, when Arkansas forced four in a 21-14 win at Mississippi State. The four turnovers forced were tied for the second-most against a ranked foe since 1995, trailing only six forced in a 30-0 win over Ole Miss on Nov. 22, 2014.

» The Razorbacks' 250 consecutive extra-points made streak, which began on Dec. 5, 2020, is the longest streak nationally by date.

» The Razorbacks have allowed 6 points or fewer in multiple games for the first time since 2014 when they accomplished the feat in consecutive shutout wins over No. 20 LSU (17-0) and No. 8 Ole Miss (30-0).

ARKANSAS QUOTES

Ryan Silverfield, Arkansas Head Coach

Opening Statement ...
"Thank you guys for being here. Let me start by showing gratitude towards our military. Obviously, this was a military appreciation game with Veterans Day earlier this week. I think the least we could do is just show our appreciation for them, those that are currently serving, those that served and those that paid the ultimate sacrifice. We're forever grateful. I want to start with that. This one, tonight, was for our great fans in the state of Arkansas. They certainly deserve this; the fans have been begging and hoping for a home win, an SEC home win. It's been 770 days since the last SEC home win, which is too long. So we're gonna enjoy this one. I'm proud of the guys' resiliency. You have the opportunity to come out and beat a top 20 opponent, handily, and play pretty well on offense and defense. You gotta be proud. I tell the guys to keep showing up and keep working. Obviously, tonight's a direct reflection of the young men in that locker room. We cannot be more proud of them and the efforts they put in. We're gonna look to continue to improve. We're gonna enjoy this one tonight, but this one's certainly for all of our great fans."

On Joker Johnson's impact...
"Clearly impactful. He forced a fumble, had an interception, and obviously, that pick-six. He's a smart young man and loves ball. He loves being a Razorback. I'm just so proud of his efforts tonight. He's a great guy who's kind of stepped up in a leadership role since he's been here, and just every week, he continues to show leadership. Not just because of the way he plays. I just grabbed him and gave him a hug, told him I loved him and I was proud of him. And he said the same back, and that's pretty damn special."

On the importance of finishing a game strong...
"It's everything. We talk about being a fourth-quarter team, that mentality. And in fact, last Sunday, I approached the team about having to find a different mentality in the fourth quarter, where it's put the foot on the throat and choke a dude out. That's got to be the mindset and approach that we have to have. We finish people. If we're behind, we're gonna to scratch and fight to take the lead. I want our guys to have that approach. We're not there yet. We had some games in the fourth quarter where we didn't get the outcome we wanted, or the results we wanted. So, it's teaching guys what this looks like, and showing them, this is how you play football. This is what that mentality needs to look like. When you throw those fours in the fourth quarter, and tonight's a small step towards that."

On the defense's overall play...
"I think a little bit of pressure and disguising some of the coverages. When you get those takeaways in there, I believe they were one for five in the red zone. I think about even right before half the stop, forcing the missed field goal. It's also a mentality, right? When you get in the red zone, we talk about getting stops and getting three-and-outs, or four-and-outs, you know, turnover on downs when our backs are against the wall. Let's not let them in there. I think that mentality has been carried out with our defense, especially tonight, and finding a way."

KJ Jackson, Arkansas QB

On agressive gameplan...
"Yeah, we did. We had an idea that we are going to be aggressive on third mediums and being in fourth down territory a lot of the time. Chris (Marshall) and AJ (Antonio Jordan) both made really great catches on those touchdowns."

On similarity of touchdown passes...
"Those guys are cut from the same cloth. They like to go get the ball and they ran go balls, and they went and got them for me."
Antonio grabbed the ball of the cornerback's shoulder, he didn't even secure it first. What was your vantage point of that play, and how big was that to extend the lead. "Yeah, he's a great player. He makes a lot of contested catches for us. And, our thing was getting in the red zone, scoring this weekend. Those two drives, we did really good at the end of the first half."

On the defense...
"Those guys, they played their tails off tonight. Joker (Johnson). Ben Bogle, we had a fumble recovery too. They took the ball tonight, and really made it easy for us."

