HEAD COACH JASON WATSON | 10TH YEAR AT ARKANSAS (21ST OVERALL)

Jason Watson was named the third head coach of the University of Arkansas volleyball team on January 7, 2016, and has taken the program to historic heights ever since. He enters his 11th season with a 354-284 (.555) career record, 154-136 at Arkansas, and had led his teams to nine NCAA Tournament selections, the most recent in 2023.

The 2025 slate was challenging for Arkansas as the team finished 5-22, but Watson has reloaded for the 2026 season. In addition to a promising freshman class, the Hogs have added two highly-accomplished transfers in outside hitter Laci Bohannan and middle blocker Layla Smith. Bohannan, an Arkansas native, was a two-time First Team All-ASUN selection at Central Arkansas, and Layla Smith was an All-Mountain West honoree at Boise State who ranked in the top 10 nationally for blocks per set in 2025. Watson also bolstered his bench with the addition of alumna Maggie Cartwright as assistant coach, and now has three former players on staff with Cartwright, Hannah Hogue, and Courtney Jackson.

After reaching the program's first-ever Elite Eight in 2023, the 2024 season was one of rebuilding for Watson's crew. The team finished with a 16-12 record, the fifth straight season with 15 wins. It was highlighted by two All-SEC selections and an AVCA All-Region honorable mention nod for libero Courtney Jackson.

Razorback Nation continues to show out in the Watson Era, and in 2024, the program set a new season ticket holder record and saw an average of 1,000+ fans in attendance at each home match for the third straight season. Nine of the 10 highest-attended matches at Barnhill Arena have come in the last two seasons.

Watson's best season yet at Arkansas came in 2023 as the Hogs ended the 2023 slate at NCAA regional final, the furthest any Arkansas team has ever gone in an NCAA Tournament. Despite a 3-1 loss to the No. 1 Nebraska Cornhuskers, Arkansas was the only team to take a set from Nebraska through three rounds of tournament play. En route to that match, the Razorbacks took down the Kentucky Wildcats with a five-set victory in the Sweet 16, the first win over Kentucky for the program since 2012. Arkansas went into the NCAA Tournament as a 3-seed and hosted the first two rounds at Barnhill Arena for the first time since 2006.

In the regular season, Arkansas got out to a hot start at 18-2 in non-conference play, with the team's only two losses to No. 1 Wisconsin, one of them in five sets. The Hogs went 15-3 in SEC play, their best record since 2003, which included a 2-0 record agianst Florida. The Razorbacks went to Gainesville on Oct. 29 and got their first win ever in the swamp, in sweeping fashion.

The Hogs concluded 2023 with a 28-6 record, the most wins since 1999 and the third straight 20-win season for the program. They were one of just two teams, along with Nebraska, to not drop in the AVCA Coaches Poll through 10 weeks, spent six weeks in the top 10, and reached the highest rank in program history at No. 8.

By season's end, Watson was named the AVCA South Region Coach of the Year and SEC Co-Coach of the Year. After a stellar fifth year that saw her become the program all-time ace leader and No. 2 in program career kills with 2,075, Jill Gillen was named a Second Team All-American, All-South Region and All-SEC. Senior Taylor Head concluded her Arkansas career with Third Team All-America honors, another All-South Region nod, and was named All-SEC. Setter Hannah Hogue finished second in the country in total assists with 1,413, and received an All-America honorable mention along with All-South Region All-SEC, and SEC Co-Scholar Athlete of the Year nods. Fifth year outside hitter Maggie Cartwright was also named an All-South region honorable mention.

Also in 2023, Arkansas set a new single match attendance high of 4,299 on Aug. 30 against No. 1 Wisconsin. An average of 2,358 fans poured into Barnhill Arena for 17 matches, which ranked 16th nationally and second in the SEC.

Watson has now left his mark on U.S, professional volleyball as Gillen and Cartwright were both chosen in the inaugural Pro Volleyball Federation draft in December of 2023, and Head chosen the following year. Gillen went on to play two seasons in the PVF between Orlando and Columbus. After starting as a practice player, Cartwright was placed on the Omaha Supernovas active roster in February and was there as the Novas won the first-ever PVF Championship in May 2024. Head suited up for the Atlanta Vibe in 26 matches in the 2025 season and has renewed a contract with the team for 2026.

In 2022, the Hogs began the year on a great note as they defeated the No. 8 Washington Huskies 3-1 at Barnhill Arena on Aug. 25. Arkansas won six of its next seven after that and re-entered the AVCA Coaches Poll for the first time in seven years on Sept. 13.

