Game Notes

MUSICK LESSON

➞ Arkansas enters its second season under head coach Kelsi Musick, the 10th head coach in program history, who was hired on March 21, 2025.

➞ If you hear Musick talk, chances are she'll bring up her high-octane offense, and for good reason. Musick runs the dribble-drive offense with her own twists and learned it while she was an assistant at Fresno State in the early 2000s.

➞ Her offense transformed Southwestern Oklahoma State into a national powerhouse on the DII level, with 10 conference championships, multiple NCAA Tournament runs and a trip to the DII National Championship game in 2019.

➞ At ORU, Musick led the Golden Eagles to back-to-back 20-win seasons for the first time since the 2010-11 and 2011-12 seasons. Her offenses ranked in the top 16 in scoring average nationally in each of her three years in Tulsa. Each of her last two offenses at ORU ranked eighth nationally with 80+ points per game.

➞ Musick's offense has scored 85+ points (her goal) in each of its first four games this season, averaging 100.0 points which ranks third in the SEC.

WITH A WIN

➞ The Hogs would improve to 5-0 on the season, 9-0 against Little Rock and 5-0 against the Trojans in Little Rock.

➞ The 5-0 start would be Arkansas' best under Musick. She won her first four games last season before losing at Texas Tech in game 5.

ON THE TROJANS

➞ Little Rock is 1-3 to start Steve Wiedower's third season. The lone win came against Central Baptist, 108-12, in the season opener.

➞ Little Rock returned seven players and added seven. The top four scorers on this year's team are newcomers, led by JUCO transfer Nesi Anisiobi with 14.5 points/game.

➞ Arkansas is the second SEC team to visit the Jack Stephens Center this season. Missouri won 73-50 on Nov. 6.

HISTORIC OPENER

➞ Arkansas smashed program records for highest scoring game (127) and turnovers forced (51) in its 127-48 win over LSU New Orleans in the season opener on Nov. 2. The previous points and turnovers records stood since 1987 and 1990, respectively.

➞ The 79-point win tied the program record for largest margin of victory.

➞ The Hogs' 127 points were the second most nationally on opening night (behind LSU's 129) and the 11th most by an SEC team all-time.

➞ Arkansas' 64 first-half points were one point shy of tying the program's record for most points in a first half.

➞ The Razorbacks' 71 bench points were their most in a game since at least 2008 and the most in a game by any team in DI this season.

➞ The 68 points from turnovers were their most in a game since at least 2009. The next closest was 38 in a game in 2010.

➞ Arkansas' 27 steals were their third-most in a game since 1982 and their most since 2004, when they had 28 against Centenary.

➞ The Razorbacks' 28 assists were their most in a game since 2013 when they had 29 against Ole Miss.

➞ The Hogs' 26 offensive rebounds were the most in a game since 2018.

➞ Prestridge became the first Arkansas freshman since at least 2002 to record a double-double in their collegiate debut. She was one of 11 freshmen nationally to record a double-double in their first game and one of two in the SEC joining LSU's ZaKiyah Johnson.

NOT SO SECRET SCRIMMAGES

➞ Arkansas faced Tulsa in a scrimmage in Tulsa Oct. 17 and won 106-89. 31 of Arkansas' 106 points and 46 of Tulsa's 89 points came from the free throw line. Whitley Rogers led the Hogs with 22 points and made four threes. The Razorbacks shot 45.1% (32-71) from the field, 34.4% (11-32) from three and 68.9% (31-45) from the free throw line. Tulsa outrebounded Arkansas 39-31.

➞ The Hogs traveled to Fort Worth and took on preseason No. 15 TCU on Oct. 23. Arkansas led by 16 in the second quarter and led 45-34 at halftime. The Horned Frogs outscored the Hogs 34-31 in the second half to send the game to overtime and TCU won 90-82. The Razorbacks shot 37.8% (28-74) from the field, 15.4% (4-26) from three and 78.6% (22-28) from the free throw line. Daniah Trammell led all scorers with 24 points and had eight rebounds. TCU won the battle of the boards, 42-38.

THE NEWCOMERS

➞ The Razorbacks added 12 newcomers to the 2025-26 roster: 7 transfers and 5 freshmen

➞ The seven transfers include Ayianna Johnson (Colorado-Colorado Springs), Grace McCallop (Cal), Jianna Morris (Louisiana Tech), Kateri Poole (Houston), D'Asia Thomas-Harris (Georgia Tech), Daniah Trammell (Arizona) and Beautiful Waheed (St. John's).