On magnitude of touchdown to end the half...
"I think it was big. We were playing with a lead, the O-line did a great job. We were able to run the ball and that last possession we got the ball on our side of the field. Those guys did an amazing job up front, willing us into the end zone."

On taking advantage of opponents mistakes...
"It was great. We went out there and handled our business, we didn't shoot ourselves in the foot too much. When we do what we're coached to do, we're good at football."

On getting a big win for the fan base...
"Yeah, it was huge for the fan base. I'm happy that everybody is going to go home and feel good about the game. There are a couple guys on the team that have been here for the 700 something days. It was great to get that feeling in the locker room as well."

On the offensive line protecting the quarterback…
"Man, everything to those boys. They did an amazing up front. They were the most physical group tonight, they played a great game. We were able to run the ball, just happy for those boys and seeing them perform the way they did."

Kash Courtney, Arkansas OL

On getting a push all night…
"It felt really good. You know, all this week prepping up, we wanted to be more physical people compared to last week. We had really good D-line, that is what we were thinking."

On pass blocking success…
"Like I said, just being a more physical group. They have really good future first rounders on that D-line. We just had to get on them before they could move on us. And that was our emphasizes this week."

Cam Settles, Arkansas RB

On having a 17-point lead…
"Level headed, and the mindset was zero-zero. At the end of the day, you know that things happen. We wanted to make sure we stayed grounded, keep that mindset at zero-zero, and keep whopping butt when we go back out there."

On getting a big win for the fan base…
"Just coming from a hometown in AR, you just know how much it means to those fans. So getting that dub for them, it just means a lot. You like to see the fanbase happy. When the fanbase happy, it means a lot to us players as well. We build off of y'all."

Joker Johnson, Arkansas DB

On the pick six…
"I had just got across the logo, and I had saw the receiver's wide split. I told the safety (Christian Harrison) to just get me on the sluggo (slant-and-go). I'm driving on the slant. I knew it was a slant and go. I'm driving on the slant. (Christian), just get me over the top. It was cover two, so I can do that. It was a great call. I made the play in front of me. That's it."

On similarities of his pick-sixes this season…
"Yeah, you just got to trust what you see. When the offense is snitching, you got to believe them."

On his impact during the win…
"It was great. All of the work we put in and it's finally getting on display. A lot of people don't see we put in a lot of work. It's starting to pay off. It's starting to come together. I was just happy to be in the moment. It was a great feeling."

On winning the turnover battle…
"I mean it felt great, but it felt better winning the game. I like winning. It was a great feeling to win the game. Overall, it was a great feeling. "Coach Silverfield talked about it all week. Don't just talk about it; let's be about it. You can say what you want, but you got to put it on the tape. You got to go out there and find a way to win. We were close to winning games. We finally bought in and found a way. At the end of the day, we just found a way to win the game.

On preparation lduring the week…
"We went in preparing for the scheme, really. The offense is the offense no matter who's at quarterback. We ran plays that they put on tape. We practice it, and we believe our keys. It was trusting what coach was putting in front of us. We don't get too ahead; we just focus on whatever they put on tape, and we just execute the play."

With your pick six, it came in a moment where they had a chance to cut into the lead. How important do you feel like that was just overall for the team to flip that momentum right there?
"We knew we were going to hit adversity sooner or later. We just stayed poised. We just stayed to our roots. We don't get too high. We don't get too low. We know, if a play gets put in front of us, we're expected to make the play. It was nothing special. If he puts you in a position to make a play, just make it. That's what I did. It was pretty cool, though."

Bradley Shaw, Arkansas LB

How much do you think the pressure you were able to put on the opposing quarterback made a difference tonight?
"We knew from the get go that we were gonna pressure them no matter who the quarterback was. Putting them under that pressure caused them to make some decisions, then Joker capitalized on them."

On red zone defense…
"I'd say just being gap sound and having elite communication down there."

On limiting South Carolina's rushing offense…
"Like I said, it was just being gap sound and trusting that your teammate's going to be where he's supposed to be. Just doing your job, all eleven doing your job, and trusting everybody."