The Razorbacks hosted No. 7 Georgia Tech later that week and took down the Yellow Jackets 3-1 for their highest ranked win since 2007. It marked the first time ever that Arkansas had two top 10 wins in a season, and surged the Hogs to No. 20 in the coaches poll, their highest ranking since 1999.

Arkansas continued to roll and finished the regular season 20-8, the team's second consecutive 20-win season. Their hard work paid off as the Razorbacks were selected for the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2013, and the first time in Watson's tenure at Arkansas. The Hogs took down Utah State 3-0 in round one, their first NCAA win since 2005. They were defeated by the Oregon Ducks in round two, bringing the season record to 21-9.

The Razorbacks had two All-SEC selections in Jill Gillen and Taylor Head, and the pair was also named AVCA All-South Region. Head garnered AVCA All-America Honorable Mention status to round out postseason accolades. Both Gillen and Head had tremendous seasons for the Hogs. Gillen entered the top five in program career kills and currently sits in fourth with 1,548, while Head became the 18th member of the Arkansas 1,000-kill club on Nov. 25, 2022. Setter Gracie Ryan concluded her Arkansas career in 2022 and finished with 3,470 assists, good for fourth in program history.

The 2021 slate marked Watson's first postseason appearance at Arkansas, as the team accepted a bid to the National Invitational Volleyball Championship (NIVC), in which the Hogs finished in the quarterfinals. The team posted a 20-11 overall record, its first 20-win season since 2012 and the most regular season wins since 2018. The Hogs led the SEC in service aces with 1.61 per set, and came within the top five in kills, assists, and digs.

Jill Gillen and Courtney Jackson earned All-SEC and All-SEC Freshman Team honors and Gillen and Gracie Ryan landed on the AVCA All-South Region rosters. Gillen also received SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year designation for the second time.

In his fifth season as skipper in the 2020-21 split season, Watson led the Razorbacks to 14 conference wins. He was honored with his first-ever SEC Coach of the Year award as Gillen was named SEC Scholar-Athlete of the Year and Taylor Head was named SEC Freshman of the Year. Gillen and Head also earned a spot on the All-SEC team and All-SEC Freshman Team respectively and went on to earn AVCA All-South Region recognition as well.

In 2019, the Razorbacks were predicted to finish two spots higher in the SEC than where they finished in 2018 – in large part due to their freshman class. They went on to help Arkansas finish the 2019 season at 11-17, which included a three-match winning streak to close out the home slate. Gillen led the league's freshmen in kills per set (3.74) and ranked seventh among all players.

In his second season, Watson oversaw a 10-win improvement from the previous year with the Razorbacks finishing the 2017 campaign with a 19-11 overall record, 9-9 mark in SEC play, and a No. 47 final RPI ranking.

Individually, senior Pilar Victoria led the NCAA with 5.47 kills per set and 6.08 points per set and earned AVCA All-America Honorable Mention and All-SEC honors. Additionally, she and setter Rachel Rippee collected AVCA All-South Region Honorable Mention accolades.

The Razorbacks matched their SEC output from the previous season with a 7-11 mark in league play during Watson's first year in 2016, including six wins in their last nine matches of the year. Individually, senior Danielle Harbin emerged to finish third in the SEC with 4.22 kills per set on her way to AVCA All-South Region honors.

In eight years in Tempe, Ariz., Watson transformed ASU Volleyball from a perennial sub-.500 program into a postseason regular. In his last four seasons, the Sun Devils averaged more than 19 wins per season with four straight NCAA Tournament bids. He also coached a pair of All-Americans for ASU's first national honorees since 2000, and led the Sun Devils to a national ranking of as high as No. 5.

In June 2015, Watson was selected by USA Volleyball to serve as the head coach of the U.S. Collegiate National Team on a six-match tour of China.

In his three seasons at the helm of the BYU program, Watson compiled a 74-18 (.804) overall record while leading BYU to three-straight NCAA Tournament appearances. During his first season as head coach, Watson was named Mountain West Conference Coach of the Year after leading his team to a 25-4 record, the program's best mark since 1998. In 2007, he led the Cougars to a 24-8 overall record and an Elite Eight finish.

Watson previously amassed 11 years as an assistant coach at four universities. After an All-American playing career at BYU, Watson coached for two years under his former coach, Carl McGown, before beginning his career in women's volleyball with extremely successful stints at Kansas State, Arkansas State, and Montana State.

Watson was a four-year starter at BYU from 1990-1994 and two-time captain. He graduated from BYU in 1995 with a degree in physical education and sports business management after leaving his native home of Homebush, Australia.

He and his wife, Larissa, have two sons and a daughter.
