John Shulman was named ASUN Coach of the Year, Camren Hunter was named Player of the Year and a unanimous 1st Team All-ASUN selection, and Ty Robinson was named to the 2nd Team All-ASUN Team, the All-Freshman Team, and the All-Academic Team.

Newton's father, Rod, won the 2000 SEC outdoor high jump title at Mississippi State.

√ NEW ARENA?: The Bears celebrated the 50th year of the Farris Center during the 2022-23 season (Dec. 6) vs. Arkansas State. The first game in the Farris Center was played on Dec. 7, 1972, an 87-85 victory over cross-town rival Hendrix.

Prior to the opening of the Farris Center, the Bears played in what was then called the Old Gym and is now called the Prince Center, located across the street from Farris. The Prince Center is now the exclusive home to UCA volleyball.

Numerous renovations have taken place at the Farris Center, including recent additions of floor seating, videoboard, wooden playing surface (Scottie Pippen Court), practice gym and renovated locker rooms.

The UCA Board of Trustees voted in October '24 to explore building a new arena due to the condition of much of the infrastructure of the current Farris Center.

√ PRESEASON PICK: UCA was picked first in the UAC Preseason Coaches Poll, ahead of Austin Peay, Little Rock and Tarleton State. Tucker Anderson and Ty Robinson were both named to the Preseason All-UAC Team. Austin Peay's Rashaud Marshall was tabbed Preseason Player of the Year.

AT UCA

John Shulman became the head coach at the University of Central Arkansas on March 18, 2024 after a successful stint at The University of Alabama at Huntsville and the University of Tennessee Chattanooga. Shulman is entering year 39 in his coaching career, having spent 8 years coaching high school and 31 in the collegiate ranks. Shulman has been a college head coach for 15 years and has guided two programs to the NCAA tournament, at the Division I and Division II levels.

Coach Shulman's first year at UCA was a season of building culture and new standards. The Bears dealt with injuries, but Shulman was able to guide them to the Atlantic Sun Tournament and earned them their second ASUN tournament victory in program history with a 77-72 win over the defending ASUN champions, Stetson. Shulman's teams have consistently proven themselves in tournament play, showing consistent improvement as the season progresses. Going back to his time at UAH, in games played after January 25, his teams are a combined 52-16 (.765) overall, 37-9 (.804) in regular season games and 15-7 (.682) in postseason competition.

The 2025-26 season was one for the record books. In his second year leading the program, the Bears won the ASUN regular season going 15-3 (all three losses were on the road and in OT). This was the first championship for the Bears basketball program in the Division I era. During this historic season the Bears won 11 straight conference games and 13 of their last 14 games. The Bears had the second-ranked offense and defense in the ASUN and were first in the league in margin, winning by an average of 9 points per game. As a result of all the success during this season, Coach Shulman was named ASUN Coach of the Year.

AT UAH

Shulman compiled a 112-39 overall record in his time at UAH, which includes a 77-27 mark in Gulf South Conference matchups. In his five seasons with the Chargers, Shulman notched five NCAA tournament berths, two GSC tournament championships and one GSC regular season championship.

He also guided two GSC Players of the Year, three All-South District performers and five All-GSC selections. Moreover, under his mentorship, Sam Orf became the program's ninth All-American and the first-ever CoSIDA Academic All-American after being named the GSC West Division Player of the Year.

In his final campaign at UAH, Shulman led the Chargers to a 21-11 overall record and a 17-7 mark in the conference, which earned the squad the No. 3 seed in the GSC tournament. UAH once again earned a bid to the NCAA tournament, the program's fifth in five years under Shulman's tutelage.

AT CHATTANOOGA

He arrived in the Rocket City with an extensive resume of collegiate coaching experience, including serving as the head coach at Tennessee Chattanooga from 2004 to 2013. While at Chattanooga, the Mocs earned two NCAA tournament appearances following a pair of Southern Conference championships, and his team finished as the tournament runner-up in a third title game appearance. The second-winningest coach in Chattanooga history, Shulman also won four SoCon North Division championships.

In 2005, he was named the top collegiate coach in Tennessee thanks to a season that included an NCAA tournament berth and Chattanooga's first win in 80 years over in-state foe Tennessee. Shulman's teams were particularly strong on the glass, as the Mocs finished in the top three in the conference in both offensive rebounding and defensive rebounding in each of his nine seasons at the helm, and in eight of those nine years, Chattanooga finished in the top three in rebounding margin.

During his nine-year tenure at Chattanooga, Shulman mentored 18 players who would eventually play professionally, and his squads also featured 11 All-Southern Conference performers and 10 Southern Conference All-Tournament selections.

Shulman's recruiting record speaks for itself, as he brought to the Mocs four of the top 10 scorers, three of the top 10 shot blockers, four of the top 10 rebounders, five of the top 15 in field goals and each of the top five best 3-point makers in program history. Additionally, Shulman coached nine of the top 23 1,000-point scorers in Moc history.

BACKGROUND

Prior to taking over the top spot at Chattanooga, Shulman served as the team's associate head coach from 2002 to 2004, and that came after stints as an assistant at Wofford, Tennessee Tech and East Tennessee State. Shulman earned both his bachelor's and master's in physical education from ETSU in 1989 and 1992, respectively.

Shulman is married to his wife, Amy, and they have three sons: Max, Tanner and JC.