➞ Freshmen Julija Matic (Bellinzona, Switzerland), Allannah Orsby (Jonesboro, Ark.), Kyiah Prestridge (Oklahoma City, Okal.), Adriana Reijnen (Amsterdam, Netherlands) and Whitley Rogers (Little Rock, Ark.) were part of Musick's first true freshman signing class.

➞ Two Razorbacks returned from Musick's first season: Aisha Hassan and Emily Robinson. Hassan did not appear in any games due to a preseason injury.

A COUPLE FIRSTS

➞ Kelsi Musick is Arkansas women's basketball's first female head coach since Susie Garnder led the Razorbacks from 2003-2007.

➞ Hometown firsts: Julija Matic is the first Swiss player in Razorback history. Aisha Hassan is the first Egyptian player in Razorback history. Kateri Poole is the first New Yorker in Razorback history.

NEW STAFF

➞ Musick filled three roles after the 2025-26 season and hired Dionnah Jackson-Durrett as an assistant coach and the defensive coordinator, Erin Horne as director of operations and Makyra Tramble as director of player development.

➞ Jackson-Durrett comes to Fayetteville after four seasons as the head coach at Kansas City. Prior to Jackson-Durrett's first head coaching gig, she served as the associate head coach at Texas under Vic Schaefer. In two seasons in Austin, she helped lead the Longhorns to 50 wins, a 2022 Big 12 Tournament Title and back-to-back NCAA Elite Eight appearances. The Longhorns' 2021 Elite Eight appearance was their first since 2016, and the 2022 appearance marked the first back-to-back Elite Eight showings since 1989-90. The Big 12 Tournament win was the program's first since 2003. She also coached with Shaefer at Mississippi State and the Bulldogs to back-to-back NCAA Championship game appearances in 2017 and 2018.

➞ Horne replaces longtime director of operations Amber Shirey, who spent 39 years with the program in multiple roles. Horne most recently served as the director of operations at UCF for three seaosns. Prior to that, the Orlando native was an assistant coach at Lipscomb for four seasons. Horne played collegiately at Converse College (SC), where she was a four-year letter winner and became the all-time steals record holder for the Valkyries.

➞ Tramble spent the first three seasons of her playing career at Southwestern Oklahoma State under Musick, where she was named the DII National Player of the Year in 2022 and was a three-time All-American and all-GAC player. The 5-10 guard from Shawnee, Oklahoma, transferred to Oklahoma State for her senior season and made 10 appearances for the Cowgirls before suffering a season-ending injury. Tramble rejoined Musick at ORU as a graduate student for two more seasons. In her final season, 2024-25, she started all 33 games, averaged 10.6 points, 3.2 assists and 3.9 rebounds and led the Summit League with 2.0 steals per game.

➞ Returning staff includes assistant coaches Lacey Goldwire (seventh season), who was promoted to recruiting coordinator in the offseason, Nick Bradford (third season) and Alex Furr (second season). Carter Mumm returns for his second season as the video coordinator.

PERSONAL:

BORN
January 28, 1980 - Canton, Oklahoma

EDUCATION
Canton High School, 1998
Cameron University, 2002 - B.S. Elementary Education

FAMILY
Husband - Josh Musick
Children - Maddox, Titus and Amaria

PLAYING CAREER
Cameron University - 1998-2002

The University of Arkansas hired Kelsi Musick on March 21, 2025, to be the 10th head coach of the Razorbacks' women's basketball program.

Musick picked up her first win as the Razorbacks' head coach on Nov. 4, 2025 against Louisiana Tech, 93-81.

Musick comes to Arkansas after a successful three-year stint at Oral Roberts, where she led the Golden Eagles to postseason appearances in each of the last two seasons while increasing the team's win total every year. ORU wrapped up their season last night in the first round of the WBIT to finish the year 24-9 and give the Golden Eagles consecutive 20-win seasons for the first time since 2009-12. She built the program each of her three seasons, winning 12 games in the first season, 21 wins in the second and 24 this past season – the most for the Golden Eagles in a single season since Debbie Yow won 26 games in 1982-83. Along the way, her teams were no strangers in taking down opponents from bigger conferences with a pair of wins against Southeastern Conference teams this past season to go with four total wins over teams from the American Athletic Conference over the last two years.