SOUTH CAROLINA QUOTES

Shane Beamer, South Carolina Head Coach

Opening Statement …
"Obviously a really disappointing night, to say the least. Credit to Arkansas, that's a team that's been knocking on the door all year, we talked about it this week with the close losses that they've had. And, you know, they played well tonight and found a way. This was a game that we certainly helped them in a lot of ways and made way too many mistakes as a football team. I know all the talk out there going into this game, was [about us] looking past this game, 'trap game' and all that stuff, and I did not get any sense of that throughout the week with our team, which is what makes tonight really frustrating for me. But clearly, we weren't ready to play because we made way too many mistakes offensively, defensively. We weren't ready to play mentally. I thought we had a really good week of practice, and our guys were excited about it, and we just we helped them in way too many ways just with some of the mistakes that we made. Offense, defense, and special teams, coaching, all of that. Thought they played hard, but when you get destroyed in the turnover battle, like we got destroyed in the turnover battle tonight and make some of the mistakes that we make, that's what happens. And, you know, hate it for our team. But as I told them in there, the togetherness and the closeness of this team is what helped us come out of that 2-3 funk that we were in and win four in a row. The leadership on this team is what helped us in those moments. And that's what we're going to lean on now in a tough moment. So hate it for our guys, really hurt for them and disappointed for them, but I know what kind of men we have in that locker room and I will bounce back too."

On the decision to not use LaNorris Sellers…
"Yeah, he was available tonight. That's what the SEC Availability Report is. It's an availability report, and he was questionable, like we said midweek. He was probable at the end of the week and he was available tonight, but we just felt like from a physical standpoint, he wasn't able to move, like he wanted to move to be able to get himself out of trouble in the pocket and run the football, which is a big part of his game. So, you know, he did everything in his power to be 100% and he got a little bit better each day, but he just wasn't to the point where we felt like he gave us the best chance. LaNorris practiced on Wednesday and Thursday and then did stuff yesterday back in Columbia too. But Cutter (Woods) got the majority of the reps and felt like Cutter gave us the best chance to start the game. "

On the struggles with the run game…
"A lot of the passes were RPOs and things like that, runs that we had called tonight. We certainly wanted to run the ball. They're hard to run the ball on. They do a nice job on defense. [Quincy Rhodes Jr.] is a really good player. [Steven Soles] is a really good player up front. What they do defensively makes it really tough on people. But I told the team on Tuesday, I walked in the team meeting, I said, 'If we don't run the ball on Saturday night, we don't stop the run, we're probably going to get our asses kicked,' and, you know, we ran the ball for 98 yards and we gave up whatever it is, 167. We've got to be able to control the ball better. Thirty carries for 98 yards is not us. "

On what may have contributed to the team's performance mentally…
"It's hard to put my finger on it. There's great belief in Cutter on our football team. Great belief. And when the team saw Cutter all week in practice, and when I told the team last night at the hotel what we were doing, it wasn't like, 'Oh crap, LaNorris wasn't playing,' it's 'Heck yeah, we believe in Cutter and let's go play ball.' The mentality I thought was really, really good coming in here. Just a lot of mistakes. And again, that's ultimately on me if we're making mistakes. I'm in charge of whatever the product is out there on the field. We had our opportunities tonight and give them credit. I told the team at halftime that they're making plays and we're not. We got guys in position to make plays and we're not making plays. Their guys are making plays. We needed to go out here in the second half and needed to make plays and coach better. And I thought some guys really battled and did that, we just didn't do enough of it. And again, we've been living dangerously on the turnover battle. We lost. We got destroyed in the turnover battle at Oklahoma, and we somehow won the game. We lost a turnover battle last week and we won the game. And you can't keep living on the edge of losing the turnover battle and thinking you're going to win football games, not in this conference. And tonight it certainly caught up with us."

Jabree Coleman, South Carolina RB

On inconsistent run game…
"On my part, I'll just say I have to be better. My O-line, they were blocking right. They were getting more than enough push. I need to be better at seeing the holes and making moves. I'd say that, for me and the running backs, we are way better than what we played today."

On playing behind QB Cutter Woods…
"It was amazing. Cutter is an amazing player. He is an amazing quarterback. Not everything went his way today, but that doesn't change the type of guy he is, or the type of player is he is. He's amazing. He prepares as hard as anyone, and he'll definitely put a way up next time he gets to."