Known for her fast-paced, dribble-drive offense, Musick quickly turned around Oral Roberts. Her Golden Eagles finished in the Top 20 nationally in points per game each of her three seasons – scoring 78.1 points per game in her first season to finish 16th, 81.8 points per game last season to finish eighth and averaged 83.2 points per game during the regular season to rank eighth nationally entering postseason play. Musick has also attracted elite talent, coaching 2023-24 Summit League Freshman of the Year Emily Robinson and Newcomer of the Year Taleyah Jones and reigning two-time Sixth Woman of the Year Jalei Oglesby. Jones and Oglesby were both named to the All-Summit League First Team this season after the duo led the Golden Eagles in points per game with Jones scoring 18.1 and Oglesby 17.3, respectively.

"As I spoke to Kelsi and people associated with her, I was impressed by her work ethic, enthusiasm and her ability to maximize resources in building winning programs at each of her coaching stops," Director of Athletics and Vice Chancellor Hunter Yurachek said. "She has proven to be a great relationship builder and communicator throughout her career to the benefit of her teams and student-athletes on and off the court. Having grown up and coached in Oklahoma, she has a familiarity with our area that will help her quickly connect with our state and fan base.

"Kelsi is a rising star in the women's basketball coaching profession. I believe the University of Arkansas is the best place for her to develop her full potential as a coach while also leading our program to success. Throughout my conversations with Kelsi, it was apparent she wanted to be an Arkansas Razorback and welcomed the challenge of building our women's basketball program to compete against the best-of-the-best in the SEC. I want to thank Derita Dawkins, Taylor McGillis and Kat Devenport for their assistance during the search process."

Musick led ORU to a second-place finish in the Summit League this past season after a third-place finish in her second season in Tulsa. Her 2023-24 team made history with the program's first 20-win season since 2011-12 and made it to the postseason for the first time since 2011 by hosting Grambling in the first round of the WNIT.

"I am incredibly honored and grateful for the opportunity to lead the women's basketball program at the University of Arkansas," Musick said. "This is a place with a proud tradition, passionate fans and a commitment to excellence in every way. I'm excited to get to work building something special. I want to thank Hunter Yurachek and his staff for their belief in me, and I can't wait to pour into our student-athletes, compete in the SEC and represent this university with pride."

Prior to Oral Roberts, she spent 13 seasons as the head coach at NCAA Division II Southwestern Oklahoma State. Musick amassed a 259-125 (.674) record at SWOSU earning Great American Conference Coach of the Year honors five times while leading the Lady Bulldogs to the national championship game in 2019 as part of seven NCAA Tournament appearances.

The Lady Bulldogs ranked in the Top 10 nationally in scoring offense in seven of her nine nine seasons, averaging more than 80 points per game in five of those years. In her final season, the team averaged 82.1 points per game to rank third in the nation. That same season, sophomore Makyra Tramble was named the Ron Lenz National Player of the Year and an All-American. Tramble went on to become a three-time All-American and three-time GAC Player of the Year. Musick's 2018-19 team won 35 consecutive games – setting the school record for wins in a single season – and advanced to the NCAA National Championship game.

Musick's career began at Fresno State with one season as the Director of Basketball Operations (2003-04) before becoming the head coach at Canton (Okla.) High School, her alma mater. After two seasons leading Canton, she returned to Fresno State as the Basketball Operations Coordinator (2006-08) before spending one season as an Assistant Coach. The Bulldogs won 20 games in consecutive seasons and captured the Western Athletic Conference regular-season and tournament titles before finishing 24-9 with a trip to the NCAA Tournament in 2009.

Musick played collegiately at Cameron University, where she set school records for career three-point shooting percentage and assists. As a senior, she helped lead the Aggies to a school record 25 wins and the program's first-ever appearance in the NCAA Tournament. She was inducted into the Cameron University Athletics Hall of Fame in February 2025.

Musick and her husband, Josh, have three children – sons, Maddox and Titus, and one daughter, Amaria.

I love her grit and I love the fact that she can shoot it, she can post and she can get to the rim. She's aggressive around the rim and a really good rebounder. She has a motor and she wants to win and I love that. Recruiting to the system is extremely important and she fits that to a T.
